The Purchaser has its principal address outside the United States and was located outside the United States at the time any offer to buy the Notes was made to the Purchaser and at the time that this Note Purchase Agreement is executed by the Purchaser.

(2) The execution, delivery and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement by the Purchaser are within the powers of the Purchaser, have been duly authorized and will not constitute or result in a breach or default under or conflict with any order, ruling or regulation of any court or other tribunal or of any governmental commission or agency, or any agreement or other undertaking, to which the Purchaser is a party or by which the Purchaser is bound, and will not violate any provisions of such entity’s organizational documents, including, without limitation, its incorporation or formation papers, bylaws, indenture of trust or partnership or operating agreement, as may be applicable. The signature on this Note Purchase Agreement is genuine, and the signatory has been duly authorized to execute the same, and this Note Purchase Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(3) It is not and, for so long as the Purchaser owns the Notes, will not be acting on behalf of: (a) an “employee benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”)), which is subject to Title I of ERISA, (b) a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code, (c) an entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of a plan’s investment in such entity (including but not limited to an insurance company general account), or (d) an entity that otherwise constitutes a “benefit plan investor” within the meaning of the Department of Labor Regulation Section 2510.3-101 (29 C.F.R. (4) in making the decision to purchase the Notes, it has relied solely upon the independent investigation made by it and an independent assessment of the merits and risks of an investment in the Notes, and such decision to purchase Notes was formed based on such independent investigation of the Company, the Guarantors and the Notes, and such independent assessment of the merits and risks of an investment in the Notes.

COVENANTS

SECTION 7.01. Payment of Principal and Interest Under the Notes.

(a) The Company shall punctually pay the principal of and interest on the Notes on the dates and in the manner set forth herein and as provided in the Notes. By 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), no later than one Business Day prior to any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, to the extent such amount is payable in cash, GLAI shall irrevocably deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Paying Agent (unless the Paying Agent is GLAI) money sufficient to pay such principal and interest subject to the terms set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(b) The Company shall pay interest on overdue principal or installments of interest, to the extent lawful, at the rate borne by the Notes plus 2.00% per annum pursuant to the terms set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(c) No interest shall be payable hereunder in excess of the maximum rate permitted by applicable Law.

SECTION 7.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency. The Company shall maintain an office or agency where Notes may be (i) presented or surrendered for payment or (ii) presented for exchange for cash and where notices and demands to or upon the Company in respect of the Notes and this Note Purchase Agreement may be served. If at any time the Company shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at the Company’s Office.

SECTION 7.03. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

(a) For so long as the Company acts as Paying Agent, it shall, when electing to pay interest using cash, no later than one Business Day prior to each Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, as applicable, segregate and hold in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest so becoming due until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided.

(b) Whenever the Company shall have one or more Paying Agents for the Notes, it shall, no later than one Business Day prior to each Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, irrevocably deposit with a Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such principal or interest.

(c) Each Paying Agent, subject to the provisions of this Section 7.03, shall:

(1) hold all sums held by it for the payment of principal or premium, if any, of or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as set forth herein; provided, however, such sums need not be segregated from other funds held by it, except as required by Law; and

(2) at any time during the continuance of any Default by the Company, upon the written request of the Holders, forthwith pay to the Holders all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent.

(d) The Company shall cause each Paying Agent to execute and deliver an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Company to act as a Paying Agent in accordance with this Section 7.03, except in case the Paying Agent is the Company or an Affiliate of the Company.

(e) Any money and Preferred Shares held by any Paying Agent (other than GLAI), in trust for the payment of principal of, accrued and unpaid interest on or the consideration due upon exchange of any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, interest or consideration due upon exchange has become due and payable shall be paid to GLAI at the written request of GLAI, or (if then held by GLAI) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to GLAI for payment thereof, and all liability of GLAI as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 7.04. Maintenance of Corporate Existence. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain in effect its corporate existence and all registrations necessary therefor; provided that these restrictions shall not prohibit any transactions permitted by Article 8; (ii) not amend, supplement, waive or otherwise modify certain specified provisions of the documents relating to each of the Guarantors' or its Subsidiaries' rights or benefits under its respective organizational documents without the prior written consent of the Purchaser, and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, as the case may be, if such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification would materially adversely affect the rights of the Purchaser, or of the then holders of this Note; (iii) not change its corporate form; (iv) take all reasonable actions to maintain all rights, privileges, titles to property, franchises and the like necessary in the normal conduct of its business, activities or operations; and (v) maintain or cause to be maintained in good repair, working order and condition (normal wear and tear excepted) all properties used in its business; provided, however, that neither GLAI nor its Subsidiaries shall be prevented from discontinuing those operations (including through the transfer or dissolution of a Subsidiary) or suspending the maintenance of those properties (including through the sale thereof) which, in the reasonable judgment of GLAI, are no longer necessary in the conduct of GLAI's business, or that of its Subsidiaries; and provided, further, that such discontinuation of operations or suspension of maintenance shall not be materially disadvantageous to the Holders and such operations shall not represent more than 3.5% of the aggregate consolidated gross revenues of GLAI and its Subsidiaries for the most recent fiscal year.

SECTION 7.05. Payment of Taxes and Claims. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, pay all taxes, assessments and other governmental charges imposed upon it or any of its property or in respect of any of its franchises, businesses, income or profits before any penalty or interest accrues thereon, and pay all claims (including claims for labor, services, materials and supplies) for sums which have become due and payable and which by Law have or might become a Lien upon its property, unless the failure to make such payment could have: (a) a Material Adverse Effect upon the financial condition of (i) the Company or (ii) the GLAI Group considered as one enterprise, or (b) a Material Adverse Effect on the performance of the Company's or GLAI's obligations hereunder; and provided, further, that no such charge or claim need be paid while it is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and if appropriate reserves or other provisions are maintained in respect of such amounts in accordance with IFRS.

SECTION 7.06. Payment of Additional Amounts. (a) All payments by GLAI in respect of the Notes or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) in respect of the Note Guaranties or of cash and/or deliveries of Preferred Shares (together with payments of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) upon exchange, will be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments, or other governmental charges of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Brazil or Luxembourg, or any political subdivision or authority therein or thereof or any other jurisdiction in which any officer of the Company, the Company or any Guarantor is organized, doing business or otherwise subject to the power to tax (any of the aforementioned being a "Taxing Jurisdiction"), unless the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) are compelled by Law to deduct or withhold such taxes, duties, assessments, or governmental charges. In such event, the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will make such deduction or withholding, and the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will timely make payment of the full amount so withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority and pay such additional amounts as may be necessary to ensure that the net amounts received by Holders after such withholding or deduction has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 7.06) shall equal the respective amounts of principal (and premium, if any) and interest which would have been receivable in respect of the Notes or the payment of cash and/or delivery of Preferred Shares (together with payment in cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) in the absence of such withholding or deduction

(1) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of the existence of any present or former connection between such Holder and the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, including, without limitation, such Holder being or having been a citizen or resident thereof, being incorporated in, being or having been engaged in a trade or business or present therein or having, or having had, a permanent establishment therein, other than connections arising from such Holder having executed, delivered, become a party to, performed its obligations under, received payments under, received or perfected a security interest under, engaged in any other transaction pursuant to or enforced this Note Purchase Agreement, sold or assigned an interest in this Note Purchase Agreement or holding of the Note and the receipt of payments with respect to the Note;

(2) in respect of Notes surrendered or presented for payment (if surrender or presentment is required) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that payments under such Note would have been subject to withholdings and the Holder of such Note would have been entitled to such Additional Amounts, had the Note been surrendered for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days;

(3) in respect of any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, excise or personal property tax;

(4) in respect of any tax imposed on overall net income or any branch profits tax of a Holder;

(5) in respect of any tax imposed pursuant to sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code, any successor Law or regulation implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such sections provided, however, that such Law or regulation is substantively comparable and not materially more onerous to comply with, or any intergovernmental agreement in respect thereof or any agreement entered into pursuant to section 1471(b)(1) of the Code;

(6) in respect of the Relibi Law; or

(7) in respect of any combination of the above.

(b) In the event that Additional Amounts actually paid with respect to the Notes are based on rates of deduction or withholding of withholding taxes in excess of the appropriate rate applicable to the Holder of such Notes, and, as a result thereof such Holder determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of withholding taxes as to which it has received Additional Amounts, it shall pay to the Company an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of Additional Amounts received with respect to the withholding taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including taxes) of such Holder and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). The Company, upon the request of the Holder, shall repay to such

Holder the amount paid over pursuant to this paragraph (b) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such Holder is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (b), in no event will the Holder be required to pay any amount to the Company pursuant to this paragraph (b) the payment of which would place the Holder in a less favorable net after-tax position than the Holder would have been in if the tax subject to Additional Amounts and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the Additional Amounts had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any Holder to make available its tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes that it deems confidential) to the Company or any other Person. The Holder makes no representation or warranty that the Company will be entitled to receive such claim for refund or credit and incurs no other obligation (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any filing or other action) with respect thereto.

(c) The Notes are subject in all cases to any tax, fiscal or other Law or regulation or administrative or judicial interpretation. Except as specifically provided above, neither the Company nor the Guarantors shall be required to make a payment with respect to any tax, assessment or governmental charge imposed by any government or a political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not pay (and shall not purport to indemnify the Holder for) any stamp, issue, registration, court or documentary taxes or any excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies (including any penalties, interest and other liabilities relating thereto) that may arise or be paid in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes.

(e) Any reference in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes to principal, interest or any other amount payable in respect of the Notes by the Company or any of the Note Guaranties by the Guarantors, or the payment of cash and/or the delivery of Preferred Shares by the Company (together with payment of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share), will be deemed also to refer to any Additional Amount, unless the context requires otherwise, that may be payable with respect to that amount under the obligations referred to in this Section.

(f) The obligations of the Company and the Guarantors pursuant to this Section 7.06 shall survive termination of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.07. Collateral and Liens.

(a) Subject to Sections 5.03, 7.07(b) and 7.07(c), the Notes Obligations shall be secured by a first priority Lien granted by the Guarantors in the Collateral to Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The Company and the Guarantors shall not directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien on any of the Collateral, other than (i) the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and (ii) a Lien that is junior in priority to the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and which is subject to a subordination agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F.

(b) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur or permit to exist any Lien of any nature whatsoever on any of the Collateral, except for the first priority Lien in the Collateral granted by the Guarantors pursuant to Section 7.07(a) above and the Collateral Documents, provided however, that the Company and the Guarantors may, without requiring any resolution, approval or consent from the Purchaser or the Collateral Agent, and without implying breach of any representation, warranty or obligation assumed under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, constitute in favor of any creditors a collateral security under suspensive condition on the Collateral (whether senior or junior), provided that the effectiveness of such collateral security is conditioned upon the indefeasible payment in full or satisfaction of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes (“Future Lien”).

(c) The Company shall ensure that the Lien in the Collateral is duly created, enforceable and perfected, to the extent required by the Collateral Documents. The Guarantors shall:

(1) in relation to the GLA’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement and IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, as the case may be, (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of such Collateral Document, register the Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and, (ii) (A) in relation to the GLA’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, no later than fifteen (15) days after the date of such registration and, (B) in relation to the IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, no later than fifteen (15) days after the date of such registration and the fulfilment of the suspensive condition set forth in IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, deliver to the Collateral Agent evidence that the request for annotation of the security interest in the Collateral has been filed with the Brazilian National Institute of Industrial Property (Instituto Nacional da Propriedade Industrial);

(2) in relation to the GLA’s Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo’s Shares Agreement (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of such Collateral Document, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and (ii) within seven (7) business days from the date of execution of such Collateral Document annotate the fiduciary transfer in IPCO’s shares register book (Livro de Registro de Ações Nominativas);

(3) in relation to the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 IP Collateral (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 IP Collateral, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and, (ii) no later than ten (10) days after the date of such registration, deliver to the Collateral Agent evidence that the request for annotation of the security interest in the Collateral has been filed with the Brazilian National Institute of Industrial Property (Instituto Nacional da Propriedade Industrial); and

(4) in relation to the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Spare Parts Collateral no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Spare Parts Collateral, register such Collateral

Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil.

(d) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly (i) take any action with the purpose of depreciating the Collateral, (ii) dispose of, assign, transfer, sell or lease the Collateral to any third party or (iii) execute nor authorize the execution of any agreement which could restrict or reduce the rights or the ability of the Secured Parties to sell or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, in part or in full.

(e) The Company and the Guarantors undertake to, and agree that, they will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, take any action, or cause or contribute for any action to be taken, to (i) contest or in any way impair or harm the Collateral; (ii) interfere with the Secured Parties' right to enforce, sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of the Collateral upon the occurrence of an Event of Default; (iii) diminish, demean, tarnish or dilute the value, distinctiveness, fame, enforceability, validity of, or goodwill associated with, the Collateral; (iv) challenge the enforceability or the validity of the Collateral, (v) use, assign, transfer, convey, sell, dispose, disclose, make available or publish any trade secret, know-how, source code or any kind of confidential information related to the Collateral, or (vi) use or apply for any trademark registration or use any trade address that are identical or similar, in phonetical, graphical or ideological manner, to the Collateral.

(f) By their purchase and acceptance of the Notes, the Holders hereby agree that they are bound and that such purchase and acceptance constitutes the authorization and direction to the Collateral Agent to act as collateral agent for the benefit, and in representation, of the Holders, and to execute and deliver this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party. It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Collateral Agent is not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to it under this Note Purchase Agreement (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

SECTION 7.08. Certain Assurances.

(a) On the Initial Closing Date, the Purchaser, the Collateral Agent and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall receive an Opinion of Counsel from Lefosse Advogados, as Brazilian counsel to the Company and the Guarantors, in form and substance satisfactory to the Purchaser, to the effect that, subject to certain exceptions and qualifications, the GLA's Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, the GLA's Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo's Shares Agreement and the amendments to the GOL Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Collateral have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, which will be enforceable against GLA and/or GLAI in accordance with its terms and with Section 7.07(c).

(b) Each of GLA and GLAI shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to maintain the Collateral Documents to which it is a party in full force and effect and enforceable, in accordance with their terms, and to maintain and preserve the Lien created by the Collateral Documents, in accordance with their terms, and the priority thereof, including (A) making filings and recordations, (B) making payments of fees and other charges on a timely basis, (C) issuing and, if necessary, filing or recording supplemental documentation, including continuation statements, (D) discharging all claims or other Liens adversely affecting the rights of any Secured Party in any Collateral, (E) publishing or otherwise delivering notice to third parties, (F) depositing title documents, (G) amending any Collateral Document to the extent required by applicable Law and (H) taking all other actions either necessary or otherwise requested by the Purchaser to ensure that all Collateral is subject to a valid and enforceable first-priority Lien in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, GLA and GLAI shall ensure that all of the Collateral intended to be subject to the Lien granted by the Collateral Documents shall become subject to such Lien having the priority contemplated pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. Moreover, for the avoidance of any doubt, the Collateral Agent has no obligation, liability or responsibility to monitor or ensure that GLA and/or GLAI, as the case may be, maintain such Lien and shall assume that GLA and GLAI are in full compliance with their obligations in connection therewith.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in applicable Law, the Collateral Agent shall not have any responsibility or liability, among other things as set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, for (1) acting or refraining from acting based on any unlawful, ambiguous or inaccurate instruction, notice, demand, notification or other document pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents; (2) any loss or claim resulting from any act or omission, directly or indirectly, except if otherwise determined in a final nonappealable decision by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Collateral Agent was grossly negligent; (3) any loss of profits, indirect, consequential, incidental, special, punitive or related losses and/or damages even if previously advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage; (4) preparing, recording or filing any financing or continuation statements or recording or filing any instrument in any public office or for otherwise ensuring the perfection or maintenance of any Lien granted pursuant to, or contemplated by, this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or the existence and enforceability of any insurance on the Collateral; (5) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against any parties with respect to the Collateral; (6) taking any action to protect against any diminution in value of the Collateral; (7) errors in judgment that do not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction; (8) the Company's and the Guarantors' compliance with any of the covenants set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, including but not limited to, covenants regarding the granting, perfection or maintenance of any Lien; (9) the market value of the Collateral or its sufficiency to satisfy in full payments due on the Notes Obligations; (10) the accuracy of any representation or warranty of the Company or Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by the Collateral Agent; or (11) the effectiveness, genuineness, sufficiency, legality, validity and enforceability of any Lien, security interest, Collateral, this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or title, transfer or assignment of any Collateral.

SECTION 7.09. Release of Collateral. Subject to, and to the extent permitted under, the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Company and the Guarantors shall be entitled to the release of the Collateral from the Lien securing the Notes Obligations under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, if at any time the Collateral Agent, acting in accordance, exclusively and strictly, with instructions provided by the Purchaser (at the direction of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders), forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against the Collateral resulting in the sale or disposition thereof;
- (ii) as described and pursuant to Article 10; or
- (iii) upon payment in full of the principal of, together with all accrued and unpaid interest on, the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

in each case, (i) so long as no Default or Event of Default will exist immediately after such release, as applicable; and (ii) provided the Collateral Agent shall have received an Officer's Certificate certifying, and Opinion of Counsel stating, that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the release of Collateral pursuant to this Section 7.09 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document requested by the Company or any Guarantor to evidence such release of the Collateral (A) without any consent of the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes, the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, the Holders or the Purchaser, (B) based solely on the Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 7.09 and (C) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent);

provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents shall terminate in respect of the Notes on the Stated Maturity, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exist Notes Obligations due and payable on that date, in which case the Lien in the Collateral shall terminate upon satisfaction of such Notes Obligations, all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes. Upon termination of the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents in respect of the Notes Obligations, the Collateral shall be released in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement to the Company and the Guarantors, and the Company and the Guarantors shall thereupon grant a Lien in such Collateral in respect of any outstanding obligations under the Abra Notes.

SECTION 7.10. Maintenance of Collateral. The Company and the Guarantors shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, at all times, preserve the Collateral for the benefit of the Secured Parties, not permit the value of the Collateral to be impaired, keep the Collateral free from all Liens or encumbrances other than the Liens and the Future Liens in the Collateral, and maintain the Collateral in accordance with applicable Law and regulations.

SECTION 7.11. Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates.

Each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not directly or indirectly, enter into, renew or extend any transaction or arrangement including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of property or assets, or the rendering thereof of any service with any Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary (a “Related-Party Transaction”), except upon fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or the Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm’s-length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

(a) Prior to entering into any Related-Party Transaction or series of Related-Party Transactions (i) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$10.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary must deliver to the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer stating that such Related-Party Transaction complies with this covenant, (ii) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$20.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the terms of such Related-Party Transaction will be approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, GLAI or of such Subsidiary (including a majority of the members of the Board of Directors who are disinterested directors with respect to such Related-Party Transaction), the approval to be evidenced by a board resolution that such transaction or series of related transactions are on terms no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm’s length transaction and satisfy the requirement in clause (i) and (iii) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$40.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary shall deliver to the Purchaser and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes a written opinion issued by an investment bank of recognized international standing that such Related-Party Transaction is fair to the Guarantor or the relevant Subsidiary from a financial point of view and satisfy the requirements in clause (i) and clause (ii) hereof.

(b) The foregoing paragraphs do not apply to:

- (i) arm’s length transactions in the ordinary course among and between any of the Company, the Guarantors, Avianca Group International Limited and any of their respective Subsidiaries provided, that any such transaction conducted by any of the Guarantors’ shareholders indirectly through any of these entities shall not be exempt from the limitations in this Section 7.11;
- (ii) any transaction among and between any of the Company, the Guarantors, Avianca Group International Limited and any of their respective Subsidiaries for the purpose of managing and paying taxes imminently due and owing by the foregoing parties to any Governmental Authority;
- (iii) any transaction in the ordinary course of business between or among the Company, GLAI and any of its Subsidiaries or between or among the Subsidiaries of GLAI;

- (iv) reasonable fees and compensation paid to, and any customary indemnity or insurance provided on behalf of, officers, directors, employees, consultants or agents of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries;
- (v) transactions or payments pursuant to any employee, consultant, officer or director compensation or benefit or equity plans, stock options or arrangements entered into in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, customary indemnifications or arrangements or reimbursement of expenses entered into in the ordinary course of business, on market terms and consistent with past practice or industry norms;
- (vi) transactions pursuant to any contract or agreement in effect on the Initial Closing Date, as amended, modified or replaced from time to time so long as the amended, modified or new agreements, taken as a whole, are no less favorable to the Company, GLAI and its Subsidiaries than those in effect on the Initial Closing Date;
- (vii) loans and advances to employees in the ordinary course of business or consistent with past practices; and
- (viii) Restricted Payments that are permitted by the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.12. Limitation on Sale of Assets. Subject to Section 7.07(d), each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not make any Asset Sales and not permit any of its Subsidiaries to make any Asset Sales, unless:

- (i) the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, receives consideration at the time of such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value as of the date on which such assets sold or otherwise disposed of;
- (ii) at least 75% of the consideration consists of cash or cash equivalent received at closing, provided that, for purposes of this clause (ii), each of the following shall be deemed cash or cash equivalent: (A) any liabilities of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets pursuant to a customary novation agreement that releases the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from further liability; and (B) any securities notes or other obligations received by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from such transferee that are, within 120 days after the closing of such Asset Sale, converted by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary into cash or cash equivalent, but only to the extent of the cash or cash equivalent actually received in that conversion;
- (iii) Within 360 days after the receipt of any Net Cash Proceeds from an Asset Sale, the Net Cash Proceeds may be used to:

(A) to permanently repay Debt, other than Subordinated Obligations, of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries (and in the case of a revolving credit, permanently reduce the commitment thereunder by such amount), in each case owing to a Person other than the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries; or

If an Event of Default specified in Section 9.01(g), 9.01(h) or 9.01(i) occurs and is continuing, then the principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on all Notes of shall become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or notice or other act on the part of any Holder.

At any time after a declaration of acceleration with respect to the Notes has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained as hereinafter provided in this Article, the Majority Holders by written notice to the Company may rescind or annul such declaration if:

(1) the Company has paid or deposited a sum sufficient to pay (A) all overdue interest on Outstanding Notes, (B) all unpaid principal of the Notes that has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, (C) to the extent that payment of such interest on the Notes is lawful, interest on such overdue interest (including any Additional Amounts) as provided herein and (D) all sums paid or advanced by the Agents and the Collateral Agent hereunder and under the Collateral Documents and the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements, indemnities and advances of the Agents, the Collateral Agent and their agents and counsel; and

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 9.03. Applicable Premium. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that if the Notes are accelerated or otherwise become due prior to their Stated Maturity, in each case, in respect of any Event of Default, the Applicable Premium shall also be due and payable in cash to the Holders and shall constitute part of the obligations payable to the Holders in view of the impracticability and extreme difficulty of ascertaining actual damages and by mutual agreement of the parties as to a reasonable calculation of each Holder's loss as a result thereof. If the Applicable Premium becomes due and payable, the principal of the Notes and interest shall accrue on the full principal amount of the Notes (including the Applicable Premium) from and after the applicable triggering event. Any premium payable above shall be presumed to be the liquidated damages sustained by each Holder as the result of the acceleration of the Notes. The Company expressly waives (to the fullest extent it may lawfully do so) the provisions of any present or future statute or law that prohibits or may prohibit the collection of the Applicable Premium in connection with any such acceleration. The Company and each Guarantor hereby agree that the Applicable Premium shall also be payable, without limitation, in any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization or similar proceeding with respect to creditor's rights in any jurisdiction, and shall not contest in any manner the payment thereof in any such circumstance.

SECTION 9.04. Subrogation Rights. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the Abra Holders shall be express third-party beneficiaries to, and shall have all the rights of a third-party beneficiary to, this Note Purchase Agreement. Other than as expressly provided in the preceding sentence, in no event shall the Abra Holders have any right to direct or instruct the Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent is not an agent for the Abra Holders and has no obligation, duty, liability or responsibility to such Abra Holders.

SECTION 9.05. Application of Money Collected. Any money collected by the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Article 9 or the Collateral Documents shall be applied in order set forth below:

THIRD, the balance, if any, after all of the Notes Obligations have been paid in full in cash, to the Company and its successors or assigns, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

The Company may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 9.05.

SECTION 9.06. Limitation on Suits. A Holder may not pursue any remedy with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents unless:

- (1) the Holder has previously given to the Collateral Agent written notice stating that an Event of Default with respect the Notes has occurred and is continuing;
- (2) the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes have made a written request to the Collateral Agent to pursue the remedy in respect of such Event of Default;
- (3) such Holder or Holders has offered and provided to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against any cost, loss, liability or expense to be incurred in compliance with such request;
- (4) the Collateral Agent does not comply with the request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer and provision of security or indemnity; and

(5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Collateral Agent during such 60-day period by the Purchaser.

SECTION 9.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Collateral Agent (as directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as provided in this Note Purchase Agreement) or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 9.09. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 9 or by Law to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Holders.

SECTION 9.10. Control by Holders. The Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) may direct in writing the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Company or the Collateral Agent or of exercising any power conferred on the Collateral Agent. However, the Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request or direction of any Holders if such request or direction conflicts with any Law or with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or may expose the Collateral Agent to liability. Prior to taking any action under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to indemnification satisfactory to the Collateral Agent in its sole discretion against all costs, losses, liabilities and expenses that might be caused by taking or not taking such action.

SECTION 9.11. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes in Section 4.08, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Holders or the Purchaser, as the case may be, is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by Law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at Law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 9.12. Waiver of Past Defaults and Events of Default. The Purchaser with the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) by written notice to the Company may waive an existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences. SECTION 9.13. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Company and the Guarantors covenant (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that they shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension Law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents; and the Company and the Guarantors (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such Law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Collateral Agent, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such Law had been enacted.

SECTION 10.02. With Consent of Holders. Except as specified in Section 10.01, the Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent (at the direction of the Purchaser) and the Majority Holders may amend or supplement this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents only with the prior written consent of the Purchaser and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents or modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents and the Purchaser may, with the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, except as set forth below, waive any past Default or Event of Default or compliance with any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement; provided, however, that, without the consent of each Holder affected or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, an amendment or waiver may not:

In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing (and except as provided for in Section 7.09), without the prior written consent of the Purchaser and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, no amendment, supplement or waiver may release any portion of the Collateral or permit or suffer to exist any Lien therein other than to secure the Notes Obligations unless otherwise expressly permitted in this Note Purchase Agreement and/or the Collateral Documents.

The Company shall give to Holders and Abra Notes Supermajority Holders prior written notice of any amendment or waiver proposed to be adopted under this Section 10.02. In addition, the Company or the applicable Guarantor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent (if the Collateral Agent is a party thereto) an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer’s Certificate, each stating that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the execution and delivery of such amendment, supplement or waiver pursuant to this Section 10.02 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document pursuant to this Section 10.02 requested by the Company or any Guarantor (A) based solely on the Officer’s Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 10.02 and (B) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent).

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders or Abra Notes Supermajority Holders under this Section 10.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment or waiver, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

After an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02 becomes effective, the Company shall give to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment or waiver. The failure to give such notice to all Holders and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02.

SECTION 10.03. Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. (a) A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Note or portion of the Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Note. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Note or portion of the Note if the Company receives the written notice of revocation at least one Business Day prior to the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After it becomes effective, an amendment or waiver shall bind every Holder.

(b) The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above in accordance with Section 14.01. ARTICLE 11

NOTE GUARANTIES

SECTION 11.01. The Note Guaranties. Subject to the provisions of this Article, GLAI and GLA hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee (the "Note Guaranties"), on a secured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations; provided, however, that upon release of the Collateral in accordance with Section 7.09 GLA and GLAI shall guarantee, on an unsecured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations. Upon failure by the Company to pay punctually any such amount, the Guarantors shall forthwith on demand pay the amount not so paid at the place and in the manner specified in this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 11.02. Guaranty Unconditional. The obligations of the Guarantors hereunder are unconditional and absolute and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, will not be released, discharged or otherwise affected by:

- (1) any extension, renewal, settlement, compromise, waiver or release in respect of any obligation of the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, by operation of Law or otherwise;
- (2) any modification or amendment of or supplement to this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (3) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of the Company, or any insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting the Company or its assets or any resulting release or discharge of any obligation of the Company contained in this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (4) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights which the Guarantors may have at any time against the Company or any other Person, whether in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or any unrelated transactions; provided that nothing herein prevents the assertion of any such claim by separate suit or compulsory counterclaim;
- (5) any invalidity or unenforceability relating to or against the Company for any reason of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, or any provision of applicable Law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Company of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement; or
- (6) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by the Company or any other Person or any other circumstance whatsoever which might, but for the provisions of this paragraph, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of or defense to the Guarantors' obligations hereunder.

SECTION 11.03. Discharge; Reinstatement. The Guarantors' obligations hereunder will remain in full force and effect until the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes and all other amounts payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement have been paid in full. If at any time any payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement is rescinded or must be otherwise restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company or otherwise, the Guarantors' obligations hereunder with respect to such payment will be reinstated as though such payment had been due but not made at such time.

SECTION 11.04. Waiver by the Guarantors. Each of the Guarantors irrevocably waives acceptance hereof, presentment, demand, protest and any notice not provided for herein, as well as any requirement that at any time any action be taken by any Person against the Company or any other Person.

SECTION 11.05. Subrogation and Contribution. Upon making any payment with respect to any obligation of the Company under this Article, the Guarantor making such payment will be subrogated to the rights of the payee against the Company with respect to such obligation, limited to the amount of the payment or delivery made by such Guarantor (“Subrogation Rights”). The Guarantor hereby irrevocably agrees that the Subrogation Rights may be used at all times by the Guarantors to set-off amounts owed by the Guarantors to the Guarantor under the Notes and the GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028.

SECTION 11.06. Stay of Acceleration. If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement are nonetheless payable by the Guarantors hereunder forthwith on demand by the Holders.

SECTION 11.07. Limitation on Amount of Guaranty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article, each of the Guarantors, and by its acceptance of Notes, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Note Guaranty of each Guarantor does not constitute a fraudulent conveyance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law. To effectuate that intention, the Holders and each of the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of each Guarantor under its respective Note Guaranty are limited to the maximum amount that would not render the Guarantors’ obligations subject to avoidance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law.

SECTION 11.08. Execution and Delivery of Guaranty. The execution by each of the Guarantors of this Note Purchase Agreement on each Closing Date evidences the respective Note Guaranty of each Guarantor, whether or not the person signing as an Officer of such Guarantor still holds that office at the time of execution of any Note.

SECTION 11.09. Release of Guaranty. The Note Guaranty of each of the Guarantors will terminate upon a sale or other disposition (including by way of consolidation or merger) of such Guarantor or the sale or disposition of all or substantially all the assets of such Guarantor (in each case other than to the Company or a Subsidiary) otherwise permitted by this Note Purchase Agreement.

Upon delivery by the Company to the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent of an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all of the conditions provided in this Note Purchase Agreement to the release and termination of the Note Guaranty have been satisfied, the Purchaser will execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company in writing in order to evidence the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Note Guaranty.

COLLATERAL AGENT

SECTION 12.01. Appointment. Each of the Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as the agent of such Secured Parties under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which it is a party and authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms hereof or thereof. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term “agent” herein or in the Collateral Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary duty or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties. The Company agrees to pay to the Collateral Agent such fees and expenses (including counsels’ fees and expenses) of the Collateral Agent as may be separately agreed in writing and pursuant to the terms of Section 12.04. For the avoidance of any doubt and for the purposes of this Article 12, this Note Purchase Agreement shall prevail in the case of any conflicts between any Collateral Document and this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 12.02. Exculpatory Provisions. (a) The Collateral Agent shall have no duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, and no duty, liability or obligation shall be inferred or implied against the Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, (i) the Collateral Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duty, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and persists; (ii) the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to perform any discretionary act or exercise any discretionary powers (by consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval, notice, request or other communication, or other instruction given or act to be performed or to be (or not) suffered or omitted by the Collateral Agent, or any option, decision, opinion, acceptance, exercise of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other discretionary exercise, rights or remedies to be exercised (or not) by the Collateral Agent); (iii) except as expressly provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the non-disclosure of, any information concerning the Company or any Guarantor or any of their Subsidiaries which is communicated to or obtained by the Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity; and (iv) the Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to perform any act which, in its opinion or in the opinion of its attorney, may expose the Collateral Agent to liability or otherwise contrary to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or applicable Law, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any act that may be in violation of automatic suspension under any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect or that may cause the Company's assets to lapse, change or be closed in violation of any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the written consent or at the written request, written instruction or written direction of the Purchaser, the Majority Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders (or such other requisite percentage of Holders as may be specified), as applicable, or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment.

(c) The Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, unless and until written notice by the Purchaser (a copy of which shall be delivered by the Purchaser to the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) describing such event is received by a Responsible Officer of the Collateral Agent, referring to this Note Purchase Agreement and such Default or Event of Default.

(d) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for or have any duty to prove or investigate, or otherwise have any obligation or liability with respect to, (i) any representation or warranty provided in or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered under or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (iii) the performance or fulfillment of any of the obligations, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, efficacy or authenticity of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent.

(e) The Collateral Agent shall have the right to rely on, and shall not incur any liability for, any notification, request, certificate, consent, representation, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) considered by it to be authentic and having been signed or sent by a competent Person. The Collateral Agent may also rely on any statement given to it verbally or by telephone and deemed to have been given by the competent Person, and shall not incur any liability for it. The Collateral Agent may consult with counsel, independent auditors and other experts chosen by the Collateral Agent, at the Company's expense, and the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any act performed or not performed by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the advice of any said counsel, auditor or expert.

(f) The Collateral Agent may fulfill any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more subagents appointed by it, at the expense of the Company. The Collateral Agent and any subagent may fulfill any and all of their duties and exercise their rights and powers through their related parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article 12 shall apply to any such subagent as a third-party beneficiary to the extent applicable. The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the supervision, negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents that it selects with due care.

(g) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable and makes no representation as to the existence, authenticity, value or protection of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents, the security provided hereunder or thereunder or the Collateral, for the legality, effectiveness or sufficiency of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents nor for the creation, formalization, ranking, sufficiency or protection of any Liens constituted under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, no provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to prepare, file or record any financing statements or continuation statements or other instruments or documents, or to be responsible for maintaining the Liens and security interests to be created as described in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, and such responsibility shall be in charge exclusively of the Company. The Collateral Agent's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Collateral in its possession, if applicable, shall be to deal with it in the same manner as the Collateral Agent deals with similar property for the account of other customers in similar transactions. The Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of its rights and powers.

(h) In order to effect the transfer of any amounts received as a result of the enforcement of the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent may perform a foreign exchange transaction to convert into U.S. Dollars any amount in Reais resulting from such enforcement; except that possible deductions of any commissions or taxes charged on such foreign exchange transactions and/or any other withholding or charge levied on the corresponding payments may be applicable, and upon such deductions, the Collateral Agent will transfer the amounts in U.S. Dollars according to the instructions provided by any Holder. The Collateral Agent (a) will only be obliged to perform any foreign exchange transaction it may undertake as of the second (2nd) Brazilian Business Day after the Brazilian Business Day on which the Collateral Agent receives the applicable instructions and documents to perform such foreign exchange transaction; and (b) will not undertake to perform any foreign exchange transaction or transfer of funds, unless the Collateral Agent has received (i) all documents and information necessary for the remittance of funds in accordance with applicable foreign exchange regulations and (ii) the payment of the respective commissions, fees and expenses. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any losses or damages resulting from possible delays or impediments to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and/or transfer, nor as the impossibility to perform a foreign exchange transaction or transfer. The Collateral Agent shall not assume any liability to any Person with respect to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and the rates related to any foreign exchange transaction to be performed in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or with respect to the transfer of any funds as a result thereof.

(i) The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to spend or put at risk any of its own funds or otherwise incur any obligation or liability, financial or otherwise, in performing its duties or exercising its rights under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents.

(j) In no event shall the Collateral Agent be liable for special, indirect, punitive, consequential or unforeseen loss or damage of any nature (including lost profits) regardless of whether the Collateral Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(k) The Collateral Agent shall not incur any obligation for failure to perform any act or duty under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents by reason of any occurrence beyond its control (including any act or provision of any current or future Law, regulation, governmental authorization, any acts of God or war, civil conflict, local or national disturbance or disaster, any act of terrorism or the unavailability of an electronic or mechanical transfer or other transfer or communication resource from the Federal Reserve System or the Central Bank).

(l) The Collateral Agent shall have the right, unilaterally and without notice, to withdraw or fail to comply with any obligation that may result in a violation of sanctions imposed by the United States of America, the European Union, local embargo Laws and the Collateral Agent's internal policies with respect to embargoes ("Embargo Rules"). Violation of the Embargo Rules includes, among others, receiving or transferring funds to any legal entity, country or individual named on the Specially Designated Citizens List of the Office of Foreign Assets Control - OFAC or controlled by legal entities, countries or individuals on that list. The parties expressly agree that the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for the failure to effect and/or delay in the receipt or payment of any amount under the conditions described in this Section 12.02.

(m) Any and all payments by the Company and/or the Guarantors to or for the benefit of the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall be made free and clear, and without deduction, of any taxes, expenses or withholdings of any nature levied by the Brazilian government and/or any of its departments ("Deductions") and any other Taxing Jurisdiction, which taxes, expenses or withholdings shall be borne by the Company. If any Deductions apply to any payment, the Company and/or the Guarantors, as the case may be, will immediately pay to the account indicated by the Collateral Agent the additional amount necessary for the amount paid to the Collateral Agent to be equal to the amount it would have received without the applicable Deductions.

(n) Each Secured Party (other than the Collateral Agent) authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party on the date hereof on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(o) Notwithstanding any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to the contrary, before taking or omitting any action to be taken or omitted by the Collateral Agent under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Collateral Document, the Collateral Agent may seek the written direction of the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely (and shall be fully protected in so relying) upon such direction. The Collateral Agent is not liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in accordance with such direction. If the Collateral Agent requests such direction by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, with respect to any action, the Collateral Agent is entitled to refrain from such action unless and until the Collateral Agent has received such direction, and the Collateral Agent does not incur liability to any Person by reason of so refraining. If the Collateral Agent so requests, it must first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Purchaser or the Holders, as the case may be, against any and all fees, losses, liabilities and expenses which may be incurred by the Collateral Agent by reason of taking or continuing to take, or omitting, any action directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders. Any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents authorizing the Collateral Agent to take any action does not obligate the Collateral Agent to take such action. The Collateral Agent may refuse to perform any duty or exercise any right or power unless it receives indemnity or security satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in performing such duty or exercising such right or power. In the absence of an express statement in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents regarding which Holders shall direct in any circumstance, the direction of the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall apply and be sufficient for all purposes.

(p) Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under or pursuant to the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

(q) The Collateral Agent shall have no responsibility for interest or income on any funds held by it under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and any funds so held shall be held uninvested pending distribution thereof.

(r) The Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the duties or powers vested in it by this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request, order, instruction or direction of the Holders, unless the Holders shall have offered to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities that might be incurred thereby.

(s) The Collateral Agent may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Company or any Affiliate thereof as if the Collateral Agent were not an attorney-in-fact hereunder and without any duty to account therefore to the Secured Parties.

(t) The Secured Parties understand that the Collateral Agent, acting in its individual capacity, and its Affiliates may engage in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, financing, securities trading, corporate and investment banking and research) (the “Activities”) and may engage in the Activities with or on behalf of one or more of the Company and its respective Affiliates. Furthermore, the Collateral Agent may, in undertaking the Activities, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for its own account or on behalf of others (including the Company and its Affiliates and including holding, for its own account or on behalf of others, equity, debt and similar positions in the Company or its respective Affiliates), including trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, loans or other financial products of the Company or its Affiliates. The Secured Parties understand and agree that in engaging in the Activities, the Collateral Agent may receive or otherwise obtain information concerning the Company or its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its respective obligations hereunder and under the Collateral Documents) which information may not be available to the Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty to disclose to the Secured Parties or use on behalf of the Secured Parties, nor be liable for the failure to so disclose or use, any information whatsoever about or derived from the Activities or otherwise (including any information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of the Company or any of its Affiliates) or to account for any revenue or profits obtained in connection with the Activities.

(u) The Secured Parties further understand that there may be situations where members of the Collateral Agent's group or their respective customers (including the Company and its Affiliates) either now have or may in the future have interests or take actions that may conflict with the interests of any one or more of the Secured Parties (including the interests of the Secured Parties hereunder and under the Collateral Documents). None of (i) this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of information concerning the Company or any of its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement) or (iii) any other matter, shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including any duty of trust or confidence) owing by the Collateral Agent to any Secured Party including any such duty that would prevent or restrict the Collateral Agent from acting on behalf of customers (including the Company or its Affiliates) or for its own account.

(v) The Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) confirm to the Collateral Agent that each of them (i) possesses such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters so that it is capable, without reliance on such Collateral Agent, of evaluating the merits and risks (including tax, legal, regulatory, credit, accounting and other financial matters) of (x) entering into this Note Purchase Agreement or holding the Notes and (y) taking or not taking actions hereunder or under the Collateral Documents, (ii) is financially able to bear such risks and (iii) has determined that entering into this Note Purchase Agreement is suitable and appropriate for it.

(w) Nothing in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to carry out any "know your customer" or other checks in relation to the Company or any of its Affiliates on behalf of the Secured Parties and the Secured Parties confirm to the Collateral Agent that such Secured Parties are solely responsible for any such checks such Secured Parties are required to carry out and that such Secured Parties may not rely on any statement in relation to such checks made by such the Collateral Agent.

(x) The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely on any written direction, instruction, request, consent or other written communication from the Purchaser or any Holder. The Collateral Agent shall not have any obligation or duty with respect to the identity of any Holder or the amount of any Obligations owing to any such Person. At any time and from time to time, the Collateral Agent may request information from the Holders or the Company as to the identities of the Holders, their respective Notes and the composition and calculation of the Majority Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, and the Holders and the Company shall provide such information. The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to fully rely on such information and shall have no duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity or amount of Notes held by any Holder or with respect to the calculation of the Majority Holders, the Supermajority Holders or the unanimous vote of Holders.

(y) The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity, calculation or consent or other action of the Abra Holders. Where the consent or other action of the Abra Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders is required by this

Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall certify to the Collateral Agent that the Company has obtained such consent, or other action, and the Collateral Agent shall be fully entitled to rely on such certification of the Company without any liability.

(z) Before the Collateral Agent acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate of the Company, or an Opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, with respect to the proposed action or inaction. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such certificate or opinion. Whenever in the administration of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents the Collateral Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be provided or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting to take any act hereunder or thereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein or therein specifically described) may, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officer's Certificate delivered to the Collateral Agent, and such certificate, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, shall be full warrant to the Collateral Agent for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it under the provision of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents upon the faith thereof.

SECTION 12.03. Resignation. Upon at least thirty (30) days' notice, the Collateral Agent may resign at any time as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents by notifying the Purchaser and the Company. Upon any resignation by the Collateral Agent, the Company shall have the right (provided that no Event of Default has occurred and continues) to appoint a successor Collateral Agent or, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Purchaser shall have the right to appoint a successor Collateral Agent. If no successor has been so appointed and has accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the date the Collateral Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the resigning Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) (a) upon consent (provided that no Event of Default or Default has occurred and continues) of the Company (consent of which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), at the cost and expense of the Company, appoint a successor Collateral Agent or (b) petition any court of competent jurisdiction, at the cost and expense of the Company, for the appointment of a successor Collateral Agent. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, the Collateral Agent's resignation shall become effective in accordance with the Collateral Agent's notice of resignation on the date specified in such notice, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents on such date. Upon acceptance of a successor Collateral Agent of its appointment as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, such successor will succeed and have all rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning Collateral Agent, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents (if not released sooner, as provided above). The fees due by the Company to a successor agent will be the same as those contracted in relation to its predecessor, unless otherwise agreed between the Company and such successor. Any Person into which the Collateral Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to the business of the Collateral Agent shall be the successor of the Collateral Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper with any party hereto or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, except where an instrument of transfer or assignment is required by Law to effect such succession, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 12.04. Fees, Expenses and Indemnification.

(a) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Collateral Agent for its own account fees in the amounts and at the times agreed with the Collateral Agent.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay or reimburse each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent for (1) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the development, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents and any amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of the provisions hereof and thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby are consummated), and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including all attorney fees and expenses, and (2) all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement, attempted enforcement, or preservation of any rights or remedies under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents, including all attorney costs and all expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents. The foregoing costs and expenses shall include all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Purchaser and Collateral Agent under clause (1) or (2) above and the cost of counsel, independent public accountants and other outside experts so retained. All amounts due under this Section shall be payable within ten Business Days after demand therefore.

(c) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify and hold each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent harmless for, from and against any and all damage, loss, liability, cost, claim or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and including all fees, expenses and costs incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent in connection with any dispute, action, claim or suit brought to enforce the right to indemnification) incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent arising out of or in connection with the execution, delivery or administration of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or any instrument or agreement contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance of the Collateral Agent's duties hereunder or thereunder, and the exercise of each of the Purchaser's and the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder or thereunder including, without limitation, the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability and of complying with any process served upon it or any of its officers in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, except, as applicable, as may result from the Purchaser's or the Collateral Agent's respective willful misconduct or gross negligence (as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction).

(d) To the extent that the Company or the Guarantors for any reason fail to indefeasibly pay any amount required under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this Section or under the Collateral Documents to be paid by the Company or the Guarantors to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent thereof), the Holders agree to pay to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) such unpaid amount (including any such unpaid amount in respect of a claim asserted by the Holders); provided that the unpaid amount was incurred by or asserted against the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) in its capacity as such.

(e) The provisions in this Article shall survive the termination or satisfaction of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents, the resignation or removal of the Collateral Agent and the payment of all Notes Obligations.

REDEMPTION

SECTION 13.01. Redemption. The Notes shall not be redeemable by the Company prior to the Maturity Date, except as described in this Article 13, and no sinking fund is provided for the Notes.

(a) Prior to the Maturity Date, the Company may partially or fully redeem the Notes, upon notice as described in Section 13.02, at the redemption price of 100% (expressed as percentages of principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed), plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon; provided that upon such redemption, the Company shall issue GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028 in an amount equal to, and on a dollar for dollar basis, the aggregate principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed; provided, that upon the written request of the Purchaser the Company shall partially or fully redeem the Notes (and issue such GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028) pursuant to this Section 13.01(a).

(b) The redemption provided for in clause (a) above is subject to the Company previously (i) obtaining all required corporate approvals; and (ii) having issued the warrants that allow for exchangeability of GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028 into preferred shares of GLAI in accordance with the terms set forth in the GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes NPA. Should the Company fail to obtain such corporate approvals or to issue such warrants, the Company and the Purchaser shall agree on an indemnity that will equitably compensate the Purchaser for the benefits arising from the conversion of the Notes into GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028.

SECTION 13.02. Notice of Optional Redemption. (a) In the event that the Company exercises any redemption right pursuant to Section 13.01, it shall fix a date for redemption and it shall deliver a written notice of such redemption not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption date to each Holder of Notes.

(b) Each redemption notice shall specify:

- (1) the redemption date; and
- (2) principal amount of Notes to be redeemed.

SECTION 13.03. Payment of Notes Called for Redemption. (a) If any redemption notice has been given in respect of the Notes in accordance with Section 13.02, the Notes shall become due and payable on the specified redemption date.

ACTIONS BY HOLDERS

SECTION 14.01. Action by Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Note Purchase Agreement to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders or by agents duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Company and, where applicable pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Guarantors or to the Collateral Agent, as applicable. Such instrument or instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the “Act” of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments.

(b) Whenever in this Note Purchase Agreement it is provided that the Holders of a specified percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes may take any action (including the making of any demand or request, the giving of any notice, consent or waiver or the taking of any other action), the fact that at the time of taking any such action, the Holders of such specified percentage have joined therein may be evidenced by any instrument or any number of instruments of similar tenor executed by Holders in person or by agent or proxy appointed in writing.

(c) Whenever the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, the Company may fix, but shall not be required to, in advance of such solicitation, a date as the record date for determining Holders entitled to take such action. The record date if one is selected shall be not more than fifteen days prior to the date of commencement of solicitation of such action.

SECTION 14.02. Proof of Execution by Holders. When the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, proof of the execution of any instrument by a Holder, its agent or proxy, or the Purchaser, shall be sufficient if made in accordance with such reasonable rules as may be prescribed by the Company or in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the Company.

SECTION 14.03. Company-Owned Notes Disregarded. In determining whether the Holders of the requisite aggregate principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, consent, waiver or other action under this Note Purchase Agreement, Notes that are owned by the Company, by any Subsidiary thereof or by any of their respective Affiliates shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding for the purpose of any such determination.

SECTION 14.04. Revocation of Consents; Future Holders Bound. At any time prior to (but not after) the evidencing to the Company, as provided in Section 14.01, of the taking of any action by the Holders of the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes specified in this Note Purchase Agreement in connection with such action, any Holder of a Note that is shown by the evidence to be included in the Notes the Holders of which have consented to such action may, by filing written notice with the Company at the Company’s Office and upon proof of holding as provided in Section 14.02, revoke such action so far as concerns such Note; provided that to the extent that the consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders was required or otherwise obtained, the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders shall be required to revoke any such consent. Except as provided in the previous sentence, any such action taken by the Holder of any Note shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders and owners of such Note and of any Notes issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof, irrespective of whether any notation in regard thereto is made upon such Note or any Note issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof.

SECTION 15.03. Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel as to Conditions Precedent. Upon any request or application by the Company to the Collateral Agent to take or refrain from taking any action under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall furnish to the Collateral Agent:

(1) an Officer's Certificate (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all covenants and conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement and, if the action involves any of the Collateral Documents, the applicable Collateral Documents relating to the proposed action have been complied with; and

(2) an Opinion of Counsel (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, all such covenants and conditions precedent have been complied with.

SECTION 15.04. Statements Required in Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel. Each certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a covenant or condition provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall include:

(1) a statement that each Person making or rendering such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel has read such covenant or condition and the related definitions;

(2) a brief statement as to the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel are based;

(3) a statement that, in the opinion of each such Person, such Person has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable such Person to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and

(4) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of each such Person, such covenant or condition has been complied with.

SECTION 15.05. Rules by Registrar, Paying Agent and Transfer Agents. The Registrar, the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

SECTION 15.06. Currency Indemnity. U.S. Dollars are the sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by the Company or the Guarantors under or in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties, including damages. Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than U.S. Dollars (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the winding-up or dissolution of the Company or otherwise) by any Person in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Company or the Guarantors in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties will only constitute a discharge to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to the extent of the U.S. Dollar amount which the recipient is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If that U.S. Dollar amount is less than the U.S. Dollar amount expressed to be due to the recipient, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify such recipient against any loss sustained by it as a result, and if the amount of U.S. Dollars so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to such recipient, such recipient will be deemed to have agreed to repay such excess. In any event, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify the recipient against the cost of making any such purchase.

For the purposes of this Section 15.06, it shall be sufficient for the recipient to certify in a satisfactory manner (indicating the sources of information used) that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase of U.S. Dollars been made with the amount so received in that other currency on the date of receipt or recovery (or, if a purchase of U.S. Dollars on such date had not been practicable, on the first date on which it would have been practicable, it being required that the need for a change of date be certified in the manner mentioned above). These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder of a Note and shall continue in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due under any Note.

SECTION 15.07. No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent, respectively, under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or the Notes or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder shall waive and release all such liability. The waiver and release shall be part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

SECTION 15.08. Legal Holidays. In any case where any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall not be a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or of the Notes) payment of interest or principal need not be made on such date, but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date; provided that no default interest shall accrue for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date on account of such delay.

SECTION 15.09. Governing Law. THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES AND THE NOTE GUARANTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Articles 470-1 to 470-19 (inclusive) of the Luxembourg Act on commercial companies of August 10, 1915, as amended, shall not apply in respect of the Notes.

For purposes solely of Article 9 of Brazilian Decree Law No. 4,657, of September 4, 1942, the transactions contemplated hereby have been constituted and proposed outside of Brazil.

SECTION 15.10. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York with respect to actions brought against it as a defendant in respect of any suit, action or proceeding or arbitral award arising out of or relating to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby (a “Proceeding”), and irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may do so under applicable Law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such Proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such Proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably appoints Cogency Global, Inc. (the “Company and Guarantors Process Agent”), with an office at 122 East 42nd Street, 18th Floor, New York, NY 10168, as its authorized agent to receive on behalf of it and its property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding. If for any reason such Person shall cease to be such agent for service of process, each of the Company and the Guarantors shall forthwith appoint a new agent of recognized standing for service of process in the State of New York within 30 days.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably appoints the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as its agent to receive, on behalf of itself and its property, service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York. Such service shall be made by delivering by hand a copy of such process to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, in care of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent at the address specified above. Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf. Failure of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to give notice to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, or failure of the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to receive notice of such service of process shall not affect in any way the validity of such service on the Company and Guarantors Process Agent, the Company or the Guarantors. As an alternative method of service, each of the Company and the Guarantors also irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such Proceeding by the delivery by hand of copies of such process to the Company or Guarantors, as the case may be, at its address specified in Section 15.02 or at any other address previously furnished in writing by the Company or the Guarantors. Each of the Company and the Guarantors covenants and agrees that it shall take any and all reasonable action, including the execution and filing of any and all documents, that may be necessary to continue the designation of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent above in full force and effect during the term of the Notes, and to cause the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to continue to act as such.

(c) [Reserved]

(d) Exclusively for the purposes of Brazilian law, the Guarantors appoint the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as their agent and attorney-in-fact to receive on behalf of them and their property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding pursuant to articles 653 et. seq. of the Brazilian Law No. 10,406, of January 10, 2022.

(e) Nothing herein shall affect the right of any party (including the Collateral Agent, any other Agent or any Holder) to serve process in any other manner permitted by Law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise bring any claim against any other party or its property in any other court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, in any proceedings anywhere (whether for an injunction, specific performance or otherwise), no immunity (to the extent that it may at any time exist, whether on the grounds of sovereignty or otherwise) from such proceedings, from attachment (whether in aid of execution, before judgment or otherwise) of its assets or from execution of judgment shall be claimed by it or on its behalf or with respect to its assets, except to the extent required by applicable Law, any such immunity being irrevocably waived, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, where permitted by applicable Law, it and its assets are, and shall be, subject to such proceedings, attachment or execution in respect of its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties.

(g) ALL PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THEY MAY DO SO UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES, THE NOTE GUARANTIES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

SECTION 15.11. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements of the Company and the Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties shall bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. The Notes shall not be assigned by the Purchaser unless (i) the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall have been indefeasibly paid in full or (ii) as otherwise may be consented to by the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders.

In the event of a transfer, assignment, novation or amendment of the rights and/or the obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and any other Transaction Documents, all security interests, guarantees and privileges created under or in connection with the Transaction Documents shall automatically and without any formality be preserved for the benefit of the transferee including the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture for the purpose of the provisions of articles 1278 to 1281 of the Luxembourg Civil Code or any other purposes.

SECTION 15.12. Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Note Purchase Agreement. Each signed copy shall be deemed an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement. One signed copy is enough to prove this Note Purchase Agreement. The words “execution,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in this Note Purchase Agreement or in any other certificate or document related to this Note Purchase Agreement shall include images of executed signatures transmitted by facsimile or other electronic format (including, without limitation, “pdf”, “tif” or “jpg”) and other electronic signatures (including, without limitation, DocuSign and AdobeSign). The use of electronic signatures and electronic records (including, without limitation, any contract or other record created, generated, sent, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means) shall be of the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as an executed signature or use of a paper-based record-keeping system to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act and any other applicable Law, including, without limitation, any state Law based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act or the Uniform Commercial Code.

SECTION 15.13. Severability Clause. In case any provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, the parties hereby waive any provision of Law which renders any term or provision hereof invalid or unenforceable in any respect.

SECTION 15.14. Force Majeure. In no event shall the Collateral Agent or any other Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder, or under the Collateral Documents arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, governmental actions, pandemics, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Collateral Agent or such other Agent, as applicable shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

SECTION 15.15. Acknowledgement. Each of the Company and the Guarantors acknowledges that, on the date hereof, the Purchaser has pledged, or will pledge, all of its right, title and interest in the Notes, Notes Obligations and all Collateral therefor, in favor of the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture as collateral to secure the Purchaser’s obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Note Purchase Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first written above.

Senior Secured Notes Due 2028

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of Senior Secured Notes Due 2028 of the Company. The Notes constitute secured unsubordinated obligations of the Company, initially in an aggregate principal amount of U.S.$[1,105,169,000].

I. Purchase Agreement.

Each holder of this security, by accepting the same, agrees to and shall be bound by the provisions hereof and of the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 2, 2023, by and among GOL FINANCE, a public limited liability company (société anonyme) incorporated in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 17, Boulevard Raiffeisen, L-2411 Luxembourg, registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Companies (R.C.S.Luxembourg) under number B 178497 (the “Company”), GOL LINHAS AÉREAS INTELIGENTES S.A. (“GLAI”), as guarantor, registrar, transfer agent and paying agent, and GOL LINHAS AÉREAS S.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of GLAI (“GLA” and together with GLAI, the “Guarantors”), each, a corporation (sociedade por ações) organized under the Laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, as guarantors, ABRA GROUP LIMITED, a private limited company organized under the Laws of England and Wales, with registered office at 1 Ashley Road, 3rd Floor, Altrincham, Cheshire, United Kingdom, as purchaser (the “Purchaser” or “Holder”) and TMF BRASIL ADMINISTRAÇÃO E GESTÃO DE ATIVOS LTDA., as collateral agent (the “Collateral Agent”), as the same shall be amended from time to time (the “Note Purchase Agreement”). The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Note Purchase Agreement. The Holders of the Notes shall be entitled to the benefit of, be bound by and be deemed to have notice of, all provisions of the Note Purchase Agreement.

Reference is hereby made to the Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents and all amendments and supplements to each of them from time to time (collectively, the “Note Documents”) for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent, each other Agent and the Purchaser as Holder of the Notes and the terms upon which the Notes, are, and are to be, executed and delivered. The Purchaser waives all notice of the acceptance of the provisions contained herein and in the Note Documents and waives reliance by such Purchaser upon said provisions. All terms used in this Note that are defined in the Note Purchase Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Notes are senior obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, secured by a first priority and perfected Lien in the Collateral. The payment obligations of the Company under the Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to the terms of the Note Guaranties.

The Note Documents impose certain limitations on assets, debts, Restricted Payments, the creation of Lien by the Company, and consolidation, merger, Related-Party Transactions, and certain other transactions involving the Company. In addition, the Note Documents require the maintenance of insurance for the Company, the maintenance of the existence of the Company, the payment of certain taxes and claims and reporting requirements applicable to the Company. The Note Documents also contain provisions related to the Collateral as well as certain assurances, restrictions, and use and possession related to the Collateral.

2. Principal.

Unless previously redeemed, exchanged or purchased and cancelled, the Company promises to pay the Holder hereof the total Outstanding principal amount which shall be repaid in cash in a single installment on the Maturity Date, together with all other amounts owed hereunder with respect thereto (including all accrued and unpaid interest that has not yet been added to the total Outstanding principal amount through the Maturity Date).

3. Interest.

The Notes shall bear interest at an interest rate as follows:

(1) 4.50% per year shall be payable entirely in cash semi-annually in arrears on each Interest Payment Date (“Cash Interest”);

(2) 13.5% per year shall be payable in cash or in kind (“PIK Interest”), at the sole election of the Company, as set forth below; and

(3) GLAI, at its option, may elect to pay in cash all or a portion of any accrued but unpaid PIK Interest on the Outstanding principal amount of the Notes (A) semi-annually in arrears, on each applicable Interest Payment Date or (B) on the Maturity Date; provided that, unless GLAI makes such election to make interest payments in cash, any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date shall not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note; provided, further, that any such PIK Interest payment shall be capitalized automatically on such Interest Payment Date and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of this Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon on the aggregate principal amount of the Notes on each applicable Interest Payment Date in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement.

4. Method of Payment.

Any payments of interest or principal in respect of each Note made on an Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall be made by the Company to the Persons shown on the Register at the close of (a) in the case of interest payments, the Regular Record Date or (b) in the case of principal payment, the fifteenth day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, whether or not a Business Day (each, a “Record Date”); provided that any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date will not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and automatically added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note (and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of such Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement).

Final payments in respect of any Note shall be made subject only to any fiscal or other Laws and regulations applicable thereto, at the specified offices of any other Paying Agent appointed by the Company, if any.

If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Purchaser to pay fully all amounts of principal and interest then due in cash hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest then due hereunder and (ii) second, towards payment of principal then due hereunder.

Payment in cash of the principal and premium, if any, of any Note on the Maturity Date shall be made upon presentation and surrender thereof, by wire transfer to the Holder's Designated Bank Account.

If a Holder fails to designate a Designated Bank Account or such account is unable to accept wire transfers, then all cash payments shall instead be made by U.S. Dollar check drawn on a bank in The City of New York and mailed to the Person entitled thereto at its address as it appears on the Register.

Payment of interest on any Interest Payment Date with respect to any Note shall be made to the Person in whose name such Note is registered on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, and if in cash, by wire transfer to the Holder's Designated Bank Account. A designation made by a Holder with respect to its Designated Bank Account shall remain in effect with respect to any future cash payments (including payments with respect to interest, principal, premium, if any, and Additional Amounts) with respect to such Note payable to such Holder. The Company shall pay any administrative costs imposed by banks in connection with making payments by wire transfer.

If any Interest Payment Date in respect of any Note is not a Business Day, the Holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day at such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest (other than accrued interest through the date such amount is paid) or other payment in respect of any such delay.

If the amount of principal or interest which is due on the Notes is not paid in full, the Registrar shall annotate the Register with a record of the amount of interest, if any, in fact paid.

All payments on this Note are subject in all cases to any applicable tax or other Laws and regulations, but without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph 7 hereof. Except as provided in Section 7.06 of the Note Purchase Agreement, no fees or expenses shall be charged to the Purchaser in respect of such payments.

5. Ranking and Collateral.

The Notes and Note Guaranties are secured by a first priority Lien over the Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions of the Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The payment obligations of the Company under the Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to the terms of the Note Guaranties.

The Lien over the Collateral granted shall terminate in respect of the Notes on the Stated Maturity, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exists Notes Obligations due and payable on that date, in which case the Lien over the Collateral shall terminate as set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement.

6. Registrar, Transfer Agent and Paying Agent.

GLAI will initially act as the Registrar, Transfer Agent and Paying Agent of the Notes. The Company may appoint and change any Registrar, Transfer Agent and Paying Agent in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement.

7. No Purchase of Notes by the Company or its Affiliates.

The Company or any of its Affiliates (except for the Purchaser) may at any time repurchase Notes in open market purchases or in negotiated transactions at any price. Any Notes so purchased or acquired may not be resold and shall be cancelled.

8. Denominations.

The Notes are in registered form without coupons in minimum denominations of U.S.$100,000 and integral multiples of U.S.$1,000 in excess thereof.

9. Persons Deemed Owners.

The registered Holder of this Note (except as otherwise required by Law and subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant Regular Record Date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) may be treated as the owner thereof for all purposes.

10. Unclaimed Money.

Subject to applicable Law, any money and Preferred Shares held by any Paying Agent (other than GLAI), in trust for the payment of principal of, accrued and unpaid interest on or the consideration due upon exchange of any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, interest or consideration due upon exchange has become due and payable shall be paid to GLAI at the written request of GLAI, or (if then held by GLAI) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to GLAI for payment thereof, and all liability of GLAI as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease.

11. Amendment; Waiver.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains provisions permitting amendments, supplements and waivers to these Notes and to the Note Purchase Agreement. Such amendments, supplements and waivers shall be conclusive and binding upon the holder of this Note and upon all future holders and owners of this Note and of any Notes issued in conversion or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof, irrespective of whether any notation in regard thereto is made upon this Note or any Note issued in conversion or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof.

12. Defaults and Remedies.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains certain Events of Default with respect to the Notes and specifies certain remedies, and limitations on remedies, applicable to the Notes.

13. Governing Law.

THE NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THIS NOTE AND THE NOTE GUARANTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Articles 470-1 to 470-19 of the Luxembourg Act on commercial companies of August 10, 1915 (inclusive), as amended, shall not apply in respect of the Notes.

Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York with respect to actions brought against it as a defendant in respect of any Proceeding and irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts.

14. No Recourse Against Others.

No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent under the Notes or any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent under the Note Purchase Agreement or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

The Company shall furnish to any Holder upon written request and without charge a copy of the Note Purchase Agreement, as amended from time to time, which includes the Form of this Note. Requests may be made to:

SECTION 7.04. Maintenance of Corporate Existence. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain in effect its corporate existence and all registrations necessary therefor; provided that these restrictions shall not prohibit any transactions permitted by Article 8; (ii) not amend, supplement, waive or otherwise modify certain specified provisions of the documents relating to each of the Guarantors' or its Subsidiaries' rights or benefits under its respective organizational documents without the prior written consent of the Purchaser, and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, as the case may be, if such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification would materially adversely affect the rights of the Purchaser, or of the then holders of this Note; (iii) not change its corporate form; (iv) take all reasonable actions to maintain all rights, privileges, titles to property, franchises and the like necessary in the normal conduct of its business, activities or operations; and (v) maintain or cause to be maintained in good repair, working order and condition (normal wear and tear excepted) all properties used in its business; provided, however, that neither GLAI nor its Subsidiaries shall be prevented from discontinuing those operations (including through the transfer or dissolution of a Subsidiary) or suspending the maintenance of those properties (including through the sale thereof) which, in the reasonable judgment of GLAI, are no longer necessary in the conduct of GLAI's business, or that of its Subsidiaries; and provided, further, that such discontinuation of operations or suspension of maintenance shall not be materially disadvantageous to the Holders and such operations shall not represent more than 3.5% of the aggregate consolidated gross revenues of GLAI and its Subsidiaries for the most recent fiscal year.

SECTION 7.05. Payment of Taxes and Claims. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, pay all taxes, assessments and other governmental charges imposed upon it or any of its property or in respect of any of its franchises, businesses, income or profits before any penalty or interest accrues thereon, and pay all claims (including claims for labor, services, materials and supplies) for sums which have become due and payable and which by Law have or might become a Lien upon its property, unless the failure to make such payment could have: (a) a Material Adverse Effect upon the financial condition of (i) the Company or (ii) the GLAI Group considered as one enterprise, or (b) a Material Adverse Effect on the performance of the Company's or GLAI's obligations hereunder; and provided, further, that no such charge or claim need be paid while it is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and if appropriate reserves or other provisions are maintained in respect of such amounts in accordance with IFRS.

SECTION 7.06. Payment of Additional Amounts. (a) All payments by GLAI in respect of the Notes or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) in respect of the Note Guaranties or of cash and/or deliveries of Preferred Shares (together with payments of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) upon exchange, will be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments, or other governmental charges of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Brazil or Luxembourg, or any political subdivision or authority therein or thereof or any other jurisdiction in which any officer of the Company, the Company or any Guarantor is organized, doing business or otherwise subject to the power to tax (any of the aforementioned being a "Taxing Jurisdiction"), unless the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) are compelled by Law to deduct or withhold such taxes, duties, assessments, or governmental charges. In such event, the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will make such deduction or withholding, and the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will timely make payment of the full amount so withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority and pay such additional amounts as may be necessary to ensure that the net amounts received by Holders after such withholding or deduction has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 7.06) shall equal the respective amounts of principal (and premium, if any) and interest which would have been receivable in respect of the Notes or the payment of cash and/or delivery of Preferred Shares (together with payment in cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) in the absence of such withholding or deduction (“Additional Amounts”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such Additional Amounts shall be payable:

(1) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of the existence of any present or former connection between such Holder and the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, including, without limitation, such Holder being or having been a citizen or resident thereof, being incorporated in, being or having been engaged in a trade or business or present therein or having, or having had, a permanent establishment therein, other than connections arising from such Holder having executed, delivered, become a party to, performed its obligations under, received payments under, received or perfected a security interest under, engaged in any other transaction pursuant to or enforced this Note Purchase Agreement, sold or assigned an interest in this Note Purchase Agreement or holding of the Note and the receipt of payments with respect to the Note;

(2) in respect of Notes surrendered or presented for payment (if surrender or presentment is required) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that payments under such Note would have been subject to withholdings and the Holder of such Note would have been entitled to such Additional Amounts, had the Note been surrendered for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days;

(3) in respect of any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, excise or personal property tax;

(4) in respect of any tax imposed on overall net income or any branch profits tax of a Holder;

(5) in respect of any tax imposed pursuant to sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code, any successor Law or regulation implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such sections provided, however, that such Law or regulation is substantively comparable and not materially more onerous to comply with, or any intergovernmental agreement in respect thereof or any agreement entered into pursuant to section 1471(b)(1) of the Code;

(6) in respect of the Relibi Law; or

(7) in respect of any combination of the above.

(b) In the event that Additional Amounts actually paid with respect to the Notes are based on rates of deduction or withholding of withholding taxes in excess of the appropriate rate applicable to the Holder of such Notes, and, as a result thereof such Holder determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of withholding taxes as to which it has received Additional Amounts, it shall pay to the Company an amount equal to such refund

(but only to the extent of Additional Amounts received with respect to the withholding taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including taxes) of such Holder and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). The Company, upon the request of the Holder, shall repay to such Holder the amount paid over pursuant to this paragraph (b) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such Holder is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (b), in no event will the Holder be required to pay any amount to the Company pursuant to this paragraph (b) the payment of which would place the Holder in a less favorable net after-tax position than the Holder would have been in if the tax subject to Additional Amounts and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the Additional Amounts had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any Holder to make available its tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes that it deems confidential) to the Company or any other Person. The Holder makes no representation or warranty that the Company will be entitled to receive such claim for refund or credit and incurs no other obligation (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any filing or other action) with respect thereto. In addition, the Company shall pay certain taxes on the issuance or delivery of any Preferred Shares upon conversion of the Notes pursuant to Section 13.02(e).

(c) The Notes are subject in all cases to any tax, fiscal or other Law or regulation or administrative or judicial interpretation. Except as specifically provided above, neither the Company nor the Guarantors shall be required to make a payment with respect to any tax, assessment or governmental charge imposed by any government or a political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not pay (and shall not purport to indemnify the Holder for) any stamp, issue, registration, court or documentary taxes or any excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies (including any penalties, interest and other liabilities relating thereto) that may arise or be paid in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes.

(e) Any reference in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes to principal, interest or any other amount payable in respect of the Notes by the Company or any of the Note Guaranties by the Guarantors, or the payment of cash and/or the delivery of Preferred Shares by the Company (together with payment of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share), will be deemed also to refer to any Additional Amount, unless the context requires otherwise, that may be payable with respect to that amount under the obligations referred to in this Section.

(f) The obligations of the Company and the Guarantors pursuant to this Section 7.06 shall survive termination of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.07. Collateral and Liens.

(a) Subject to Sections 5.03, 7.07(b) and 7.07(c), the Notes Obligations shall be secured by a first priority Lien granted by the Guarantors in the Collateral to Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The Company and the Guarantors shall not directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien on any of the Collateral, other than (i) the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and (ii) a Lien that is junior in priority to the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and which is subject to a subordination agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F.

(b) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur or permit to exist any Lien of any nature whatsoever on any of the Collateral, except for the first priority Lien in the Collateral granted by the Guarantors pursuant to Section 7.07(a) above and the Collateral Documents, provided however, that the Company and the Guarantors may, without requiring any resolution, approval or consent from the Purchaser or the Collateral Agent, and without implying breach of any representation, warranty or obligation assumed under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, constitute in favor of any creditors a collateral security under suspensive condition on the Collateral (whether senior or junior), provided that the effectiveness of such collateral security is conditioned upon the indefeasible payment in full or satisfaction of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes (“Future Lien”).

(c) The Company shall ensure that the Lien in the Collateral is duly created, enforceable and perfected, to the extent required by the Collateral Documents. The Guarantors shall:

(1) in relation to the GLA’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement and IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, as the case may be, (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of such Collateral Document, register the Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and, (ii) (A) in relation to the GLA’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, no later than fifteen (15) days after the date of such registration and, (B) in relation to the IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, no later than fifteen (15) days after the date of such registration and the fulfilment of the suspensive condition set forth in IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, deliver to the Collateral Agent evidence that the request for annotation of the security interest in the Collateral has been filed with the Brazilian National Institute of Industrial Property (Instituto Nacional da Propriedade Industrial);

(2) in relation to the GLA’s Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo’s Shares Agreement (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of such Collateral Document, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and (ii) within seven (7) business days from the date of execution of such Collateral Document, annotate the Fiduciary Transfer in IPCO’s shares register book (Livro de Registro de Ações Nominativas);

(3) in relation to the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 IP Collateral (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 IP Collateral, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and, (ii) no later than ten (10) days after the date of such registration, deliver to the Collateral Agent evidence that the request for annotation of the security interest in the

Collateral has been filed with the Brazilian National Institute of Industrial Property (Instituto Nacional da Propriedade Industrial); and

(4) in relation to the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Spare Parts Collateral no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Spare Parts Collateral, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil.

(d) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly (i) take any action with the purpose of depreciating the Collateral, (ii) dispose of, assign, transfer, sell or lease the Collateral to any third party or (iii) execute nor authorize the execution of any agreement which could restrict or reduce the rights or the ability of the Secured Parties to sell or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, in part or in full.

(e) The Company and the Guarantors undertake to, and agree that, they will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, take any action, or cause or contribute for any action to be taken, to (i) contest or in any way impair or harm the Collateral; (ii) interfere with the Secured Parties' right to enforce, sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of the Collateral upon the occurrence of an Event of Default; (iii) diminish, demean, tarnish or dilute the value, distinctiveness, fame, enforceability, validity of, or goodwill associated with, the Collateral; (iv) challenge the enforceability or the validity of the Collateral, (v) use, assign, transfer, convey, sell, dispose, disclose, make available or publish any trade secret, know-how, source code or any kind of confidential information related to the Collateral, or (vi) use or apply for any trademark registration or use any trade address that are identical or similar, in phonetical, graphical or ideological manner, to the Collateral.

(f) By their purchase and acceptance of the Notes, the Holders hereby agree that they are bound and that such purchase and acceptance constitutes the authorization and direction to the Collateral Agent to act as collateral agent for the benefit, and in representation, of the Holders, and to execute and deliver this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party. It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Collateral Agent is not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to it under this Note Purchase Agreement (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

SECTION 7.08. Certain Assurances.

(a) On the Initial Closing Date, the Purchaser, the Collateral Agent and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall receive an Opinion of Counsel from Lefosse Advogados, as Brazilian counsel to the Company and the Guarantors, in form and substance satisfactory to the Purchaser, to the effect that, subject to certain exceptions and qualifications, the GLA's Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, the GLA's Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo's Shares Agreement and the amendments to the GOL Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Collateral have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, which will be enforceable against GLA and/or GLAI in accordance with its terms and with Section 7.07(c).

(b) Each of GLA and GLAI shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to maintain the Collateral Documents to which it is a party in full force and effect and enforceable, in accordance with their terms, and to maintain and preserve the Lien created by the Collateral Documents, in accordance with their terms, and the priority thereof, including (A) making filings and recordations, (B) making payments of fees and other charges on a timely basis, (C) issuing and, if necessary, filing or recording supplemental documentation, including continuation statements, (D) discharging all claims or other Liens adversely affecting the rights of any Secured Party in any Collateral, (E) publishing or otherwise delivering notice to third parties, (F) depositing title documents, (G) amending any Collateral Document to the extent required by applicable Law and (H) taking all other actions either necessary or otherwise requested by the Purchaser to ensure that all Collateral is subject to a valid and enforceable first-priority Lien in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, GLA and GLAI shall ensure that all of the Collateral intended to be subject to the Lien granted by the Collateral Documents shall become subject to such Lien having the priority contemplated pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. Moreover, for the avoidance of any doubt, the Collateral Agent has no obligation, liability or responsibility to monitor or ensure that GLA and/or GLAI, as the case may be, maintain such Lien and shall assume that GLA and GLAI are in full compliance with their obligations in connection therewith.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in applicable Law, the Collateral Agent shall not have any responsibility or liability, among other things as set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, for (1) acting or refraining from acting based on any unlawful, ambiguous or inaccurate instruction, notice, demand, notification or other document pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents; (2) any loss or claim resulting from any act or omission, directly or indirectly, except if otherwise determined in a final nonappealable decision by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Collateral Agent was grossly negligent; (3) any loss of profits, indirect, consequential, incidental, special, punitive or related losses and/or damages even if previously advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage; (4) preparing, recording or filing any financing or continuation statements or recording or filing any instrument in any public office or for otherwise ensuring the perfection or maintenance of any Lien granted pursuant to, or contemplated by, this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or the existence and enforceability of any insurance on the Collateral; (5) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against any parties with respect to the Collateral; (6) taking any action to protect against any diminution in value of the Collateral; (7) errors in judgment that do not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final and non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction; (8) the Company's and the Guarantors' compliance with any of the covenants set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, including but not limited to, covenants regarding the granting, perfection or maintenance of any Lien; (9) the market value of the Collateral or its sufficiency to satisfy in full payments due on the Notes Obligations; (10) the accuracy of any representation or warranty of the Company or Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by the Collateral Agent; or (11) the effectiveness, genuineness, sufficiency, legality, validity and enforceability of any Lien, security interest, Collateral, this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or title, transfer or assignment of any Collateral.

SECTION 7.09. Release of Collateral. Subject to, and to the extent permitted under, the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Company and the Guarantors shall be entitled to the release of the Collateral from the Lien securing the Notes Obligations under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, if at any time the Collateral Agent, acting in accordance, exclusively and strictly, with instructions provided by the Purchaser (at the direction of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders), forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against the Collateral resulting in the sale or disposition thereof;
- (ii) as described and pursuant to Article 10; or
- (iii) upon payment in full of the principal of, together with all accrued and unpaid interest on, the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

in each case, (i) so long as no Default or Event of Default will exist immediately after such release, as applicable; and (ii) provided the Collateral Agent shall have received an Officer's Certificate certifying, and Opinion of Counsel stating, that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the release of Collateral pursuant to this Section 7.09 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document requested by the Company or any Guarantor to evidence such release of the Collateral (A) without any consent of the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes, the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, the Holders or the Purchaser, (B) based solely on the Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 7.09 and (C) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent);

provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents shall terminate in respect of the Notes on the Stated Maturity, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exist Notes Obligations due and payable on that date, in which case the Lien in the Collateral shall terminate upon satisfaction of such Notes Obligations, all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes. Upon termination of the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents in respect of the Notes Obligations, the Collateral shall be released in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement to the Company and the Guarantors, and the Company and the Guarantors shall thereupon grant a Lien in such Collateral in respect of any outstanding obligations under the Abra Notes.

SECTION 7.10. Maintenance of Collateral. The Company and the Guarantors shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, at all times, preserve the Collateral for the benefit of the Secured Parties, not permit the value of the Collateral to be impaired, keep the Collateral free from all Liens or encumbrances other than the Liens and the Future Liens in the Collateral, and maintain the Collateral in accordance with applicable Law and regulations.

SECTION 7.11. Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates.

Each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not directly or indirectly, enter into, renew or extend any transaction or arrangement including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of property or assets, or the rendering thereof of any service with any Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary (a “Related-Party Transaction”), except upon fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or the Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm’s-length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

(a) Prior to entering into any Related-Party Transaction or series of Related-Party Transactions (i) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$10.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary must deliver to the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer stating that such Related-Party Transaction complies with this covenant or (ii) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$20.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the terms of such Related-Party Transaction will be approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, GLAI or of such Subsidiary (including a majority of the members of the Board of Directors who are disinterested directors with respect to such Related-Party Transaction), the approval to be evidenced by a board resolution that such transaction or series of related transactions are on terms no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm’s length transaction and satisfy the requirements in clauses (i) and (ii) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$40.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary shall deliver to the Purchaser and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes a written opinion issued by an investment bank of recognized international standing that such Related-Party Transaction is fair to the Guarantor or the relevant Subsidiary from a financial point of view and satisfy the requirements in clause (i) and clause (ii) hereof.

(b) The foregoing paragraphs do not apply to:

- (i) arm’s length transactions in the ordinary course among and between any of the Company, the Guarantors, Avianca Group International Limited and any of their respective Subsidiaries provided, that any such transaction conducted by any of the Guarantors’ shareholders indirectly through any of these entities shall not be exempt from the limitations in this Section 7.11;
- (ii) any transaction among and between any of the Company, the Guarantors, Avianca Group International Limited and any of their respective Subsidiaries for the purpose of managing and paying taxes imminently due and owing by the foregoing parties to any Governmental Authority;

- (iii) any transaction in the ordinary course of business between or among the Company, GLAI and any of its Subsidiaries or between or among the Subsidiaries of GLAI;
- (iv) reasonable fees and compensation paid to, and any customary indemnity or insurance provided on behalf of, officers, directors, employees, consultants or agents of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries;
- (v) transactions or payments pursuant to any employee, consultant, officer or director compensation or benefit or equity plans, stock options or arrangements entered into in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, customary indemnifications or arrangements or reimbursement of expenses entered into in the ordinary course of business, on market terms and consistent with past practice or industry norms;
- (vi) transactions pursuant to any contract or agreement in effect on the Initial Closing Date, as amended, modified or replaced from time to time so long as the amended, modified or new agreements, taken as a whole, are no less favorable to the Company, GLAI and its Subsidiaries than those in effect on the Initial Closing Date;
- (vii) loans and advances to employees in the ordinary course of business or consistent with past practices; and
- (viii) Restricted Payments that are permitted by the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.12. Limitation on Sale of Assets. Subject to Section 7.07(d), each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not make any Asset Sales and not permit any of its Subsidiaries to make any Asset Sales, unless:

- (i) the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, receives consideration at the time of such Asset Sale at least equal to the Fair Market Value as of the date on which such assets sold or otherwise disposed of;
- (ii) at least 75% of the consideration consists of cash or cash equivalent received at closing, provided that, for purposes of this clause (ii), each of the following shall be deemed cash or cash equivalent: (A) any liabilities of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets pursuant to a customary novation agreement that releases the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from further liability; and (B) any securities notes or other obligations received by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from such transferee that are, within 120 days after the closing of such Asset Sale, converted by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary into cash or cash equivalent, but only to the extent of the cash or cash equivalent actually received in that conversion;

- (iii) Within 360 days after the receipt of any Net Cash Proceeds from an Asset Sale, the Net Cash Proceeds may be used to:

- (A) to permanently repay Debt, other than Subordinated Obligations, of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries (and in the case of a revolving credit, permanently reduce the commitment thereunder by such amount), in each case owing to a Person other than the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries; or

- (B) to acquire (or within such 365-day period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary shall have made a good faith determination to acquire or make capital expenditures, which acquisition shall be consummated, or capital expenditure shall be made prior to the second anniversary of such Asset Sale) (i) all or substantially all of the assets of a Related Business, or a majority of the Capital Stock of another Person that thereupon becomes a Subsidiary engaged in a Related Business, or to make capital expenditures or otherwise acquire assets that are to be used in a Related Business; or (ii) Additional Assets for the Company, GLAI or its Subsidiaries; or

- (C) any combination of (A) and (B).

- (iv) The Net Cash Proceeds of an Asset Sale not applied pursuant to paragraph (iii) above shall constitute “Excess Proceeds”. Excess Proceeds of less than U.S.$25.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) will be carried forward and accumulated. When accumulated Excess Proceeds equals or exceeds such amount, the Company must prepay the outstanding amount under the Notes equal to the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale.

- (v) With respect to paragraph (iv) above, the Company shall notify the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) in writing of any prepayment hereunder by electronic mail or other electronic transmission or by telephone (to be confirmed in writing) no later than 11:00 a.m. five Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment; provided that the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall not accept any prepayment of the Notes without the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders. Each such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount of the Notes or portion thereof to be prepaid and a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such prepayment. Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest on the prepaid amount and shall be without premium or penalty.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not sell, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of any portion of the Collateral without the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders; provided, for purposes of any action requested of the Collateral Agent in connection with any release of Collateral, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty, obligation or liability with respect to the obligations of the Company, GLAI and the Subsidiaries set forth above and the Collateral Agent shall look solely to the provisions of Section 7.09 of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.13. Limitation on Debt.

(a) Each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not issue, assume, guarantee, incur or otherwise become liable for any new Debt in excess of the lesser of (i) U.S.$100.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) and (ii) 0.2x last 12 months consolidated EBITDAR after giving effect thereto and the application of the proceeds therefrom. The last 12 months consolidated EBITDAR shall be calculated, on any date of determination, taking into account each of the Adjusted Operating Revenues, Adjusted Operating Expenses and Sales Taxes for the period of four consecutive fiscal quarters ending on, or most recently prior to such date, for which consolidated financial statements of GLAI are publicly available; all on a consolidated basis and in accordance with the Accounting Principles.

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a) above, the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries may issue, assume, guarantee, incur or otherwise become liable for the following new Debt:

(1) intercompany Debt between or among the Company, GLAI and any Subsidiary thereof or between or among their Subsidiaries provided that any Debt made by any Subsidiary to the Company or any Guarantor shall be subordinated to the Notes pursuant to a subordination agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit F and, if owing to the Company or any of the Guarantors, is subject to a Lien granted in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Purchaser;

(2) Debt that is:

i. represented by the Notes and the Note Guaranties, in each case, issued on the Initial Closing Date;

ii. outstanding on the Initial Closing Date (other than the Notes and the Notes Guaranties);

iii. arising in connection with cash management transactions related to the proceeds of the Notes;

iv. consisting of Refinancing Debt incurred in respect of any Debt described in this clause (b) or the foregoing clause (a); or

v. consisting of guarantees of any Debt permitted under the Notes;

(3) Debt in respect of bankers' acceptances, deposits, promissory notes, letters of credit, self-insurance obligations, completion guarantees, performance, surety, appeal or similar bonds and guarantees provided by the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary in the ordinary course of its business securing the performance of contractual or license obligations of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary or Debt with respect to reimbursement type obligations regarding workers' compensation claims or payment obligations with self-insurance or similar requirements in the ordinary course of business;

(4) Hedging obligations of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary thereof (entered into for non-speculative purposes) in the ordinary course of business or directly related to Debt permitted to be incurred by the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary pursuant to the Notes and Refinancing Debt incurred by the Company, GLAI or a Subsidiary in respect of Debt incurred pursuant to this clause (d);

(5) Debt arising from the honoring by a bank or other financial institution of a check, draft or similar instrument drawn against insufficient funds in the ordinary course of business; provided, however, that such Debt is extinguished within five Business Days of its incurrence;

(6) Debt to the extent that the net proceeds thereof are promptly deposited to defease or to satisfy and discharge the Notes in accordance with its terms (which proceeds shall be thereafter used to defease or satisfy and discharge the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, in each case, with the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders);

(7) Debt consisting of (i) the financing of insurance premiums in the ordinary course of business, (ii) take or pay obligations contained in supply agreements in the ordinary course of business, or (iii) any advance, loan or extension of credit arising in connection with the purchase of inventory, equipment or supplies in the ordinary course of business;

(8) Debt of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary for taxes levied, assessments due, settlements and other governmental charges required to be paid as a matter of law or regulation in the ordinary course of business;

(9) Aircraft Debt; and

SECOND, on a pro rata basis, to the payment in full to the Holders of all amounts due and unpaid on the Notes for principal and interest ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for principal, premium, if any, and interest; provided, that, the proceeds shall be applied (i) first, to the Holders for amounts due and payable on the Notes for all interest ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for interest and (ii) second, any remaining amounts to the Holders for amounts due and payable on the Notes for principal ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the principal amount due and payable on the Notes; and

THIRD, the balance, if any, after all of the Notes Obligations have been paid in full in cash, to the Company and its successors or assigns, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

The Company may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 9.05.

SECTION 9.06. Limitation on Suits. A Holder may not pursue any remedy with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents unless:

- (1) the Holder has previously given to the Collateral Agent written notice stating that an Event of Default with respect the Notes has occurred and is continuing;
- (2) the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes have made a written request to the Collateral Agent to pursue the remedy in respect of such Event of Default;
- (3) such Holder or Holders has offered and provided to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against any cost, loss, liability or expense to be incurred in compliance with such request;
- (4) the Collateral Agent does not comply with the request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer and provision of security or indemnity; and
- (5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Collateral Agent during such 60-day period by the Purchaser.

SECTION 9.07. Contractual Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, each Holder shall have the right pursuant to this Section 9.07 to bring suit for the payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest on its Note, on or after the respective due dates expressed or provided for in such Note.

SECTION 9.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Collateral Agent (as directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as provided in this Note Purchase Agreement) or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 9.09. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 9 or by Law to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Holders.

SECTION 9.10. Control by Holders. The Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) may direct in writing the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Company or the Collateral Agent or of exercising any power conferred on the Collateral Agent. However, the Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request or direction of any Holders if such request or direction conflicts with any Law or with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or may expose the Collateral Agent to liability. Prior to taking any action under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to indemnification satisfactory to the Collateral Agent in its sole discretion against all costs, losses, liabilities and expenses that might be caused by taking or not taking such action.

SECTION 9.11. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes in Section 4.08, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Holders or the Purchaser, as the case may be, is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by Law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at Law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 9.12. Waiver of Past Defaults and Events of Default. The Purchaser (with the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) by written notice to the Company may waive an existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences. When a Default or Event of Default is waived, it is deemed cured, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any consequent right.

SECTION 9.13. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Company and the Guarantors covenant (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that they shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension Law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents; and the Company and the Guarantors (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such Law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Collateral Agent, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such Law had been enacted.

AMENDMENTS

SECTION 10.01. Without Consent of Holders. The Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, the Guarantors and the Collateral Agent may amend or supplement this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Collateral Documents without notice to or consent or vote of the Purchaser, any Holder of the Notes, or any holder of Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes or Abra Senior Secured Notes, for the following purposes:

- (i) to cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Notes in a manner that does not adversely affect any Holder in any material respect, as set forth in an Officer's Certificate;

- (ii) to add guarantees or collateral with respect to the Notes;
- (iii) to comply with Section 8.02;
- (iv) to add to the covenants or Events of Default of the Company or the Guarantors for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes;
- (v) to surrender any right herein conferred upon the Company or the Guarantors;
- (vi) to provide for any guarantee or collateral of the Notes, to secure such Notes or to confirm and evidence the release, termination or discharge of any Note Guaranty or collateral of the Notes when the release, termination or discharge is expressly permitted by this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, as the case may be;
- (vii) in connection with any Specified Corporate Event, to provide that the Notes are exchangeable into Reference Property, subject to the provisions of Section 13.02, and make such related changes to the terms of the Notes to the extent expressly required by Section 13.06;
- (viii) to evidence and provide acceptance of appointment by a registrar, paying agent, bid solicitation agent or exchange agent with respect to the Notes or to facilitate the administration of this Note Purchase Agreement; or
- (ix) ministerial amendments to effect the GLAI Going Private Process; provided that, the Company or the applicable Guarantor has delivered to the Purchaser, the Collateral Agent and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate, each stating that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the execution and delivery of such amendment or supplement pursuant to this Section 10.01 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document pursuant to this Section 10.01 requested by the Company or any Guarantor (A) without any consent of the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes, the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, the Holders or Purchaser, (B) based solely on the Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 10.01 and (C) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent).

SECTION 10.02. With Consent of Holders. Except as specified in Section 10.01, the Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent (at the direction of the Purchaser) and the Majority Holders may amend or supplement this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents only with the prior written consent of the Purchaser and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents or modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents and the Purchaser may, with the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, except as set forth below, waive any past Default or Event of Default or compliance with any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement; provided, however, that, without the consent of each Holder affected or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, an amendment or waiver may not:

- (i) reduce the principal amount of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Note;
- (ii) reduce the amount of principal payable upon acceleration of the Maturity Date of any Note;
- (iii) reduce the rate, or extend the stated time for payment, of interest on any Note except as provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement;
- (iv) impair or adversely affect the right of Holders to exchange Notes or otherwise modify the provisions with respect to exchange pursuant to the terms of Article 13, or reduce the Exchange Rate (subject to such modifications as are required under this Note Purchase Agreement);
- (v) change the currency for payment of principal of, or interest or any Additional Amounts on, any Note;
- (vi) impair the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal and interest on such Holder's Notes on or after due dates therefor or make any change in the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement relating to the contractual rights of Holders of Notes expressly set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement to institute suit for the enforcement of any right to payment on or with respect to any Note;
- (vii) make any change in the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement relating to waivers of a Default or Event of Default in payment of principal of and interest on the Notes;
- (viii) reduce the principal amount of Notes, Abra Senior Secured Notes or Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes whose holders must consent to any amendment, supplement or waiver;
- (ix) make any change in this first paragraph of this Section 10.02;
- (x) make any change in Section 9.05 that adversely affects the Holders;
- (xi) change the ranking of the Notes or any Note Guaranty relating thereto in a manner adverse to the Holders;
- (xii) make any change in any Note Guaranty that would adversely affect the Holders; or
- (xiii) change the definition of "Abra Notes Supermajority Holders" or modify any provision pursuant to which consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders is required for any transaction, action or otherwise.

In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing (and except as provided for in Section 7.09), without the prior written consent of the Purchaser and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, no amendment, supplement or waiver may release any portion of the Collateral or permit or suffer to exist any Lien therein other than to secure the Notes Obligations unless otherwise expressly permitted in this Note Purchase Agreement and/or the Collateral Documents.

The Company shall give to Holders and Abra Notes Supermajority Holders prior written notice of any amendment or waiver proposed to be adopted under this Section 10.02. In addition, the Company or the applicable Guarantor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent (if the Collateral Agent is a party thereto) an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer's Certificate, each stating that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the execution and delivery of such amendment, supplement or waiver pursuant to this Section 10.02 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document pursuant to this Section 10.02 requested by the Company or any Guarantor (A) based solely on the Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 10.02 and (B) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent).

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders or Abra Notes Supermajority Holders under this Section 10.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment or waiver, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

After an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02 becomes effective, the Company shall give to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment or waiver. The failure to give such notice to all Holders and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02.

SECTION 10.03. Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. (a) A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Note or portion of the Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Note. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Note or portion of the Note if the Company receives the written notice of revocation at least one Business Day prior to the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After it becomes effective, an amendment or waiver shall bind every Holder.

(b) The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above in accordance with Section 14.01. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date.

SECTION 10.04. Payment for Consent. Neither the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration, whether by way of interest, fee or otherwise, to any Holder for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes unless such consideration is offered to be paid to all Holders which so consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement.

SECTION 10.05. Collateral Agent. No waiver, modification or amendment of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents may affect or change the rights, obligations, duties, protections or immunities of the Collateral Agent without the written consent of the Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent may conclusively rely on an Officer's Certificate with respect to whether the consent of Purchaser, any Holders, any holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes or any holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes are required in connection with any amendment, supplement or waiver under this Article 10.

NOTE GUARANTIES

SECTION 11.01. The Note Guaranties. Subject to the provisions of this Article, GLAI and GLA hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee (the "Note Guaranties"), on a secured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations; provided, however, that upon release of the Collateral in accordance with Section 7.09 GLA and GLAI shall guarantee, on a unsecured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations. Upon failure by the Company to pay punctually any such amount, the Guarantors shall forthwith on demand pay the amount not so paid at the place and in the manner specified in this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 11.02. Guaranty Unconditional. The obligations of the Guarantors hereunder are unconditional and absolute and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, will not be released, discharged or otherwise affected by:

- (1) any extension, renewal, settlement, compromise, waiver or release in respect of any obligation of the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, by operation of Law or otherwise;
- (2) any modification or amendment of or supplement to this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (3) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of the Company, or any insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting the Company or its assets or any resulting release or discharge of any obligation of the Company contained in this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (4) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights which the Guarantors may have at any time against the Company or any other Person, whether in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or any unrelated transactions; provided that nothing herein prevents the assertion of any such claim by separate suit or compulsory counterclaim;

(5) any invalidity or unenforceability relating to or against the Company for any reason of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, or any provision of applicable Law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Company of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement; or

(6) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by the Company or any other Person or any other circumstance whatsoever which might, but for the provisions of this paragraph, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of or defense to the Guarantors' obligations hereunder.

SECTION 11.03. Discharge; Reinstatement. The Guarantors' obligations hereunder will remain in full force and effect until the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes and all other amounts payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement have been paid in full. If at any time any payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement is rescinded or must be otherwise restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company or otherwise, the Guarantors' obligations hereunder with respect to such payment will be reinstated as though such payment had been due but not made at such time.

SECTION 11.04. Waiver by the Guarantors. Each of the Guarantors irrevocably waives acceptance hereof, presentment, demand, protest and any notice not provided for herein, as well as any requirement that at any time any action be taken by any Person against the Company or any other Person.

SECTION 11.05. Subrogation and Contribution. Upon making any payment with respect to any obligation of the Company under this Article, the Guarantor making such payment will be subrogated to the rights of the payee against the Company with respect to such obligation, limited to the amount of the payment or delivery made by such Guarantor ("Subrogation Rights"). The Guarantor hereby irrevocably agrees that the Subrogation Rights may be used at all times by the Guarantors to set-off amounts owed by the Guarantors to the Guarantor under the Notes and the GOL Senior Secured Notes due 2028.

SECTION 11.06. Stay of Acceleration. If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement are nonetheless payable by the Guarantors hereunder forthwith on demand by the Holders.

SECTION 11.07. Limitation on Amount of Guaranty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article, each of the Guarantors, and by its acceptance of Notes, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Note Guaranty of each Guarantor does not constitute a fraudulent conveyance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law. To effectuate that intention, the Holders and each of the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of each Guarantor under its respective Note Guaranty are limited to the maximum amount that would not render the Guarantors' obligations subject to avoidance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law.

SECTION 11.08. Execution and Delivery of Guaranty. The execution by each of the Guarantors of this Note Purchase Agreement on each Closing Date evidences the respective Note Guaranty of each Guarantor, whether or not the person signing as an Officer of such Guarantor still holds that office at the time of execution of any Note.

SECTION 11.09. Release of Guaranty. The Note Guaranty of each of the Guarantors will terminate upon a sale or other disposition (including by way of consolidation or merger) of such Guarantor or the sale or disposition of all or substantially all the assets of such Guarantor (in each case other than to the Company or a Subsidiary) otherwise permitted by this Note Purchase Agreement.

Upon delivery by the Company to the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent of an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all of the conditions provided in this Note Purchase Agreement to the release and termination of the Note Guaranty have been satisfied, the Purchaser will execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company in writing in order to evidence the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Note Guaranty.

COLLATERAL AGENT

SECTION 12.01. Appointment. Each of the Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as the agent of such Secured Parties under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which it is a party and authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms hereof or thereof. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "agent" herein or in the Collateral Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary duty or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties. The Company agrees to pay to the Collateral Agent such fees and expenses (including counsels' fees and expenses) of the Collateral Agent as may be separately agreed in writing and pursuant to the terms of Section 12.04. For the avoidance of any doubt and for the purposes of this Article 12, this Note Purchase Agreement shall prevail in the case of any conflicts between any Collateral Document and this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 12.02. Exculpatory Provisions. (a) The Collateral Agent shall have no duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, and no duty, liability or obligation shall be inferred or implied against the Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, (i) the Collateral Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duty, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and persists; (ii) the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to perform any discretionary act or exercise any discretionary powers (by consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval, notice, request or other communication, or other instruction given or act to be performed or to be (or not) suffered or omitted by the Collateral Agent, or any option, decision, opinion, acceptance, exercise of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other discretionary exercise, rights or remedies to be exercised (or not) by the Collateral Agent); (iii) except as expressly provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the non-disclosure of, any information concerning the Company or any Guarantor or any of their Subsidiaries which is communicated to or obtained by the Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity; and (iv) the Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to perform any act which, in its opinion or in the opinion of its attorney, may expose the Collateral Agent to liability or otherwise contrary to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or applicable Law, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any act that may be in violation of automatic suspension under any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect or that may cause the Company's assets to lapse, change or be closed in violation of any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the written consent or at the written request, written instruction or written direction of the Purchaser, the Majority Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders (or such other requisite percentage of Holders as may be specified), as applicable, or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment.

(c) The Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, unless and until written notice by the Purchaser (a copy of which shall be delivered by the Purchaser to the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) describing such event is received by a Responsible Officer of the Collateral Agent, referring to this Note Purchase Agreement and such Default or Event of Default.

(d) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for or have any duty to prove or investigate, or otherwise have any obligation or liability with respect to, (i) any representation or warranty provided in or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered under or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (iii) the performance or fulfillment of any of the obligations, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, efficacy or authenticity of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent.

(e) The Collateral Agent shall have the right to rely on, and shall not incur any liability for, any notification, request, certificate, consent, representation, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) considered by it to be authentic and having been signed or sent by a competent Person. The Collateral Agent may also rely on any statement given to it verbally or by telephone and deemed to have been given by the competent Person, and shall not incur any liability for it. The Collateral Agent may consult with counsel, independent auditors and other experts chosen by the Collateral Agent, at the Company's expense, and the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any act performed or not performed by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the advice of any said counsel, auditor or expert.

(f) The Collateral Agent may fulfill any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more subagents appointed by it, at the expense of the Company. The Collateral Agent and any subagent may fulfill any and all of their duties and exercise their rights and powers through their related parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article 12 shall apply to any such subagent as a third-party beneficiary to the extent applicable. The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the supervision, negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents that it selects with due care.

(g) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable and makes no representation as to the existence, authenticity, value or protection of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents, the security provided hereunder or thereunder or the Collateral, for the legality, effectiveness or sufficiency of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents nor for the creation, formalization, ranking, sufficiency or protection of any Liens constituted under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, no provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to prepare, file or record any financing statements or continuation statements or other instruments or documents, or to be responsible for maintaining the Liens and security interests to be created as described in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, and such responsibility shall be in charge exclusively of the Company. The Collateral Agent's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Collateral in its possession, if applicable, shall be to deal with it in the same manner as the Collateral Agent deals with similar property for the account of other customers in similar transactions. The Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of its rights and powers.

(h) In order to effect the transfer of any amounts received as a result of the enforcement of the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent may perform a foreign exchange transaction to convert into U.S. Dollars any amount in Reais resulting from such enforcement; except that possible deductions of any commissions or taxes charged on such foreign exchange transactions and/or any other withholding or charge levied on the corresponding payments may be applicable, and upon such deductions, the Collateral Agent will transfer the amounts in U.S. Dollars according to the instructions provided by any Holder. The Collateral Agent (a) will only be obliged to perform any foreign exchange transaction it may undertake as of the second (2nd) Brazilian Business Day after the Brazilian Business Day on which the Collateral Agent receives the applicable instructions and documents to perform such foreign exchange transaction; and (b) will not undertake to perform any foreign exchange transaction or transfer of funds, unless the Collateral Agent has received (i) all documents and information necessary for the remittance of funds in accordance with applicable foreign exchange regulations and (ii) the payment of the respective commissions, fees and expenses. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any losses or damages resulting from possible delays or impediments to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and/or transfer, nor as the impossibility to perform a foreign exchange transaction or transfer. The Collateral Agent shall not assume any liability to any Person with respect to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and the rates related to any foreign exchange transaction to be performed in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or with respect to the transfer of any funds as a result thereof.

(i) The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to spend or put at risk any of its own funds or otherwise incur any obligation or liability, financial or otherwise, in performing its duties or exercising its rights under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents.

(j) In no event shall the Collateral Agent be liable for special, indirect, punitive, consequential or unforeseen loss or damage of any nature (including lost profits) regardless of whether the Collateral Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(k) The Collateral Agent shall not incur any obligation for failure to perform any act or duty under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents by reason of any occurrence beyond its control (including any act or provision of any current or future Law, regulation, governmental authorization, any acts of God or war, civil conflict, local or national disturbance or disaster, any act of terrorism or the unavailability of an electronic or mechanical transfer or other transfer or communication resource from the Federal Reserve System or the Central Bank).

(l) The Collateral Agent shall have the right, unilaterally and without notice, to withdraw or fail to comply with any obligation that may result in a violation of sanctions imposed by the United States of America, the European Union, local embargo Laws and the Collateral Agent's internal policies with respect to embargoes ("Embargo Rules"). Violation of the Embargo Rules includes, among others, receiving or transferring funds to any legal entity, country or individual named on the Specially Designated Citizens List of the Office of Foreign Assets Control - OFAC or controlled by legal entities, countries or individuals on that list. The parties expressly agree that the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for the failure to effect and/or delay in the receipt or payment of any amount under the conditions described in this Section 12.02.

(m) Any and all payments by the Company and/or the Guarantors to or for the benefit of the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall be made free and clear, and without deduction, of any taxes, expenses or withholdings of any nature levied by the Brazilian government and/or any of its departments ("Deductions") and any other Taxing Jurisdiction, which taxes, expenses or withholdings shall be borne by the Company. If any Deductions apply to any payment, the Company and/or the Guarantors, as the case may be, will immediately pay to the account indicated by the Collateral Agent the additional amount necessary for the amount paid to the Collateral Agent to be equal to the amount it would have received without the applicable Deductions.

(n) Each Secured Party (other than the Collateral Agent) authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party on the date hereof on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(o) Notwithstanding any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to the contrary, before taking or omitting any action to be taken or omitted by the Collateral Agent under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Collateral Document, the Collateral Agent may seek the written direction of the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely (and shall be fully protected in so relying) upon such direction. The Collateral Agent is not liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in accordance with such direction. If the Collateral Agent requests such direction by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, with respect to any action, the Collateral Agent is entitled to refrain from such action unless and until the Collateral Agent has received such direction, and the Collateral Agent does not incur liability to any Person by reason of so refraining. If the Collateral Agent so requests, it must first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Purchaser or the Holders, as the case may be, against any and all fees, losses, liabilities and expenses which may be incurred by the Collateral Agent by reason of taking or continuing to take, or omitting, any action directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders. Any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents authorizing the Collateral Agent to take any action does not obligate the Collateral Agent to take such action. The Collateral Agent may refuse to perform any duty or exercise any right or power unless it receives indemnity or security satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in performing such duty or exercising such right or power. In the absence of an express statement in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents regarding which Holders shall direct in any circumstance, the direction of the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall apply and be sufficient for all purposes.

(p) Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under or pursuant to the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

(q) The Collateral Agent shall have no responsibility for interest or income on any funds held by it under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and any funds so held shall be held uninvested pending distribution thereof.

(r) The Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the duties or powers vested in it by this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request, order, instruction or direction of the Holders, unless the Holders shall have offered to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities that might be incurred thereby.

(s) The Collateral Agent may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Company or any Affiliate thereof as if the Collateral Agent were not an attorney-in-fact hereunder and without any duty to account therefore to the Secured Parties.

(t) The Secured Parties understand that the Collateral Agent, acting in its individual capacity, and its Affiliates may engage in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, financing, securities trading, corporate and investment banking and research) (the “Activities”) and may engage in the Activities with or on behalf of one or more of the Company and its respective Affiliates. Furthermore, the Collateral Agent may, in undertaking the Activities, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for its own account or on behalf of others (including the Company and its Affiliates and including holding, for its own account or on behalf of others, equity, debt and similar positions in the Company or its respective Affiliates), including trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, loans or other financial products of the Company or its Affiliates. The Secured Parties understand and agree that in engaging in the Activities, the Collateral Agent may receive or otherwise obtain information concerning the Company or its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its respective obligations hereunder and under the Collateral Documents) which information may not be available to the Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty to disclose to the Secured Parties or use on behalf of the Secured Parties, nor be liable for the failure to so disclose or use, any information whatsoever about or derived from the Activities or otherwise (including any information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of the Company or any of its Affiliates) or to account for any revenue or profits obtained in connection with the Activities.

(u) The Secured Parties further understand that there may be situations where members of the Collateral Agent’s group or their respective customers (including the Company and its Affiliates) either now have or may in the future have interests or take actions that may conflict with the interests of any one or more of the Secured Parties (including the interests of the Secured Parties hereunder and under the Collateral Documents). None of (i) this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of information concerning the Company or any of its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement) or (iii) any other matter, shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including any duty of trust or confidence) owing by the Collateral Agent to any Secured Party including any such duty that would prevent or restrict the Collateral Agent from acting on behalf of customers (including the Company or its Affiliates) or for its own account.

(v) The Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) confirm to the Collateral Agent that each of them (i) possesses such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters so that it is capable, without reliance on such Collateral Agent, of evaluating the merits and risks (including tax, legal, regulatory, credit, accounting and other financial matters) of (x) entering into this Note Purchase Agreement or holding the Notes and (y) taking or not taking actions hereunder or under the Collateral Documents, (ii) is financially able to bear such risks and (iii) has determined that entering into this Note Purchase Agreement is suitable and appropriate for it.

(w) Nothing in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to carry out any “know your customer” or other checks in relation to the Company or any of its Affiliates on behalf of the Secured Parties and the Secured Parties confirm to the Collateral Agent that such Secured Parties are solely responsible for any such checks such Secured Parties are required to carry out and that such Secured Parties may not rely on any statement in relation to such checks made by such the Collateral Agent.

(x) The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely on any written direction, instruction, request, consent or other written communication from the Purchaser or any Holder. The Collateral Agent shall not have any obligation or duty with respect to the identity of any Holder or the amount of any Obligations owing to any such Person. At any time and from time to time, the Collateral Agent may request information from the Holders or the Company as to the identities of the Holders, their respective Notes and the composition and calculation of the Majority Holders or the Supermajority Holders, and the Holders and the Company shall provide such information. The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to fully rely on such information and shall have no duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity or amount of Notes held by any Holder or with respect to the calculation of the Majority Holders, the Supermajority Holders or the unanimous vote of Holders.

(y) The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity, calculation or consent or other action of the Abra Holders. Where the consent or other action of the Abra Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders is required by this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall certify to the Collateral Agent that the Company has obtained such consent, or other action, and the Collateral Agent shall be fully entitled to rely on such certification of the Company without any liability.

(z) Before the Collateral Agent acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer’s Certificate of the Company, or an Opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, with respect to the proposed action or inaction. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such certificate or opinion. Whenever in the administration of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents the Collateral Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be provided or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting to take any act hereunder or thereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein of therein specifically described) may, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officer’s Certificate delivered to the Collateral Agent, and such certificate, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, shall be full warrant to the Collateral Agent for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it under the provision of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents upon the faith thereof.

SECTION 12.03. Resignation. Upon at least thirty (30) days’ notice, the Collateral Agent may resign at any time as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents by notifying the Purchaser and the Company. Upon any resignation by the Collateral Agent, the Company shall have the right (provided that no Event of Default has occurred and continues) to appoint a successor Collateral Agent or, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Purchaser shall have the right to appoint a successor Collateral Agent. If no successor has been so appointed and has accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the date the Collateral Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the resigning Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) (a) upon consent (provided that no Event of Default or Default has occurred and continues) of the Company (consent of which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), at the cost and expense of the Company, appoint a successor Collateral Agent or (b) petition any court of competent jurisdiction, at the cost and expense of the Company, for the appointment of a successor Collateral Agent. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, the Collateral Agent's resignation shall become effective in accordance with the Collateral Agent's notice of resignation on the date specified in such notice, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents on such date. Upon acceptance of a successor Collateral Agent of its appointment as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, such successor will succeed and have all rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning Collateral Agent, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents (if not released sooner, as provided above). The fees due by the Company to a successor agent will be the same as those contracted in relation to its predecessor, unless otherwise agreed between the Company and such successor. Any Person into which the Collateral Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to the business of the Collateral Agent shall be the successor of the Collateral Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper with any party hereto or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, except where an instrument of transfer or assignment is required by Law to effect such succession, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 12.04. Fees, Expenses and Indemnification.

(a) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Collateral Agent for its own account fees in the amounts and at the times agreed with the Collateral Agent.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay or reimburse each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent for (1) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the development, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents and any amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of the provisions hereof and thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby are consummated), and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including all attorney fees and expenses, and (2) all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement, attempted enforcement, or preservation of any rights or remedies under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents, including all attorney costs and all expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents. The foregoing costs and expenses shall include all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Purchaser and Collateral Agent under clause (1) or (2) above and the cost of counsel, independent public accountants and other outside experts so retained. All amounts due under this Section shall be payable within ten Business Days after demand therefore.

(c) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify and hold each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent harmless for, from and against any and all damage, loss, liability, cost, claim or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and including all fees, expenses and costs incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent in connection with any dispute, action, claim or suit brought to enforce the right to indemnification) incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent arising out of or in connection with the execution, delivery or administration of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or any instrument or agreement contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance of the Collateral Agent's duties hereunder or thereunder, and the exercise of each of the Purchaser's and the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder or thereunder including, without limitation, the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability and of complying with any process served upon it or any of its officers in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, except, as applicable, as may result from the Purchaser's or the Collateral Agent's respective willful misconduct or gross negligence (as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction).

(d) To the extent that the Company of the Guarantors for any reason fail to indefeasibly pay any amount required under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this Section or under the Collateral Documents to be paid by the Company or the Guarantors to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent thereof), the Holders agree to pay to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) such unpaid amount (including any such unpaid amount in respect of a claim asserted by the Holders); provided that the unpaid amount was incurred by or asserted against the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) in its capacity as such.

EXCHANGE OF NOTES

SECTION 13.01. Right to Exchange. Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of this Article 13, the Company and each Holder of a Note shall have the right, at its option, to exchange all or any portion of such Note, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, at any time prior to the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date, at an initial exchange rate of [\bullet]³ Preferred Shares per

U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes (the “Exchange Rate”) (plus cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange) subject to the adjustments set forth in Section 13.03(a) through (e), and in accordance with, the settlement provisions of Section 13.02 (the “Exchange Obligation”). The election of the Company to exchange the Notes shall be subject to satisfaction of the conditions described in Section 13.01(b); provided that (i) the Company or any Holder of the Notes, may only exercise the exchange right under this Section 13.01 if all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes due 2028 have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash to all of the holders of those notes and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Notes that can be exchanged under this Section 13.01 shall be in an amount proportionate to (and be no greater than) the aggregate principal amount of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes that have been converted under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture.

(1) Special Adjustment to Exchange Rate Related to Total Created Value. On the last day of each fiscal quarter following the Initial Closing Date in which the Total Created Value has changed, the Total Created Value (or, for subsequent adjustments, the incremental change to the Total Created Value) shall be added to the Exchange Rate; provided that if for any Exchange Date following the date on which the Total Created Value increased, the Company shall make commercially reasonable efforts to give the applicable Holders the benefit of an increased Exchange Rate as provided under this clause 13.01(1) notwithstanding that the Exchange Date be prior to the last day of the applicable fiscal quarter.

(a) On or after GLAI Going Private Date and prior to the close of business on the Second Business Day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, the Company may require a Holder to surrender all or any portion of a Holder’s Notes for exchange at any time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company and each Holder of a Note shall only have the right to exchange all or any portion of any Note or deliver any Notice of Exchange pursuant to this Section 13.01 on, or following the GLAI Going Private Date if (i) all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes due 2028 have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash to all of the holders of those notes and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Notes that can be exchanged under this Section 13.01(a) shall be in an amount proportionate to (and be no greater than) the aggregate principal amount of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes that have been converted under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture.

(b) Exchange by the Company upon Satisfaction of the Exchange Price Condition. At any time prior to the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date and prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, the Company may require a Holder to surrender all or any portion of a Holder’s Notes for exchange at any time during any calendar quarter commencing after the calendar quarter ending on December 31, 2023 (and only during such calendar quarter), if the Last Reported Sale Price of the Preferred Shares for at least 20 Trading Days (whether or not consecutive) during the period of 30 consecutive Trading Days ending on the last Trading Day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter is greater than or equal to 130% of the Exchange Price on each applicable Trading Day (the “Sale Price Condition”). The Company shall provide written notice to the Holders if the Company has elected to exchange the Notes in accordance with this Section 13.01(b) within ten Business Days after the end of the preceding calendar quarter.

(c) Each Preferred Share issued upon an Exchange of any Note will be fully-paid-up newly issued share and will be subject to the terms of the bylaws and any shareholders' agreement in effect on the Exchange Date, and, except as set out therein, will be duly and validly issued, fully paid, non-assessable, free from preemptive rights and free of any lien or adverse claim. Each Holder whose Notes are being converted shall be deemed to irrevocably authorize and instruct GLAI to apply the moneys payable to that Holder in subscribing for Preferred Shares on exchange of the Notes. If the Preferred Shares are then listed on any securities exchange and have been registered on an effective registration statement with the CVM, then the Company will, to the extent practicable, cause each Preferred Share, when delivered upon an exchange of any Note, to be admitted for listing on such securities exchange.

SECTION 13.02. Exchange Procedure; Settlement Upon Exchange

(a) Subject to this Section 13.02(a), upon exchange of any Note, the Company shall pay or cause to be delivered, as the case may be, to the exchanging Holder, in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged, cash ("Cash Settlement"), Preferred Shares, together with cash, if applicable, in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange in accordance with subsection (1) of this Section 13.02 ("Physical Settlement") or a combination of cash and Preferred Shares, together with cash, if applicable, in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange in accordance with subsection (1) of this Section 13.02 ("Combination Settlement"), at its election, as set forth in this Section 13.02.

(1) Except for any exchanges for which the relevant Exchange Date occurs on or after the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date, the Company shall use the same Settlement Method (including the same relative proportion of cash and/or Preferred Shares) for all exchanges with the same Exchange Date, but the Company shall not have any obligation to use the same Settlement Method with respect to exchanges with different Exchange Dates.

(2) If, in respect of any Exchange Date (or one of the periods described in the third immediately succeeding set of parentheses, as the case may be), the Company elects to deliver a notice (the "Settlement Notice") of the relevant Settlement Method in respect of such Exchange Date (or such period, as the case may be), the Company shall deliver such Settlement Notice to exchanging Holders no later than the close of business on the Trading Day immediately following the relevant Exchange Date (or, in the case of any exchanges for which the relevant Exchange Date occurs on or after the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date, no later than the date that is 100 days prior to the Maturity Date). If the Company does not elect a Settlement Method prior to the deadline set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, the Company shall no longer have the right to elect Cash Settlement or Physical Settlement with respect to that Exchange Date and the Company shall be deemed to have elected Combination Settlement in respect of its Exchange Obligation, and the Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes shall be equal to U.S.$1,000. Such Settlement Notice shall specify the relevant Settlement Method and in the case of an election of Combination Settlement, the relevant Settlement Notice shall indicate the Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes. If the Company delivers a Settlement Notice electing Combination Settlement in respect of its Exchange Obligation but does not indicate a Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes in such Settlement Notice, the Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes shall be deemed to be U.S.$1,000.

(3) The cash, Preferred Shares or combination of cash and Preferred Shares in respect of any exchange of Notes (the “Settlement Amount”) shall be computed as follows:

(A) if the Company elects to satisfy its Exchange Obligation in respect of such exchange by Physical Settlement, the Company shall cause to be delivered to the exchanging Holder in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate in effect on the Exchange Date (plus cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange);

(B) if the Company elects to satisfy its Exchange Obligation in respect of such exchange by Cash Settlement, the Company shall pay to the exchanging Holder in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged cash in an amount equal to the sum of the Daily Exchange Values for each of the 50 consecutive VWAP Trading Days during the related Observation Period; and

(C) if the Company elects (or is deemed to have elected) to satisfy its Exchange Obligation in respect of such exchange by Combination Settlement, the Company shall pay or cause to be delivered, as the case may be, in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged, a Settlement Amount equal to the sum of the Daily Settlement Amounts for each of the (x) 50 consecutive VWAP Trading Days during the related Observation Period (plus cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange) or (y) 10 consecutive VWAP Trading Days, in case the payment relating to the Exchange Obligation is due on or after the GLAI Going Private Date.

(4) The Daily Settlement Amounts (if applicable) and the Daily Exchange Values (if applicable) shall be determined by the Company promptly following the last day of the Observation Period. Promptly after such determination of the Daily Settlement Amounts or the Daily Exchange Values, as the case may be, and the amount of cash payable in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange, the Company shall notify the Purchaser of the Daily Settlement Amounts or the Daily Exchange Values, as the case may be, and the amount of cash payable in lieu of any fractional Preferred Shares deliverable upon exchange.

(b) Subject to Section 13.02(e), before the Company or any Holder of a Note shall be entitled to exchange (which exchange is irrevocable) a Note as set forth above, the Company or such Holder, as the case may be, shall (1) complete, sign and deliver an irrevocable notice to the Exchange Agent or the Holder, as the case may be, as set forth in the forms of notices of exchange attached hereto as Annex I and Annex II to the Form of Note, as applicable, (each, a “Notice of Exchange”) at the office of the Exchange Agent and state in writing therein the principal amount of Notes to be exchanged and the name or names (with addresses) to whom such Holder wishes the Preferred Shares to be delivered upon settlement of the Exchange Obligation, (2) surrender such Notes, duly endorsed to the Company or in blank (and accompanied by appropriate endorsement and transfer documents), at the office of the Exchange Agent, (3) if required, furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents and (4) if required by Section 13.02(e), pay all transfer or similar taxes. If more than one Note shall be surrendered for exchange at one time by the same Holder, the Exchange Obligation with respect to such Notes shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes (or specified portions thereof to the extent permitted thereby) so surrendered.

(c) A Note shall be deemed to have been exchanged immediately prior to the close of business on the date (the “Exchange Date”) that the Holder has complied with the requirements set forth in subsection (b) above. The Company shall pay or deliver, as the case may be, the consideration due in respect of the Exchange Obligation on the second Business Day (after the GLAI Going Private Date) or the fifth Business Day (prior to the GLAI Going Private Date) immediately following the relevant Exchange Date (or on the Maturity Date, in the case of any such exchange occurring after the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date), regardless of the Settlement Method elected by the Company. If any Preferred Shares are due to an exchanging Holder, the Company shall cause to be issued, and deliver or cause to be delivered (if applicable) to such Holder, or such Holder’s nominee or nominees, the full number of Preferred Shares to which such Holder shall be entitled in satisfaction of the Company’s Exchange Obligation.

(d) In case any Note shall be surrendered for partial exchange, the Company shall execute and deliver to or upon the written order of the Holder of the Note so surrendered a new Note or Notes in Authorized Denominations in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unexchanged portion of the surrendered Note, without payment of any service charge by the exchanging Holder but, if required by the Company, with payment of a sum sufficient to cover any U.S. documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax or similar governmental charge required by Law or that may be imposed in connection therewith as a result of the name of the Holder of the new Notes issued upon such exchange being different from the name of the Holder of the old Notes surrendered for such exchange.

(e) If a Holder submits a Note for exchange, the Company shall pay any documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax due on the issuance or delivery of any Preferred Shares upon exchange, unless the tax is due because the Holder requests such Preferred Shares to be issued in a name other than the Holder’s name, in which case the Holder shall pay that tax. The Exchange Agent may refuse to deliver the Preferred Shares being issued in a name other than the Holder’s name until the Company receives a sum sufficient to pay any tax that is due by such Holder in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence.

(f) Except as provided in Section 13.03, no adjustment shall be made for dividends on any Preferred Shares delivered upon the exchange of any Note as provided in this Article 13.

(g) Upon exchange, a Holder shall not receive any separate cash payment for accrued and unpaid interest, if any, except as set forth below. The Company’s settlement of the full Exchange Obligation shall be deemed to satisfy in full its obligation to pay the principal amount of the Note and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including the relevant Exchange

Date. As a result, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including, the relevant Exchange Date shall be deemed to be paid in full rather than cancelled, extinguished or forfeited. Upon an exchange of Notes into a combination of cash and Preferred Shares, accrued and unpaid interest will be deemed to be paid first out of the cash paid upon such exchange. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Notes are exchanged after the close of business on a Regular Record Date but prior to the open of business on the immediately following Interest Payment Date, the Holders of such Notes as of the close of business on such Regular Record Date will receive the full amount of interest payable on such Notes on the corresponding Interest Payment Date notwithstanding the exchange. Notes surrendered for exchange during the period from the close of business on any Regular Record Date to the open of business on the immediately following Interest Payment Date must be accompanied by funds equal to the amount of interest payable on the Notes so exchanged on the corresponding Interest Payment Date (regardless of whether the exchanging Holder was the holder of record on the corresponding Regular Record Date); provided that no such payment shall be required (1) for exchanges following the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date; or (2) to the extent of any Defaulted Amounts, if any Defaulted Amounts exist at the time of exchange with respect to such Note. Therefore, for the avoidance of doubt, all Holders of record on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date, described in the immediately preceding sentence shall receive and retain the full interest payment due on the Maturity Date or other applicable Interest Payment Date regardless of whether their Notes have been exchanged following such Regular Record Date. For the further avoidance of doubt, any accrued and unpaid PIK Interest on the Notes that has been capitalized in accordance with Section 4.05(e) shall be paid in full for such capitalized amounts as set forth in Section 4.05(e) and shall not be treated as Outstanding principal amount of the Notes for any purposes under this Note Purchase Agreement.

(h) The Person in whose name any Preferred Shares shall be deliverable upon exchange shall be treated by GLAI as a holder of record of such Preferred Shares, for purposes of dividends and distributions in respect of such Preferred Shares, as of the close of business on the relevant Exchange Date (if the Company elects to satisfy the related Exchange Obligation by Physical Settlement) or the last VWAP Trading Day of the relevant Observation Period (if the Company elects to satisfy the related Exchange Obligation by Combination Settlement), as the case may be. Upon an exchange of Notes, such Person shall no longer be a Holder of such Notes surrendered for exchange.

(i) The Company shall not deliver any fractional Preferred Share upon exchange of the Notes and shall instead pay cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange based on the Daily VWAP for the relevant Exchange Date (in the case of Physical Settlement) or based on the Daily VWAP for the last VWAP Trading Day of the relevant Observation Period (in the case of Combination Settlement). For each Note surrendered for exchange, if the Company has elected Combination Settlement, the full number of Preferred Shares that shall be delivered upon exchange thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate Daily Settlement Amounts for the relevant Observation Period and any fractional Preferred Shares remaining after such computation shall be paid in cash (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate on the Trading Day immediately before such payment).

SECTION 13.03. Adjustment of Exchange Rate

The Exchange Rate shall be adjusted from time to time if any of the following events occurs, except that the Company shall not make any adjustments to the Exchange Rate if Holders of the Notes participate (other than in the case of a share split or share combination), at the same time and upon the same terms as holders of the Preferred Shares and solely as a result of holding the Notes, in any of the transactions described in this Section 13.03, without having to exchange their Notes, as if they held a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate, multiplied by the principal amount (expressed in thousands) of Notes held by such Holder. For the avoidance of doubt, each Last Reported Sale Price used in the calculation of an adjustment to the Exchange Rate will be expressed in U.S. Dollars, translated, if necessary at the Prevailing Exchange Rate as contemplated in the definition of “Last Reported Sale Price”, in Section 1.01.

(a) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI exclusively issues Preferred Shares as a dividend or distribution on the Preferred Shares, or effects a share split or share combination of the Preferred Shares, the Exchange Rate shall be adjusted based on the following formula:

$$ER' = ER_0 \times \frac{OS'}{OS_0}$$

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date of such dividend or distribution, or immediately prior to the open of business on the Exchange Date of such share split or share combination, as applicable;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date, as applicable;

OS_0 = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date, as applicable, (before giving effect to any such dividend, distribution, share split or share combination); and

OS' = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date, as applicable, after giving effect to such dividend, distribution, share split or share combination.

Any adjustment made under this Section 13.03(a) shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution, or immediately after the open of business on the Exchange Date for such share split or share combination, as applicable. If any dividend or distribution of the type described in this Section 13.03(a) is declared but not so paid or made, the Exchange Rate shall be immediately readjusted, effective as of the date GLAI’s Board of Directors determines not to pay such dividend or distribution, to the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

(b) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI issues to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) any rights, options or warrants

(other than pursuant to a stockholder rights plan, so long as such rights have not separated from the Preferred Shares) entitling them, for a period of not more than 45 calendar days after the announcement date of such issuance, to subscribe for or purchase Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) at a price per Preferred Share (translated, if necessary at the Prevailing Exchange Rate on the Trading Day immediately before the date of announcement of such issuance) that is less than the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares for the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of announcement of such issuance, the Exchange Rate shall be increased based on the following formula:

where,

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such issuance;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

OS_0 = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

X = the total number of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) deliverable pursuant to such rights, options or warrants; and

Y = the number of Preferred Shares equal to (i) the aggregate price payable to exercise such rights, options or warrants (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate), divided by (ii) the quotient of (x) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate) over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of announcement of the issuance of such rights, options or warrants, divided by (y) the number of Preferred Shares then represented by one ADS (in case ADSs are issued).

Any increase made under this Section 13.03(b) shall be made successively whenever any such rights, options or warrants are issued and shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such issuance. To the extent that such rights, options or warrants are not exercised prior to their expiration or the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) are not delivered after the exercise of such rights, options or warrants, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased to the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect had the increase with respect to the issuance of such rights, options or warrants been made on the basis of delivery of only the number of Preferred Shares actually delivered (directly or in the form of ADSs). If such rights, options or warrants are not so issued, or if no such rights, options or warrants are exercised prior to their expiration, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased (effective, in the case of the non-issuance of such rights, options or warrants, as of the date GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to issue such rights, options or warrants) to the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such Ex-Dividend Date for such issuance had not occurred.

For purposes of this Section 13.03(b), in determining whether any rights, options or warrants entitle the holders to subscribe for or purchase Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) at a price per Preferred Share (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) that is less than such average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares for the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of announcement for such issuance (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) and in determining the aggregate offering price of such Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), there shall be taken into account any consideration received by GLAI for such rights, options or warrants and any amount payable on exercise or exchange thereof, the value of such consideration, if other than cash (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate), to be determined by GLAI's Board of Directors.

(c) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI distributes shares of its Capital Stock, evidences of its indebtedness, other assets or property or rights, options or warrants to acquire its Capital Stock or other securities, to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), excluding (i) dividends, distributions or issuances (including share splits) described in Section 13.03(a) or Section 13.03(b), (ii) dividends or distributions paid exclusively in cash described in Section 13.03(d), and (iii) Spin-Offs described below in this Section 13.03(c) (any of such shares of Capital Stock, evidences of indebtedness, other assets or property or rights, options or warrants to acquire Capital Stock or other securities, the “Distributed Property”), then the Exchange Rate shall be increased based on the following formula:

where,

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such distribution;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

SP_0 = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares (translated, if necessary, into in U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution; and

FMV = the fair market value (as determined by GLAI's Board of Directors and translated, if necessary, into in U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) of the Distributed Property with respect to each outstanding Preferred Share (directly or in the form of ADSs) on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such distribution,.

Any increase made under the portion of this Section 13.03(c) above shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution. If such distribution is not so paid or made, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased, effective as of the date GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to pay or make such distribution, to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such distribution had not been declared. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if "FMV" (as defined above) is equal to or greater than "SP0" (as defined above), or if the difference between "FMV" and "SP0" is less than US$1.00, in lieu of the foregoing increase, each Holder of a Note shall receive from GLAI, in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount thereof, at the same time and upon the same terms as holders of the Preferred Shares, a distribution of cash that, in the determination of GLAI, is comparable as a whole in all material respects with the amount of Distributed Property such Holder would have received had such Holder owned a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate in effect on the Ex-Dividend Date for the distribution. If GLAI's Board of Directors determines the "FMV" (as defined above) of any distribution for purposes of this Section 13.03(c) by reference to the actual or when-issued trading market for any securities, it shall in doing so consider the prices in such market over the same period used in computing the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution.

With respect to an adjustment pursuant to this Section 13.03(c) where there has been a payment of a dividend or other distribution on the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) of shares of Capital Stock of any class or series, or similar equity interest, of or relating to a Subsidiary, Affiliate or other business unit of GLAI, that are, or, when issued, will be, listed or admitted for trading on a U.S. national securities exchange (directly or in the form of ADSs) (a "Spin-Off"), the Exchange Rate shall be increased based on the following formula:

where,

ER₀ = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the end of the Valuation Period;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the end of the Valuation Period;

FMV₀ = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Capital Stock (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate) or similar equity interest distributed to holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) applicable to one Preferred Share (determined by reference to the definition of "Last Reported Sale Price" as set forth in Section 1.01 as if references therein to Preferred Shares were to such Capital Stock or similar equity interest) over the first 10 consecutive Trading Day period after, and including, the Ex-Dividend Date of the Spin-Off (the "Valuation Period"); and MP₀ = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares over the Valuation Period (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate).

Any adjustment to the Exchange Rate under the preceding paragraph shall be made immediately after the close of business on the last Trading Day of the Valuation Period, but shall be given effect as of the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Spin-Off. Because the adjustment to the Exchange Rate shall be made at the end of the Valuation Period with retroactive effect, the Company shall delay the settlement of any exchange of Notes where the Exchange Date (in the case of Physical Settlement) or the final day of the related Observation Period (in the case of Cash Settlement or Combination Settlement) occurs during the Valuation Period. In such event, the Company shall deliver the consideration due upon exchange on the second Business Day immediately following the last Trading Day of the Valuation Period. If such Spin-Off does not occur, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared, effective as of the date on which GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to consummate such Spin-Off.

For purposes of this Section 13.03(c) (and subject in all respect to Section 13.07), rights, options or warrants distributed by GLAI to all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) entitling them to subscribe for or purchase shares of GLAI's Capital Stock, including Preferred Shares (either initially or under certain circumstances), which rights, options or warrants, until the occurrence of a specified event or events ("Trigger Event"): (i) are deemed to be transferred with such Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs); (ii) are not exercisable; and (iii) are also issued in respect of future issuances of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), shall be deemed not to have been distributed for purposes of this Section 13.03(c) (and no adjustment to the Exchange Rate under this Section 13.03(c) will be required) until the occurrence of the earliest Trigger Event, whereupon such rights, options or warrants shall be deemed to have been distributed and an appropriate adjustment (if any is required) to the Exchange Rate shall be made under this Section 13.03(c). If any such right, option or warrant, including any such existing rights, options or warrants distributed prior to the date of this Note Purchase Agreement, are subject to events, upon the occurrence of which such rights, options or warrants become exercisable to purchase different securities, evidences of indebtedness or other assets, then the date of the occurrence of any and each such event shall be deemed to be the date of distribution and Ex-Dividend Date with respect to new rights, options or warrants with such rights (in which case the existing rights, options or warrants shall be deemed to terminate and expire on such date without exercise by any of the holders thereof). In addition, in the event of any distribution (or deemed distribution) of rights, options or warrants, or any Trigger Event or other event (of the type described in the immediately preceding sentence) with respect thereto that was counted for purposes of calculating a distribution amount for which an adjustment to the Exchange Rate under this Section 13.03(c) was made, (1) in the case of any such rights, options or warrants that shall all have been purchased without exercise by any holders thereof, upon such final purchase (x) the Exchange Rate shall be readjusted as if such rights, options or warrants had not been issued and (y) the Exchange Rate shall then again be readjusted to give effect to such distribution, deemed distribution or Trigger Event, as the case may be, as though it were a cash distribution, equal to the per Preferred Share purchase price received by a holder or holders of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) with respect to such rights, options or warrants (assuming such holder had retained such rights, options or warrants), made to all holders of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) as of the date of such purchase, and (2) in the case of such rights, options or warrants that shall have expired or been terminated without exercise by any holders thereof, the Exchange Rate shall be readjusted as if such rights, options and warrants had not been issued.

For purposes of Section 13.03(a), Section 13.03(b) and this Section 13.03(c), if any dividend or distribution to which this Section 13.03(c) is applicable also includes one or both of:

(1) a dividend or distribution of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) to which Section 13.03(a) is applicable (the “Clause A Distribution”); or

(2) a dividend or distribution of rights, options or warrants to which Section 13.03(b) is applicable (the “Clause B Distribution”), then, in either case, (1) such dividend or distribution, other than the Clause A Distribution and the Clause B Distribution, shall be deemed to be a dividend or distribution to which this Section 13.03(c) is applicable (the “Clause C Distribution”) and any Exchange Rate adjustment required by this Section 13.03(c) with respect to such Clause C Distribution shall then be made, and (2) the Clause A Distribution and Clause B Distribution shall be deemed to immediately follow the Clause C Distribution and any Exchange Rate adjustment required by Section 13.03(a) and Section 13.03(b) with respect thereto shall then be made, except that, if determined by the Company (I) the “Ex-Dividend Date” of the Clause A Distribution and the Clause B Distribution shall be deemed to be the Ex-Dividend Date of the Clause C Distribution and (II) any Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) included in the Clause A Distribution or Clause B Distribution shall be deemed not to be “outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date” within the meaning indicated in Section 13.03(a) or “outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date” within the meaning indicated in Section 13.03(b).

(d) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, any cash dividend or distribution is made to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), the Exchange Rate shall be adjusted based on the following formula:

$$ER' = ER_0 \times \frac{SP_0}{SP_0 - C}$$

where,

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such dividend or distribution;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

SP_0 = the Last Reported Sale Price of the Preferred Shares on the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution; and

C = the amount in cash per Preferred Share GLAI distributes (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate on the Trading Day immediately before such Ex-Dividend Date) to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs).

Any adjustment pursuant to this Section 13.03(d) shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such dividend or distribution. If such dividend or distribution is not so paid, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased, effective as of the date GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to make or pay such dividend or distribution, to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if "C" (as defined above) is equal to or greater than "SP₀" (as defined above) or if the difference between "C" and "SP₀" is less than U.S.$1.00, in lieu of the foregoing increase, each Holder of a Note shall receive, for each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes, at the same time and upon the same terms as holders of the Preferred Shares, the amount of cash that such Holder would have received if such Holder owned a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate on the Ex-Dividend Date for such cash dividend or distribution.

(e) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries make a payment in respect of a tender or exchange offer for the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), except for a tender or exchange offer in the context of the GLAI Going Private Process, to the extent that the cash and value of any other consideration included in the payment per Preferred Share (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) exceeds (i) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the last date on which tenders or exchanges may be made pursuant to such tender or exchange offer (the "Expiration Date"), divided by (ii) the number of Preferred Shares then represented by one ADS (in case ADSs are issued), the Exchange Rate shall be increased based on the following formula:

where,

ER₀ = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the 10th Trading Day immediately following, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the close of business on the 10th Trading Day immediately following, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date;

AC = the aggregate value of all cash and any other consideration (as determined by GLAI's Board of Directors), translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate, paid or payable for Preferred Shares or ADSs, as the case may be, purchased or exchanged in such tender or exchange offer;

OS₀ = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Expiration Date (prior to giving effect to the purchase of all Preferred Shares accepted for purchase or exchange, or represented by all ADSs accepted for purchase or exchange, as the case may be, in such tender or exchange offer);

OS' = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately after the Expiration Date (after giving effect to the purchase of all Preferred Shares accepted for purchase or exchange, or represented by all ADSs accepted for purchase or exchange, as the case may be, in such tender or exchange offer, without duplication); and

SP' = (i) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares (translated, if necessary, into in U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date, divided by (ii) the number of Preferred Shares then represented by one ADS (in case ADSs are issued).

Any adjustment to the Exchange Rate under this Section 13.03(e) shall be made at the close of business on the 10th Trading Day immediately following, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date, but shall be given effect as of the open of business on the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date. Because the adjustment to the Exchange Rate shall be made at the end of the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date with retroactive effect, the Company shall delay the settlement of any exchange of Notes where the Exchange Date (in the case of Physical Settlement) or the final day of the related Observation Period (in the case of Cash Settlement or Combination Settlement) occurs during the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date. In such event, the Company shall deliver the consideration due upon exchange on the second Business Day immediately following the last Trading Day of the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment under this Section 13.03(e) shall be made if such adjustment would result in a decrease in the Exchange Rate. In the event that GLAI or one of its Subsidiaries is obligated to purchase Preferred Shares or ADSs, as the case may be, pursuant to any such tender offer or exchange offer, but GLAI or such Subsidiary is permanently prevented by applicable Law from effecting any such purchases, or all or a portion of such purchases are rescinded, then the Exchange Rate shall again be adjusted to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such tender offer or exchange offer had not been made or had been made only in respect of the purchases that have been effected.

(f) On and after the GLAI Going Private Date, if there shall occur any increase in the amount or value of the Capital Stock of GLAI as a result of a recapitalization, merger, consolidation, reclassification, redesignation or subdivision of any Capital Stock, allotment or issuance of equity securities, rights, or any other increase of the nominal value of the then issued equity securities by way of capitalisation of profits or reserves, including any share premium account or capital redemption reserve, issuance of any options, warrants or any other rights to subscribe for or purchase equity securities or any securities which by their terms of issue carry (directly or indirectly) rights of conversion into, or exchange or subscription for, or the right to otherwise acquire, any equity securities (or the grant of any such rights in respect of existing securities so issued), any cancellation, purchase or redemption of equity securities or any reduction (including, but not limited to, reduction of the nominal value) or repayment of equity securities by the Company (excluding in respect of any deferred shares), the distribution of Distributed Property, tender or exchange offer for the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), conversion or reclassification of equity or like event, then the Exchange Rate shall be adjusted as determined by an Independent Financial Advisor; provided, however, that the Company shall only be required to make an adjustment pursuant to this Section 13.03(f) if such adjustment would result in a change of at least 1% of the Exchange Rate. However, the Company shall carry forward any adjustment that the Company would otherwise have to make and take that adjustment into account in any subsequent adjustment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all such carried forward adjustments shall be made with respect to the Notes (i) in connection with any subsequent adjustment to the Exchange Rate of at least 1% of the Exchange Rate (when such carried-forward adjustments are taken into account), (ii) on the Exchange Date for any Notes, (iii) prior to the close of business on the Exchange Date in respect of any exchange following a replacement of Preferred Shares by Reference Property consisting solely of cash and (iv) on the date the Company sends a Notice of Exchange pursuant to Section 13.01(b).

(g) Notwithstanding this Section 13.03 or any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes, if an Exchange Rate adjustment becomes effective on any Ex-Dividend Date, and a Holder that has exchanged its Notes on or after such Ex-Dividend Date and on or prior to the related Record Date would be treated as the record holder of the Preferred Shares as of the related Exchange Date as described under Section 13.02(h) based on an adjusted Exchange Rate for such Ex-Dividend Date, then, notwithstanding the Exchange Rate adjustment provisions in this Section 13.03, the Exchange Rate adjustment relating to such Ex-Dividend Date shall not be made for such exchanging Holder. Instead, such Holder shall be treated as if such Holder were the record owner of the Preferred Shares on an unadjusted basis and participate in the related dividend, distribution or other event giving rise to such adjustment.

(h) Except as stated herein, the Company shall not adjust the Exchange Rate for the issuance of Preferred Shares or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for Preferred Shares or the right to purchase Preferred Shares or such convertible or exchangeable securities.

(i) In addition to those adjustments required by clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of this Section 13.03, and to the extent permitted by applicable Law and subject to the applicable rules of any exchange on which any of GLAI's securities are then listed, the Company from time to time may increase the Exchange Rate by any amount for a period of at least 20 Business Days if GLAI's Board of Directors determines that such increase would be in the Company's and/or GLAI's best interest. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and subject to the applicable rules of any exchange on which any of GLAI's securities are then listed, the Company may (but is not required to) increase the Exchange Rate to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of the Preferred Shares or rights to purchase Preferred Shares in connection with a dividend or distribution of Preferred Shares (or rights to acquire Preferred Shares) or similar event. Whenever the Exchange Rate is increased pursuant to either of the preceding two sentences, the Company shall deliver to the Holder of each Note a notice of the increase at least 15 days prior to the date the increased Exchange Rate takes effect, and such notice shall state the increased Exchange Rate and the period during which it will be in effect.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article 13, the Exchange Rate shall not be adjusted:

(1) upon the issuance of any Preferred Shares pursuant to any present or future plan providing for the reinvestment of dividends or interest payable on GLAI's

securities and the investment of additional optional amounts in Preferred Shares under any plan;

(2) upon the issuance of any Preferred Shares or options or rights to purchase those Preferred Shares pursuant to any present or future employee, director or consultant benefit plan or program of or assumed by the GLAI Group;

(3) upon the issuance of any Preferred Shares pursuant to any option, warrant, right or exercisable, exchangeable or convertible security not described in clause (2) of this subsection and outstanding as of the date the Notes were first issued;

(4) for repurchases of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) that are not tender or exchange offers referred to in Section 13.03(e) of this Note Purchase Agreement, including structured or derivatives transactions or pursuant to a repurchase program approved by GLAI's Board of Directors;

(5) solely for a change in the par value of the Preferred Shares; or

(6) for accrued and unpaid interest, if any.

(k) All calculations and other determinations under this Article 13 shall be made by the Company and shall be made to the nearest one-ten thousandth (1/10,000th) of a Preferred Share. In no event shall the Exchange Rate be adjusted such that the Exchange Price will be less than the par value per Preferred Share.

(l) Whenever the Exchange Rate is adjusted as herein provided, the Company shall prepare a notice of such adjustment of the Exchange Rate setting forth the adjusted Exchange Rate and the date on which each adjustment becomes effective and shall deliver such notice of such adjustment of the Exchange Rate to each Holder. Failure to deliver such notice shall not affect the legality or validity of any such adjustment.

(m) For purposes of this Section 13.03, the number of Preferred Shares at any time outstanding shall not include Preferred Shares held in the treasury of GLAI (directly or in the form of ADSs) so long as GLAI does not pay any dividend or make any distribution on Preferred Shares held in the treasury of GLAI (directly or in the form of ADSs), but shall include Preferred Shares issuable in respect of scrip certificates issued in lieu of fractions of Preferred Shares.

SECTION 13.04. Effects of Recapitalizations, Reclassifications and Changes of the Preferred Shares

(a) In the case of:

(1) any recapitalization, reclassification or change of the Preferred Shares (other than changes in par value or resulting from a subdivision or combination);

(2) any consolidation, merger (fusão or incorporação), merger of shares (incorporação de ações) or other combination involving GLAI; or

(3) any sale, lease or other transfer or disposition in one transaction or a series of transactions, including any split-off or spin-off (cisão), to any Person of all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of the GLAI Group, taken as a whole,

in each case, as a result of which the Preferred Shares would be converted into, or exchanged for, stock, other securities, other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) (any such event, a “Specified Corporate Event” and any such stock, other securities, other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) into which the Preferred Shares are converted into or exchanged for, “Reference Property”, and the amount of Reference Property that a holder of one Preferred Share immediately prior to such Specified Corporate Event would have been entitled to receive upon the occurrence of such Specified Corporate Event, a “unit of Reference Property”)), then, prior to or at the effective time of such Specified Corporate Event, the Company, GLAI and/or the successor or purchasing corporation, as the case may be, shall execute, without the consent of the Holders, an amendment permitted under Section 10.01(vii) to this Note Purchase Agreement providing that, at and after the effective time of such Specified Corporate Event, the right to exchange each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes for Preferred Shares shall be changed into a right to exchange such principal amount of Notes for the kind and amount of Reference Property that a holder of a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate immediately prior to such Specified Corporate Event would have been entitled to receive upon such Specified Corporate Event. However, at and after the effective time of the Specified Corporate Event, (A) the Company or the successor or purchasing company, as the case may be, shall continue to have the right to determine the form of consideration to be paid or delivered, as the case may be, upon exchange of Notes in accordance with Section 13.02 and (B) (I) any amount payable in cash upon exchange of the Notes in accordance with Section 13.02 shall continue to be payable in cash, (II) any Preferred Shares that would have been deliverable upon exchange of the Notes in accordance with Section 13.02 shall instead be deliverable in the units of Reference Property that a holder of that number of Preferred Shares would have received in such Specified Corporate Event and (III) the Daily VWAP shall be calculated based on the value of a unit of Reference Property; provided, however, that if the holders of Preferred Shares receive only cash in such Specified Corporate Event, then (i) the consideration due upon exchange of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes shall be solely cash in an amount equal to the Exchange Rate in effect on the Exchange Date (as may be increased as described under Section 13.03 of this Note Purchase Agreement), multiplied by the price paid per Preferred Share in such Specified Corporate Event; and (ii) settlement of the Exchange Obligation shall occur on the second Business Day immediately following the Exchange Date.

If the Specified Corporate Event causes the Preferred Shares to be converted into, or exchanged for, the right to receive more than a single type of consideration (determined based in part upon any form of holder election), then (i) the Reference Property into which the Notes will be exchangeable shall be deemed to be based on (x) the weighted average of the types and amounts of consideration received by the holders of Preferred Shares that affirmatively make such an election and (y) if no holders of Preferred Shares affirmatively make such an election, the types and amounts of consideration actually received by the holders of the Preferred Shares and (ii) the unit of Reference Property for purposes of the immediately preceding paragraph shall refer to the consideration referred to in clause (1) thereof attributable to one Preferred Share. The Company shall notify the Purchaser, GLAI and the Exchange Agent (if other than GLAI) of such weighted average as soon as practicable after such determination is made.

Such amendment to this Note Purchase Agreement described in the second immediately preceding paragraph shall provide for anti-dilution and other adjustments that shall be as nearly equivalent as is possible to the adjustments provided for in this Article 13, it being understood that no such adjustments shall be required with respect to any portion of the Reference Property that does not consist of equity (however evidenced) or depositary receipts in respect thereof. If, in the case of any Specified Corporate Event, the Reference Property includes shares of stock, other securities or other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) of a Person other than the Company or a Guarantor or the successor or purchasing corporation, as the case may be, in such Specified Corporate Event, then such other Person, if it is party to such Specified Corporate Event, shall also execute such amendment to this Note Purchase Agreement, and such amendment to this Note Purchase Agreement shall contain such additional provisions to protect the interests of the Holders of the Notes as GLAI's Board of Directors shall reasonably consider necessary by reason of the foregoing.

(b) Neither the Company nor any Guarantor shall become a party to any Specified Corporate Event unless its terms are consistent with this Section 13.04. None of the foregoing provisions shall affect the right of a Holder of Notes to exchange its Notes for cash, Preferred Shares or a combination of cash and Preferred Shares, as applicable, as set forth in Section 13.01 and Section 13.02 prior to the effective date of such Specified Corporate Event.

(c) If the Notes become exchangeable for Reference Property, the Company shall notify the Purchaser, GLAI and the Exchange Agent (if other than GLAI).

(d) The above provisions of this section shall similarly apply to successive Specified Corporate Events.

SECTION 13.05. Certain Covenants.

(a) The Company and each Guarantor covenants that all Preferred Shares delivered upon exchange of Notes shall be duly authorized, fully paid and non-assessable and free from all preemptive or similar rights and from all taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issue thereof.

(b) GLAI covenants that, if any Preferred Shares to be provided for the purpose of exchange of Notes hereunder require registration with or approval of any Governmental Authority under any federal or state Law before such Preferred Shares may be validly issued upon exchange, GLAI will, to the extent then permitted by applicable Laws and the rules and interpretations of the CVM, secure such registration or approval, as the case may be.

(c) The Company shall transfer to the Preferred Shares Registrar such Preferred Shares required to be issued, if any, upon exchange of the Notes, together with written delivery instructions (if required by the Preferred Shares Registrar for such Preferred Shares) and any other information or documentation required by the Preferred Shares Registrar in connection with each such issuance, transfer and delivery of Preferred Shares. The Company and each Guarantor covenants to take all actions and obtain all approvals and registrations with respect to the exchange of the Notes for Preferred Shares and the issuance of the Preferred Shares.

(d) The Company and each Guarantor covenants to take all actions, obtain all approvals and registrations, and execute all ancillary documents with respect to the exchange of the Notes for Preferred Shares and the issuance of Preferred Shares (including by means of the issuance of rights, options or warrants to the subscription of such Preferred Shares) pursuant to the exchange terms and conditions of the Exchange Obligation provided in this Note Purchase Agreement. The Company and each Guarantor further covenants that any issuance of rights, options or warrants associated to the subscription of Preferred Shares in the context of fulfilment of the Exchange Obligation pursuant this Article 13 shall reflect the exchange terms and conditions provided in this Note Purchase Agreement, as applicable.

SECTION 13.06. Notice to Holders Prior to Certain Actions

In case of:

- (a) any action by the Company, GLAI or one of GLAI's Subsidiaries that would require an adjustment in the Exchange Rate pursuant to Section 13.03 or Section 13.08;
- (b) any Specified Corporate Event;
- (c) any voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Company, GLAI or any of GLAI's Subsidiaries; or
- (d) the GLAI Going Private Process,

then, in each case (unless notice of such event is otherwise required pursuant to another provision of this Note Purchase Agreement), the Company shall cause to be delivered to each Holder, as promptly as possible but in any event at least 20 days prior to the applicable date hereinafter specified, a notice stating the date on which a record is to be taken for the purpose of such action by the Company, GLAI or one of GLAI's Subsidiaries or, if a record is not to be taken, the date as of which the holders of Preferred Shares of record are to be determined for the purposes of such action by the Company, GLAI or one of GLAI's Subsidiaries.

SECTION 13.07. Shareholder Rights Plans. If GLAI has a shareholder's rights agreement or a rights plan in effect upon exchange of the Notes, each Preferred Share, if any, delivered upon such exchange shall be entitled to receive the appropriate number of rights, if any, and the certificates representing the Preferred Shares delivered upon such exchange shall bear such legends, if any, in each case as may be provided by the terms of any such shareholder's rights agreement or rights plan, as the same may be amended from time to time.

SECTION 13.08. Adjustments of Prices. Whenever any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement requires the Company to calculate the Last Reported Sale Prices, the Daily VWAPs, the Daily Exchange Values or the Daily Settlement Amounts over a span of multiple days (including, without limitation, an Observation Period), GLAI's Board of Directors shall make appropriate adjustments to each to account for any adjustment to the Exchange Rate that becomes effective, or any event requiring an adjustment to the Exchange Rate where the Ex-Dividend Date or Expiration Date, as the case may be, of the event occurs at any time during the period when the Last Reported Sale Prices, the Daily VWAPs, the Daily Exchange Values or the Daily Settlement Amounts are to be calculated. For the avoidance of doubt, each Last Reported

Sale Price of the Preferred Shares used in the calculation of any adjustment to the Exchange Rate will be expressed in U.S. Dollars (translated, if necessary, to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate).

ACTIONS BY HOLDERS

SECTION 14.01. Action by Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Note Purchase Agreement to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders or by agents duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Company and, where applicable pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Guarantors or to the Collateral Agent, as applicable. Such instrument or instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the “Act” of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments.

(b) Whenever in this Note Purchase Agreement it is provided that the Holders of a specified percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes may take any action (including the making of any demand or request, the giving of any notice, consent or waiver or the taking of any other action), the fact that at the time of taking any such action, the Holders of such specified percentage have joined therein may be evidenced by any instrument or any number of instruments of similar tenor executed by Holders in person or by agent or proxy appointed in writing.

(c) Whenever the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, the Company may fix, but shall not be required to, in advance of such solicitation, a date as the record date for determining Holders entitled to take such action. The record date if one is selected shall be not more than fifteen days prior to the date of commencement of solicitation of such action.

SECTION 14.02. Proof of Execution by Holders. When the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, proof of the execution of any instrument by a Holder, its agent or proxy, or the Purchaser, shall be sufficient if made in accordance with such reasonable rules as may be prescribed by the Company or in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the Company.

SECTION 14.03. Company-Owned Notes Disregarded. In determining whether the Holders of the requisite aggregate principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, consent, waiver or other action under this Note Purchase Agreement, Notes that are owned by the Company, by any Subsidiary thereof or by any of their respective Affiliates shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding for the purpose of any such determination.

SECTION 14.04. Revocation of Consents; Future Holders Bound. At any time prior to (but not after) the evidencing to the Company, as provided in Section 14.01, of the taking of any action by the Holders of the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes specified in this Note Purchase Agreement in connection with such action, any Holder of a Note that is shown by the evidence to be included in the Notes the Holders of which have consented to such action may, by filing written notice with the Company at the Company's Office and upon proof of holding as provided in Section 14.02, revoke such action so far as concerns such Note; provided that to the extent that the consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders was required or otherwise obtained, the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders shall be required to revoke any such consent. Except as provided in the previous sentence, any such action taken by the Holder of any Note shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders and owners of such Note and of any Notes issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof, irrespective of whether any notation in regard thereto is made upon such Note or any Note issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof.

(1) an Officer's Certificate (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all covenants and conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement and, if the action involves any of the Collateral Documents, the applicable Collateral Documents relating to the proposed action have been complied with; and

(2) an Opinion of Counsel (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, all such covenants and conditions precedent have been complied with.

SECTION 15.04. Statements Required in Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel. Each certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a covenant or condition provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall include:

(1) a statement that each Person making or rendering such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel has read such covenant or condition and the related definitions;

(3) a statement that, in the opinion of each such Person, such Person has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable such Person to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and

(4) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of each such Person, such covenant or condition has been complied with.

SECTION 15.05. Rules by Registrar, Paying Agent, Exchange Agent and Transfer Agents. The Registrar, the Paying Agent, the Exchange Agent and the Transfer Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

SECTION 15.06. Currency Indemnity. U.S. Dollars are the sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by the Company or the Guarantors under or in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties, including damages. Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than U.S. Dollars (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the winding-up or dissolution of the Company or otherwise) by any Person in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Company or the Guarantors in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties will only constitute a discharge to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to the extent of the U.S. Dollar amount which the recipient is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If that U.S. Dollar amount is less than the U.S. Dollar amount expressed to be due to the recipient, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify such recipient against any loss sustained by it as a result, and if the amount of U.S. Dollars so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to such recipient, such recipient will be deemed to have agreed to repay such excess. In any event, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify the recipient against the cost of making any such purchase.

For the purposes of this Section 15.06, it shall be sufficient for the recipient to certify in a satisfactory manner (indicating the sources of information used) that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase of U.S. Dollars been made with the amount so received in that other currency on the date of receipt or recovery (or, if a purchase of U.S. Dollars on such date had not been practicable, on the first date on which it would have been practicable, it being required that the need for a change of date be certified in the manner mentioned above). These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder of a Note and shall continue in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due under any Note.

SECTION 15.07. No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent, respectively, under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or the Notes or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder shall waive and release all such liability. The waiver and release shall be part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

SECTION 15.08. Legal Holidays. In any case where any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall not be a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or of the Notes) payment of interest or principal need not be made on such date, but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date; provided that no default interest shall accrue for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date on account of such delay.

SECTION 15.09. Governing Law. THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES AND THE NOTE GUARANTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Articles 470-1 to 470-19 (inclusive) of the Luxembourg Act on commercial companies of August 10, 1915, as amended, shall not apply in respect of the Notes.

For purposes solely of Article 9 of Brazilian Decree Law No. 4,657, of September 4, 1942, the transactions contemplated hereby have been constituted and proposed outside of Brazil.

SECTION 15.10. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York with respect to actions brought against it as a defendant in respect of any suit, action or proceeding or arbitral award arising out of or relating to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby (a “Proceeding”), and irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may do so under applicable Law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such Proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such Proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably appoints Cogency Global, Inc. (the “Company and Guarantors Process Agent”), with an office at 122 East 42nd Street, 18th Floor, New York, NY 10168, as its authorized agent to receive on behalf of it and its property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding. If for any reason such Person shall cease to be such agent for service of process, each of the Company and the Guarantors shall forthwith appoint a new agent of recognized standing for service of process in the State of New York within 30 days.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably appoints the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as its agent to receive, on behalf of itself and its property, service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York. Such service shall be made by delivering by hand a copy of such process to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, in care of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent at the address specified above. Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf. Failure of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to give notice to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, or failure of the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to receive notice of such service of process shall not affect in any way the validity of such service on the Company and Guarantors Process Agent, the Company or the Guarantors. As an alternative method of service, each of the Company and the Guarantors also irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such Proceeding by the delivery by hand of copies of such process to the Company or Guarantors, as the case may be, at its address specified in Section 15.02 or at any other address previously furnished in writing by the Company or the Guarantors. Each of the Company and the Guarantors covenants and agrees that it shall take any and all reasonable action, including the execution and filing of any and all documents, that may be necessary to continue the designation of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent above in full force and effect during the term of the Notes, and to cause the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to continue to act as such.

(c) [Reserved]

(d) Exclusively for the purposes of Brazilian law, the Guarantors appoint the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as their agent and attorney-in-fact to receive on behalf of them and their property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding pursuant to articles 653 et. seq. of the Brazilian Law No. 10,406, of January 10, 2022.

(e) Nothing herein shall affect the right of any party (including the Collateral Agent, any other Agent or any Holder) to serve process in any other manner permitted by Law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise bring any claim against any other party or its property in any other court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, in any proceedings anywhere (whether for an injunction, specific performance or otherwise), no immunity (to the extent that it may at any time exist, whether on the grounds of sovereignty or otherwise) from such proceedings, from attachment (whether in aid of execution, before judgment or otherwise) of its assets or from execution of judgment shall be claimed by it or on its behalf or with respect to its assets, except to the extent required by applicable Law, any such immunity being irrevocably waived, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, where permitted by applicable Law, it and its assets are, and shall be, subject to such proceedings, attachment or execution in respect of its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties.

(g) ALL PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THEY MAY DO SO UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES, THE NOTE GUARANTIES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

SECTION 15.11. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements of the Company and the Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties shall bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. The Notes shall not be assigned by the Purchaser unless (i) the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall have been indefeasibly paid in full or (ii) as otherwise may be consented to by the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders.

In the event of a transfer, assignment, novation or amendment of the rights and/or the obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and any other Transaction Documents, all security interests, guarantees and privileges created under or in connection with the Transaction Documents shall automatically and without any formality be preserved for the benefit of the transferee including the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture for the purpose of the provisions of articles 1278 to 1281 of the Luxembourg Civil Code or any other purposes.

SECTION 15.12. Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Note Purchase Agreement. Each signed copy shall be deemed an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement. One signed copy is enough to prove this Note Purchase Agreement. The words “execution,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in this Note Purchase Agreement or in any other certificate or document related to this Note Purchase Agreement shall include images of executed signatures transmitted by facsimile or other electronic format (including, without limitation, “pdf”, “tif” or “jpg”) and other electronic signatures (including, without limitation, DocuSign and AdobeSign). The use of electronic signatures and electronic records (including, without limitation, any contract or other record created, generated, sent, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means) shall be of the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as an executed signature or use of a paper-based record-keeping system to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act and any other applicable Law, including, without limitation, any state Law based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act or the Uniform Commercial Code.

SECTION 15.13. Severability Clause. In case any provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, the parties hereby waive any provision of Law which renders any term or provision hereof invalid or unenforceable in any respect.

SECTION 15.14. Force Majeure. In no event shall the Collateral Agent or any other Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder, or under the Collateral Documents arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, governmental actions, pandemics, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Collateral Agent or such other Agent, as applicable shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

SECTION 15.15. Acknowledgement. Each of the Company and the Guarantors acknowledges that, on the date hereof, the Purchaser has pledged, or will pledge, all of its right, title and interest in the Notes, Notes Obligations and all Collateral therefor, in favor of the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture as collateral to secure the Purchaser’s obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Note Purchase Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first written above.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

1. Purchase Agreement.

Each holder of this security, by accepting the same, agrees to and shall be bound by the provisions hereof and of the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of [•], 2023, by and among the GOL EQUITY FINANCE, a public limited liability company (société anonyme) incorporated in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 17, Boulevard Raiffeisen, L-2411 Luxembourg, registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Companies (R.C.S.Luxembourg) under number B 224920 (the “Company”), GOL LINHAS AÉREAS INTELIGENTES S.A. (“GLAI”), as guarantor, registrar, transfer agent, exchange agent and paying agent, and GOL LINHAS AÉREAS S.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of GLAI (“GLA” and together with GLAI, the “Guarantors”), each, a corporation (sociedade por ações) organized under the Laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, as guarantors, ABRA GROUP LIMITED, a private limited company organized under the Laws of England and Wales, with registered office at 1 Ashley Road, 3rd Floor, Altrincham, Cheshire, United Kingdom, as purchaser (the “Purchaser” or “Holder”) and TMF BRASIL ADMINISTRAÇÃO E GESTÃO DE ATIVOS LTDA., as collateral agent (the “Collateral Agent”), as the same shall be amended from time to time (the “Note Purchase Agreement”). The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Note Purchase Agreement. The Holders of the Notes shall be entitled to the benefit of, be bound by and be deemed to have notice of, all provisions of the Note Purchase Agreement.

Reference is hereby made to the Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents and all amendments and supplements to each of them from time to time (collectively, the “Note Documents”) for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent, each other Agent and the Purchaser as Holder of the Notes and the terms upon which the Notes, are, and are to be, executed and delivered. The Purchaser waives all notice of the acceptance of the provisions contained herein and in the Note Documents and waives reliance by such Purchaser upon said provisions. All terms used in this Note that are defined in the Note Purchase Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Notes are senior obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, secured by a first priority and perfected Lien in the Collateral. The payment obligations of the Company under the Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to the terms of the Note Guaranties.

The Note Documents impose certain limitations on assets, debts, Restricted Payments, the creation of Lien by the Company, and consolidation, merger, Related-Party Transactions, and certain other transactions involving the Company. In addition, the Note Documents require the maintenance of insurance for the Company, the maintenance of the existence of the Company, the payment of certain taxes and claims and reporting requirements applicable to the Company. The Note Documents also contain provisions related to the Collateral as well as certain assurances, restrictions, and use and possession related to the Collateral.

2. Principal.

Unless previously redeemed, exchanged or purchased and cancelled, the Company promises to pay the Holder hereof the total Outstanding principal amount which shall be repaid in cash in a single installment on the Maturity Date, together with all other amounts owed hereunder with respect thereto (including all accrued and unpaid interest that has not yet been added to the total Outstanding principal amount through the Maturity Date).

3. Interest.

The Notes shall bear interest at an interest rate as follows:

(1) 4.50% per year shall be payable entirely in cash semi-annually in arrears on each Interest Payment Date (“Cash Interest”);

(2) 13.5% per year shall be payable in cash or in kind (“PIK Interest”), at the sole election of the Company, as set forth below; and

(3) GLAI, at its option, may elect to pay in cash all or a portion of any accrued but unpaid PIK Interest on the Outstanding principal amount of the Notes (A) semi-annually in arrears, on each applicable Interest Payment Date or (B) on the Maturity Date; provided that, unless GLAI makes such election to make interest payments in cash, any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date shall not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note; provided, further, that any such PIK Interest payment shall be capitalized automatically on such Interest Payment Date and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of this Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon on the aggregate principal amount of the Notes on each applicable Interest Payment Date in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement.

4. Method of Payment.

Any payments of interest or principal in respect of each Note made on an Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall be made by the Company to the Persons shown on the Register at the close of (a) in the case of interest payments, the Regular Record Date or (b) in the case of principal payment, the fifteenth day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, whether or not a Business Day (each, a “Record Date”); provided that any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date will not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and automatically added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note (and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of such Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement).

Final payments in respect of any Note shall be made subject only to any fiscal or other Laws and regulations applicable thereto, at the specified offices of any other Paying Agent appointed by the Company, if any.

If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Purchaser to pay fully all amounts of principal and interest then due in cash hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest then due hereunder and (ii) second, towards payment of principal then due hereunder.

Payment in cash of the principal and premium, if any, of any Note on the Maturity Date shall be made upon presentation and surrender thereof, by wire transfer to the Holder's Designated Bank Account.

If a Holder fails to designate a Designated Bank Account or such account is unable to accept wire transfers, then all cash payments shall instead be made by U.S. Dollar check drawn on a bank in The City of New York and mailed to the Person entitled thereto at its address as it appears on the Register.

If the amount of principal or interest which is due on the Notes is not paid in full, the Registrar shall annotate the Register with a record of the amount of interest, if any, in fact paid.

All payments on this Note are subject in all cases to any applicable tax or other Laws and regulations, but without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph 7 hereof. provided, however, that the foregoing orders of application above shall not be altered as a result of any Liens under any of the Collateral Documents failing to secure all of the Pari Passu Obligations, and the Secured Parties agree that Proceeds from all sources shall be applied to ensure that the foregoing order of application is maintained.

(b) It is acknowledged that the Pari Passu Obligations may, subject to the limitations set forth in the Indentures, be increased, extended, renewed, replaced, restated, supplemented, restructured, repaid, refunded, Refinanced or otherwise amended or modified from time to time, all without affecting the priority set forth in Section 2.01(a) or the provisions of this Agreement defining the rights of the Secured Parties.

(c) Notwithstanding (i) the time, order or method of attachment or perfection of any Liens securing any Pari Passu Obligations granted on the Collateral, the time or order of filing of notices of such Liens, financing statements (or similar filings in any applicable jurisdiction), or the giving of or failure to give notice of the acquisition or expected acquisition of purchase money or other Liens, (ii) the manner in which such Lien is acquired, whether by grant, contract, statute or operation of law, subrogation or otherwise, (iii) the fact that the Collateral or any Lien thereof (or any portion thereof) is otherwise subordinated, voided, avoided, invalidated or lapsed and (iv) any applicable law or any provision to the contrary in any Collateral Document or the Indentures, each of the Collateral Agent and the Trustees agree, for themselves and on behalf of each Secured Party, that (1) each Lien created in favor of a Secured Party in the Collateral pursuant to a Collateral Document ranks and shall rank equally in priority to each other Lien created in favor of a Secured Party, and each Secured Party, has and shall have a pro rata entitlement to the Liens (if any) of the other Secured Parties in the Collateral, (2) any Lien (if any) created in favor of a Secured Party and held by such Secured Party in the Collateral shall be for the equal and ratable benefit of all Secured Parties and (3) subject to any mandatory provisions of any applicable law, the Senior Secured Note Obligations and the Additional Pari Passu Obligations rank and shall rank on a pari passu basis with each other.

SECTION 2.02. Actions With Respect to the Collateral; Prohibition on Contesting Liens.

(a) The Secured Parties shall vote as a single class by reference to the aggregate principal amount of the then Outstanding Pari Passu Obligations on all matters related to the Collateral, including, but not limited to, enforcement of rights in the Collateral. The Collateral Agent shall refrain from taking any action to exercise any rights hereunder and under the Collateral Documents or otherwise with respect to the Collateral unless it is instructed to do so by the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, in accordance with clause (b) below.

(b) The Collateral Agent shall act at the direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent may at any time seek the direction of the Trustees, and the Trustees agree to cooperate fully with the Collateral Agent to provide such direction.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any of the terms of the Indentures or the Collateral Documents, (a) the Collateral Agent shall act solely at the direction of the Trustees, on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, and (b) the Collateral Agent shall not have any duty, liability or responsibility to take any direction from or recognize any notice or other communication from any Secured Party other than the Trustees.

(d) Notwithstanding the terms of any Indenture or Collateral Document, in no event shall the Collateral Agent have any duty, responsibility or liability with respect to (A) the identity of any Secured Party, (B) any requirements of the Indentures or Collateral Documents regarding voting or otherwise taking action, including voting percentages or entitlement to vote, (C) whether any Pari Passu Obligation is held by the Issuers or any Affiliate of the Issuers or (D) whether any Secured Party should be disregarded for purposes of voting.

(e) If less than the Controlling Secured Parties have instructed the Collateral Agent, through the Trustees, to take enforcement action pursuant to clause (b) above, then the Collateral Agent shall not take enforcement action unless and until the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, instruct the Collateral Agent in writing to take such action; provided that, the Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to take any action that is (i) contrary to applicable law in any applicable jurisdiction; or (ii) based on any unlawful, ambiguous or inaccurate instruction, notice, demand, notification or other document pursuant to the Indentures and the Collateral Documents.

(f) Each of the Collateral Agent and each Trustee agree, for itself and on behalf of each Secured Party, that it will not (and hereby waives any right to) contest or support any other Person in contesting, in any proceeding (including in any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation), the perfection, priority, validity or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any of the Secured Parties in all or any part of the Collateral, or the provisions of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of any Secured Party, the Collateral Agent or any Trustee to enforce this Agreement.

SECTION 2.03. No Interference; Payment Over.

(a) Each Trustee, on behalf of itself and the relevant Secured Parties, and each Secured Party agrees that (i) it will not challenge or question in any proceeding the validity or enforceability of any Pari Passu Obligations or the Indentures or the validity, attachment, perfection or priority of any Lien under the Collateral Documents or the validity or enforceability of the priorities, rights or duties established by or other provisions of this Agreement, (ii) it will not take or cause to be taken any action the purpose or intent of which is, or could be, to interfere, hinder or delay, in any manner, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, any sale, transfer or other disposition of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent, (iii) except as provided in Section 2.02, it shall have no right to (A) direct the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to exercise any right, remedy or power with respect to the Collateral or (B) consent to the exercise by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party of any right, remedy or power with respect to the Collateral, (iv) it will not institute any suit or assert in any suit, bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceeding any claim against the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party seeking damages from or other relief by way of specific performance, instructions or otherwise with respect to the Collateral, and none of the Collateral Agent, any Trustee or any other Secured Party shall be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Collateral Agent, such Trustee or such other Secured Party with respect to the Collateral in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, (v) it will not seek, and hereby waives any right, to have the Collateral or any part thereof marshaled upon any foreclosure or other disposition of the Collateral and (vi) it will not attempt, directly or indirectly, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to challenge the enforceability of any provision of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of the Collateral Agent, any Trustee or any other Secured Party to enforce this Agreement.

(b) The Collateral Agent, on behalf of the relevant Secured Parties, agrees that if it shall obtain possession of the Collateral or shall realize any proceeds or payment in respect of the Collateral, pursuant to the Collateral Documents or the Indentures or by the exercise of any rights available to it under applicable law or in any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation or through any other exercise of remedies, at any time prior to the payment in full of each of the Pari Passu Obligations, then it shall hold the Collateral, proceeds or payment for the other Secured Parties and promptly transfer the Collateral, proceeds or payment, as the case may be, to the Trustees, to be distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.01 hereof.

SECTION 2.04. Release of Collateral.

(a) Subject to the terms of the Indentures, the Collateral Documents and this Agreement, the Collateral shall be released from the Liens securing the Pari Passu Obligations under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) in accordance with the Indentures, the Collateral Documents and this Agreement, if at any time the Collateral Agent forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against the Collateral resulting in the sale or disposition thereof;
- (ii) as described in Article 9 of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture;
- (iii) upon the discharge in full of the Pari Passu Obligations;

- (iv) (A) with respect to the Senior Secured Notes Obligations, upon a legal defeasance or covenant defeasance under the Senior Secured Notes Indenture as described in Article 8 of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture and (B) with respect to any Additional Obligations, upon a legal defeasance or covenant defeasance under the Note Purchase Agreement; or
- (v) Except with respect to the Pledged IP and (unless otherwise permitted under the Indentures) with a disposition of Spare Parts, at any time at the election of the Issuers in each case, so long as (A) no Default or Event of Default will exist immediately after such release and (B) the LTV Ratio immediately after such release will not exceed the Trigger LTV Ratio.

(b) provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the security interest granted under the Collateral Documents will terminate in respect of any Pari Passu Obligations on the maturity date of such Pari Passu Obligations, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exists a due and payable payment obligation on the Pari Passu Obligations on that date, in which case the security interest in the Collateral will terminate upon satisfaction of that payment obligation. As a consequence of the termination, the Collateral shall be automatically released. Each Trustee agrees to execute and deliver (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuers and the Guarantors) all such acknowledgments, consents, confirmations, authorizations and other instruments as shall reasonably be requested by the Collateral Agent to evidence and confirm any release of the Collateral provided for in this Section.

SECTION 2.05. Certain Agreements With Respect to any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the commencement of any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation.

SECTION 2.06. Reinstatement. In the event that any of the Pari Passu Obligations shall be paid in full and such payment or any part thereof shall subsequently, for whatever reason, be required to be returned or repaid, the terms and conditions of this Article II shall be fully applicable thereto until all Pari Passu Obligations shall again have been paid in full in cash.

SECTION 2.07. Insurance. The Collateral Agent, acting at the written direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, shall have the right, subject to the rights of the Issuers or the Guarantors under the Indentures, to adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering or constituting the Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Collateral.

SECTION 2.08. Refinancings. The Pari Passu Obligations may be Refinanced, in whole or in part, in each case, without notice to, or the consent (except to the extent a consent is otherwise required to permit such Refinancing under each applicable Indenture) of the other Secured Parties, all without affecting the priorities provided for herein or the other provisions hereof.

ARTICLE III

EXISTENCE AND AMOUNTS OF LIENS AND OBLIGATIONS

SECTION 3.01. Determination of Existence or Amount of Liens and Obligations. Whenever the Collateral Agent shall be required, in connection with the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations hereunder, to confirm the existence or amount of any Pari Passu Obligations or the Collateral subject to the Liens securing any Pari Passu Obligations, the Collateral Agent shall request that such information be furnished to it in writing by the Trustees or GLAI, as set forth in an Officers' Certificate (as defined in the Senior Secured Notes Indenture), and shall be entitled to make such determination on the basis of the information so furnished; provided, however, that if the Trustees or GLAI shall fail or refuse reasonably promptly to provide the requested information, the Collateral Agent shall have no liability for refusing to take such action until such information is provided. The Collateral Agent may rely conclusively, and shall be fully protected in so relying, on any determination made by it in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence (or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction) and shall have no liability to GLAI, any Secured Party, or any other Person as a result of such determination.

ARTICLE IV

THE COLLATERAL AGENT

SECTION 4.01. Appointment and Authority.

(a) Each Trustee (pursuant to its respective Indenture) and each other Secured Party (other than the Collateral Agent) hereby irrevocably appoints TMF Brasil Administração e Gestão de Ativos Ltda. to act as Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties hereunder and under each of the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party and authorizes the Collateral Agent to take actions on its behalf and to exercise the Collateral Agent's powers in accordance with the terms hereof or thereof, including for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on the Collateral to secure any of the Pari Passu Obligations, together with such powers and authority as are reasonably incidental thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Agent is hereby expressly authorized to execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Senior Secured Notes Indenture and each of the Collateral Documents. In this connection, the Collateral Agent and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 4.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral granted under any of the Collateral Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, shall be entitled to all the rights, protections, immunities and indemnities granted to it under the Indentures and the Collateral Documents, including without limitation all provisions of this Article IV, Article 12 of the Senior Secured

Notes Indenture, the equivalent provisions in the Note Purchase Agreement and the applicable provisions of the Collateral Documents (as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the “Collateral Agent” under the Collateral Documents) as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto.

(b) Each Secured Party and the Trustee on behalf of the relevant Secured Parties acknowledges and agrees that the Collateral Agent shall be entitled, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with the Collateral as provided herein and in each applicable Collateral Document, without regard to any rights to which any Secured Party would otherwise be entitled. Without limiting the foregoing, each relevant Secured Party agrees that none of the Trustees, the Collateral Agent, the Controlling Secured Parties, or any other Secured Party shall have any duty or obligation first to marshal or realize upon the Collateral securing the Pari Passu Obligations, or to sell, dispose of or otherwise liquidate the Collateral, in any manner that would contravene the express terms of this Agreement. Each Secured Party waives any claim such Secured Parties may now or hereafter have against the Collateral Agent or any Trustee, or any other Secured Party arising out of (i) any actions which the Trustees or the Collateral Agent, or such Secured Party takes or omits to take (including, actions with respect to the creation, perfection or continuation of Liens on the Collateral, actions with respect to the foreclosure upon, sale, release or depreciation of, or failure to realize upon, the Collateral and actions with respect to the collection of any claim for all or any part of the applicable Pari Passu Obligations from any account debtor, guarantor or any other party) in accordance with the applicable Collateral Document or any other agreement related thereto or to the collection of Pari Passu Obligations or the valuation, use, protection or release of any security for such Pari Passu Obligations, (ii) any election by the Trustees or the Collateral Agent, in any proceeding instituted under the Brazilian Bankruptcy Code or (iii) any borrowing by, or grant of a security interest or administrative expense priority or order granted pursuant to, any Debtor Relief Law by the Issuers, the Guarantors or any Significant Subsidiary, as debtor-in-possession. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Collateral Agent and the Trustee shall not accept the Collateral in full or partial satisfaction of any Pari Passu Obligations pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Documents.

SECTION 4.02. Rights as a Secured Party. The Person serving as the Collateral Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Secured Party of the Pari Passu Obligations that it holds as any other Secured Party of such Pari Passu Obligations and may exercise the same as though it were not the Collateral Agent and the term “Secured Party” or “Secured Parties” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Collateral Agent hereunder in its individual capacity.

SECTION 4.03. Exculpatory Provisions.

(a) The Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein, in the Indentures and in the Collateral Documents to which it is a party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, as among the Trustees and the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, the Trustees and the Collateral Agent:

- (i) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;
- (ii) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the Collateral Documents that, in the case of the Collateral Agent, it is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties; provided that the Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose it to liability or risk its own funds or that is contrary to any Collateral Document (as modified by this Agreement) or applicable law;
- (iii) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein or in the Collateral Documents to which it is a party, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Issuers, the Guarantors or any of their Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Trustee or Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity;
- (iv) shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (1) (A) in the case of the Collateral Agent, with the consent or at the request or direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties and (B) in the case of the Trustee, at the direction of the Controlling Secured Parties, (2) in the absence of the Trustee's or Collateral Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct (as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction) or (3) in reliance on a certificate of an authorized officer of the Issuers or the Guarantors, as the case may be, stating that such action is permitted by the terms of this Agreement;
- (v) shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Event of Default under any of the Pari Passu Obligations unless and until written notice describing such Event of Default and referring to this Agreement is given to the Collateral Agent or Trustee by the Issuers, the Guarantors or, in the case of the Collateral Agent, a Trustee;
- (vi) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (1) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement, the Indentures or the Collateral Documents, (2) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (3) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Event of Default or any event that with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default, (4) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, the Indentures, the Collateral Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Collateral Documents, or (5) the value or the sufficiency of the Collateral for any Pari Passu Obligations; and

- (vii) shall in no event be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation strikes, work stoppages, governmental actions, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, pandemics, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services.

(b) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary herein, whenever reference is made in this Agreement to any discretionary action by, consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval of, notice, request or other communication from, or other direction given or action to be undertaken or to be (or not to be) suffered or omitted by the Trustees or the Collateral Agent or to any election, decision, opinion, acceptance, use of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other exercise of discretion, rights or remedies to be made (or not to be made) by the Trustees or the Collateral Agent, it is understood that in all cases the Trustees and the Collateral Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any such action if it shall not have received written instruction, advice or concurrence pursuant to Section 2.02 in respect of such action. The Collateral Agent shall have no liability for any failure or delay in taking any actions contemplated above as a result of a failure or delay on the part of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties to provide such instruction, advice or concurrence. This provision is intended solely for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and its successors and permitted assigns and is not intended to and will not entitle the other parties hereto to any defense, claim or counterclaim, or confer any rights or benefits on any party hereto.

SECTION 4.04. Reliance by Collateral Agent and Trustees. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees may consult with legal counsel, independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in reliance upon the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 4.05. Delegation of Duties. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder, under the Indentures or the Collateral Documents by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Collateral Agent or the Trustees. The Collateral Agent, the Trustees and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Affiliates. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Affiliates of the Collateral Agent or the Trustees and any such sub-agent.

SECTION 4.06. Resignation of Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent may resign pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture.

SECTION 4.07. Non-Reliance on Collateral Agent and Trustees. Each Secured Party (other than the Trustees and the Collateral Agent) acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Collateral Agent or any Trustee, any other Secured Party or any of their Affiliates and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which it is a party. Each Secured Party (other than the Trustees and the Collateral Agent) also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Collateral Agent or any Trustee, or any other Secured Party or any of their Affiliates and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, the Indentures, the Collateral Documents or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

SECTION 4.08. Collateral and Guaranty Matters. Each Trustee, the Issuer and each Secured Party, irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent:

(a) to release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Collateral Document in accordance with Section 2.04 or upon receipt of a written request and opinion of counsel from the Issuers stating that the release of such Lien is permitted by the terms of this Agreement and each of the Indentures; and

(b) to release each Guarantor from its obligations under each Collateral Document upon receipt of a written request and opinion of counsel from the Issuers stating that such release is permitted by the terms of this Agreement and each of the Indentures.

SECTION 4.09. Incorporation by Reference.

(a) The Collateral Agent is executing this Agreement solely as collateral agent under the Senior Secured Notes Indenture. All rights, privileges, protections and immunities (including, without limitation, the right to indemnification) in favor of the Collateral Agent under the Senior Secured Notes Indenture are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis.

(b) Each of the Trustees is executing this Agreement solely as Trustees under the Indentures. All rights, privileges, protections and immunities (including, without limitation, the right to indemnification) in favor of the Trustees under the Indentures are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 5.02. Waivers; Amendment.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. (b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be terminated, waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Trustees and the Collateral Agent.

SECTION 5.03. Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, all of whom are intended to be bound by, and to be third party beneficiaries of, this Agreement.

All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by any party in this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.05. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement. A party's electronic signature (complying with the New York Electronic Signatures and Records Act (N.Y. State Tech. §§ 301-309), as amended from time to time, or other applicable law) of this Agreement shall have the same validity and effect as a signature affixed by the party's hand.

SECTION 5.06. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof, and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 5.08. Submission To Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each of the Collateral Agent, the Trustees, and Secured Parties, irrevocably and unconditionally:

proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Person (or its authorized representative) at the address referred to in Section 5.01, except in the case of the Collateral Agent, who has legally, validly, effectively and irrevocably designated, appointed and empowered Cogency Global, Inc., as agent for service of process in any legal suit action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement in any courts of the State of New York, courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof, and in the case of the Issuers and the Guarantors, who have legally, validly, effectively and irrevocably designated, appointed and empowered Cogency Global, Inc., as agent for service of process in any legal suit action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement in any courts of the State of New York, courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof; and

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any other party hereto (or any Secured Party) to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by Law or shall limit the right of any party hereto (or any Secured Party) to sue in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 5.09. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

The Collateral Agent shall refrain from taking any action to exercise any rights hereunder and under the Collateral Documents or otherwise with respect to the Collateral unless it is instructed to do so by the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, in accordance with clause (b) below.

(b) The Collateral Agent shall act at the direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent may at any time seek the direction of the Trustees, and the Trustees agree to cooperate fully with the Collateral Agent to provide such direction.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any of the terms of the Indentures or the Collateral Documents, (a) the Collateral Agent shall act solely at the direction of the Trustees, on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, and (b) the Collateral Agent shall not have any duty, liability or responsibility to take any direction from or recognize any notice or other communication from any Secured Party other than the Trustees.

(d) Notwithstanding the terms of any Indenture or Collateral Document, in no event shall the Collateral Agent have any duty, responsibility or liability with respect to (A) the identity of any Secured Party, (B) any requirements of the Indentures or Collateral Documents regarding voting or otherwise taking action, including voting percentages or entitlement to vote, (C) whether any Pari Passu Obligation is held by the Issuers or any Affiliate of the Issuers or (D) whether any Secured Party should be disregarded for purposes of voting.

(e) If less than the Controlling Secured Parties have instructed the Collateral Agent, through the Trustees, to take enforcement action pursuant to clause (b) above, then the Collateral Agent shall not take enforcement action unless and until the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, instruct the Collateral Agent in writing to take such action; provided that, the Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to take any action that is (i) contrary to applicable law in any applicable jurisdiction; or (ii) based on any unlawful, ambiguous or inaccurate instruction, notice, demand, notification or other document pursuant to the Indentures and the Collateral Documents.

(f) Each of the Collateral Agent and each Trustee agree, for itself and on behalf of each Secured Party, that it will not (and hereby waives any right to) contest or support any other Person in contesting, in any proceeding (including in any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation), the perfection, priority, validity or enforceability of a Lien held by or on behalf of any of the Secured Parties in all or any part of the Collateral, or the provisions of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of any Secured Party, the Collateral Agent or any Trustee to enforce this Agreement.

SECTION 3.03. No Interference; Payment Over.

(a) Each Trustee, on behalf of itself and the relevant Secured Parties, and each Secured Party agrees that (i) it will not challenge or question in any proceeding the validity or enforceability of any Pari Passu Obligations or the Indentures or the validity, attachment, perfection or priority of any Lien under the Collateral Documents or the validity or enforceability of the priorities, rights or duties established by or other provisions of this Agreement, (ii) it will not take or cause to be taken any action the purpose or intent of which is, or could be, to interfere, hinder or delay, in any manner, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, any sale, transfer or other disposition of the Collateral by the Collateral Agent, (iii) except as provided in Section 3.02, it shall have no right to (A) direct the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to exercise any right, remedy or power with respect to the Collateral or (B) consent to the exercise by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party of any right, remedy or power with respect to the Collateral, (iv) it will not institute any suit or assert in any suit, bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceeding any claim against the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party seeking damages from or other relief by way of specific performance, instructions or otherwise with respect to the Collateral, and none of the Collateral Agent, any Trustee or any other Secured Party shall be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Collateral Agent, such Trustee or such other Secured Party with respect to the Collateral in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, (v) it will not seek, and hereby waives any right, to have the Collateral or any part thereof marshaled upon any foreclosure or other disposition of the Collateral and (vi) it will not attempt, directly or indirectly, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, to challenge the enforceability of any provision of this Agreement; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent or impair the rights of the Collateral Agent, any Trustee or any other Secured Party to enforce this Agreement.

(b) The Collateral Agent, on behalf of the relevant Secured Parties, agrees that if it shall obtain possession of the Collateral or shall realize any proceeds or payment in respect of the Collateral, pursuant to the Collateral Documents or the Indentures or by the exercise of any rights available to it under applicable law or in any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation or through any other exercise of remedies, at any time prior to the payment in full of each of the Pari Passu Obligations, then it shall hold the Collateral, proceeds or payment for the other Secured Parties and promptly transfer the Collateral, proceeds or payment, as the case may be, to the Trustees, to be distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.01 hereof.

SECTION 3.04. Release of Collateral.

(a) Subject to the terms of the Indentures, the Collateral Documents and this Agreement, the Collateral shall be released from the Liens securing the Pari Passu Obligations under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) in accordance with the Indentures, the Collateral Documents and this Agreement, if at any time the Collateral Agent forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against the Collateral resulting in the sale or disposition thereof;
- (ii) as described in Article 9 of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture;
- (iii) upon the discharge in full of the Pari Passu Obligations;
- (iv) (A) with respect to the Senior Secured Notes Obligations, upon a legal defeasance or covenant defeasance under the Senior Secured Notes Indenture as described in Article 8 of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture and (B) with respect to any Additional Obligations, upon a legal defeasance or covenant defeasance under the Note Purchase Agreement; or
- (v) Except with respect to the Pledged IP and (unless otherwise permitted under the Indentures) with a disposition of Spare Parts, at any time at the election of the Issuers

in each case, so long as (A) no Default or Event of Default will exist immediately after such release and (B) the LTV Ratio immediately after such release will not exceed the Trigger LTV Ratio.

(b) provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the security interest granted under the Collateral Documents will terminate in respect of any Pari Passu Obligations on the maturity date of such Pari Passu Obligations, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exists a due and payable payment obligation on the Pari Passu Obligations on that date, in which case the security interest in the Collateral will terminate upon satisfaction of that payment obligation. As a consequence of the termination, the Collateral shall be automatically released. Each Trustee agrees to execute and deliver (at the sole cost and expense of the Issuers and the Guarantors) all such acknowledgments, consents, confirmations, authorizations and other instruments as shall reasonably be requested by the Collateral Agent to evidence and confirm any release of the Collateral provided for in this Section.

SECTION 3.05. Certain Agreements With Respect to any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the commencement of any Event of Insolvency or Liquidation.

SECTION 3.06. Reinstatement. In the event that any of the Pari Passu Obligations shall be paid in full and such payment or any part thereof shall subsequently, for whatever reason, be required to be returned or repaid, the terms and conditions of this Article II shall be fully applicable thereto until all Pari Passu Obligations shall again have been paid in full in cash.

SECTION 3.07. Insurance. The Collateral Agent, acting at the written direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, shall have the right, subject to the rights of the Issuers or the Guarantors under the Indentures, to adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering or constituting the Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Collateral.

SECTION 3.08. Refinancings. The Pari Passu Obligations may be Refinanced, in whole or in part, in each case, without notice to, or the consent (except to the extent a consent is otherwise required to permit such Refinancing under each applicable Indenture) of the other Secured Parties, all without affecting the priorities provided for herein or the other provisions hereof.

EXISTENCE AND AMOUNTS OF LIENS AND OBLIGATIONS

SECTION 4.01. Determination of Existence or Amount of Liens and Obligations. Whenever the Collateral Agent shall be required, in connection with the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations hereunder, to confirm the existence or amount of any Pari Passu Obligations or the Collateral subject to the Liens securing any Pari Passu Obligations, the Collateral Agent shall request that such information be furnished to it in writing by the Trustees or GLAI, as set forth in an Officers' Certificate (as defined in the Senior Secured Notes Indenture), and shall be entitled to make such determination on the basis of the information so furnished; provided, however, that if the Trustees or GLAI shall fail or refuse reasonably promptly to provide the requested information, the Collateral Agent shall have no liability for refusing to take such action until such information is provided. The Collateral Agent may rely conclusively, and shall be fully protected in so relying, on any determination made by it in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence (or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction) and shall have no liability to GLAI, any Secured Party, or any other Person as a result of such determination.

ARTICLE V

THE COLLATERAL AGENT

SECTION 5.01. Appointment and Authority.

(a) Each Trustee (pursuant to its respective Indenture) and each other Secured Party (other than the Collateral Agent) hereby irrevocably appoints TMF Brasil Administração e Gestão de Ativos Ltda. to act as Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties hereunder and under each of the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party and authorizes the Collateral Agent to take actions on its behalf and to exercise the Collateral Agent's powers in accordance with the terms hereof or thereof, including for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on the Collateral to secure any of the Pari Passu Obligations, together with such powers and authority as are reasonably incidental thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Agent is hereby expressly authorized to execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral and the rights of the Secured Parties with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, the Senior Secured Notes Indenture and each of the Collateral Documents. In this connection, the Collateral Agent and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 5.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral granted under any of the Collateral Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties, shall be entitled to all the rights, protections, immunities and indemnities granted to it under the Indentures and the Collateral Documents, including without limitation all provisions of this Article IV, Article 12 of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture, the equivalent provisions in the Note Purchase Agreement and the applicable provisions of the Collateral Documents (as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the "Collateral Agent" under the Collateral Documents) as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto.

(b) Each Secured Party and the Trustee on behalf of the relevant Secured Parties acknowledges and agrees that the Collateral Agent shall be entitled, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with the Collateral as provided herein and in each applicable Collateral Document, without regard to any rights to which any Secured Party would otherwise be entitled. Without limiting the foregoing, each relevant Secured Party agrees that none of the Trustees, the Collateral Agent, the Controlling Secured Parties, or any other Secured Party shall have any duty or obligation first to marshal or realize upon the Collateral securing the Pari Passu Obligations, or to sell, dispose of or otherwise liquidate the Collateral, in any manner that would contravene the express terms of this Agreement. Each Secured Party waives any claim such Secured Parties may now or hereafter have against the Collateral Agent or any Trustee, or any other Secured Party arising out of (i) any actions which the Trustees or the Collateral Agent, or such Secured Party takes or omits to take (including, actions with respect to the creation, perfection or continuation of Liens on the Collateral, actions with respect to the foreclosure upon, sale, release or depreciation of, or failure to realize upon, the Collateral and actions with respect to the collection of any claim for all or any part of the applicable Pari Passu Obligations from any account debtor, guarantor or any other party) in accordance with the applicable Collateral Document or any other agreement related thereto or to the collection of Pari Passu Obligations or the valuation, use, protection or release of any security for such Pari Passu Obligations, (ii) any election by the Trustees or the Collateral Agent, in any proceeding instituted under the Brazilian Bankruptcy Code or (iii) any borrowing by, or grant of a security interest or administrative expense priority or order granted pursuant to, any Debtor Relief Law by the Issuers, the Guarantors or any Significant Subsidiary, as debtor-in-possession. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Collateral Agent and the Trustee shall not accept the Collateral in full or partial satisfaction of any Pari Passu Obligations pursuant to the terms of the Collateral Documents.

SECTION 5.02. Rights as a Secured Party. The Person serving as the Collateral Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Secured Party of the Pari Passu Obligations that it holds as any other Secured Party of such Pari Passu Obligations and may exercise the same as though it were not the Collateral Agent and the term “Secured Party” or “Secured Parties” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Collateral Agent hereunder in its individual capacity.

SECTION 5.03. Exculpatory Provisions.

(a) The Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein, in the Indentures and in the Collateral Documents to which it is a party. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, as among the Trustees and the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties, the Trustees and the Collateral Agent:

- (i) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;
- (ii) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the Collateral Documents that, in the case of the Collateral Agent, it is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties; provided that the Trustee and the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose it to liability or risk its own funds or that is contrary to any Collateral Document (as modified by this Agreement) or applicable law;
- (iii) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein or in the Collateral Documents to which it is a party, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Issuers, the Guarantors or any of their Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Trustee or Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity;
- (iv) shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (1) (A) in the case of the Collateral Agent, with the consent or at the request or direction of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties and (B) in the case of the Trustee, at the direction of the Controlling Secured Parties, (2) in the absence of the Trustee's or Collateral Agent's own gross negligence or willful misconduct (as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction) or (3) in reliance on a certificate of an authorized officer of the Issuers or the Guarantors, as the case may be, stating that such action is permitted by the terms of this Agreement;

- (v) shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Event of Default under any of the Pari Passu Obligations unless and until written notice describing such Event of Default and referring to this Agreement is given to the Collateral Agent or Trustee by the Issuers, the Guarantors or, in the case of the Collateral Agent, a Trustee;
- (vi) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (1) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement, the Indentures or the Collateral Documents, (2) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (3) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Event of Default or any event that with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default, (4) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, the Indentures, the Collateral Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Collateral Documents, or (5) the value or the sufficiency of the Collateral for any Pari Passu Obligations; and
- (vii) shall in no event be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation strikes, work stoppages, governmental actions, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, pandemics, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services.

(b) Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary herein, whenever reference is made in this Agreement to any discretionary action by, consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval of, notice, request or other communication from, or other direction given or action to be undertaken or to be (or not to be) suffered or omitted by the Trustees or the Collateral Agent or to any election, decision, opinion, acceptance, use of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other exercise of discretion, rights or remedies to be made (or not to be made) by the Trustees or the Collateral Agent, it is understood that in all cases the Trustees and the Collateral Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any such action if it shall not have received written instruction, advice or concurrence pursuant to Section 3.02 in respect of such action. The Collateral Agent shall have no liability for any failure or delay in taking any actions contemplated above as a result of a failure or delay on the part of the Trustees, acting at the direction of and on behalf of the Controlling Secured Parties to provide such instruction, advice or concurrence. This provision is intended solely for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and its successors and permitted assigns and is not intended to and will not entitle the other parties hereto to any defense, claim or counterclaim, or confer any rights or benefits on any party hereto.

SECTION 5.04. Reliance by Collateral Agent and Trustees. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees may consult with legal counsel, independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in reliance upon the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 5.05. Delegation of Duties. The Collateral Agent and the Trustees may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder, under the Indentures or the Collateral Documents by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Collateral Agent or the Trustees. The Collateral Agent, the Trustees and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Affiliates. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Affiliates of the Collateral Agent or the Trustees and any such sub-agent.

SECTION 5.06. Resignation of Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent may resign pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the Senior Secured Notes Indenture.

SECTION 5.07. Non-Reliance on Collateral Agent and Trustees. Each Secured Party (other than the Trustees and the Collateral Agent) acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Collateral Agent or any Trustee, any other Secured Party or any of their Affiliates and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which it is a party. Each Secured Party (other than the Trustees and the Collateral Agent) also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Collateral Agent or any Trustee, or any other Secured Party or any of their Affiliates and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, the Indentures, the Collateral Documents or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

SECTION 5.08. Collateral and Guaranty Matters. Each Trustee, the Issuer and each Secured Party, irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent:

(a) to release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Collateral Document in accordance with Section 3.04 or upon receipt of a written request and opinion of counsel from the Issuers stating that the release of such Lien is permitted by the terms of this Agreement and each of the Indentures; and

(b) to release each Guarantor from its obligations under each Collateral Document upon receipt of a written request and opinion of counsel from the Issuers stating that such release is permitted by the terms of this Agreement and each of the Indentures.

SECTION 5.09. Incorporation by Reference.

(a) The Collateral Agent is executing this Agreement solely as collateral agent under the Senior Secured Notes Indenture. All rights, privileges, protections and immunities (including, without limitation, the right to indemnification) in favor of the Collateral Agent under the Senior Secured Notes Indenture are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis.

(b) Each of the Trustees is executing this Agreement solely as Trustees under the Indentures. All rights, privileges, protections and immunities (including, without limitation, the right to indemnification) in favor of the Trustees under the Indentures are incorporated herein by reference, mutatis mutandis.

SECTION 6.02. Waivers; Amendment.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. (b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be terminated, waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Trustees and the Collateral Agent.

SECTION 6.03. Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, all of whom are intended to be bound by, and to be third party beneficiaries of, this Agreement.

All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by any party in this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

SECTION 6.05. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or electronic transmission shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement. A party's electronic signature (complying with the New York Electronic Signatures and Records Act (N.Y. State Tech. §§ 301-309), as amended from time to

SECTION 6.06. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof, and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 6.08. Submission To Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each of the Collateral Agent, the Trustees, and Secured Parties, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Person (or its authorized representative) at the address referred to in Section 6.01, except in the case of the Collateral Agent, who has legally, validly, effectively and irrevocably designated, appointed and empowered Cogency Global, Inc., as agent for service of process in any legal suit action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement in any courts of the State of New York, courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof, and in the case of the Issuers and the Guarantors, who have legally, validly, effectively and irrevocably designated, appointed and empowered Cogency Global, Inc., as agent for service of process in any legal suit action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement in any courts of the State of New York, courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof; and

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any other party hereto (or any Secured Party) to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by Law or shall limit the right of any party hereto (or any Secured Party) to sue in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 6.12. Relative Rights. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary (except to the extent contemplated by Section 3.04), nothing in this Agreement is intended to or will (a) amend, waive or otherwise modify the provisions of any of the Indentures or the Collateral Documents, or permit the Issuers or any of the Guarantors to take any action, or fail to take any action, to the extent such action or failure would otherwise constitute a breach of, or default under, the any of the Indentures or the Collateral Documents, (b) impair the obligations of the Issuers or the Guarantors, which are absolute and unconditional, to pay the Pari Passu Obligations as and when they shall become due and payable in accordance with their terms or (c) obligate the Issuers or the Guarantors to take any action, or fail to take any action, that would otherwise constitute a breach of, or default under, the Indenture or the Collateral Documents.

SECTION 6.13. Integration. This Agreement together with the Indentures and the Collateral Documents represents the agreement of each of the Issuers, the Guarantors and the Secured Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and there are no promises, undertakings, representations or warranties by the Trustees, Issuers or any of the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent, or any Secured Party relative to the subject matter hereof not expressly set forth or referred to herein or in the Indentures or the Collateral Documents.

SECTION 6.14. Further Assurances. Each of the Collateral Agent and each Trustee agrees that it will execute, or will cause to be executed, any and all further documents, agreements and instruments, and take all such further actions, as may be required under any applicable Law, or which the Collateral Agent or the Trustees may reasonably request, to effectuate the terms of this Agreement, including the relative Lien priorities provided for herein.

SECTION 6.15. Concerning the Trustees. Notwithstanding any term herein to the contrary, it is hereby expressly agreed and acknowledged that the agreements set forth herein by any Trustee (in its capacity as such) are made solely in its capacity as Trustee under the applicable Indenture and pursuant to the provisions of such Indenture and the direction of the Issuers, the Guarantors and the Secured Parties, and not in its individual capacity. Each Trustee (in its capacity as such) shall not have any duties, obligations, or responsibilities under this Agreement in its capacity as such except as expressly set forth herein, and shall have the benefit of all exculpatory provisions, presumptions, indemnities, protections, benefits, immunities or reliance rights contained in the Indentures in the acceptance, execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement as though fully set forth herein. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, no implied covenants, functions, responsibilities, duties, obligations or liabilities shall be read into this Agreement or otherwise against the Trustees and the Trustees acting under this Agreement shall not have by reason of the Collateral Documents or this Agreement any fiduciary or discretionary duties or obligations.

(2) Authorization of this Note Purchase Agreement. This Note Purchase Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Company and each of the Guarantors.

(3) Authorization of the Notes. The Notes have been duly authorized by the Company and each of the Guarantors, and, when executed and authenticated in accordance with the provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement and issued and delivered to and paid for by the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement, will be on Initial Closing Date, valid and binding obligations of the Company and each of the Guarantors, enforceable against the Company and each of the Guarantors in accordance with their terms, subject to (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally (collectively, the "Enforceability Exceptions"); and (ii) equitable principles of general applicability, and will be entitled to the benefits of this Note Purchase Agreement pursuant to which such Notes are to be issued.

(4) Authorization of the Transaction Documents. Each of the Transaction Documents to which the Company and each of the Guarantors are a party has been duly authorized by the Company and each of the Guarantors, and when executed and delivered by the Company and each of the Guarantors, will be a valid and legally binding agreement of the Company and each of the Guarantors enforceable against the Company and each of the Guarantors in accordance with its terms, subject to (i) the Enforceability Exceptions and equitable principles of general applicability; and (ii) the requirements set forth in Section 6.01(17) with respect to the enforcement and admissibility of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes into evidence in Brazil directly before public agencies and courts in Brazil. (5) Ranking of the Notes. The Notes and the Note Guaranties will constitute direct, unconditional, senior and secured obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, respectively, without any preference among themselves, of the Company and the Guarantors and will rank senior to all other present and future unsubordinated and secured obligations of the Company and the Guarantors.

(6) Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery by the Company and each of the Guarantors, and the performance by the Company and each of the Guarantors of their obligations under, this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents (including, without limitation, the grant and perfection of liens and security interests in the Collateral pursuant to the terms in the applicable Collateral Documents), as applicable, and the Notes do not contravene any provision of applicable law which would affect the nature of the Notes or the articles of association, bylaws or other organizational documents of the Company and each of the Guarantors, any agreement or other instrument binding upon any of the Company and each of the Guarantors that is material to the Company and each of the Guarantors, (including any agreement for the incurrence of Debt), or any judgment, order or decree of any governmental body, agency or court having jurisdiction over the Company and each of the Guarantors.

(7) No Consents Required. No consent, approval, authorization or order of, or qualification with, any governmental or regulatory body or agency or any third party (including any lender) is required for the performance by the Company and each of the Guarantors of their respective obligations under the Notes, this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, as applicable.

(9) Choice of Laws. The choice of laws of the State of New York as the governing law of this Note Purchase Agreement is a valid choice of law under the laws of Luxembourg and Brazil will be honored by the courts of Luxembourg and Brazil.

(10) No Material Defaults. Neither the Company nor any of the Guarantors is (i) in violation of its articles of association, bylaws or other organizational documents; (ii) in default, and no event exists that, with notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a default, in the performance or observance by the Company or any of the Guarantors of any material obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any indenture, mortgage, loan agreement or other material agreement or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound or to which its property or assets are subject; or (iii) in violation of any applicable law, statute, rule or regulation or any judgment or order of any U.S., Brazilian, Luxembourg court or arbitrator or governmental or regulatory authority, except in connection with clauses (ii) and (iii) for any such default or violation that would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

(11) Absence of Exchange Controls. No exchange control authorization or any other authorization, approval, consent or license of any Governmental Authority or agency in Luxembourg is required for the payment by the Company or any of the Guarantors of any amounts in United States dollars under any Transaction Document to which it is a party.

(12) Observance of Statutes and Orders. Neither the Company nor any of the Guarantors is (i) in violation of any order, judgment, decree or ruling of any court, any arbitrator of any kind or any Governmental Authority or agency in Luxembourg or Brazil or (ii) in violation of any applicable law, ordinance, rule or regulation of any Governmental Authority or agency in Luxembourg or Brazil, which violation would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(14) Tax Residency of the Company. The Company is resident for tax purposes solely in Luxembourg.

(15) Tax Residency of the Guarantors. Each Guarantor is resident for tax purposes solely in Brazil.

(17) Absence of Further Brazilian Law Requirements. This Note Purchase Agreement is in proper legal form under the laws of Brazil for the enforcement thereof in Brazil against the Company and each of the Guarantors, and it is not necessary in order to ensure the legality, validity, enforcement of this Note Purchase Agreement in Brazil that this Note Purchase Agreement be filed or recorded with any court or other authority in Brazil or that any stamp, issue, registration, documentary or similar taxes or duties be paid in Brazil on or in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement except that, with respect to the enforcement and admissibility of this Note Purchase Agreement into evidence in Brazil directly before the public agencies and courts in Brazil, (i) (a) if the State in which this Note Purchase Agreement was executed is not party to the Hague Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents of 5 October 1961 (the “Apostille Convention”) (1) the signatures of the parties hereto signing outside Brazil should be notarized by a notary public licensed as such under the jurisdiction of signing and (2) the signature of such notary public must be authenticated by a consular official of Brazil, or (b) if the State in which this Note Purchase Agreement was executed is party to the Apostille Convention, an authority designated by such State must issue a certificate that authenticates the origin of this Note Purchase Agreement (“Apostille”); and (ii) (a) this Note Purchase Agreement and the Apostille (if applicable) must be translated into the Portuguese language by a sworn translator and (b) this Note Purchase

(18) No Registration/Trust Indenture Act. It is not necessary in connection with the offer, sale and delivery of the Notes to the Purchaser in the manner contemplated by this Note Purchase Agreement to register the Notes under the Securities Act or to qualify this Note Purchase Agreement under the U.S. Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

(19) Private Placement by the Company. Neither the Company, the Guarantors or anyone acting on its behalf has offered the Notes or any similar securities for sale to, or solicited any offer to buy the Notes or any similar securities from, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof with, any Person other than the Purchaser which has been offered the Notes at a private sale for investment. Neither the Company, the Guarantors nor anyone acting on its behalf has taken, or will take, any action that would subject the issuance or sale of the Notes to (i) the registration requirements of Section 5 of the Securities Act; (ii) a requirement to produce a prospectus in the United Kingdom; or (iii) the registration requirements of any securities or blue sky laws of any applicable jurisdiction. For the purposes of this clause, “Institutional Investor” means (a) a Purchaser, (b) any qualified institutional buyer within the meaning of Rule 144A of the Securities Act, (c) an “accredited investor” within the meaning of Section 501(a)(1), (2), (3), (7) or (8) under the Rule 144A of the Securities Act, (d) a non-U.S. person with any potential offer or purchase being made in an offshore transaction in reliance on Regulation S of the Securities Act.

The Company and each of the Guarantors have good and sufficient title to the properties described in or referred to in the Collateral Documents, as applicable, free and clear of liens, (i) except for liens established pursuant to the Collateral Documents, and (ii) except such as do not materially affect the value of such property and do not interfere with the use made and proposed to be made of such property by the Company and each of the Guarantors.

(22) Licenses, Permits, Etc. The Company and each of the Guarantors own or possess all licenses, permits, franchises, authorizations, patents, copyrights, proprietary software, service marks, trademarks and trade names, or rights thereto, including without limitation, the Smiles Intellectual Property and any other Collateral, without known conflict with the rights of others, except for those conflicts that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(23) No Unlawful Payments. Except as disclosed in the documents relating to the Company inserted by the Purchaser in a data room, and made available to the Abra Holders (the “Disclosure Documents”) (including the documents incorporated by reference therein), neither the Company nor the Guarantors, nor to the knowledge of the Company or the Guarantors, any director, officer, agent, employee, affiliate or other person acting on behalf of the Company or the Guarantors, has (i) used any corporate funds of the Company or the Guarantors for any unlawful contribution, gift, entertainment or other unlawful expense relating to political activity; (ii) made or taken an act in furtherance of an offer, promise or authorization of any direct or indirect unlawful payment or benefit to any foreign or domestic government or regulatory official or employee, including of any government-owned or controlled entity or of a public international organization, or any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of any of the foregoing, or any political party or party official or candidate for political office; (iii) violated or is in violation of any provision of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, or any other applicable anti-bribery or anti-corruption law; or (iv) made, offered, agreed, requested or taken an act in furtherance of any unlawful bribe or other unlawful benefit, including, without limitation, any rebate, payoff, influence payment, kickback or other unlawful or improper payment or benefit. The Company, the Guarantors and to the knowledge of the Company and the Guarantors, its affiliates have conducted their businesses in compliance with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and have instituted, maintain and enforce, and will continue to maintain and enforce, policies and procedures designed to ensure and which are reasonably expected to continue to ensure compliance with all applicable laws.

(24) No Conflict with Money Laundering Laws. The operations of the Company and the Guarantors are and have been conducted at all times in compliance with all applicable money laundering statutes, the rules and regulations thereunder and any related or similar rules, regulations or guidelines, issued, administered or enforced by any governmental agency (collectively, the “Anti-Money Laundering Laws”), and no action, suit or proceeding by or before any court or governmental or regulatory agency, authority or body or any arbitrator involving the Company or the Guarantors with respect to the Anti-Money Laundering Laws is pending or, to the best knowledge of the Company, threatened.

(25) No Conflict with Sanctions Laws. Neither the Company nor the Guarantors, nor to the knowledge of the Company or the Guarantors, any director, officer, agent, employee, affiliate or person acting on behalf of the Company or the Guarantors is currently subject to or the target of any sanctions administered or enforced by the U.S. government, (including, without limitation, the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Treasury Department or the U.S. Department of State and including, without limitation, the designation as a “specially designated national” or “blocked person”), the U.S. Department of Commerce, the United Nations Security Council, the European Union, Luxembourg or Her Majesty’s Treasury of the United Kingdom or other relevant sanctions authority (collectively, “Sanctions”), nor is the Company or any of the Guarantors located, organized or resident in a country or territory that is the subject or target of Sanctions, including, without limitation, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, the Crimea region of Ukraine, the so-called Donetsk People’s Republic and the so-called Luhansk People’s Republic (each, a “Sanctioned Country or Region”). Neither the Company nor the Guarantors will not directly or indirectly use the proceeds of this offering, or lend, contribute or otherwise make available such proceeds to any subsidiary, joint venture partner or other person or entity, (i) to fund or facilitate any activities of or business with any person that, at the time of such funding or facilitation, is the subject or the target of Sanctions, (ii) to fund or facilitate any activities of or business in any Sanctioned Country or Region or (iii) causing a violation by any person (including any person participating in the transaction, whether as underwriter, placement agent, advisor, investor or otherwise) of Sanctions. (26) The above mentioned representations and warranties under Section 6.01(25) shall only be applicable to any Luxembourg party to the extent that such Luxembourg party will not violate or is exposed to any liability under the Council Regulation (EC) 2271/96 of 22 November 1996 protecting against the effects of the extra-territorial application of legislation adopted by a third country, and actions based thereon or resulting therefrom or any similar laws or regulations.

SECTION 6.02. Representations of the Purchaser. The Purchaser represents, warrants and agrees that:

(1) It is purchasing the Notes on its own behalf, as an investment fund or account, as the case may be, duly organized and existing in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation and it is purchasing the Notes for its own account or for one or more separate accounts maintained by the Purchaser and not with a view to the distribution thereof. The Purchaser has its principal address outside the United States and was located outside the United States at the time any offer to buy the Notes was made to the Purchaser and at the time that this Note Purchase Agreement is executed by the Purchaser.

(2) The execution, delivery and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement by the Purchaser are within the powers of the Purchaser, have been duly authorized and will not constitute or result in a breach or default under or conflict with any order, ruling or regulation of any court or other tribunal or of any governmental commission or agency, or any agreement or other undertaking, to which the Purchaser is a party or by which the Purchaser is bound, and will not violate any provisions of such entity’s organizational documents, including, without limitation, its incorporation or formation papers, bylaws, indenture of trust or partnership or operating agreement, as may be applicable. The signature on this Note Purchase Agreement is genuine, and the signatory has been duly authorized to execute the same, and this Note Purchase Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Purchaser, enforceable in accordance with its terms.

(3) It is not and, for so long as the Purchaser owns the Notes, will not be acting on behalf of: (a) an “employee benefit plan” (as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”)), which is subject to Title I of ERISA, (b) a plan described in Section 4975(e)(1) of the Code, (c) an entity whose underlying assets include “plan assets” by reason of a plan’s investment in such entity (including but not limited to an insurance company general account), or (d) an entity that otherwise constitutes a “benefit plan investor” within the meaning of the Department of Labor Regulation Section 2510.3-101 (29 C.F.R. (4) in making the decision to purchase the Notes, it has relied solely upon the independent investigation made by it and an independent assessment of the merits and risks of an investment in the Notes, and such decision to purchase Notes was formed based on such independent investigation of the Company, the Guarantors and the Notes, and such independent assessment of the merits and risks of an investment in the Notes.

COVENANTS

SECTION 7.01. Payment of Principal and Interest Under the Notes.

(a) The Company shall punctually pay the principal of and interest on the Notes on the dates and in the manner set forth herein and as provided in the Notes. By 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), no later than one Business Day prior to any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, to the extent such amount is payable in cash, GLAI shall irrevocably deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Paying Agent (unless the Paying Agent is GLAI) money sufficient to pay such principal and interest subject to the terms set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(b) The Company shall pay interest on overdue principal or installments of interest, to the extent lawful, at the rate borne by the Notes plus 2.00% per annum pursuant to the terms set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(c) No interest shall be payable hereunder in excess of the maximum rate permitted by applicable Law.

SECTION 7.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency. The Company shall maintain an office or agency where Notes may be (i) presented or surrendered for payment or (ii) presented for exchange for cash and where notices and demands to or upon the Company in respect of the Notes and this Note Purchase Agreement may be served. If at any time the Company shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at the Company’s Office.

SECTION 7.03. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

(a) For so long as the Company acts as Paying Agent, it shall, when electing to pay interest using cash, no later than one Business Day prior to each Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, as applicable, segregate and hold in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest so becoming due until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided.

(b) Whenever the Company shall have one or more Paying Agents for the Notes, it shall, no later than one Business Day prior to each Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, irrevocably deposit with a Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such principal or interest.

(c) Each Paying Agent, subject to the provisions of this Section 7.03, shall:

(1) hold all sums held by it for the payment of principal or premium, if any, of or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as set forth herein; provided, however, such sums need not be segregated from other funds held by it, except as required by Law; and

(2) at any time during the continuance of any Default by the Company, upon the written request of the Holders, forthwith pay to the Holders all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent.

(d) The Company shall cause each Paying Agent to execute and deliver an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Company to act as a Paying Agent in accordance with this Section 7.03, except in case the Paying Agent is the Company or an Affiliate of the Company.

(e) Any money and Preferred Shares held by any Paying Agent (other than GLAI), in trust for the payment of principal of, accrued and unpaid interest on or the consideration due upon exchange of any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, interest or consideration due upon exchange has become due and payable shall be paid to GLAI at the written request of GLAI, or (if then held by GLAI) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to GLAI for payment thereof, and all liability of GLAI as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 7.04. Maintenance of Corporate Existence. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain in effect its corporate existence and all registrations necessary therefor; provided that these restrictions shall not prohibit any transactions permitted by Article 8; (ii) not amend, supplement, waive or otherwise modify certain specified provisions of the documents relating to each of the Guarantors' or its Subsidiaries' rights or benefits under its respective organizational documents without the prior written consent of the Purchaser, and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, as the case may be, if such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification would materially adversely affect the rights of the Purchaser, or of the then holders of this Note; (iii) not change its corporate form; (iv) take all reasonable actions to maintain all rights, privileges, titles to property, franchises and the like necessary in the normal conduct of its business, activities or operations; and (v) maintain or cause to be maintained in good repair, working order and condition (normal wear and tear excepted) all properties used in its business; provided, however, that neither GLAI nor its Subsidiaries shall be prevented from discontinuing those operations (including through the transfer or dissolution of a Subsidiary) or suspending the maintenance of those properties (including through the sale thereof) which, in the reasonable judgment of GLAI, are no longer necessary in the conduct of GLAI's business, or that of its Subsidiaries; and provided, further, that such discontinuation of operations or suspension of maintenance shall not be materially disadvantageous to the Holders and such operations shall not represent more than 3.5% of the aggregate consolidated gross revenues of GLAI and its Subsidiaries for the most recent fiscal year.

SECTION 7.05. Payment of Taxes and Claims. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, pay all taxes, assessments and other governmental charges imposed upon it or any of its property or in respect of any of its franchises, businesses, income or profits before any penalty or interest accrues thereon, and pay all claims (including claims for labor, services, materials and supplies) for sums which have become due and payable and which by Law have or might become a Lien upon its property, unless the failure to make such payment could have: (a) a Material Adverse Effect upon the financial condition of (i) the Company or (ii) the GLAI Group considered as one enterprise, or (b) a Material Adverse Effect on the performance of the Company's or GLAI's obligations hereunder; and provided, further, that no such charge or claim need be paid while it is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and if appropriate reserves or other provisions are maintained in respect of such amounts in accordance with IFRS.

SECTION 7.06. Payment of Additional Amounts. (a) All payments by GLAI in respect of the Notes or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) in respect of the Note Guaranties or of cash and/or deliveries of Preferred Shares (together with payments of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) upon exchange, will be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments, or other governmental charges of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Brazil or Luxembourg, or any political subdivision or authority therein or thereof or any other jurisdiction in which any officer of the Company, the Company or any Guarantor is organized, doing business or otherwise subject to the power to tax (any of the aforementioned being a "Taxing Jurisdiction"), unless the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) are compelled by Law to deduct or withhold such taxes, duties, assessments, or governmental charges. In such event, the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will make such deduction or withholding, and the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will timely make payment of the full amount so withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority and pay such additional amounts as may be necessary to ensure that the net amounts received by Holders after such withholding or deduction has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 7.06) shall equal the respective amounts of principal (and premium, if any) and interest which would have been receivable in respect of the Notes or the payment of cash and/or delivery of Preferred Shares (together with payment in cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) in the absence of such withholding or deduction

(1) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of the existence of any present or former connection between such Holder and the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, including, without limitation, such Holder being or having been a citizen or resident thereof, being incorporated in, being or having been engaged in a trade or business or present therein or having, or having had, a permanent establishment therein, other than connections arising from such Holder having executed, delivered, become a party to, performed its obligations under, received payments under, received or perfected a security interest under, engaged in any other transaction pursuant to or enforced this Note Purchase Agreement, sold or assigned an interest in this Note Purchase Agreement or holding of the Note and the receipt of payments with respect to the Note;

(2) in respect of Notes surrendered or presented for payment (if surrender or presentment is required) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that payments under such Note would have been subject to withholdings and the Holder of such Note would have been entitled to such Additional Amounts, had the Note been surrendered for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days;

(3) in respect of any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, excise or personal property tax;

(4) in respect of any tax imposed on overall net income or any branch profits tax of a Holder;

(5) in respect of any tax imposed pursuant to sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code, any successor Law or regulation implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such sections provided, however, that such Law or regulation is substantively comparable and not materially more onerous to comply with, or any intergovernmental agreement in respect thereof or any agreement entered into pursuant to section 1471(b)(1) of the Code;

(6) in respect of the Relibi Law; or

(7) in respect of any combination of the above.

(b) In the event that Additional Amounts actually paid with respect to the Notes are based on rates of deduction or withholding of withholding taxes in excess of the appropriate rate applicable to the Holder of such Notes, and, as a result thereof such Holder determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of withholding taxes as to which it has received Additional Amounts, it shall pay to the Company an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of Additional Amounts received with respect to the withholding taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including taxes) of such Holder and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). The Company, upon the request of the Holder, shall repay to such

Holder the amount paid over pursuant to this paragraph (b) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such Holder is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (b), in no event will the Holder be required to pay any amount to the Company pursuant to this paragraph (b) the payment of which would place the Holder in a less favorable net after-tax position than the Holder would have been in if the tax subject to Additional Amounts and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the Additional Amounts had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any Holder to make available its tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes that it deems confidential) to the Company or any other Person. The Holder makes no representation or warranty that the Company will be entitled to receive such claim for refund or credit and incurs no other obligation (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any filing or other action) with respect thereto.

(c) The Notes are subject in all cases to any tax, fiscal or other Law or regulation or administrative or judicial interpretation. Except as specifically provided above, neither the Company nor the Guarantors shall be required to make a payment with respect to any tax, assessment or governmental charge imposed by any government or a political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not pay (and shall not purport to indemnify the Holder for) any stamp, issue, registration, court or documentary taxes or any excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies (including any penalties, interest and other liabilities relating thereto) that may arise or be paid in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes.

(e) Any reference in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes to principal, interest or any other amount payable in respect of the Notes by the Company or any of the Note Guaranties by the Guarantors, or the payment of cash and/or the delivery of Preferred Shares by the Company (together with payment of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share), will be deemed also to refer to any Additional Amount, unless the context requires otherwise, that may be payable with respect to that amount under the obligations referred to in this Section.

(f) The obligations of the Company and the Guarantors pursuant to this Section 7.06 shall survive termination of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.07. Collateral and Liens.

(a) Subject to Sections 5.03, 7.07(b) and 7.07(c), the Notes Obligations shall be secured by a first priority Lien granted by the Guarantors in the Collateral to Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The Company and the Guarantors shall not directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien on any of the Collateral, other than (i) the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and (ii) a Lien that is junior in priority to the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and which is subject to a subordination agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F.

(b) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur or permit to exist any Lien of any nature whatsoever on any of the Collateral, except for the first priority Lien in the Collateral granted by the Guarantors pursuant to Section 7.07(a) above and the Collateral Documents, provided however, that the Company and the Guarantors may, without requiring any resolution, approval or consent from the Purchaser or the Collateral Agent, and without implying breach of any representation, warranty or obligation assumed under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, constitute in favor of any creditors a collateral security under suspensive condition on the Collateral (whether senior or junior), provided that the effectiveness of such collateral security is conditioned upon the indefeasible payment in full or satisfaction of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes (“Future Lien”).

(c) The Company shall ensure that the Lien in the Collateral is duly created, enforceable and perfected, to the extent required by the Collateral Documents. The Guarantors shall:

(d) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly (i) take any action with the purpose of depreciating the Collateral, (ii) dispose of, assign, transfer, sell or lease the Collateral to any third party or (iii) execute nor authorize the execution of any agreement which could restrict or reduce the rights or the ability of the Secured Parties to sell or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, in part or in full.

It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Collateral Agent is not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. SECTION 7.08. Certain Assurances.

(a) On the Initial Closing Date, the Purchaser, the Collateral Agent and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall receive an Opinion of Counsel from Lefosse Advogados, as Brazilian counsel to the Company and the Guarantors, in form and substance satisfactory to the Purchaser, to the effect that, subject to certain exceptions and qualifications, the GLA's Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, the GLA's Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo's Shares Agreement and the amendments to the GOL Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Collateral have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, which will be enforceable against GLA and/or GLAI in accordance with its terms and with Section 7.07(c).

(b) Each of GLA and GLAI shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to maintain the Collateral Documents to which it is a party in full force and effect and enforceable, in accordance with their terms, and to maintain and preserve the Lien created by the Collateral Documents, in accordance with their terms, and the priority thereof, including (A) making filings and recordations, (B) making payments of fees and other charges on a timely basis, (C) issuing and, if necessary, filing or recording supplemental documentation, including continuation statements, (D) discharging all claims or other Liens adversely affecting the rights of any Secured Party in any Collateral, (E) publishing or otherwise delivering notice to third parties, (F) depositing title documents, (G) amending any Collateral Document to the extent required by applicable Law and (H) taking all other actions either necessary or otherwise requested by the Purchaser to ensure that all Collateral is subject to a valid and enforceable first-priority Lien in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. Moreover, for the avoidance of any doubt, the Collateral Agent has no obligation, liability or responsibility to monitor or ensure that GLA and/or GLAI, as the case may be, maintain such Lien and shall assume that GLA and GLAI are in full compliance with their obligations in connection therewith.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in applicable Law, the Collateral Agent shall not have any responsibility or liability, among other things as set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, for (1) acting or refraining from acting based on any unlawful, ambiguous or inaccurate instruction, notice, demand, notification or other document pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents; (2) any loss or claim resulting from any act or omission, directly or indirectly, except if otherwise determined in a final nonappealable decision by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Collateral Agent was grossly negligent; (3) any loss of profits, indirect, consequential, incidental, special, punitive or related losses and/or damages even if previously advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage; (4) preparing, recording or filing any financing or continuation statements or recording or filing any instrument in any public office or for otherwise ensuring the perfection or maintenance of any Lien granted pursuant to, or contemplated by, this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or the existence and enforceability of any insurance on the Collateral; (5) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against any parties with respect to the Collateral; (6) taking any action to protect against any diminution in value of the Collateral; (7) errors in judgment that do not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction; (8) the Company's and the Guarantors' compliance with any of the covenants set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, including but not limited to, covenants regarding the granting, perfection or maintenance of any Lien; (9) the market value of the Collateral or its sufficiency to satisfy in full payments due on the Notes Obligations; (10) the accuracy of any representation or warranty of the Company or Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by the Collateral Agent; or (11) the effectiveness, genuineness, sufficiency, legality, validity and enforceability of any Lien, security interest, Collateral, this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or title, transfer or assignment of any Collateral.

SECTION 7.09. Release of Collateral. Subject to, and to the extent permitted under, the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Company and the Guarantors shall be entitled to the release of the Collateral from the Lien securing the Notes Obligations under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, if at any time the Collateral Agent, acting in accordance, exclusively and strictly, with instructions provided by the Purchaser (at the direction of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders), forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against the Collateral resulting in the sale or disposition thereof;
- (ii) as described and pursuant to Article 10; or
- (iii) upon payment in full of the principal of, together with all accrued and unpaid interest on, the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

in each case, (i) so long as no Default or Event of Default will exist immediately after such release, as applicable; and (ii) provided the Collateral Agent shall have received an Officer's Certificate certifying, and Opinion of Counsel stating, that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the release of Collateral pursuant to this Section 7.09 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document requested by the Company or any Guarantor to evidence such release of the Collateral (A) without any consent of the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes, the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, the Holders or the Purchaser, (B) based solely on the Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 7.09 and (C) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent);

provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents shall terminate in respect of the Notes on the Stated Maturity, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exist Notes Obligations due and payable on that date, in which case the Lien in the Collateral shall terminate upon satisfaction of such Notes Obligations, all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes. Upon termination of the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents in respect of the Notes Obligations, the Collateral shall be released in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement to the Company and the Guarantors, and the Company and the Guarantors shall thereupon grant a Lien in such Collateral in respect of any outstanding obligations under the Abra Notes.

Each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not directly or indirectly, enter into, renew or extend any transaction or arrangement including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of property or assets, or the rendering thereof of any service with any Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary (a “Related-Party Transaction”), except upon fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or the Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm’s-length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

(a) Prior to entering into any Related-Party Transaction or series of Related-Party Transactions (i) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$10.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary must deliver to the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer stating that such Related-Party Transaction complies with this covenant, (ii) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$20.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the terms of such Related-Party Transaction will be approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, GLAI or of such Subsidiary (including a majority of the members of the Board of Directors who are disinterested directors with respect to such Related-Party Transaction), the approval to be evidenced by a board resolution that such transaction or series of related transactions are on terms no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm’s length transaction and satisfy the requirement in clause (i) and (iii) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$40.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary shall deliver to the Purchaser and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes a written opinion issued by an investment bank of recognized international standing that such Related-Party Transaction is fair to the Guarantor or the relevant Subsidiary from a financial point of view and satisfy the requirements in clause (i) and clause (ii) hereof.

(b) The foregoing paragraphs do not apply to:

- (i) arm’s length transactions in the ordinary course among and between any of the Company, the Guarantors, Avianca Group International Limited and any of their respective Subsidiaries provided, that any such transaction conducted by any of the Guarantors’ shareholders indirectly through any of these entities shall not be exempt from the limitations in this Section 7.11;

- (ii) at least 75% of the consideration consists of cash or cash equivalent received at closing, provided that, for purposes of this clause (ii), each of the following shall be deemed cash or cash equivalent: (A) any liabilities of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets pursuant to a customary novation agreement that releases the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from further liability; and (B) any securities notes or other obligations received by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from such transferee that are, within 120 days after the closing of such Asset Sale, converted by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary into cash or cash equivalent, but only to the extent of the cash or cash equivalent actually received in that conversion;

When accumulated Excess Proceeds equals or exceeds such amount, the Company must prepay the outstanding amount under the Notes equal to the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale.

(v) With respect to paragraph (iv) above, the Company shall notify the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) in writing of any prepayment hereunder by electronic mail or other electronic transmission or by telephone (to be confirmed in writing) no later than 11:00 a.m. five Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment; provided that the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall not accept any prepayment of the Notes without the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders. SECTION 9.10. Control by Holders. The Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) may direct in writing the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Company or the Collateral Agent or of exercising any power conferred on the Collateral Agent. - (xi) make any change in any Note Guaranty that would adversely affect the Holders; or
- (xii) change the definition of “Abra Notes Supermajority Holders” or modify any provision pursuant to which consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders is required for any transaction, action or otherwise.

In addition, notwithstanding the foregoing (and except as provided for in Section 7.09), without the prior written consent of the Purchaser and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, no amendment, supplement or waiver may release any portion of the Collateral or permit or suffer to exist any Lien therein other than to secure the Notes Obligations unless otherwise expressly permitted in this Note Purchase Agreement and/or the Collateral Documents.

The Company shall give to Holders and Abra Notes Supermajority Holders prior written notice of any amendment or waiver proposed to be adopted under this Section 10.02. In addition, the Company or the applicable Guarantor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent (if the Collateral Agent is a party thereto) an Opinion of Counsel and an Officer’s Certificate, each stating that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the execution and delivery of such amendment, supplement or waiver pursuant to this Section 10.02 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document pursuant to this Section 10.02 requested by the Company or any Guarantor (A) based solely on the Officer’s Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 10.02 and (B) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent).

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders or Abra Notes Supermajority Holders under this Section 10.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment or waiver, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

After an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02 becomes effective, the Company shall give to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment or waiver. The failure to give such notice to all Holders and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02.

SECTION 10.03. Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. (a) A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Note or portion of the Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Note. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Note or portion of the Note if the Company receives the written notice of revocation at least one Business Day prior to the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After it becomes effective, an amendment or waiver shall bind every Holder.

(b) The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above in accordance with Section 14.01. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date.

SECTION 10.04. Payment for Consent. Neither the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration, whether by way of interest, fee or otherwise, to any Holder for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes unless such consideration is offered to be paid to all Holders which so consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement.

SECTION 10.05. Collateral Agent. No waiver, modification or amendment of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents may affect or change the rights, obligations, duties, protections or immunities of the Collateral Agent without the written consent of the Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent may conclusively rely on an Officer's Certificate with respect to whether the consent of Purchaser, any Holders, any holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes or any holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes are required in connection with any amendment, supplement or waiver under this Article 10.

NOTE GUARANTIES

SECTION 11.01. The Note Guaranties. Subject to the provisions of this Article, GLAI and GLA hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee (the "Note Guaranties"), on a secured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations; provided, however, that upon release of the Collateral in accordance with Section 7.09 GLA and GLAI shall guarantee, on an unsecured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations. Upon failure by the Company to pay punctually any such amount, the Guarantors shall forthwith on demand pay the amount not so paid at the place and in the manner specified in this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 11.02. Guaranty Unconditional. The obligations of the Guarantors hereunder are unconditional and absolute and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, will not be released, discharged or otherwise affected by:

- (1) any extension, renewal, settlement, compromise, waiver or release in respect of any obligation of the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, by operation of Law or otherwise;
- (2) any modification or amendment of or supplement to this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (3) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of the Company, or any insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting the Company or its assets or any resulting release or discharge of any obligation of the Company contained in this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (4) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights which the Guarantors may have at any time against the Company or any other Person, whether in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or any unrelated transactions; provided that nothing herein prevents the assertion of any such claim by separate suit or compulsory counterclaim;
- (5) any invalidity or unenforceability relating to or against the Company for any reason of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, or any provision of applicable Law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Company of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement; or
- (6) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by the Company or any other Person or any other circumstance whatsoever which might, but for the provisions of this paragraph, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of or defense to the Guarantors' obligations hereunder.

SECTION 11.03. Discharge; Reinstatement. The Guarantors' obligations hereunder will remain in full force and effect until the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes and all other amounts payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement have been paid in full. If at any time any payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement is rescinded or must be otherwise restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company or otherwise, the Guarantors' obligations hereunder with respect to such payment will be reinstated as though such payment had been due but not made at such time.

SECTION 11.04. Waiver by the Guarantors. Each of the Guarantors irrevocably waives acceptance hereof, presentment, demand, protest and any notice not provided for herein, as well as any requirement that at any time any action be taken by any Person against the Company or any other Person.

SECTION 11.05. Subrogation and Contribution. Upon making any payment with respect to any obligation of the Company under this Article, the Guarantor making such payment will be subrogated to the rights of the payee against the Company with respect to such obligation, limited to the amount of the payment or delivery made by such Guarantor (“Subrogation Rights”). The Guarantor hereby irrevocably agrees that the Subrogation Rights may be used at all times by the Guarantors to set-off amounts owed by the Guarantors to the Guarantor under the Notes and the GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028.

SECTION 11.06. Stay of Acceleration. If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement are nonetheless payable by the Guarantors hereunder forthwith on demand by the Holders.

SECTION 11.07. Limitation on Amount of Guaranty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article, each of the Guarantors, and by its acceptance of Notes, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Note Guaranty of each Guarantor does not constitute a fraudulent conveyance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law. To effectuate that intention, the Holders and each of the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of each Guarantor under its respective Note Guaranty are limited to the maximum amount that would not render the Guarantors’ obligations subject to avoidance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law.

SECTION 11.08. Execution and Delivery of Guaranty. The execution by each of the Guarantors of this Note Purchase Agreement on each Closing Date evidences the respective Note Guaranty of each Guarantor, whether or not the person signing as an Officer of such Guarantor still holds that office at the time of execution of any Note.

SECTION 11.09. Release of Guaranty. The Note Guaranty of each of the Guarantors will terminate upon a sale or other disposition (including by way of consolidation or merger) of such Guarantor or the sale or disposition of all or substantially all the assets of such Guarantor (in each case other than to the Company or a Subsidiary) otherwise permitted by this Note Purchase Agreement.

Upon delivery by the Company to the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent of an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all of the conditions provided in this Note Purchase Agreement to the release and termination of the Note Guaranty have been satisfied, the Purchaser will execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company in writing in order to evidence the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Note Guaranty.

COLLATERAL AGENT

SECTION 12.01. Appointment. Each of the Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as the agent of such Secured Parties under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which it is a party and authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms hereof or thereof. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term “agent” herein or in the Collateral Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary duty or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties. The Company agrees to pay to the Collateral Agent such fees and expenses (including counsels’ fees and expenses) of the Collateral Agent as may be separately agreed in writing and pursuant to the terms of Section 12.04. For the avoidance of any doubt and for the purposes of this Article 12, this Note Purchase Agreement shall prevail in the case of any conflicts between any Collateral Document and this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 12.02. Exculpatory Provisions. (a) The Collateral Agent shall have no duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, and no duty, liability or obligation shall be inferred or implied against the Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, (i) the Collateral Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duty, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and persists; (ii) the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to perform any discretionary act or exercise any discretionary powers (by consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval, notice, request or other communication, or other instruction given or act to be performed or to be (or not) suffered or omitted by the Collateral Agent, or any option, decision, opinion, acceptance, exercise of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other discretionary exercise, rights or remedies to be exercised (or not) by the Collateral Agent); (iii) except as expressly provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the non-disclosure of, any information concerning the Company or any Guarantor or any of their Subsidiaries which is communicated to or obtained by the Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity; and (iv) the Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to perform any act which, in its opinion or in the opinion of its attorney, may expose the Collateral Agent to liability or otherwise contrary to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or applicable Law, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any act that may be in violation of automatic suspension under any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect or that may cause the Company's assets to lapse, change or be closed in violation of any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the written consent or at the written request, written instruction or written direction of the Purchaser, the Majority Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders (or such other requisite percentage of Holders as may be specified), as applicable, or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment.

(c) The Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, unless and until written notice by the Purchaser (a copy of which shall be delivered by the Purchaser to the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) describing such event is received by a Responsible Officer of the Collateral Agent, referring to this Note Purchase Agreement and such Default or Event of Default.

(d) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for or have any duty to prove or investigate, or otherwise have any obligation or liability with respect to, (i) any representation or warranty provided in or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered under or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (iii) the performance or fulfillment of any of the obligations, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, efficacy or authenticity of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent.

(e) The Collateral Agent shall have the right to rely on, and shall not incur any liability for, any notification, request, certificate, consent, representation, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) considered by it to be authentic and having been signed or sent by a competent Person. The Collateral Agent may also rely on any statement given to it verbally or by telephone and deemed to have been given by the competent Person, and shall not incur any liability for it. The Collateral Agent may consult with counsel, independent auditors and other experts chosen by the Collateral Agent, at the Company's expense, and the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any act performed or not performed by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the advice of any said counsel, auditor or expert.

(f) The Collateral Agent may fulfill any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more subagents appointed by it, at the expense of the Company. The Collateral Agent and any subagent may fulfill any and all of their duties and exercise their rights and powers through their related parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article 12 shall apply to any such subagent as a third-party beneficiary to the extent applicable. The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the supervision, negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents that it selects with due care.

(g) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable and makes no representation as to the existence, authenticity, value or protection of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents, the security provided hereunder or thereunder or the Collateral, for the legality, effectiveness or sufficiency of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents nor for the creation, formalization, ranking, sufficiency or protection of any Liens constituted under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, no provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to prepare, file or record any financing statements or continuation statements or other instruments or documents, or to be responsible for maintaining the Liens and security interests to be created as described in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, and such responsibility shall be in charge exclusively of the Company. The Collateral Agent's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Collateral in its possession, if applicable, shall be to deal with it in the same manner as the Collateral Agent deals with similar property for the account of other customers in similar transactions. The Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of its rights and powers.

(h) In order to effect the transfer of any amounts received as a result of the enforcement of the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent may perform a foreign exchange transaction to convert into U.S. Dollars any amount in Reais resulting from such enforcement; except that possible deductions of any commissions or taxes charged on such foreign exchange transactions and/or any other withholding or charge levied on the corresponding payments may be applicable, and upon such deductions, the Collateral Agent will transfer the amounts in U.S. Dollars according to the instructions provided by any Holder. The Collateral Agent (a) will only be obliged to perform any foreign exchange transaction it may undertake as of the second (2nd) Brazilian Business Day after the Brazilian Business Day on which the Collateral Agent receives the applicable instructions and documents to perform such foreign exchange transaction; and (b) will not undertake to perform any foreign exchange transaction or transfer of funds, unless the Collateral Agent has received (i) all documents and information necessary for the remittance of funds in accordance with applicable foreign exchange regulations and (ii) the payment of the respective commissions, fees and expenses. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any losses or damages resulting from possible delays or impediments to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and/or transfer, nor as the impossibility to perform a foreign exchange transaction or transfer. The Collateral Agent shall not assume any liability to any Person with respect to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and the rates related to any foreign exchange transaction to be performed in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or with respect to the transfer of any funds as a result thereof.

(i) The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to spend or put at risk any of its own funds or otherwise incur any obligation or liability, financial or otherwise, in performing its duties or exercising its rights under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents.

(j) In no event shall the Collateral Agent be liable for special, indirect, punitive, consequential or unforeseen loss or damage of any nature (including lost profits) regardless of whether the Collateral Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(k) The Collateral Agent shall not incur any obligation for failure to perform any act or duty under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents by reason of any occurrence beyond its control (including any act or provision of any current or future Law, regulation, governmental authorization, any acts of God or war, civil conflict, local or national disturbance or disaster, any act of terrorism or the unavailability of an electronic or mechanical transfer or other transfer or communication resource from the Federal Reserve System or the Central Bank).

(l) The Collateral Agent shall have the right, unilaterally and without notice, to withdraw or fail to comply with any obligation that may result in a violation of sanctions imposed by the United States of America, the European Union, local embargo Laws and the Collateral Agent's internal policies with respect to embargoes ("Embargo Rules"). Violation of the Embargo Rules includes, among others, receiving or transferring funds to any legal entity, country or individual named on the Specially Designated Citizens List of the Office of Foreign Assets Control - OFAC or controlled by legal entities, countries or individuals on that list. The parties expressly agree that the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for the failure to effect and/or delay in the receipt or payment of any amount under the conditions described in this Section 12.02.

(m) Any and all payments by the Company and/or the Guarantors to or for the benefit of the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall be made free and clear, and without deduction, of any taxes, expenses or withholdings of any nature levied by the Brazilian government and/or any of its departments ("Deductions") and any other Taxing Jurisdiction, which taxes, expenses or withholdings shall be borne by the Company. If any Deductions apply to any payment, the Company and/or the Guarantors, as the case may be, will immediately pay to the account indicated by the Collateral Agent the additional amount necessary for the amount paid to the Collateral Agent to be equal to the amount it would have received without the applicable Deductions.

(n) Each Secured Party (other than the Collateral Agent) authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party on the date hereof on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(o) Notwithstanding any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to the contrary, before taking or omitting any action to be taken or omitted by the Collateral Agent under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Collateral Document, the Collateral Agent may seek the written direction of the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely (and shall be fully protected in so relying) upon such direction. The Collateral Agent is not liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in accordance with such direction. If the Collateral Agent requests such direction by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, with respect to any action, the Collateral Agent is entitled to refrain from such action unless and until the Collateral Agent has received such direction, and the Collateral Agent does not incur liability to any Person by reason of so refraining. If the Collateral Agent so requests, it must first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Purchaser or the Holders, as the case may be, against any and all fees, losses, liabilities and expenses which may be incurred by the Collateral Agent by reason of taking or continuing to take, or omitting, any action directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders. Any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents authorizing the Collateral Agent to take any action does not obligate the Collateral Agent to take such action. The Collateral Agent may refuse to perform any duty or exercise any right or power unless it receives indemnity or security satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in performing such duty or exercising such right or power. In the absence of an express statement in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents regarding which Holders shall direct in any circumstance, the direction of the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall apply and be sufficient for all purposes.

(p) Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under or pursuant to the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

(q) The Collateral Agent shall have no responsibility for interest or income on any funds held by it under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and any funds so held shall be held uninvested pending distribution thereof.

(r) The Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the duties or powers vested in it by this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request, order, instruction or direction of the Holders, unless the Holders shall have offered to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities that might be incurred thereby.

(s) The Collateral Agent may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Company or any Affiliate thereof as if the Collateral Agent were not an attorney-in-fact hereunder and without any duty to account therefore to the Secured Parties.

(t) The Secured Parties understand that the Collateral Agent, acting in its individual capacity, and its Affiliates may engage in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, financing, securities trading, corporate and investment banking and research) (the “Activities”) and may engage in the Activities with or on behalf of one or more of the Company and its respective Affiliates. Furthermore, the Collateral Agent may, in undertaking the Activities, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for its own account or on behalf of others (including the Company and its Affiliates and including holding, for its own account or on behalf of others, equity, debt and similar positions in the Company or its respective Affiliates), including trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, loans or other financial products of the Company or its Affiliates. The Secured Parties understand and agree that in engaging in the Activities, the Collateral Agent may receive or otherwise obtain information concerning the Company or its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its respective obligations hereunder and under the Collateral Documents) which information may not be available to the Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty to disclose to the Secured Parties or use on behalf of the Secured Parties, nor be liable for the failure to so disclose or use, any information whatsoever about or derived from the Activities or otherwise (including any information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of the Company or any of its Affiliates) or to account for any revenue or profits obtained in connection with the Activities.

(u) The Secured Parties further understand that there may be situations where members of the Collateral Agent's group or their respective customers (including the Company and its Affiliates) either now have or may in the future have interests or take actions that may conflict with the interests of any one or more of the Secured Parties (including the interests of the Secured Parties hereunder and under the Collateral Documents). None of (i) this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of information concerning the Company or any of its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement) or (iii) any other matter, shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including any duty of trust or confidence) owing by the Collateral Agent to any Secured Party including any such duty that would prevent or restrict the Collateral Agent from acting on behalf of customers (including the Company or its Affiliates) or for its own account.

(v) The Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) confirm to the Collateral Agent that each of them (i) possesses such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters so that it is capable, without reliance on such Collateral Agent, of evaluating the merits and risks (including tax, legal, regulatory, credit, accounting and other financial matters) of (x) entering into this Note Purchase Agreement or holding the Notes and (y) taking or not taking actions hereunder or under the Collateral Documents, (ii) is financially able to bear such risks and (iii) has determined that entering into this Note Purchase Agreement is suitable and appropriate for it.

(w) Nothing in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to carry out any "know your customer" or other checks in relation to the Company or any of its Affiliates on behalf of the Secured Parties and the Secured Parties confirm to the Collateral Agent that such Secured Parties are solely responsible for any such checks such Secured Parties are required to carry out and that such Secured Parties may not rely on any statement in relation to such checks made by such the Collateral Agent.

(x) The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely on any written direction, instruction, request, consent or other written communication from the Purchaser or any Holder. The Collateral Agent shall not have any obligation or duty with respect to the identity of any Holder or the amount of any Obligations owing to any such Person. At any time and from time to time, the Collateral Agent may request information from the Holders or the Company as to the identities of the Holders, their respective Notes and the composition and calculation of the Majority Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, and the Holders and the Company shall provide such information. The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to fully rely on such information and shall have no duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity or amount of Notes held by any Holder or with respect to the calculation of the Majority Holders, the Supermajority Holders or the unanimous vote of Holders.

(y) The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity, calculation or consent or other action of the Abra Holders. Where the consent or other action of the Abra Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders is required by this

Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall certify to the Collateral Agent that the Company has obtained such consent, or other action, and the Collateral Agent shall be fully entitled to rely on such certification of the Company without any liability.

(z) Before the Collateral Agent acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate of the Company, or an Opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, with respect to the proposed action or inaction. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such certificate or opinion. Whenever in the administration of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents the Collateral Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be provided or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting to take any act hereunder or thereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein or therein specifically described) may, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officer's Certificate delivered to the Collateral Agent, and such certificate, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, shall be full warrant to the Collateral Agent for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it under the provision of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents upon the faith thereof.

SECTION 12.03. Resignation. Upon at least thirty (30) days' notice, the Collateral Agent may resign at any time as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents by notifying the Purchaser and the Company. Upon any resignation by the Collateral Agent, the Company shall have the right (provided that no Event of Default has occurred and continues) to appoint a successor Collateral Agent or, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Purchaser shall have the right to appoint a successor Collateral Agent. If no successor has been so appointed and has accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the date the Collateral Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the resigning Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) (a) upon consent (provided that no Event of Default or Default has occurred and continues) of the Company (consent of which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), at the cost and expense of the Company, appoint a successor Collateral Agent or (b) petition any court of competent jurisdiction, at the cost and expense of the Company, for the appointment of a successor Collateral Agent. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, the Collateral Agent's resignation shall become effective in accordance with the Collateral Agent's notice of resignation on the date specified in such notice, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents on such date. Upon acceptance of a successor Collateral Agent of its appointment as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, such successor will succeed and have all rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning Collateral Agent, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents (if not released sooner, as provided above). The fees due by the Company to a successor agent will be the same as those contracted in relation to its predecessor, unless otherwise agreed between the Company and such successor. Any Person into which the Collateral Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to the business of the Collateral Agent shall be the successor of the Collateral Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper with any party hereto or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, except where an instrument of transfer or assignment is required by Law to effect such succession, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 12.04. Fees, Expenses and Indemnification.

(a) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Collateral Agent for its own account fees in the amounts and at the times agreed with the Collateral Agent.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay or reimburse each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent for (1) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the development, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents and any amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of the provisions hereof and thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby are consummated), and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including all attorney fees and expenses, and (2) all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement, attempted enforcement, or preservation of any rights or remedies under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents, including all attorney costs and all expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents. The foregoing costs and expenses shall include all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Purchaser and Collateral Agent under clause (1) or (2) above and the cost of counsel, independent public accountants and other outside experts so retained. All amounts due under this Section shall be payable within ten Business Days after demand therefore.

(c) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify and hold each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent harmless for, from and against any and all damage, loss, liability, cost, claim or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and including all fees, expenses and costs incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent in connection with any dispute, action, claim or suit brought to enforce the right to indemnification) incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent arising out of or in connection with the execution, delivery or administration of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or any instrument or agreement contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance of the Collateral Agent's duties hereunder or thereunder, and the exercise of each of the Purchaser's and the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder or thereunder including, without limitation, the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability and of complying with any process served upon it or any of its officers in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, except, as applicable, as may result from the Purchaser's or the Collateral Agent's respective willful misconduct or gross negligence (as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction).

(d) To the extent that the Company or the Guarantors for any reason fail to indefeasibly pay any amount required under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this Section or under the Collateral Documents to be paid by the Company or the Guarantors to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent thereof), the Holders agree to pay to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) such unpaid amount (including any such unpaid amount in respect of a claim asserted by the Holders); provided that the unpaid amount was incurred by or asserted against the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) in its capacity as such.

(e) The provisions in this Article shall survive the termination or satisfaction of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents, the resignation or removal of the Collateral Agent and the payment of all Notes Obligations.

REDEMPTION

SECTION 13.01. Redemption. The Notes shall not be redeemable by the Company prior to the Maturity Date, except as described in this Article 13, and no sinking fund is provided for the Notes.

(a) Prior to the Maturity Date, the Company may partially or fully redeem the Notes, upon notice as described in Section 13.02, at the redemption price of 100% (expressed as percentages of principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed), plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon; provided that upon such redemption, the Company shall issue GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028 in an amount equal to, and on a dollar for dollar basis, the aggregate principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed; provided, that upon the written request of the Purchaser the Company shall partially or fully redeem the Notes (and issue such GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028) pursuant to this Section 13.01(a).

(b) The redemption provided for in clause (a) above is subject to the Company previously (i) obtaining all required corporate approvals; and (ii) having issued the warrants that allow for exchangeability of GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028 into preferred shares of GLAI in accordance with the terms set forth in the GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes NPA. Should the Company fail to obtain such corporate approvals or to issue such warrants, the Company and the Purchaser shall agree on an indemnity that will equitably compensate the Purchaser for the benefits arising from the conversion of the Notes into GOL Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes due 2028.

SECTION 13.02. Notice of Optional Redemption. (a) In the event that the Company exercises any redemption right pursuant to Section 13.01, it shall fix a date for redemption and it shall deliver a written notice of such redemption not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption date to each Holder of Notes.

(b) Each redemption notice shall specify:

- (1) the redemption date; and
- (2) principal amount of Notes to be redeemed.

SECTION 13.03. Payment of Notes Called for Redemption. (a) If any redemption notice has been given in respect of the Notes in accordance with Section 13.02, the Notes shall become due and payable on the specified redemption date.

ACTIONS BY HOLDERS

SECTION 14.01. Action by Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Note Purchase Agreement to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders or by agents duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Company and, where applicable pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Guarantors or to the Collateral Agent, as applicable. Such instrument or instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the “Act” of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments.

(b) Whenever in this Note Purchase Agreement it is provided that the Holders of a specified percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes may take any action (including the making of any demand or request, the giving of any notice, consent or waiver or the taking of any other action), the fact that at the time of taking any such action, the Holders of such specified percentage have joined therein may be evidenced by any instrument or any number of instruments of similar tenor executed by Holders in person or by agent or proxy appointed in writing.

(c) Whenever the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, the Company may fix, but shall not be required to, in advance of such solicitation, a date as the record date for determining Holders entitled to take such action. The record date if one is selected shall be not more than fifteen days prior to the date of commencement of solicitation of such action.

SECTION 14.02. Proof of Execution by Holders. When the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, proof of the execution of any instrument by a Holder, its agent or proxy, or the Purchaser, shall be sufficient if made in accordance with such reasonable rules as may be prescribed by the Company or in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the Company.

SECTION 14.03. Company-Owned Notes Disregarded. In determining whether the Holders of the requisite aggregate principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, consent, waiver or other action under this Note Purchase Agreement, Notes that are owned by the Company, by any Subsidiary thereof or by any of their respective Affiliates shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding for the purpose of any such determination.

SECTION 14.04. Revocation of Consents; Future Holders Bound. At any time prior to (but not after) the evidencing to the Company, as provided in Section 14.01, of the taking of any action by the Holders of the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes specified in this Note Purchase Agreement in connection with such action, any Holder of a Note that is shown by the evidence to be included in the Notes the Holders of which have consented to such action may, by filing written notice with the Company at the Company’s Office and upon proof of holding as provided in Section 14.02, revoke such action so far as concerns such Note; provided that to the extent that the consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders was required or otherwise obtained, the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders shall be required to revoke any such consent. Except as provided in the previous sentence, any such action taken by the Holder of any Note shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders and owners of such Note and of any Notes issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof, irrespective of whether any notation in regard thereto is made upon such Note or any Note issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof.

SECTION 15.03. Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel as to Conditions Precedent. Upon any request or application by the Company to the Collateral Agent to take or refrain from taking any action under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall furnish to the Collateral Agent:

(1) an Officer's Certificate (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all covenants and conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement and, if the action involves any of the Collateral Documents, the applicable Collateral Documents relating to the proposed action have been complied with; and

(2) an Opinion of Counsel (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, all such covenants and conditions precedent have been complied with.

SECTION 15.04. Statements Required in Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel. Each certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a covenant or condition provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall include:

(1) a statement that each Person making or rendering such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel has read such covenant or condition and the related definitions;

(2) a brief statement as to the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel are based;

(3) a statement that, in the opinion of each such Person, such Person has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable such Person to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and

(4) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of each such Person, such covenant or condition has been complied with.

SECTION 15.05. Rules by Registrar, Paying Agent and Transfer Agents. The Registrar, the Paying Agent and the Transfer Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

SECTION 15.06. Currency Indemnity. U.S. Dollars are the sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by the Company or the Guarantors under or in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties, including damages. Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than U.S. Dollars (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the winding-up or dissolution of the Company or otherwise) by any Person in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Company or the Guarantors in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties will only constitute a discharge to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to the extent of the U.S. Dollar amount which the recipient is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If that U.S. Dollar amount is less than the U.S. Dollar amount expressed to be due to the recipient, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify such recipient against any loss sustained by it as a result, and if the amount of U.S. Dollars so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to such recipient, such recipient will be deemed to have agreed to repay such excess. In any event, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify the recipient against the cost of making any such purchase.

For the purposes of this Section 15.06, it shall be sufficient for the recipient to certify in a satisfactory manner (indicating the sources of information used) that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase of U.S. Dollars been made with the amount so received in that other currency on the date of receipt or recovery (or, if a purchase of U.S. Dollars on such date had not been practicable, on the first date on which it would have been practicable, it being required that the need for a change of date be certified in the manner mentioned above). These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder of a Note and shall continue in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due under any Note.

SECTION 15.07. No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent, respectively, under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or the Notes or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder shall waive and release all such liability. The waiver and release shall be part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

SECTION 15.08. Legal Holidays. In any case where any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall not be a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or of the Notes) payment of interest or principal need not be made on such date, but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date; provided that no default interest shall accrue for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date on account of such delay.

SECTION 15.09. Governing Law. THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES AND THE NOTE GUARANTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Articles 470-1 to 470-19 (inclusive) of the Luxembourg Act on commercial companies of August 10, 1915, as amended, shall not apply in respect of the Notes.

For purposes solely of Article 9 of Brazilian Decree Law No. 4,657, of September 4, 1942, the transactions contemplated hereby have been constituted and proposed outside of Brazil.

SECTION 15.10. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York with respect to actions brought against it as a defendant in respect of any suit, action or proceeding or arbitral award arising out of or relating to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby (a “Proceeding”), and irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may do so under applicable Law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such Proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such Proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably appoints Cogency Global, Inc. (the “Company and Guarantors Process Agent”), with an office at 122 East 42nd Street, 18th Floor, New York, NY 10168, as its authorized agent to receive on behalf of it and its property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding. If for any reason such Person shall cease to be such agent for service of process, each of the Company and the Guarantors shall forthwith appoint a new agent of recognized standing for service of process in the State of New York within 30 days.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably appoints the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as its agent to receive, on behalf of itself and its property, service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York. Such service shall be made by delivering by hand a copy of such process to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, in care of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent at the address specified above. Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf. Failure of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to give notice to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, or failure of the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to receive notice of such service of process shall not affect in any way the validity of such service on the Company and Guarantors Process Agent, the Company or the Guarantors. As an alternative method of service, each of the Company and the Guarantors also irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such Proceeding by the delivery by hand of copies of such process to the Company or Guarantors, as the case may be, at its address specified in Section 15.02 or at any other address previously furnished in writing by the Company or the Guarantors. Each of the Company and the Guarantors covenants and agrees that it shall take any and all reasonable action, including the execution and filing of any and all documents, that may be necessary to continue the designation of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent above in full force and effect during the term of the Notes, and to cause the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to continue to act as such.

(c) [Reserved]

(d) Exclusively for the purposes of Brazilian law, the Guarantors appoint the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as their agent and attorney-in-fact to receive on behalf of them and their property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding pursuant to articles 653 et. seq. of the Brazilian Law No. 10,406, of January 10, 2022.

(e) Nothing herein shall affect the right of any party (including the Collateral Agent, any other Agent or any Holder) to serve process in any other manner permitted by Law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise bring any claim against any other party or its property in any other court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, in any proceedings anywhere (whether for an injunction, specific performance or otherwise), no immunity (to the extent that it may at any time exist, whether on the grounds of sovereignty or otherwise) from such proceedings, from attachment (whether in aid of execution, before judgment or otherwise) of its assets or from execution of judgment shall be claimed by it or on its behalf or with respect to its assets, except to the extent required by applicable Law, any such immunity being irrevocably waived, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, where permitted by applicable Law, it and its assets are, and shall be, subject to such proceedings, attachment or execution in respect of its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties.

(g) ALL PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THEY MAY DO SO UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES, THE NOTE GUARANTIES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

SECTION 15.11. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements of the Company and the Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties shall bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. The Notes shall not be assigned by the Purchaser unless (i) the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall have been indefeasibly paid in full or (ii) as otherwise may be consented to by the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders.

In the event of a transfer, assignment, novation or amendment of the rights and/or the obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and any other Transaction Documents, all security interests, guarantees and privileges created under or in connection with the Transaction Documents shall automatically and without any formality be preserved for the benefit of the transferee including the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture for the purpose of the provisions of articles 1278 to 1281 of the Luxembourg Civil Code or any other purposes.

SECTION 15.12. Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Note Purchase Agreement. Each signed copy shall be deemed an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement. One signed copy is enough to prove this Note Purchase Agreement. The words “execution,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in this Note Purchase Agreement or in any other certificate or document related to this Note Purchase Agreement shall include images of executed signatures transmitted by facsimile or other electronic format (including, without limitation, “pdf”, “tif” or “jpg”) and other electronic signatures (including, without limitation, DocuSign and AdobeSign). The use of electronic signatures and electronic records (including, without limitation, any contract or other record created, generated, sent, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means) shall be of the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as an executed signature or use of a paper-based record-keeping system to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act and any other applicable Law, including, without limitation, any state Law based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act or the Uniform Commercial Code.

SECTION 15.13. Severability Clause. In case any provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, the parties hereby waive any provision of Law which renders any term or provision hereof invalid or unenforceable in any respect.

SECTION 15.14. Force Majeure. In no event shall the Collateral Agent or any other Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder, or under the Collateral Documents arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, governmental actions, pandemics, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Collateral Agent or such other Agent, as applicable shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

SECTION 15.15. Acknowledgement. Each of the Company and the Guarantors acknowledges that, on the date hereof, the Purchaser has pledged, or will pledge, all of its right, title and interest in the Notes, Notes Obligations and all Collateral therefor, in favor of the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture as collateral to secure the Purchaser’s obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Note Purchase Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first written above.

1. Purchase Agreement.

Each holder of this security, by accepting the same, agrees to and shall be bound by the provisions hereof and of the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 2, 2023, by and among GOL FINANCE, a public limited liability company (société anonyme) incorporated in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 17, Boulevard Raiffeisen, L-2411 Luxembourg, registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Companies (R.C.S.Luxembourg) under number B 178497 (the “Company”), GOL LINHAS AÉREAS INTELIGENTES S.A. (“GLAI”), as guarantor, registrar, transfer agent and paying agent, and GOL LINHAS AÉREAS S.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of GLAI (“GLA” and together with GLAI, the “Guarantors”), each, a corporation (sociedade por ações) organized under the Laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, as guarantors, ABRA GROUP LIMITED, a private limited company organized under the Laws of England and Wales, with registered office at 1 Ashley Road, 3rd Floor, Altrincham, Cheshire, United Kingdom, as purchaser (the “Purchaser” or “Holder”) and TMF BRASIL ADMINISTRAÇÃO E GESTÃO DE ATIVOS LTDA., as collateral agent (the “Collateral Agent”), as the same shall be amended from time to time (the “Note Purchase Agreement”). The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Note Purchase Agreement. The Holders of the Notes shall be entitled to the benefit of, be bound by and be deemed to have notice of, all provisions of the Note Purchase Agreement.

Reference is hereby made to the Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents and all amendments and supplements to each of them from time to time (collectively, the “Note Documents”) for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent, each other Agent and the Purchaser as Holder of the Notes and the terms upon which the Notes, are, and are to be, executed and delivered. All terms used in this Note that are defined in the Note Purchase Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Notes are senior obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, secured by a first priority and perfected Lien in the Collateral. The payment obligations of the Company under the Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to the terms of the Note Guaranties.

The Note Documents impose certain limitations on assets, debts, Restricted Payments, the creation of Lien by the Company, and consolidation, merger, Related-Party Transactions, and certain other transactions involving the Company. In addition, the Note Documents require the maintenance of insurance for the Company, the maintenance of the existence of the Company, the payment of certain taxes and claims and reporting requirements applicable to the Company. The Note Documents also contain provisions related to the Collateral as well as certain assurances, restrictions, and use and possession related to the Collateral.

2. Principal.

Unless previously redeemed, exchanged or purchased and cancelled, the Company promises to pay the Holder hereof the total Outstanding principal amount which shall be repaid in cash in a single installment on the Maturity Date, together with all other amounts owed hereunder with respect thereto (including all accrued and unpaid interest that has not yet been added to the total Outstanding principal amount through the Maturity Date).

3. Interest.

The Notes shall bear interest at an interest rate as follows:

(1) 4.50% per year shall be payable entirely in cash semi-annually in arrears on each Interest Payment Date (“Cash Interest”);

(2) 13.5% per year shall be payable in cash or in kind (“PIK Interest”), at the sole election of the Company, as set forth below; and

(3) GLAI, at its option, may elect to pay in cash all or a portion of any accrued but unpaid PIK Interest on the Outstanding principal amount of the Notes (A) semi-annually in arrears, on each applicable Interest Payment Date or (B) on the Maturity Date; provided that, unless GLAI makes such election to make interest payments in cash, any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date shall not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note; provided, further, that any such PIK Interest payment shall be capitalized automatically on such Interest Payment Date and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of this Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon on the aggregate principal amount of the Notes on each applicable Interest Payment Date in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement.

4. Method of Payment.

Any payments of interest or principal in respect of each Note made on an Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall be made by the Company to the Persons shown on the Register at the close of (a) in the case of interest payments, the Regular Record Date or (b) in the case of principal payment, the fifteenth day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, whether or not a Business Day (each, a “Record Date”); provided that any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date will not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and automatically added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note (and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of such Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement).

Final payments in respect of any Note shall be made subject only to any fiscal or other Laws and regulations applicable thereto, at the specified offices of any other Paying Agent appointed by the Company, if any.

If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Purchaser to pay fully all amounts of principal and interest then due in cash hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest then due hereunder and (ii) second, towards payment of principal then due hereunder.

Payment in cash of the principal and premium, if any, of any Note on the Maturity Date shall be made upon presentation and surrender thereof, by wire transfer to the Holder's Designated Bank Account.

If a Holder fails to designate a Designated Bank Account or such account is unable to accept wire transfers, then all cash payments shall instead be made by U.S. Dollar check drawn on a bank in The City of New York and mailed to the Person entitled thereto at its address as it appears on the Register.

Payment of interest on any Interest Payment Date with respect to any Note shall be made to the Person in whose name such Note is registered on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, and if in cash, by wire transfer to the Holder's Designated Bank Account. A designation made by a Holder with respect to its Designated Bank Account shall remain in effect with respect to any future cash payments (including payments with respect to interest, principal, premium, if any, and Additional Amounts) with respect to such Note payable to such Holder. The Company shall pay any administrative costs imposed by banks in connection with making payments by wire transfer.

If any Interest Payment Date in respect of any Note is not a Business Day, the Holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day at such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest (other than accrued interest through the date such amount is paid) or other payment in respect of any such delay.

If the amount of principal or interest which is due on the Notes is not paid in full, the Registrar shall annotate the Register with a record of the amount of interest, if any, in fact paid.

All payments on this Note are subject in all cases to any applicable tax or other Laws and regulations, but without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph 7 hereof. Except as provided in Section 7.06 of the Note Purchase Agreement, no fees or expenses shall be charged to the Purchaser in respect of such payments.

Subject to applicable Law, any money and Preferred Shares held by any Paying Agent (other than GLAI), in trust for the payment of principal of, accrued and unpaid interest on or the consideration due upon exchange of any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, interest or consideration due upon exchange has become due and payable shall be paid to GLAI at the written request of GLAI, or (if then held by GLAI) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to GLAI for payment thereof, and all liability of GLAI as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease.

in respect of collateral or in respect of payments of principal prohibited hereunder. In the event any Subordinated Representative or any Subordinated Secured Party becomes a judgment Lien creditor in respect of collateral as a result of its enforcement of its rights as an unsecured creditor in respect of Subordinated Debt Obligations, such judgment Lien shall be subordinated to the Liens securing Senior Priority Obligations. Nothing in this Agreement shall impair or otherwise adversely affect any rights or remedies the Senior Priority Representatives or the Senior Parties may have with respect to any collateral.

Section 5.05 [Reserved].

Section 5.06 When Discharge Of Senior Priority Obligations Deemed To Not Have Occurred. If, at any time after the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary incurs any Senior Priority Obligations (other than in respect of the payment of indemnities surviving the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations), then such Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations shall automatically be deemed not to have occurred for all purposes of this Agreement (other than with respect to any actions taken prior to the date of such designation as a result of the occurrence of such first Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations) and the applicable agreement governing such Senior Priority Obligations shall automatically be treated as a Senior Priority Debt Document for all purposes of this Agreement, including for purposes of the Lien priorities and rights in respect of any collateral set forth herein and the agent, representative or trustee for the holders of such Senior Priority Obligations shall be the Senior Priority Representative for all purposes of this Agreement. Upon receipt of notice of such incurrence (including the identity of the new Senior Priority Representative), each Subordinated Representative (including the Subordinated Representative) shall promptly (a) enter into such documents and agreements (at the expense of the Issuer), including amendments, supplements or modifications to this Agreement, as the Issuer or such new Senior Priority Representative shall reasonably request in writing in order to provide the new Senior Priority Representative the rights of a Senior Priority Representative contemplated hereby, (b) deliver to such Senior Priority Representative, to the extent that it is legally permitted to do so, all collateral, including all proceeds thereof, held or controlled by such Subordinated Representative or any of its agents or bailees, including the transfer of possession and control, as applicable, of collateral, together with any necessary endorsements and notices to depository banks, securities intermediaries and commodities intermediaries, and assign its rights under any landlord waiver or bailee's letter or any similar agreement or arrangement granting it rights or access to collateral, (c) notify any applicable insurance carrier that it is no longer entitled to be a loss payee or additional insured under the insurance policies of any Credit Party issued by such insurance carrier and (d) notify any governmental authority involved in any condemnation or similar proceeding involving a Credit Party that the new Senior Priority Representative is entitled to approve any awards granted in such proceeding.

Section 5.07 [Reserved].

Section 5.08 Purchase Option.

(a) Without prejudice to the enforcement of the Senior Parties, the Senior Parties agree that following: (i) a payment default under the Senior Priority Debt Documents that has not been cured (or waived by the Senior Parties) within 60 days of the occurrence thereof, (ii)

an acceleration of the Senior Priority Senior Lien Obligations in accordance with the terms of the Senior Priority Debt Documents, (iii) the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or (iv) the exercise of any enforcement action by the Senior Parties in respect of a material portion of the collateral (each, a “Purchase Event”), the Subordinated Secured Parties may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice from the Subordinated Representative at the direction of such Subordinated Secured Parties to the Issuer or Guarantor or other Credit Party and the Senior Priority Representative, irrevocably elect to acquire from the Senior Parties, without warranty or representation or recourse from or to the Senior Parties, all (but not less than all) of the Senior Priority Debt Obligations and all rights of the Senior Parties under the Senior Priority Debt Documents; provided, that (w) any such purchase option must be exercised within fifteen (15) days after the initial occurrence of any Purchase Event, (x) the Senior Priority Representative and the Senior Parties shall retain all rights to be indemnified or to be held harmless by the Issuer or Guarantor or other Credit Party in accordance with the terms of the Senior Priority Debt Documents, (y) such assignment shall not conflict with any law, rule or regulation or order of any court or other governmental authority having jurisdiction, and (z) the Subordinated Secured Parties shall have paid to the Senior Priority Representative, for the account of the Senior Parties, in immediately available funds, an amount equal to the amount that would be required if the Notes were optionally redeemed prior to the Maturity Date plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon plus all accrued and unpaid fees (including reasonable attorney’s fees and costs) and premiums (including any prepayment premium under the Senior Priority Debt Documents)) and any breakage costs and expenses plus all the other Senior Priority Obligations then outstanding.

(b) In order to effectuate the foregoing, the Senior Agent shall calculate, upon the written request of the Subordinated Representative from time to time, the amount in cash that would be necessary to so purchase the Senior Priority Secured Obligations.

(c) If the right set forth in this Section 5.08 is exercised: (i) the parties shall endeavor to close promptly thereafter but in any event within ten (10) Business Days of the notice set forth in the first sentence of this Section 5.08, (ii) such purchase of the Senior Priority Obligations shall be exercised pursuant to documentation mutually and reasonably acceptable to each of the Senior Priority Representative and the Subordinated Representative, and (iii) such Senior Priority Obligations shall be purchased pro rata among the Subordinated Secured Parties according to such Subordinated Secured Parties’ portion of the Subordinated Obligations outstanding on the date of purchase pursuant to this Section 5.08.

(d) In the event that any one or more of the Subordinated Secured Parties exercises the purchase option set forth in this Section 5.08: (i) the Senior Priority Representative shall have the right, but not the obligation, to immediately resign under the Senior Priority Collateral Documents upon the closing of such purchase and (ii) the purchasing Subordinated Secured Parties shall have the right, but not the obligation, to require the Senior Agent to immediately resign under the Senior Priority Collateral Documents upon the closing of such purchase.

ARTICLE 6 INSOLVENCY OR LIQUIDATION PROCEEDINGS

Section 6.01 Financing Issues.

(a) Until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, if Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party shall be subject to any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, then each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that (A) subject to Section 6.01(b), if any Senior Priority Representative or any Senior Priority Secured Party shall desire to consent (or not object) to the sale, use or lease of cash or other collateral or to consent (or not object) to Guarantor's, the Issuer's or any other Credit Party's obtaining financing under Section 363 or Section 364 of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law (any such financing, a "DIP Financing"), it will raise no objection to and will not otherwise contest such sale, use or lease of such cash or other collateral or such DIP Financing and, except to the extent permitted by the proviso in clause (ii) of Section 3.01(a) and Section 6.03, will not request adequate protection or any other relief in connection therewith and (y) any "carve-out" for professional and United States Trustee fees agreed to by the Senior Priority Representatives, (B) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest) any motion for relief from the automatic stay or from any injunction against foreclosure or enforcement in respect of Senior Priority Obligations made by any Senior Priority Representative or any other Senior Priority Secured Party, (C) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest) any lawful exercise by any Senior Priority Secured Party of the right to credit bid Senior Priority Obligations at any sale in foreclosure of collateral, (D) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest) any other request for judicial relief made in any court by any Senior Priority Secured Party relating to the lawful enforcement of any Lien on collateral and (E) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest or oppose and shall be deemed to have consented to) any order relating to a Disposition of assets of any Credit Party for which any Senior Priority Representative has consented. Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that notice received three Business Days prior to the entry of an order approving such usage of cash or other collateral or approving such financing shall be adequate notice.

(b) Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility agrees that it will not provide, or offer to provide, any DIP Financing to the Issuer unless no Senior Priority Secured Party shall have offered to provide a DIP Financing, or agreed to support a DIP Financing provided by another Person, that would satisfy the terms set forth in this Section 6.01 (the "Subordinated DIP Financing Proposal Condition"). If the Subordinated DIP Financing Proposal Condition is satisfied on or prior to the date of the hearing to approve DIP Financing for the Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party for the Subordinated Secured Parties may propose a DIP Financing, which may be secured by Liens equal or senior in priority to or on a pari passu basis with the Liens securing any of the Senior Priority Debt Facilities, so long as such DIP Financing does not compel the Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party to seek confirmation of a specific plan of reorganization and such DIP Financing does not "roll-up" or require the payment of any of the Subordinated Debt Obligations.

Section 6.02 Relief From The Automatic Stay. Until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that none of them shall seek relief from the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or take any action in derogation thereof without the prior written consent of the Senior Priority Representative.

Section 6.03 Adequate Protection. Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that none of them shall object, contest or support any other Person objecting to or contesting (a) any request by any Senior Priority Representative or any Senior Parties for adequate protection, (b) any objection by any Senior Priority Representative or any Senior Parties to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on any Senior Priority Representative's or Senior Priority Secured Party's claiming a lack of adequate protection or (c) the payment of interest, fees, expenses or other amounts of any Senior Priority Representative or any other Senior Priority Secured Party under Section 506(b) or 506(c) of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law. N

Section 6.04 Preference Issues. If any Senior Priority Secured Party is required in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to disgorge, turn over or otherwise pay any amount to the estate of Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party (or any trustee, receiver or similar Person therefor), because the payment of such amount was declared to be fraudulent or preferential in any respect or for any other reason (any such amount, a "Recovery"), whether received as proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of setoff or otherwise, then the Senior Priority Obligations shall be reinstated to the extent of such Recovery and deemed to be outstanding as if such payment had not occurred and the Senior Parties shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement until a Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations with respect to all such recovered amounts. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto. Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, hereby agrees that none of them shall be entitled to benefit from any avoidance action affecting or otherwise relating to any distribution or allocation made in accordance with this Agreement, whether by preference or otherwise, it being understood and agreed that the benefit of such avoidance action otherwise allocable to them shall instead be allocated and turned over for application in accordance with the priorities set forth in this Agreement.

Section 6.05 [Reserved].

Section 6.06 No Waivers Of Rights Of Senior Parties. Nothing contained herein shall, except as expressly provided herein, prohibit or in any way limit any Senior Priority Representative or any other Senior Priority Secured Party from objecting in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to any action taken by any Subordinated Secured Party, including the seeking by any Subordinated Secured Party of adequate protection or the asserting by any Subordinated Secured Party of any of its rights and remedies under the Subordinated Debt Documents or otherwise.

Section 6.07 Application. This Agreement, which the parties hereto expressly acknowledge is a "subordination agreement" under Section 510(a) of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law, shall be effective before, during and after the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. All references herein to any Credit Party shall include such Credit Party as a debtor-in-possession and any receiver or trustee for such Credit Party.

Section 6.08 Other Matters.

To the extent that any Subordinated Representative or any Subordinated Secured Party has or acquires rights under Section 363 or Section 364 of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law with respect to any of the collateral, such Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees not to assert any such rights without the prior written consent of each Senior Priority Representative, provided that if requested by any Senior Priority Representative, such Subordinated Representative shall timely exercise such rights in the manner requested by the Senior Priority Representatives (acting unanimously), including any rights to payments in respect of such rights.

Section 6.09 506(c) Claims. Until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that it will not assert or enforce any claim under Section 506(c) of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law senior to or on a parity with the Liens securing the Senior Priority Obligations for costs or expenses of preserving or disposing of any collateral.

Section 6.10 Reorganization Securities. If, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, debt obligations of the reorganized debtor secured by Liens upon any property of the reorganized debtor are distributed, pursuant to a plan of reorganization or similar dispositive restructuring plan, on account of both the Senior Priority Obligations and the Subordinated Debt Obligations, then, to the extent the debt obligations distributed on account of the Senior Priority Obligations and on account of the Subordinated Debt Obligations are secured by Liens upon the same assets or property, the provisions of this Agreement will survive the distribution of such debt obligations pursuant to such plan and will apply with like effect to the Liens securing such debt obligations.

RELIANCE; ETC

Section 7.01 Reliance. The consent by the Senior Parties to the execution and delivery of the Subordinated Debt Documents to which the Senior Parties have consented and all loans and other extensions of credit made or deemed made on and after the date hereof by the Senior Parties to Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be deemed to have been given and made in reliance upon this Agreement. Each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, acknowledges that it and such Subordinated Secured Parties have, independently and without reliance on any Senior Priority Representative or other Senior Priority Secured Party, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into the Subordinated Debt Documents to which they are party or by which they are bound, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Subordinated Debt Documents or this Agreement.

Section 7.02 No Warranties Or Liability. Each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, acknowledges

and agrees that neither any Senior Priority Representative nor any other Senior Priority Secured Party has made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectability or enforceability of any of the Senior Priority Debt Documents, the ownership of any collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. The Senior Parties will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under the Senior Priority Debt Documents in accordance with law and as they may otherwise, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, and the Senior Parties may manage their loans and extensions of credit without regard to any rights or interests that the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties have, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. Neither any Senior Priority Representative nor any other Senior Priority Secured Party shall have any duty to any Subordinated Representative or Subordinated Secured Party to act or refrain from acting in a manner that allows, or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreement with Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary (including the Subordinated Debt Documents), regardless of any knowledge thereof that they may have or be charged with. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties have not otherwise made to each other, nor do they hereby make to each other, any warranties, express or implied, nor do they assume any liability to each other with respect to (a) the enforceability, validity, value or collectability of any of the Senior Priority Obligations, the Subordinated Debt Obligations or any guarantee or security which may have been granted to any of them in connection therewith, (b) any Credit Party's title to or right to transfer any of the collateral or (c) any other matter except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

Section 7.03 Obligations Unconditional. All rights, interests, agreements and obligations of the Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties hereunder shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

- (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Senior Priority Debt Document or any Subordinated Debt Document;
- (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other terms of, all or any of the Senior Priority Obligations or Subordinated Debt Obligations, or any amendment or waiver or other modification, including any increase in the amount thereof, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of the terms of the Senior Priority Indenture or any other Senior Priority Debt Document or of the terms of any Subordinated Debt Document;
- (c) any exchange of any security interest in any collateral or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether in writing or by course of conduct or otherwise, of all or any of the Senior Priority Obligations or Subordinated Debt Obligations or any guarantee thereof;
- (d) the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party; or
- (e) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, (i) Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party in respect of the Senior Priority Obligations or (ii) any Subordinated Representative or Subordinated Secured Party in respect of this Agreement.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.01 Conflicts. Subject to Section 8.18, in the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any Senior Priority Debt Document or any Subordinated Debt Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the relative rights and obligations of the Senior Priority Representatives and the Senior Parties (as amongst themselves) with respect to any collateral shall be governed by the terms of the Senior Priority Intercreditor Agreement and in the event of any conflict between the Senior Priority Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the provisions of the Senior Priority Intercreditor Agreement shall control.

Section 8.02 Continuing Nature Of This Agreement; Severability. Subject to Section 6.04, this Agreement shall continue to be effective until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations shall have occurred. This is a continuing agreement of subordination, and the Senior Parties may continue, at any time and without notice to the Subordinated Representatives or any Subordinated Secured Party, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary constituting Senior Priority Obligations in reliance hereon. The terms of this Agreement shall survive and continue in full force and effect in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

If all or any portion of the Senior Priority Obligations are Refinanced (the "Refinancing Indebtedness"): (i) the Refinancing Indebtedness and all other obligations under the loan documents evidencing such Refinancing Indebtedness (the "Refinancing Documents") shall automatically be treated as Senior Priority Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement, (ii) the Refinancing Documents shall automatically be treated as the Senior Priority Indenture and the other Senior Priority Debt Documents for all purposes of this Agreement and (iii) the agent or purchaser under the Refinancing Documents (the "New Agent") shall be deemed to be the Senior Agent for all purposes of this Agreement. The Subordinated Agent and the Subordinated Representative shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Agreement) as the Issuer, the other loan parties or such New Agent may reasonably request in order to provide to the New Agent the rights and powers contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all material respects with the terms of this Agreement that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any party hereto in any case shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

Section 8.03 Amendments; Waivers.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies

(b) This Agreement may be amended in writing signed by each Representative (in each case, acting in accordance with the documents governing the applicable Debt Facility); provided that any such amendment, supplement or waiver which by the terms of this Agreement requires the Issuer's consent or which increases the obligations or reduces the rights of Guarantor, the Issuer or any Credit Party, shall require the consent of the Issuer. Any such amendment, supplement or waiver shall be in writing and shall be binding upon the Senior Parties and the Subordinated Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the consent of any Secured Party, any Representative may become a party hereto by execution and delivery of a Joinder Agreement in accordance with Section 8.09 of this Agreement and, upon such execution and delivery, such Representative and the Secured Parties and Senior Priority Obligations or Subordinated Debt Obligations of the Debt Facility for which such Representative is acting shall be subject to the terms hereof.

Section 8.04 Information Concerning Financial Condition Of Guarantor, The Issuer And The Subsidiaries. The Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of Guarantor, the Issuer and the Subsidiaries and all endorsers or guarantors of the Senior Priority Obligations or the Subordinated Debt Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Senior Priority Obligations or the Subordinated Debt Obligations. The Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties shall have no duty to advise any other party hereunder of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event that any Senior Priority Representative, any Senior Priority Secured Party, any Subordinated Representative or any Subordinated Secured Party, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any other party, it shall be under no obligation to (i) make, and the Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties shall not make or be deemed to have made, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided, (ii) provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion, (iii) undertake any investigation or (iv) disclose any information that, pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

Section 8.05 Subrogation. Each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, hereby waives any rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred.

Section 8.06 Application Of Payments. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments received by the Senior Parties may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to such part of the Senior Priority Obligations as the Senior Parties, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, consistent with the terms of the Senior Priority Debt Documents. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, assents to any such extension or postponement of the time of payment of the Senior Priority Obligations or any part thereof and to any other indulgence with respect thereto, to any substitution, exchange or release of any security that may at any time secure any part of the Senior Priority Obligations and to the addition or release of any other Person primarily or secondarily liable therefor.

Section 8.07 Additional Credit Parties. Guarantor and the Issuer agree that, if any Subsidiary shall become a Credit Party after the date hereof, they will promptly cause such Subsidiary to become party hereto by executing and delivering an instrument in the form of Annex I. Upon such execution and delivery, such Subsidiary will become a Credit Party hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Credit Party herein. The execution and delivery of such instrument shall not require the consent of any other party hereunder, and will be acknowledged by the Subordinated Representative and the Senior Priority Representative. The rights and obligations of each Credit Party hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Credit Party as a party to this Agreement.

Section 8.08 [Reserved].

Section 8.09 Additional Debt Facilities.

(a) To the extent, but only to the extent, permitted by the provisions of the Senior Priority Debt Documents and the Subordinated Debt Documents, the Issuer, Guarantor or any other Credit Party may incur or issue and sell one or more series or classes of Additional Subordinated Debt (the “Subordinated Class Debt”), which shall be unsecured, if and subject to the condition that the Representative of any such Subordinated Class Debt (each, a “Subordinated Class Debt Representative”), acting on behalf of the holders of such Subordinated Class Debt (such Representative and holders in respect of any Subordinated Class Debt being referred to as the “Subordinated Class Debt Parties”), becomes a party to this Agreement by satisfying conditions (i) through (iii), as applicable, of the immediately succeeding paragraph, and Section 8.09(b). In order for a Subordinated Class Debt Representative to become a party to this Agreement:

(i) such Subordinated Class Debt Representative shall have executed and delivered a Joinder Agreement substantially in the form of Annex II (with such changes as may be reasonably approved by the Senior Priority Representative and such Subordinated Class Debt Representative) pursuant to which it becomes a Representative hereunder, and the Subordinated Class Debt in respect of which such Subordinated Class Debt Representative is the Representative and the related Subordinated Class Debt Parties become subject hereto and bound hereby;

(ii) the Issuer shall have delivered to the Senior Priority Representative an Officer’s Certificate stating that the conditions set forth in this Section 8.09 are satisfied with respect to such Subordinated Class Debt and, if requested, true and complete copies of each of the Subordinated Debt Documents relating to such Subordinated Class Debt, certified as being true and correct by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer; and

(iii) the Subordinated Debt Documents relating to such Subordinated Class Debt shall provide, or shall be amended on terms and conditions reasonably approved by the Senior Priority Representative and such Subordinated Class Debt Representative, that each Subordinated Class Debt Party with respect to such Subordinated Class Debt will be subject to and bound by the provisions of this Agreement in its capacity as a holder of such Subordinated Class Debt.

Section 8.10 Consent To Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each Representative, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties of the Debt Facility for which it is acting, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(b) Unless the Paying Agent is GLAI, any Subsidiary of GLAI or the Company, each payment in full of principal, Additional Amounts and/or interest payable under the Notes and this Note Purchase Agreement in respect of any Note made by or on behalf of the Company or the Guarantors to or to the order of the Paying Agent in the manner specified herein or in the Notes on the date due shall be valid and effective to satisfy and discharge the obligation of the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to make payment of principal, Additional Amounts and/or interest payable hereunder and under the Notes on such date; provided, however, that the liability of the Paying Agent hereunder shall not exceed any amounts paid to it by the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, or held by it, on behalf of the Holders hereunder.

(c) Payment of interest on each Interest Payment Date with respect to any Note shall be made to the Person in whose name such Note is registered on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date by wire transfer to the Holder's Designated Bank Account. A designation made by a Holder with respect to its Designated Bank Account shall remain in effect with respect to any future payments (including payments with respect to interest, principal, premium, if any, and Additional Amounts) with respect to such Note payable to such Holder. The Company shall pay any administrative costs imposed by banks in connection with making payments by wire transfer.

(d) The Notes shall bear interest at an interest rate as follows:

(1) 4.50% per year shall be payable entirely in cash semi-annually in arrears on each Interest Payment Date ("Cash Interest"); and

(2) 13.50% per year shall be payable in cash or in kind ("PIK Interest"), at the sole election of the Company, as set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(e) GLAI, at its option, may elect to pay in cash all or a portion of any accrued but unpaid PIK Interest on the Outstanding principal amount of the Notes (i) semi-annually in arrears, on each applicable Interest Payment Date or (ii) on the Maturity Date; provided that, unless GLAI makes such election to make interest payments in cash, any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date shall not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note; provided, further, that any such PIK Interest payment shall be capitalized automatically on such Interest Payment Date and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of such Note and this Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon on the aggregate principal amount of the Notes on each applicable Interest Payment Date in accordance with the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement.

(f) If a Holder fails to designate a Designated Bank Account or such account is unable to accept wire transfers, then all payments shall instead be made by U.S. Dollar check drawn on a bank in The City of New York and mailed to the Person entitled thereto at its address as it appears on the Register.

Mutilated or defaced Notes must be surrendered before replacements shall be issued.

Each Note executed and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of any such Note shall carry rights to accrued and unpaid interest and to interest to accrue equivalent to the rights that were carried by such Note before such Note was mutilated, defaced, destroyed, stolen or lost.

Every replacement Note is an additional obligation of the Company and shall be entitled to the benefits of this Note Purchase Agreement.

The Purchaser has its principal address outside the United States and was located outside the United States at the time any offer to buy the Notes was made to the Purchaser and at the time that this Note Purchase Agreement is executed by the Purchaser.

(2) The execution, delivery and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement by the Purchaser are within the powers of the Purchaser, have been duly authorized and will not constitute or result in a breach or default under or conflict with any order, ruling or regulation of any court or other tribunal or of any governmental commission or agency, or any agreement or other undertaking, to which the Purchaser is a party or by which the Purchaser is bound, and will not violate any provisions of such entity's organizational documents, including, without limitation, its incorporation or formation papers, bylaws, indenture of trust or partnership or operating agreement, as may be applicable. COVENANTS

(a) The Company shall punctually pay the principal of and interest on the Notes on the dates and in the manner set forth herein and as provided in the Notes. By 10:00 a.m. (New York City time), no later than one Business Day prior to any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, to the extent such amount is payable in cash, GLAI shall irrevocably deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Paying Agent (unless the Paying Agent is GLAI) money sufficient to pay such principal and interest subject to the terms set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(b) The Company shall pay interest on overdue principal or installments of interest, to the extent lawful, at the rate borne by the Notes plus 2.00% per annum pursuant to the terms set forth in Section 4.05(e).

(c) No interest shall be payable hereunder in excess of the maximum rate permitted by applicable Law.

SECTION 7.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency. The Company shall maintain an office or agency where Notes may be (i) presented or surrendered for payment or (ii) presented for exchange for cash, Preferred Shares or a combination thereof and where notices and demands to or upon the Company in respect of the Notes and this Note Purchase Agreement may be served. If at any time the Company shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at the Company's Office.

SECTION 7.03. Money for Note Payments to Be Held in Trust.

(a) For so long as the Company acts as Paying Agent, it shall, when electing to pay interest using cash, no later than one Business Day prior to each Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, as applicable, segregate and hold in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest so becoming due until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as herein provided.

(b) Whenever the Company shall have one or more Paying Agents for the Notes, it shall, no later than one Business Day prior to each Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date, irrevocably deposit with a Paying Agent a sum sufficient to pay such principal and interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled to such principal or interest.

(c) Each Paying Agent, subject to the provisions of this Section 7.03, shall:

(1) hold all sums held by it for the payment of principal or premium, if any, of or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Persons entitled thereto until such sums shall be paid to such Persons or otherwise disposed of as set forth herein; provided, however, such sums need not be segregated from other funds held by it, except as required by Law; and

(2) at any time during the continuance of any Default by the Company, upon the written request of the Holders, forthwith pay to the Holders all sums so held in trust by such Paying Agent.

(d) The Company shall cause each Paying Agent to execute and deliver an instrument in which such Paying Agent shall agree with the Company to act as a Paying Agent in accordance with this Section 7.03, except in case the Paying Agent is the Company or an Affiliate of the Company.

(e) Any money and Preferred Shares held by any Paying Agent (other than GLAI), in trust for the payment of principal of, accrued and unpaid interest on or the consideration due upon exchange of any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, interest or consideration due upon exchange has become due and payable shall be paid to GLAI at the written request of GLAI, or (if then held by GLAI) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to GLAI for payment thereof, and all liability of GLAI as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 7.04. Maintenance of Corporate Existence. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain in effect its corporate existence and all registrations necessary therefor; provided that these restrictions shall not prohibit any transactions permitted by Article 8; (ii) not amend, supplement, waive or otherwise modify certain specified provisions of the documents relating to each of the Guarantors' or its Subsidiaries' rights or benefits under its respective organizational documents without the prior written consent of the Purchaser, and the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders, as the case may be, if such amendment, supplement, waiver or modification would materially adversely affect the rights of the Purchaser, or of the then holders of this Note; (iii) not change its corporate form; (iv) take all reasonable actions to maintain all rights, privileges, titles to property, franchises and the like necessary in the normal conduct of its business, activities or operations; and (v) maintain or cause to be maintained in good repair, working order and condition (normal wear and tear excepted) all properties used in its business; provided, however, that neither GLAI nor its Subsidiaries shall be prevented from discontinuing those operations (including through the transfer or dissolution of a Subsidiary) or suspending the maintenance of those properties (including through the sale thereof) which, in the reasonable judgment of GLAI, are no longer necessary in the conduct of GLAI's business, or that of its Subsidiaries; and provided, further, that such discontinuation of operations or suspension of maintenance shall not be materially disadvantageous to the Holders and such operations shall not represent more than 3.5% of the aggregate consolidated gross revenues of GLAI and its Subsidiaries for the most recent fiscal year.

SECTION 7.05. Payment of Taxes and Claims. Each of the Company and each Guarantor shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, pay all taxes, assessments and other governmental charges imposed upon it or any of its property or in respect of any of its franchises, businesses, income or profits before any penalty or interest accrues thereon, and pay all claims (including claims for labor, services, materials and supplies) for sums which have become due and payable and which by Law have or might become a Lien upon its property, unless the failure to make such payment could have: (a) a Material Adverse Effect upon the financial condition of (i) the Company or (ii) the GLAI Group considered as one enterprise, or (b) a Material Adverse Effect on the performance of the Company's or GLAI's obligations hereunder; and provided, further, that no such charge or claim need be paid while it is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and if appropriate reserves or other provisions are maintained in respect of such amounts in accordance with IFRS.

SECTION 7.06. Payment of Additional Amounts. (a) All payments by GLAI in respect of the Notes or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) in respect of the Note Guaranties or of cash and/or deliveries of Preferred Shares (together with payments of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) upon exchange, will be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments, or other governmental charges of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of Brazil or Luxembourg, or any political subdivision or authority therein or thereof or any other jurisdiction in which any officer of the Company, the Company or any Guarantor is organized, doing business or otherwise subject to the power to tax (any of the aforementioned being a “Taxing Jurisdiction”), unless the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI) are compelled by Law to deduct or withhold such taxes, duties, assessments, or governmental charges. In such event, the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will make such deduction or withholding, and the Company or the Guarantors (or any Paying Agent if other than GLAI), as applicable, will timely make payment of the full amount so withheld to the appropriate Governmental Authority and pay such additional amounts as may be necessary to ensure that the net amounts received by Holders after such withholding or deduction has been made (including such deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 7.06) shall equal the respective amounts of principal (and premium, if any) and interest which would have been receivable in respect of the Notes or the payment of cash and/or delivery of Preferred Shares (together with payment in cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share) in the absence of such withholding or deduction (“Additional Amounts”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such Additional Amounts shall be payable:

(1) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of the existence of any present or former connection between such Holder and the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, including, without limitation, such Holder being or having been a citizen or resident thereof, being incorporated in, being or having been engaged in a trade or business or present therein or having, or having had, a permanent establishment therein, other than connections arising from such Holder having executed, delivered, become a party to, performed its obligations under, received payments under, received or perfected a security interest under, engaged in any other transaction pursuant to or enforced this Note Purchase Agreement, sold or assigned an interest in this Note Purchase Agreement or holding of the Note and the receipt of payments with respect to the Note;

(2) in respect of Notes surrendered or presented for payment (if surrender or presentment is required) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that payments under such Note would have been subject to withholdings and the Holder of such Note would have been entitled to such Additional Amounts, had the Note been surrendered for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days;

(3) in respect of any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer, excise or personal property tax;

(4) in respect of any tax imposed on overall net income or any branch profits tax of a Holder;

(5) in respect of any tax imposed pursuant to sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code, any successor Law or regulation implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such sections provided, however, that such Law or regulation is substantively comparable and not materially more onerous to comply with, or any intergovernmental agreement in respect thereof or any agreement entered into pursuant to section 1471(b)(1) of the Code;

(6) in respect of the Relibi Law; or

(7) in respect of any combination of the above.

(b) In the event that Additional Amounts actually paid with respect to the Notes are based on rates of deduction or withholding of withholding taxes in excess of the appropriate rate applicable to the Holder of such Notes, and, as a result thereof such Holder determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of withholding taxes as to which it has received Additional Amounts, it shall pay to the Company an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of Additional Amounts received with respect to the withholding taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses (including taxes) of such Holder and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund). The Company, upon the request of the Holder, shall repay to such Holder the amount paid over pursuant to this paragraph (b) (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) in the event that such Holder is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (b), in no event will the Holder be required to pay any amount to the Company pursuant to this paragraph (b) the payment of which would place the Holder in a less favorable net after-tax position than the Holder would have been in if the tax subject to Additional Amounts and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the Additional Amounts had never been paid. This paragraph shall not be construed to require any Holder to make available its tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes that it deems confidential) to the Company or any other Person. The Holder makes no representation or warranty that the Company will be entitled to receive such claim for refund or credit and incurs no other obligation (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any filing or other action) with respect thereto. In addition, the Company shall pay certain taxes on the issuance or delivery of any Preferred Shares upon conversion of the Notes pursuant to Section 1.01(e).

(c) The Notes are subject in all cases to any tax, fiscal or other Law or regulation or administrative or judicial interpretation. Except as specifically provided above, neither the Company nor the Guarantors shall be required to make a payment with respect to any tax, assessment or governmental charge imposed by any government or a political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not pay (and shall not purport to indemnify the Holder for) any stamp, issue, registration, court or documentary taxes or any excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies (including any penalties, interest and other liabilities relating thereto) that may arise or be paid in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes.

(e) Any reference in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes to principal, interest or any other amount payable in respect of the Notes by the Company or any of the Note Guaranties by the Guarantors, or the payment of cash and/or the delivery of Preferred Shares by the Company (together with payment of cash in lieu of a fractional Preferred Share), will be deemed also to refer to any Additional Amount, unless the context requires otherwise, that may be payable with respect to that amount under the obligations referred to in this Section.

(f) The obligations of the Company and the Guarantors pursuant to this Section 7.06 shall survive termination of this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 7.07. Collateral and Liens.

(a) Subject to Sections 5.03, 7.07(b) and 7.07(c), the Notes Obligations shall be secured by a first priority Lien granted by the Guarantors in the Collateral to Collateral Agent on behalf of the Secured Parties pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The Company and the Guarantors shall not directly or indirectly, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien on any of the Collateral, other than (i) the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and (ii) a Lien that is junior in priority to the Lien granted to the Collateral Agent and which is subject to a subordination agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F.

(b) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, incur or permit to exist any Lien of any nature whatsoever on any of the Collateral, except for the first priority Lien in the Collateral granted by the Guarantors pursuant to Section 7.07(a) above and the Collateral Documents, provided however, that the Company and the Guarantors may, without requiring any resolution, approval or consent from the Purchaser or the Collateral Agent, and without implying breach of any representation, warranty or obligation assumed under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, constitute in favor of any creditors a collateral security under suspensive condition on the Collateral (whether senior or junior), provided that the effectiveness of such collateral security is conditioned upon the indefeasible payment in full or satisfaction of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes (“Future Lien”).

(c) The Company shall ensure that the Lien in the Collateral is duly created, enforceable and perfected, to the extent required by the Collateral Documents. The Guarantors shall:

(1) in relation to the GLA’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement and IPCo’s Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, as the case may be, (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of such Collateral Document, register the Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e

(2) in relation to the GLA's Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo's Shares Agreement (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of such Collateral Document, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and (ii) within seven (7) business days from the date of execution of such Collateral Document, annotate the Fiduciary Transfer in IPCO's shares register book (Livro de Registro de Ações Nominativas);

(3) in relation to the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 IP Collateral (i) no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 IP Collateral, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil, and, (ii) no later than ten (10) days after the date of such registration, deliver to the Collateral Agent evidence that the request for annotation of the security interest in the Collateral has been filed with the Brazilian National Institute of Industrial Property (Instituto Nacional da Propriedade Industrial); and

(4) in relation to the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Spare Parts Collateral no later than twenty (20) days from date of execution of the amendment to the Gol Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Spare Parts Collateral, register such Collateral Document with the appropriate Registry of Titles and Deeds (Registro de Títulos e Documentos) in Brazil.

(d) The Company and the Guarantors shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly (i) take any action with the purpose of depreciating the Collateral, (ii) dispose of, assign, transfer, sell or lease the Collateral to any third party or (iii) execute nor authorize the execution of any agreement which could restrict or reduce the rights or the ability of the Secured Parties to sell or otherwise dispose of the Collateral, in part or in full.

It is hereby expressly acknowledged and agreed that, in doing so, the Collateral Agent is not responsible for the terms or contents of such agreements, or for the validity or enforceability thereof, or the sufficiency thereof for any purpose. (a) On the Initial Closing Date, the Purchaser, the Collateral Agent and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall receive an Opinion of Counsel from Lefosse Advogados, as Brazilian counsel to the Company and the Guarantors, in form and substance satisfactory to the Purchaser, to the effect that, subject to certain exceptions and qualifications, the GLA's Smiles Fiduciary Transfer Agreement, the GLA's Fiduciary Transfer of IPCo's Shares Agreement and the amendments to the GOL Senior Secured Notes due 2026 Collateral have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligation of GLA and/or GLAI, as applicable, which will be enforceable against GLA and/or GLAI in accordance with its terms and with Section 7.07(c).

(b) Each of GLA and GLAI shall take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to maintain the Collateral Documents to which it is a party in full force and effect and enforceable, in accordance with their terms, and to maintain and preserve the Lien created by the Collateral Documents, in accordance with their terms, and the priority thereof, including (A) making filings and recordations, (B) making payments of fees and other charges on a timely basis, (C) issuing and, if necessary, filing or recording supplemental documentation, including continuation statements, (D) discharging all claims or other Liens adversely affecting the rights of any Secured Party in any Collateral, (E) publishing or otherwise delivering notice to third parties, (F) depositing title documents, (G) amending any Collateral Document to the extent required by applicable Law and (H) taking all other actions either necessary or otherwise requested by the Purchaser to ensure that all Collateral is subject to a valid and enforceable first-priority Lien in favor of the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. In furtherance of the foregoing, GLA and GLAI shall ensure that all of the Collateral intended to be subject to the Lien granted by the Collateral Documents shall become subject to such Lien having the priority contemplated pursuant to the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. Moreover, for the avoidance of any doubt, the Collateral Agent has no obligation, liability or responsibility to monitor or ensure that GLA and/or GLAI, as the case may be, maintain such Lien and shall assume that GLA and GLAI are in full compliance with their obligations in connection therewith.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in applicable Law, the Collateral Agent shall not have any responsibility or liability, among other things as set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, for (1) acting or refraining from acting based on any unlawful, ambiguous or inaccurate instruction, notice, demand, notification or other document pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents; (2) any loss or claim resulting from any act or omission, directly or indirectly, except if otherwise determined in a final nonappealable decision by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Collateral Agent was grossly negligent; (3) any loss of profits, indirect, consequential, incidental, special, punitive or related losses and/or damages even if previously advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage; (4) preparing, recording or filing any financing or continuation statements or recording or filing any instrument in any public office or for otherwise ensuring the perfection or maintenance of any Lien granted pursuant to, or contemplated by, this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or the existence and enforceability of any insurance on the Collateral; (5) taking any necessary steps to preserve rights against any parties with respect to the Collateral; (6) taking any action to protect against any diminution in value of the Collateral; (7) errors in judgment that do not constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction; (8) the Company's and the Guarantors' compliance with any of the covenants set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, including but not limited to, covenants regarding the granting, perfection or maintenance of any Lien; (9) the market value of the Collateral or its sufficiency to satisfy in full payments due on the Notes Obligations; (10) the accuracy of any representation or warranty of the Company or Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or in any certificate, report, statement or other document referred to or provided for in, or received by the Collateral Agent; or (11) the effectiveness, genuineness, sufficiency, legality, validity and enforceability of any Lien, security interest, Collateral, this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or title, transfer or assignment of any Collateral.

SECTION 7.09. Release of Collateral. Subject to, and to the extent permitted under, the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, the Company and the Guarantors shall be entitled to the release of the Collateral from the Lien securing the Notes Obligations under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, if at any time the Collateral Agent, acting in accordance, exclusively and strictly, with instructions provided by the Purchaser (at the direction of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders), forecloses upon or otherwise exercises remedies against the Collateral resulting in the sale or disposition thereof;

- (iii) upon payment in full of the principal of, together with all accrued and unpaid interest on, the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

in each case, (i) so long as no Default or Event of Default will exist immediately after such release, as applicable; and (ii) provided the Collateral Agent shall have received an Officer's Certificate certifying, and Opinion of Counsel stating, that all conditions precedent provided in this Note Purchase Agreement with respect to the release of Collateral pursuant to this Section 7.09 have been satisfied (and the Collateral Agent shall execute any document requested by the Company or any Guarantor to evidence such release of the Collateral (A) without any consent of the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes, the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, the Holders or the Purchaser, (B) based solely on the Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel delivered pursuant to this Section 7.09 and (C) without any recourse, representation or warranty by the Collateral Agent);

provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents shall terminate in respect of the Notes on the Stated Maturity, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exist Notes Obligations due and payable on that date, in which case the Lien in the Collateral shall terminate upon satisfaction of such Notes Obligations, all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes. Upon termination of the Lien granted under the Collateral Documents in respect of the Notes Obligations, the Collateral shall be released in accordance with this Note Purchase Agreement to the Company and the Guarantors, and the Company and the Guarantors shall thereupon grant a Lien in such Collateral in respect of any outstanding obligations under the Abra Notes.

Each of the Company, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries shall not directly or indirectly, enter into, renew or extend any transaction or arrangement including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of property or assets, or the rendering thereof of any service with any Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or any Subsidiary (a "Related-Party Transaction"), except upon fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Company, GLAI or the Subsidiary than could be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary, as the case may be.

(a) Prior to entering into any Related-Party Transaction or series of Related-Party Transactions (i) with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$10.0 million (or the equivalent thereof at the time of determination) in any 12-month period, the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary must deliver to the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer stating that such Related-Party Transaction complies

- (b) The foregoing paragraphs do not apply to:

- (ii) at least 75% of the consideration consists of cash or cash equivalent received at closing, provided that, for purposes of this clause (ii), each of the following shall be deemed cash or cash equivalent: (A) any liabilities of the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary that are assumed by the transferee of any such assets pursuant to a customary novation agreement that releases the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from further liability; and (B) any securities notes or other obligations received by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary from such transferee that are, within 120 days after the closing of such Asset Sale, converted by the Company, GLAI or such Subsidiary into cash or cash equivalent, but only to the extent of the cash or cash equivalent actually received in that conversion;

When accumulated Excess Proceeds equals or exceeds such amount, the Company must prepay the outstanding amount under the Notes equal to the Net Cash Proceeds of such Asset Sale.
- (v) With respect to paragraph (iv) above, the Company shall notify the Purchaser (or if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) in writing of any prepayment hereunder by electronic mail or other electronic transmission or by telephone (to be confirmed in writing) no later than 11:00 a.m. five Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment; provided that the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall not accept any prepayment of the Notes without the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders. THIRD, the balance, if any, after all of the Notes Obligations have been paid in full in cash, to the Company and its successors or assigns, or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

The Company may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 9.05.

SECTION 9.06. Limitation on Suits. A Holder may not pursue any remedy with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents unless:

- (1) the Holder has previously given to the Collateral Agent written notice stating that an Event of Default with respect the Notes has occurred and is continuing;
- (2) the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes have made a written request to the Collateral Agent to pursue the remedy in respect of such Event of Default;
- (3) such Holder or Holders has offered and provided to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against any cost, loss, liability or expense to be incurred in compliance with such request;
- (4) the Collateral Agent does not comply with the request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer and provision of security or indemnity; and
- (5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Collateral Agent during such 60-day period by the Purchaser.

SECTION 9.07. Contractual Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, each Holder shall have the right pursuant to this Section 9.07 to bring suit for the payment of principal, premium, if any, and interest on its Note, on or after the respective due dates expressed or provided for in such Note.

SECTION 9.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Collateral Agent (as directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as provided in this Note Purchase Agreement) or any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Collateral Agent or to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent and the Holders shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent and the Holders shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 9.09. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article 9 or by Law to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Holders.

SECTION 9.10. Control by Holders. The Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) may direct in writing the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Company or the Collateral Agent or of exercising any power conferred on the Collateral Agent. However, the Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request or direction of any Holders if such request or direction conflicts with any Law or with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or may expose the Collateral Agent to liability. Prior to taking any action under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to indemnification satisfactory to the Collateral Agent in its sole discretion against all costs, losses, liabilities and expenses that might be caused by taking or not taking such action.

SECTION 9.11. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes in Section 4.08, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Holders or the Purchaser, as the case may be, is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by Law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at Law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 9.12. Waiver of Past Defaults and Events of Default. The Purchaser (with the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) by written notice to the Company may waive an existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences. When a Default or Event of Default is waived, it is deemed cured, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or Event of Default or impair any consequent right.

SECTION 9.13. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Company and the Guarantors covenant (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that they shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension Law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents; and the Company and the Guarantors (to the extent that they may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waive all benefit or advantage of any such Law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Collateral Agent, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such Law had been enacted.

The failure to give such notice to all Holders and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment or waiver under this Section 10.02.

SECTION 10.03. Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. (a) A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Note or portion of the Note that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Note, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Note. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Note or portion of the Note if the Company receives the written notice of revocation at least one Business Day prior to the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After it becomes effective, an amendment or waiver shall bind every Holder.

(b) The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above in accordance with Section 14.01. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date.

SECTION 10.04. Payment for Consent. Neither the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration, whether by way of interest, fee or otherwise, to any Holder for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes unless such consideration is offered to be paid to all Holders which so consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement.

SECTION 10.05. Collateral Agent. No waiver, modification or amendment of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents may affect or change the rights, obligations, duties, protections or immunities of the Collateral Agent without the written consent of the Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent may conclusively rely on an Officer's Certificate with respect to whether the consent of Purchaser, any Holders, any holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes or any holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes are required in connection with any amendment, supplement or waiver under this Article 10.

NOTE GUARANTIES

SECTION 11.01. The Note Guaranties. Subject to the provisions of this Article, GLAI and GLA hereby irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee (the "Note Guaranties"), on a secured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations; provided, however, that upon release of the Collateral in accordance with Section 7.09 GLA and GLAI shall guarantee, on an unsecured basis, the full and punctual payment (whether at Stated Maturity upon acceleration or otherwise) of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable under, each Note, and the full and punctual payment of all other Notes Obligations. Upon failure by the Company to pay punctually any such amount, the Guarantors shall forthwith on demand pay the amount not so paid at the place and in the manner specified in this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 11.02. Guaranty Unconditional. The obligations of the Guarantors hereunder are unconditional and absolute and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, will not be released, discharged or otherwise affected by:

- (1) any extension, renewal, settlement, compromise, waiver or release in respect of any obligation of the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, by operation of Law or otherwise;
- (2) any modification or amendment of or supplement to this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (3) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of the Company, or any insolvency, bankruptcy, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting the Company or its assets or any resulting release or discharge of any obligation of the Company contained in this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note;
- (4) the existence of any claim, set-off or other rights which the Guarantors may have at any time against the Company or any other Person, whether in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or any unrelated transactions; provided that nothing herein prevents the assertion of any such claim by separate suit or compulsory counterclaim;
- (5) any invalidity or unenforceability relating to or against the Company for any reason of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Note, or any provision of applicable Law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Company of the principal of or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement; or
- (6) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by the Company or any other Person or any other circumstance whatsoever which might, but for the provisions of this paragraph, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of or defense to the Guarantors' obligations hereunder.

SECTION 11.03. Discharge; Reinstatement. The Guarantors' obligations hereunder will remain in full force and effect until the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes and all other amounts payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement have been paid in full. If at any time any payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Note or any other amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement is rescinded or must be otherwise restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company or otherwise, the Guarantors' obligations hereunder with respect to such payment will be reinstated as though such payment had been due but not made at such time.

SECTION 11.04. Waiver by the Guarantors. Each of the Guarantors irrevocably waives acceptance hereof, presentment, demand, protest and any notice not provided for herein, as well as any requirement that at any time any action be taken by any Person against the Company or any other Person.

SECTION 11.05. Subrogation and Contribution. Upon making any payment with respect to any obligation of the Company under this Article, the Guarantor making such payment will be subrogated to the rights of the payee against the Company with respect to such obligation, limited to the amount of the payment or delivery made by such Guarantor (“Subrogation Rights”). The Guarantor hereby irrevocably agrees that the Subrogation Rights may be used at all times by the Guarantors to set-off amounts owed by the Guarantors to the Guarantor under the Notes and the GOL Senior Secured Notes due 2028.

SECTION 11.06. Stay of Acceleration. If acceleration of the time for payment of any amount payable by the Company under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or judicial or extrajudicial reorganization of the Company, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement are nonetheless payable by the Guarantors hereunder forthwith on demand by the Holders.

SECTION 11.07. Limitation on Amount of Guaranty. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article, each of the Guarantors, and by its acceptance of Notes, each Holder, hereby confirms that it is the intention of all such parties that the Note Guaranty of each Guarantor does not constitute a fraudulent conveyance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law. To effectuate that intention, the Holders and each of the Guarantors hereby irrevocably agree that the obligations of each Guarantor under its respective Note Guaranty are limited to the maximum amount that would not render the Guarantors’ obligations subject to avoidance under applicable fraudulent conveyance provisions of the Laws of Brazil, Luxembourg, the United States Bankruptcy Code or any comparable provision of state law.

SECTION 11.08. Execution and Delivery of Guaranty. The execution by each of the Guarantors of this Note Purchase Agreement on each Closing Date evidences the respective Note Guaranty of each Guarantor, whether or not the person signing as an Officer of such Guarantor still holds that office at the time of execution of any Note.

SECTION 11.09. Release of Guaranty. The Note Guaranty of each of the Guarantors will terminate upon a sale or other disposition (including by way of consolidation or merger) of such Guarantor or the sale or disposition of all or substantially all the assets of such Guarantor (in each case other than to the Company or a Subsidiary) otherwise permitted by this Note Purchase Agreement.

Upon delivery by the Company to the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent of an Officer’s Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all of the conditions provided in this Note Purchase Agreement to the release and termination of the Note Guaranty have been satisfied, the Purchaser will execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company in writing in order to evidence the release of such Guarantor from its obligations under its Note Guaranty.

COLLATERAL AGENT

SECTION 12.01. Appointment. Each of the Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) hereby appoints the Collateral Agent as the agent of such Secured Parties under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which it is a party and authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are expressly delegated to the Collateral Agent by the terms hereof or thereof. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term “agent” herein or in the Collateral Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Collateral Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary duty or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable Law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties. The Company agrees to pay to the Collateral Agent such fees and expenses (including counsels’ fees and expenses) of the Collateral Agent as may be separately agreed in writing and pursuant to the terms of Section 12.04. For the avoidance of any doubt and for the purposes of this Article 12, this Note Purchase Agreement shall prevail in the case of any conflicts between any Collateral Document and this Note Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 12.02. Exculpatory Provisions. (a) The Collateral Agent shall have no duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, and no duty, liability or obligation shall be inferred or implied against the Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, (i) the Collateral Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duty, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and persists; (ii) the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to perform any discretionary act or exercise any discretionary powers (by consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval, notice, request or other communication, or other instruction given or act to be performed or to be (or not) suffered or omitted by the Collateral Agent, or any option, decision, opinion, acceptance, exercise of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other discretionary exercise, rights or remedies to be exercised (or not) by the Collateral Agent); (iii) except as expressly provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party, the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the non-disclosure of, any information concerning the Company or any Guarantor or any of their Subsidiaries which is communicated to or obtained by the Collateral Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity; and (iv) the Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to perform any act which, in its opinion or in the opinion of its attorney, may expose the Collateral Agent to liability or otherwise contrary to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or applicable Law, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any act that may be in violation of automatic suspension under any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect or that may cause the Company's assets to lapse, change or be closed in violation of any bankruptcy, insolvency, judicial or extrajudicial reorganization, judicial liquidation or similar federal, state or foreign Law, current or thereafter in effect.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the written consent or at the written request, written instruction or written direction of the Purchaser, the Majority Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders (or such other requisite percentage of Holders as may be specified), as applicable, or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment.

(c) The Collateral Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Event of Default, unless and until written notice by the Purchaser (a copy of which shall be delivered by the Purchaser to the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders) describing such event is received by a Responsible Officer of the Collateral Agent, referring to this Note Purchase Agreement and such Default or Event of Default.

(d) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for or have any duty to prove or investigate, or otherwise have any obligation or liability with respect to, (i) any representation or warranty provided in or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered under or with respect to this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (iii) the performance or fulfillment of any of the obligations, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, efficacy or authenticity of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document, or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Collateral Agent.

(e) The Collateral Agent shall have the right to rely on, and shall not incur any liability for, any notification, request, certificate, consent, representation, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) considered by it to be authentic and having been signed or sent by a competent Person. The Collateral Agent may also rely on any statement given to it verbally or by telephone and deemed to have been given by the competent Person, and shall not incur any liability for it. The Collateral Agent may consult with counsel, independent auditors and other experts chosen by the Collateral Agent, at the Company's expense, and the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any act performed or not performed by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the advice of any said counsel, auditor or expert.

(f) The Collateral Agent may fulfill any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more subagents appointed by it, at the expense of the Company. The Collateral Agent and any subagent may fulfill any and all of their duties and exercise their rights and powers through their related parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article 12 shall apply to any such subagent as a third-party beneficiary to the extent applicable. The Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the supervision, negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents that it selects with due care.

(g) The Collateral Agent shall not be liable and makes no representation as to the existence, authenticity, value or protection of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents, the security provided hereunder or thereunder or the Collateral, for the legality, effectiveness or sufficiency of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents nor for the creation, formalization, ranking, sufficiency or protection of any Liens constituted under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, no provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to prepare, file or record any financing statements or continuation statements or other instruments or documents, or to be responsible for maintaining the Liens and security interests to be created as described in this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, and such responsibility shall be in charge exclusively of the Company. The Collateral Agent's sole duty with respect to the custody, safekeeping and physical preservation of the Collateral in its possession, if applicable, shall be to deal with it in the same manner as the Collateral Agent deals with similar property for the account of other customers in similar transactions. The Collateral Agent shall be accountable only for amounts that it actually receives as a result of the exercise of its rights and powers.

(h) In order to effect the transfer of any amounts received as a result of the enforcement of the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent may perform a foreign exchange transaction to convert into U.S. Dollars any amount in Reais resulting from such enforcement; except that possible deductions of any commissions or taxes charged on such foreign exchange transactions and/or any other withholding or charge levied on the corresponding payments may be applicable, and upon such deductions, the Collateral Agent will transfer the amounts in U.S. Dollars according to the instructions provided by any Holder. The Collateral Agent (a) will only be obliged to perform any foreign exchange transaction it may undertake as of the second (2nd) Brazilian Business Day after the Brazilian Business Day on which the Collateral Agent receives the applicable instructions and documents to perform such foreign exchange transaction; and (b) will not undertake to perform any foreign exchange transaction or transfer of funds, unless the Collateral Agent has received (i) all documents and information necessary for the remittance of funds in accordance with applicable foreign exchange regulations and (ii) the payment of the respective commissions, fees and expenses. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any losses or damages resulting from possible delays or impediments to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and/or transfer, nor as the impossibility to perform a foreign exchange transaction or transfer. The Collateral Agent shall not assume any liability to any Person with respect to the performance of a foreign exchange transaction and the rates related to any foreign exchange transaction to be performed in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents or with respect to the transfer of any funds as a result thereof.

(i) The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to spend or put at risk any of its own funds or otherwise incur any obligation or liability, financial or otherwise, in performing its duties or exercising its rights under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents.

(j) In no event shall the Collateral Agent be liable for special, indirect, punitive, consequential or unforeseen loss or damage of any nature (including lost profits) regardless of whether the Collateral Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(k) The Collateral Agent shall not incur any obligation for failure to perform any act or duty under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents by reason of any occurrence beyond its control (including any act or provision of any current or future Law, regulation, governmental authorization, any acts of God or war, civil conflict, local or national disturbance or disaster, any act of terrorism or the unavailability of an electronic or mechanical transfer or other transfer or communication resource from the Federal Reserve System or the Central Bank).

(l) The Collateral Agent shall have the right, unilaterally and without notice, to withdraw or fail to comply with any obligation that may result in a violation of sanctions imposed by the United States of America, the European Union, local embargo Laws and the Collateral Agent's internal policies with respect to embargoes ("Embargo Rules"). Violation of the Embargo Rules includes, among others, receiving or transferring funds to any legal entity, country or individual named on the Specially Designated Citizens List of the Office of Foreign Assets Control - OFAC or controlled by legal entities, countries or individuals on that list. The parties expressly agree that the Collateral Agent shall not be liable for the failure to effect and/or delay in the receipt or payment of any amount under the conditions described in this Section 12.02.

(m) Any and all payments by the Company and/or the Guarantors to or for the benefit of the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall be made free and clear, and without deduction, of any taxes, expenses or withholdings of any nature levied by the Brazilian government and/or any of its departments ("Deductions") and any other Taxing Jurisdiction, which taxes, expenses or withholdings shall be borne by the Company. If any Deductions apply to any payment, the Company and/or the Guarantors, as the case may be, will immediately pay to the account indicated by the Collateral Agent the additional amount necessary for the amount paid to the Collateral Agent to be equal to the amount it would have received without the applicable Deductions.

(n) Each Secured Party (other than the Collateral Agent) authorizes and directs the Collateral Agent to enter into the Collateral Documents to which the Collateral Agent is a party on the date hereof on behalf of and for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(o) Notwithstanding any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents to the contrary, before taking or omitting any action to be taken or omitted by the Collateral Agent under the terms of this Note Purchase Agreement or any Collateral Document, the Collateral Agent may seek the written direction of the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely (and shall be fully protected in so relying) upon such direction. The Collateral Agent is not liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in accordance with such direction. If the Collateral Agent requests such direction by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders, as the case may be, with respect to any action, the Collateral Agent is entitled to refrain from such action unless and until the Collateral Agent has received such direction, and the Collateral Agent does not incur liability to any Person by reason of so refraining. If the Collateral Agent so requests, it must first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Purchaser or the Holders, as the case may be, against any and all fees, losses, liabilities and expenses which may be incurred by the Collateral Agent by reason of taking or continuing to take, or omitting, any action directed by the Purchaser or the Majority Holders. Any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents authorizing the Collateral Agent to take any action does not obligate the Collateral Agent to take such action. The Collateral Agent may refuse to perform any duty or exercise any right or power unless it receives indemnity or security satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in performing such duty or exercising such right or power. In the absence of an express statement in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents regarding which Holders shall direct in any circumstance, the direction of the Purchaser (or, if the Purchaser is no longer a Holder, the Majority Holders) shall apply and be sufficient for all purposes.

(p) Whether or not so expressly stated therein, in entering into, or taking (or forbearing from) any action under or pursuant to the Collateral Documents, the Collateral Agent shall have all of the rights, immunities, indemnities and other protections granted to the Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement (in addition to those that may be granted to it under the terms of such other agreement or agreements).

(q) The Collateral Agent shall have no responsibility for interest or income on any funds held by it under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents and any funds so held shall be held uninvested pending distribution thereof.

(r) The Collateral Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the duties or powers vested in it by this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents at the request, order, instruction or direction of the Holders, unless the Holders shall have offered to the Collateral Agent security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent against the costs, expenses and liabilities that might be incurred thereby.

(s) The Collateral Agent may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Company or any Affiliate thereof as if the Collateral Agent were not an attorney-in-fact hereunder and without any duty to account therefore to the Secured Parties.

(t) The Secured Parties understand that the Collateral Agent, acting in its individual capacity, and its Affiliates may engage in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, financing, securities trading, corporate and investment banking and research) (the “Activities”) and may engage in the Activities with or on behalf of one or more of the Company and its respective Affiliates. Furthermore, the Collateral Agent may, in undertaking the Activities, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for its own account or on behalf of others (including the Company and its Affiliates and including holding, for its own account or on behalf of others, equity, debt and similar positions in the Company or its respective Affiliates), including trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, loans or other financial products of the Company or its Affiliates. The Secured Parties understand and agree that in engaging in the Activities, the Collateral Agent may receive or otherwise obtain information concerning the Company or its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its respective obligations hereunder and under the Collateral Documents) which information may not be available to the Secured Parties. The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty to disclose to the Secured Parties or use on behalf of the Secured Parties, nor be liable for the failure to so disclose or use, any information whatsoever about or derived from the Activities or otherwise (including any information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of the Company or any of its Affiliates) or to account for any revenue or profits obtained in connection with the Activities.

(u) The Secured Parties further understand that there may be situations where members of the Collateral Agent's group or their respective customers (including the Company and its Affiliates) either now have or may in the future have interests or take actions that may conflict with the interests of any one or more of the Secured Parties (including the interests of the Secured Parties hereunder and under the Collateral Documents). None of (i) this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, (ii) the receipt by the Collateral Agent of information concerning the Company or any of its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement) or (iii) any other matter, shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including any duty of trust or confidence) owing by the Collateral Agent to any Secured Party including any such duty that would prevent or restrict the Collateral Agent from acting on behalf of customers (including the Company or its Affiliates) or for its own account.

(v) The Secured Parties (other than the Collateral Agent) confirm to the Collateral Agent that each of them (i) possesses such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters so that it is capable, without reliance on such Collateral Agent, of evaluating the merits and risks (including tax, legal, regulatory, credit, accounting and other financial matters) of (x) entering into this Note Purchase Agreement or holding the Notes and (y) taking or not taking actions hereunder or under the Collateral Documents, (ii) is financially able to bear such risks and (iii) has determined that entering into this Note Purchase Agreement is suitable and appropriate for it.

(w) Nothing in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Collateral Documents shall require the Collateral Agent to carry out any "know your customer" or other checks in relation to the Company or any of its Affiliates on behalf of the Secured Parties and the Secured Parties confirm to the Collateral Agent that such Secured Parties are solely responsible for any such checks such Secured Parties are required to carry out and that such Secured Parties may not rely on any statement in relation to such checks made by such the Collateral Agent.

(x) The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely on any written direction, instruction, request, consent or other written communication from the Purchaser or any Holder. The Collateral Agent shall not have any obligation or duty with respect to the identity of any Holder or the amount of any Obligations owing to any such Person. At any time and from time to time, the Collateral Agent may request information from the Holders or the Company as to the identities of the Holders, their respective Notes and the composition and calculation of the Majority Holders or the Supermajority Holders, and the Holders and the Company shall provide such information. The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to fully rely on such information and shall have no duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity or amount of Notes held by any Holder or with respect to the calculation of the Majority Holders, the Supermajority Holders or the unanimous vote of Holders.

(y) The Collateral Agent shall not have any duty, obligation or liability with respect to the identity, calculation or consent or other action of the Abra Holders. Where the consent or other action of the Abra Holders or the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders is required by this

Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall certify to the Collateral Agent that the Company has obtained such consent, or other action, and the Collateral Agent shall be fully entitled to rely on such certification of the Company without any liability.

(z) Before the Collateral Agent acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate of the Company, or an Opinion of Counsel satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, with respect to the proposed action or inaction. The Collateral Agent shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on such certificate or opinion. Whenever in the administration of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents the Collateral Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be provided or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting to take any act hereunder or thereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein or therein specifically described) may, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officer's Certificate delivered to the Collateral Agent, and such certificate, in the absence of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the Collateral Agent, shall be full warrant to the Collateral Agent for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it under the provision of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents upon the faith thereof.

SECTION 12.03. Resignation. Upon at least thirty (30) days' notice, the Collateral Agent may resign at any time as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents by notifying the Purchaser and the Company. Upon any resignation by the Collateral Agent, the Company shall have the right (provided that no Event of Default has occurred and continues) to appoint a successor Collateral Agent or, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Purchaser shall have the right to appoint a successor Collateral Agent. If no successor has been so appointed and has accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the date the Collateral Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the resigning Collateral Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) (a) upon consent (provided that no Event of Default or Default has occurred and continues) of the Company (consent of which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), at the cost and expense of the Company, appoint a successor Collateral Agent or (b) petition any court of competent jurisdiction, at the cost and expense of the Company, for the appointment of a successor Collateral Agent. Whether or not a successor has been appointed, the Collateral Agent's resignation shall become effective in accordance with the Collateral Agent's notice of resignation on the date specified in such notice, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents on such date. Upon acceptance of a successor Collateral Agent of its appointment as Collateral Agent under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents, such successor will succeed and have all rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning Collateral Agent, and the resigning Collateral Agent will be released from its duties and obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents (if not released sooner, as provided above). The fees due by the Company to a successor agent will be the same as those contracted in relation to its predecessor, unless otherwise agreed between the Company and such successor. Any Person into which the Collateral Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any Person resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Collateral Agent shall be a party, or any Person succeeding to the business of the Collateral Agent shall be the successor of the Collateral Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper with any party hereto or any further act on

SECTION 12.04. Fees, Expenses and Indemnification.

(a) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Collateral Agent for its own account fees in the amounts and at the times agreed with the Collateral Agent.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay or reimburse each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent for (1) all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the development, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents and any amendment, waiver, consent or other modification of the provisions hereof and thereof (whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby are consummated), and the consummation and administration of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including all attorney fees and expenses, and (2) all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement, attempted enforcement, or preservation of any rights or remedies under this Note Purchase Agreement or under the Collateral Documents, including all attorney costs and all expenses incurred during any workout, restructuring or negotiations in respect of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents. The foregoing costs and expenses shall include all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Purchaser and Collateral Agent under clause (1) or (2) above and the cost of counsel, independent public accountants and other outside experts so retained. All amounts due under this Section shall be payable within ten Business Days after demand therefore.

(c) Each of the Company and the Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify and hold each of the Purchaser and the Collateral Agent harmless for, from and against any and all damage, loss, liability, cost, claim or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses and including all fees, expenses and costs incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent in connection with any dispute, action, claim or suit brought to enforce the right to indemnification) incurred by the Purchaser and/or the Collateral Agent arising out of or in connection with the execution, delivery or administration of this Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents or any instrument or agreement contemplated hereby or thereby, the performance of the Collateral Agent's duties hereunder or thereunder, and the exercise of each of the Purchaser's and the Collateral Agent's rights hereunder or thereunder including, without limitation, the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability and of complying with any process served upon it or any of its officers in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, except, as applicable, as may result from the Purchaser's or the Collateral Agent's respective willful misconduct or gross negligence (as determined by a final and non-appealable judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction).

(d) To the extent that the Company or the Guarantors for any reason fail to indefeasibly pay any amount required under paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this Section or under the Collateral Documents to be paid by the Company or the Guarantors to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent thereof), the Holders agree to pay to the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) such unpaid amount (including any such unpaid amount in respect of a claim asserted by the Holders); provided that the unpaid amount was incurred by or asserted against the Collateral Agent (or any sub-agent) in its capacity as such.

(e) The provisions in this Article shall survive the termination or satisfaction of this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Collateral Documents, the resignation or removal of the Collateral Agent and the payment of all Notes Obligations.

ARTICLE 13 EXCHANGE OF NOTES

SECTION 13.01. Right to Exchange. Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of this Article 13, the Company and each Holder of a Note shall have the right, at its option, to exchange all or any portion of such Note, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, at any time prior to the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date, at an exchange rate of 840.336 Preferred Shares per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes (the “Exchange Rate”) consisting of an initial exchange rate of 714.286 Preferred Shares per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes as adjusted by the Total Created Value realized prior to the Initial Closing Date (plus cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange) subject to the adjustments set forth in Section 1.01(a) through (e), and in accordance with, the settlement provisions of Section 13.02 (the “Exchange Obligation”). The election of the Company to exchange the Notes shall be subject to satisfaction of the conditions described in Section 1.01(b); provided that (i) the Company or any Holder of the Notes, may only exercise the exchange right under this Section 13.01 if all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes due 2028 have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash to all of the holders of those notes and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Notes that can be exchanged under this Section 13.01 shall be in an amount proportionate to (and be no greater than) the aggregate principal amount of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes that have been converted under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture.

(1) Special Adjustment to Exchange Rate Related to Total Created Value. On the last day of each fiscal quarter following the Initial Closing Date in which the Total Created Value has changed, the Total Created Value (or, for subsequent adjustments, the incremental change to the Total Created Value) shall be added to the Exchange Rate; provided that if for any Exchange Date following the date on which the Total Created Value increased, the Company shall make commercially reasonable efforts to give the applicable Holders the benefit of an increased Exchange Rate as provided under this clause 13.01(1) notwithstanding that the Exchange Date be prior to the last day of the applicable fiscal quarter.

(a) On or after GLAI Going Private Date and prior to the close of business on the Second Business Day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, the Company may require a Holder to surrender all or any portion of a Holder’s Notes for exchange at any time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company and each Holder of a Note shall only have the right to exchange all or any portion of any Note or deliver any Notice of Exchange pursuant to this Section 13.01 on, or following the GLAI Going Private Date if (ii) all obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes due 2028 have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash to all of the holders of those notes and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of Notes that can be exchanged under this Section 13.01(a) shall be in an amount proportionate to (and be no greater than) the aggregate principal amount of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes that have been converted under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture.

(b) Exchange by the Company upon Satisfaction of the Exchange Price Condition. At any time prior to the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date and prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, the Company may require a Holder to surrender all or any portion of a Holder's Notes for exchange at any time during any calendar quarter commencing after the calendar quarter ending on December 31, 2023 (and only during such calendar quarter), if the Last Reported Sale Price of the Preferred Shares for at least 20 Trading Days (whether or not consecutive) during the period of 30 consecutive Trading Days ending on the last Trading Day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter is greater than or equal to 130% of the Exchange Price on each applicable Trading Day (the "Sale Price Condition"). The Company shall provide written notice to the Holders if the Company has elected to exchange the Notes in accordance with this Section 1.01(b) within ten Business Days after the end of the preceding calendar quarter.

(c) Each Preferred Share issued upon an Exchange of any Note will be fully-paid-up newly issued share and will be subject to the terms of the bylaws and any shareholders' agreement in effect on the Exchange Date, and, except as set out therein, will be duly and validly issued, fully paid, non-assessable, free from preemptive rights and free of any lien or adverse claim. Each Holder whose Notes are being converted shall be deemed to irrevocably authorize and instruct GLAI to apply the moneys payable to that Holder in subscribing for Preferred Shares on exchange of the Notes. If the Preferred Shares are then listed on any securities exchange and have been registered on an effective registration statement with the CVM, then the Company will, to the extent practicable, cause each Preferred Share, when delivered upon an exchange of any Note, to be admitted for listing on such securities exchange.

SECTION 13.02. Exchange Procedure; Settlement Upon Exchange

(a) Subject to this Section 1.01(a), upon exchange of any Note, the Company shall pay or cause to be delivered, as the case may be, to the exchanging Holder, in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged, cash ("Cash Settlement"), Preferred Shares, together with cash, if applicable, in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange in accordance with subsection (1) of this Section 13.02 ("Physical Settlement") or a combination of cash and Preferred Shares, together with cash, if applicable, in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange in accordance with subsection (1) of this Section 13.02 ("Combination Settlement"), at its election, as set forth in this Section 13.02.

(1) Except for any exchanges for which the relevant Exchange Date occurs on or after the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date, the Company shall use the same Settlement Method (including the same relative proportion of cash and/or Preferred Shares) for all exchanges with the same Exchange Date, but the Company shall not have any obligation to use the same Settlement Method with respect to exchanges with different Exchange Dates.

(2) If, in respect of any Exchange Date (or one of the periods described in the third immediately succeeding set of parentheses, as the case may be), the Company elects to deliver a notice (the “Settlement Notice”) of the relevant Settlement Method in respect of such Exchange Date (or such period, as the case may be), the Company shall deliver such Settlement Notice to exchanging Holders no later than the close of business on the Trading Day immediately following the relevant Exchange Date (or, in the case of any exchanges for which the relevant Exchange Date occurs on or after the date that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date, no later than the date that is 100 days prior to the Maturity Date). If the Company does not elect a Settlement Method prior to the deadline set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, the Company shall no longer have the right to elect Cash Settlement or Physical Settlement with respect to that Exchange Date and the Company shall be deemed to have elected Combination Settlement in respect of its Exchange Obligation, and the Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes shall be equal to U.S.$1,000. Such Settlement Notice shall specify the relevant Settlement Method and in the case of an election of Combination Settlement, the relevant Settlement Notice shall indicate the Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes. If the Company delivers a Settlement Notice electing Combination Settlement in respect of its Exchange Obligation but does not indicate a Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes in such Settlement Notice, the Specified Dollar Amount per U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes shall be deemed to be U.S.$1,000.

(3) The cash, Preferred Shares or combination of cash and Preferred Shares in respect of any exchange of Notes (the “Settlement Amount”) shall be computed as follows:

(A) if the Company elects to satisfy its Exchange Obligation in respect of such exchange by Physical Settlement, the Company shall cause to be delivered to the exchanging Holder in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate in effect on the Exchange Date (plus cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange);

(B) if the Company elects to satisfy its Exchange Obligation in respect of such exchange by Cash Settlement, the Company shall pay to the exchanging Holder in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged cash in an amount equal to the sum of the Daily Exchange Values for each of the 50 consecutive VWAP Trading Days during the related Observation Period; and consecutive VWAP Trading Days during the related Observation Period (plus cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange) or (y) 10 consecutive VWAP Trading Days, in case the payment relating to the Exchange Obligation is due on or after the GLAI Going Private Date.

(C) if the Company elects (or is deemed to have elected) to satisfy its Exchange Obligation in respect of such exchange by Combination Settlement, the Company shall pay or cause to be delivered, as the case may be, in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes being exchanged, a Settlement Amount equal to the sum of the Daily Settlement Amounts for each of the (x) 50

(4) The Daily Settlement Amounts (if applicable) and the Daily Exchange Values (if applicable) shall be determined by the Company promptly following the last day of the Observation Period. Promptly after such determination of the Daily Settlement Amounts or the Daily Exchange Values, as the case may be, and the amount of cash payable in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange, the Company shall notify the Purchaser of the Daily Settlement Amounts or the Daily Exchange Values, as the case may be, and the amount of cash payable in lieu of any fractional Preferred Shares deliverable upon exchange.

(b) Subject to Section 1.01(e), before the Company or any Holder of a Note shall be entitled to exchange (which exchange is irrevocable) a Note as set forth above, the Company or such Holder, as the case may be, shall (1) complete, sign and deliver an irrevocable notice to the Exchange Agent or the Holder, as the case may be, as set forth in the forms of notices of exchange attached hereto as Error! Reference source not found. and Error! Reference source not found. to the Form of Note, as applicable, (each, a “Notice of Exchange”) at the office of the Exchange Agent and state in writing therein the principal amount of Notes to be exchanged and the name or names (with addresses) to whom such Holder wishes the Preferred Shares to be delivered upon settlement of the Exchange Obligation, (2) surrender such Notes, duly endorsed to the Company or in blank (and accompanied by appropriate endorsement and transfer documents), at the office of the Exchange Agent, (3) if required, furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents and (4) if required by Section 1.01(e), pay all transfer or similar taxes. If more than one Note shall be surrendered for exchange at one time by the same Holder, the Exchange Obligation with respect to such Notes shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes (or specified portions thereof to the extent permitted thereby) so surrendered.

(c) A Note shall be deemed to have been exchanged immediately prior to the close of business on the date (the “Exchange Date”) that the Holder has complied with the requirements set forth in subsection (b) above. The Company shall pay or deliver, as the case may be, the consideration due in respect of the Exchange Obligation on the second Business Day (after the GLAI Going Private Date) or the fifth Business Day (prior to the GLAI Going Private Date) immediately following the relevant Exchange Date (or on the Maturity Date, in the case of any such exchange occurring after the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date), regardless of the Settlement Method elected by the Company. If any Preferred Shares are due to an exchanging Holder, the Company shall cause to be issued, and deliver or cause to be delivered (if applicable) to such Holder, or such Holder’s nominee or nominees, the full number of Preferred Shares to which such Holder shall be entitled in satisfaction of the Company’s Exchange Obligation.

(d) In case any Note shall be surrendered for partial exchange, the Company shall execute and deliver to or upon the written order of the Holder of the Note so surrendered a new Note or Notes in Authorized Denominations in an aggregate principal amount equal to the

unexchanged portion of the surrendered Note, without payment of any service charge by the exchanging Holder but, if required by the Company, with payment of a sum sufficient to cover any U.S. documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax or similar governmental charge required by Law or that may be imposed in connection therewith as a result of the name of the Holder of the new Notes issued upon such exchange being different from the name of the Holder of the old Notes surrendered for such exchange.

(e) If a Holder submits a Note for exchange, the Company shall pay any documentary, stamp or similar issue or transfer tax due on the issuance or delivery of any Preferred Shares upon exchange, unless the tax is due because the Holder requests such Preferred Shares to be issued in a name other than the Holder's name, in which case the Holder shall pay that tax. The Exchange Agent may refuse to deliver the Preferred Shares being issued in a name other than the Holder's name until the Company receives a sum sufficient to pay any tax that is due by such Holder in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence.

(f) Except as provided in Section 13.03, no adjustment shall be made for dividends on any Preferred Shares delivered upon the exchange of any Note as provided in this Article 13.

(g) Upon exchange, a Holder shall not receive any separate cash payment for accrued and unpaid interest, if any, except as set forth below. The Company's settlement of the full Exchange Obligation shall be deemed to satisfy in full its obligation to pay the principal amount of the Note and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including the relevant Exchange Date. As a result, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including, the relevant Exchange Date shall be deemed to be paid in full rather than cancelled, extinguished or forfeited. Upon an exchange of Notes into a combination of cash and Preferred Shares, accrued and unpaid interest will be deemed to be paid first out of the cash paid upon such exchange. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Notes are exchanged after the close of business on a Regular Record Date but prior to the open of business on the immediately following Interest Payment Date, the Holders of such Notes as of the close of business on such Regular Record Date will receive the full amount of interest payable on such Notes on the corresponding Interest Payment Date notwithstanding the exchange. Notes surrendered for exchange during the period from the close of business on any Regular Record Date to the open of business on the immediately following Interest Payment Date must be accompanied by funds equal to the amount of interest payable on the Notes so exchanged on the corresponding Interest Payment Date (regardless of whether the exchanging Holder was the holder of record on the corresponding Regular Record Date); provided that no such payment shall be required (1) for exchanges following the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date; or (2) to the extent of any Defaulted Amounts, if any Defaulted Amounts exist at the time of exchange with respect to such Note. Therefore, for the avoidance of doubt, all Holders of record on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding the Maturity Date, described in the immediately preceding sentence shall receive and retain the full interest payment due on the Maturity Date or other applicable Interest Payment Date regardless of whether their Notes have been exchanged following such Regular Record Date. For the further avoidance of doubt, any accrued and unpaid PIK Interest on the Notes that has been capitalized in accordance with Error! Reference source not found. shall be paid in full for such capitalized amounts as set forth in Section 4.05(e) and shall not be treated as Outstanding principal amount of the Notes for any purposes under this Note Purchase Agreement.

(h) The Person in whose name any Preferred Shares shall be deliverable upon exchange shall be treated by GLAI as a holder of record of such Preferred Shares, for purposes of dividends and distributions in respect of such Preferred Shares, as of the close of business on the relevant Exchange Date (if the Company elects to satisfy the related Exchange Obligation by Physical Settlement) or the last VWAP Trading Day of the relevant Observation Period (if the Company elects to satisfy the related Exchange Obligation by Combination Settlement), as the case may be. Upon an exchange of Notes, such Person shall no longer be a Holder of such Notes surrendered for exchange.

(i) The Company shall not deliver any fractional Preferred Share upon exchange of the Notes and shall instead pay cash in lieu of any fractional Preferred Share deliverable upon exchange based on the Daily VWAP for the relevant Exchange Date (in the case of Physical Settlement) or based on the Daily VWAP for the last VWAP Trading Day of the relevant Observation Period (in the case of Combination Settlement). For each Note surrendered for exchange, if the Company has elected Combination Settlement, the full number of Preferred Shares that shall be delivered upon exchange thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate Daily Settlement Amounts for the relevant Observation Period and any fractional Preferred Shares remaining after such computation shall be paid in cash (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate on the Trading Day immediately before such payment).

SECTION 13.03. Adjustment of Exchange Rate

The Exchange Rate shall be adjusted from time to time if any of the following events occurs, except that the Company shall not make any adjustments to the Exchange Rate if Holders of the Notes participate (other than in the case of a share split or share combination), at the same time and upon the same terms as holders of the Preferred Shares and solely as a result of holding the Notes, in any of the transactions described in this Section 13.03, without having to exchange their Notes, as if they held a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate, multiplied by the principal amount (expressed in thousands) of Notes held by such Holder. For the avoidance of doubt, each Last Reported Sale Price used in the calculation of an adjustment to the Exchange Rate will be expressed in U.S. Dollars, translated, if necessary at the Prevailing Exchange Rate as contemplated in the definition of “Last Reported Sale Price”, in Section 1.01.

(a) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI exclusively issues Preferred Shares as a dividend or distribution on the Preferred Shares, or effects a share split or share combination of the Preferred Shares, the Exchange Rate shall be adjusted based on the following formula:

where,

ER₀ = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date of such dividend or distribution, or immediately prior to the open of business on the Exchange Date of such share split or share combination, as applicable;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date, as applicable;

OS₀ = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date, as applicable, (before giving effect to any such dividend, distribution, share split or share combination); and

OS' = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date, as applicable, after giving effect to such dividend, distribution, share split or share combination.

Any adjustment made under this Section 1.01(a) shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution, or immediately after the open of business on the Exchange Date for such share split or share combination, as applicable. If any dividend or distribution of the type described in this Section 1.01(a) is declared but not so paid or made, the Exchange Rate shall be immediately readjusted, effective as of the date GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to pay such dividend or distribution, to the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared.

(b) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI issues to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) any rights, options or warrants (other than pursuant to a stockholder rights plan, so long as such rights have not separated from the Preferred Shares) entitling them, for a period of not more than 45 calendar days after the announcement date of such issuance, to subscribe for or purchase Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) at a price per Preferred Share (translated, if necessary at the Prevailing Exchange Rate on the Trading Day immediately before the date of announcement of such issuance) that is less than the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares for the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of announcement of such issuance, the Exchange Rate shall be increased based on the following formula:

where,

ER₀ = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such issuance;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

OS₀ = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

X = the total number of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) deliverable pursuant to such rights, options or warrants; and

Y = the number of Preferred Shares equal to (i) the aggregate price payable to exercise such rights, options or warrants (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate), divided by (ii) the quotient of (x) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate) over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of announcement of the issuance of such rights, options or warrants, divided by (y) the number of Preferred Shares then represented by one ADS (in case ADSs are issued).

Any increase made under this Section 1.01(b) shall be made successively whenever any such rights, options or warrants are issued and shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such issuance. To the extent that such rights, options or warrants are not exercised prior to their expiration or the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) are not delivered after the exercise of such rights, options or warrants, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased to the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect had the increase with respect to the issuance of such rights, options or warrants been made on the basis of delivery of only the number of Preferred Shares actually delivered (directly or in the form of ADSs). If such rights, options or warrants are not so issued, or if no such rights, options or warrants are exercised prior to their expiration, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased (effective, in the case of the non-issuance of such rights, options or warrants, as of the date GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to issue such rights, options or warrants) to the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such Ex-Dividend Date for such issuance had not occurred.

For purposes of this Section 1.01(b), in determining whether any rights, options or warrants entitle the holders to subscribe for or purchase Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) at a price per Preferred Share (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) that is less than such average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares for the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of announcement for such issuance (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) and in determining the aggregate offering price of such Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), there shall be taken into account any consideration received by GLAI for such rights, options or warrants and any amount payable on exercise or exchange thereof, the value of such consideration, if other than cash (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate), to be determined by GLAI's Board of Directors.

(c) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI distributes shares of its Capital Stock, evidences of its indebtedness, other assets or property or rights, options or warrants to acquire its Capital Stock or other securities, to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), excluding (i) dividends, distributions or issuances (including share splits) described in Section 1.01(a) or Section 1.01(b), (ii) dividends or distributions paid exclusively in cash described in Section 1.01(d), and (iii) Spin-Offs described below in this Section 1.01(c) (any of such shares of Capital Stock, evidences of indebtedness, other assets or property or rights, options or warrants to acquire Capital Stock or other securities,

$$ER' = ER_0 \times \frac{SP_0}{SP_0 - FMV}$$

where,

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such distribution;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

SP_0 = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares (translated, if necessary, into in U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution; and

FMV = the fair market value (as determined by GLAI’s Board of Directors and translated, if necessary, into in U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) of the Distributed Property with respect to each outstanding Preferred Share (directly or in the form of ADSs) on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such distribution,.

Any increase made under the portion of this Section 1.01(c) above shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution. If such distribution is not so paid or made, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased, effective as of the date GLAI’s Board of Directors determines not to pay or make such distribution, to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such distribution had not been declared. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if “ FMV ” (as defined above) is equal to or greater than “ SP_0 ” (as defined above), or if the difference between “ FMV ” and “ SP_0 ” is less than US$1.00, in lieu of the foregoing increase, each Holder of a Note shall receive from GLAI, in respect of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount thereof, at the same time and upon the same terms as holders of the Preferred Shares, a distribution of cash that, in the determination of GLAI, is comparable as a whole in all material respects with the amount of Distributed Property such Holder would have received had such Holder owned a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate in effect on the Ex-Dividend Date for the distribution. If GLAI’s Board of Directors determines the “ FMV ” (as defined above) of any distribution for purposes of this Section 1.01(c) by reference to the actual or when-issued trading market for any securities, it shall in doing so consider the prices in such market over the same period used in computing the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on, and including, the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution.

With respect to an adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.01(c) where there has been a payment of a dividend or other distribution on the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) of shares of Capital Stock of any class or series, or similar equity interest, of or relating to a Subsidiary, Affiliate or other business unit of GLAI, that are, or, when issued, will be, listed or

$$ER' = ER_0 \times \frac{FMV_0 + MP_0}{MP_0}$$

where,

ER₀ = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the end of the Valuation Period;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the end of the Valuation Period;

FMV₀ = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Capital Stock (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate) or similar equity interest distributed to holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) applicable to one Preferred Share (determined by reference to the definition of “Last Reported Sale Price” as set forth in Section 1.01 as if references therein to Preferred Shares were to such Capital Stock or similar equity interest) over the first 10 consecutive Trading Day period after, and including, the Ex-Dividend Date of the Spin-Off (the “Valuation Period”); and

MP₀ = the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares over the Valuation Period (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate).

Any adjustment to the Exchange Rate under the preceding paragraph shall be made immediately after the close of business on the last Trading Day of the Valuation Period, but shall be given effect as of the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Spin-Off. Because the adjustment to the Exchange Rate shall be made at the end of the Valuation Period with retroactive effect, the Company shall delay the settlement of any exchange of Notes where the Exchange Date (in the case of Physical Settlement) or the final day of the related Observation Period (in the case of Cash Settlement or Combination Settlement) occurs during the Valuation Period. In such event, the Company shall deliver the consideration due upon exchange on the second Business Day immediately following the last Trading Day of the Valuation Period. If such Spin-Off does not occur, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared, effective as of the date on which GLAI’s Board of Directors determines not to consummate such Spin-Off.

For purposes of this Section 1.01(c) (and subject in all respect to Section 13.07), rights, options or warrants distributed by GLAI to all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) entitling them to subscribe for or purchase shares of GLAI’s Capital Stock, including Preferred Shares (either initially or under certain circumstances), which rights, options or warrants, until the occurrence of a specified event or events (“Trigger Event”): (i) are deemed to be transferred with such Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs); (ii) are not exercisable; and (iii) are also issued in respect of future issuances of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), shall be deemed not to have been distributed for purposes of this Section 1.01(c) (and no adjustment to the Exchange Rate under this Section 1.01(c) will be required) until the occurrence of the earliest Trigger Event, whereupon such rights, options or warrants shall be deemed to have been distributed and an appropriate adjustment (if any is required) to the Exchange Rate shall be made under this Section 1.01(c). If any such right, option or warrant, including any such existing rights, options or warrants distributed prior to the date of this Note Purchase Agreement, are subject to events, upon the occurrence of which such rights, options or warrants become exercisable to purchase different securities, evidences of indebtedness or other assets, then the date of the occurrence of any and each such event shall be deemed to be the date of distribution and Ex-Dividend Date with respect to new rights, options or warrants with such rights (in which case the existing rights, options or warrants shall be deemed to terminate and expire on such date without exercise by any of the holders thereof). In addition, in the event of any distribution (or deemed distribution) of rights, options or warrants, or any Trigger Event or other event (of the type described in the immediately preceding sentence) with respect thereto that was counted for purposes of calculating a distribution amount for which an adjustment to the Exchange Rate under this Section 1.01(c) was made, (1) in the case of any such rights, options or warrants that shall all have been purchased without exercise by any holders thereof, upon such final purchase (x) the Exchange Rate shall be readjusted as if such rights, options or warrants had not been issued and (y) the Exchange Rate shall then again be readjusted to give effect to such distribution, deemed distribution or Trigger Event, as the case may be, as though it were a cash distribution, equal to the per Preferred Share purchase price received by a holder or holders of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) with respect to such rights, options or warrants (assuming such holder had retained such rights, options or warrants), made to all holders of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) as of the date of such purchase, and (2) in the case of such rights, options or warrants that shall have expired or been terminated without exercise by any holders thereof, the Exchange Rate shall be readjusted as if such rights, options and warrants had not been issued.

For purposes of Section 1.01(a), Section 1.01(b) and this Section 1.01(c), if any dividend or distribution to which this Section 1.01(c) is applicable also includes one or both of:

- (1) a dividend or distribution of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) to which Section 1.01(a) is applicable (the “Clause A Distribution”); or
- (2) a dividend or distribution of rights, options or warrants to which Section 1.01(b) is applicable (the “Clause B Distribution”),

then, in either case, (1) such dividend or distribution, other than the Clause A Distribution and the Clause B Distribution, shall be deemed to be a dividend or distribution to which this Section 1.01(c) is applicable (the “Clause C Distribution”) and any Exchange Rate adjustment required by this Section 1.01(c) with respect to such Clause C Distribution shall then be made, and (2) the Clause A Distribution and Clause B Distribution shall be deemed to immediately follow the Clause C Distribution and any Exchange Rate adjustment required by Section 1.01(a) and Section 1.01(b) with respect thereto shall then be made, except that, if determined by the Company (I) the “Ex-Dividend Date” of the Clause A Distribution and the Clause B Distribution shall be deemed to be the Ex-Dividend Date of the Clause C Distribution and (II) any Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) included in the Clause A Distribution or Clause B Distribution shall be deemed not to be “outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date or Exchange Date” within the meaning indicated in Section 1.01(a) or “outstanding immediately prior to the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date” within the meaning indicated in Section 1.01(b).

$$ER' = ER_0 \times \frac{SP_0}{SP_0 - C}$$

where,

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such dividend or distribution;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the open of business on such Ex-Dividend Date;

SP_0 = the Last Reported Sale Price of the Preferred Shares on the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such dividend or distribution; and

C = the amount in cash per Preferred Share GLAI distributes (in U.S. Dollars or as converted to U.S. Dollars based on the Prevailing Exchange Rate on the Trading Day immediately before such Ex-Dividend Date) to all or substantially all holders of the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs).

Any adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.01(d) shall become effective immediately after the open of business on the Ex-Dividend Date for the Preferred Shares for such dividend or distribution. If such dividend or distribution is not so paid, the Exchange Rate shall be decreased, effective as of the date GLAI's Board of Directors determines not to make or pay such dividend or distribution, to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such dividend or distribution had not been declared. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if “C” (as defined above) is equal to or greater than “ SP_0 ” (as defined above) or if the difference between “C” and “ SP_0 ” is less than U.S.$1.00, in lieu of the foregoing increase, each Holder of a Note shall receive, for each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes, at the same time and upon the same terms as holders of the Preferred Shares, the amount of cash that such Holder would have received if such Holder owned a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate on the Ex-Dividend Date for such cash dividend or distribution.

(e) If, prior to the GLAI Going Private Date, GLAI or any of its Subsidiaries make a payment in respect of a tender or exchange offer for the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), except for a tender or exchange offer in the context of the GLAI Going Private Process, to the extent that the cash and value of any other consideration included in the payment per Preferred Share (translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) exceeds (i) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the last date on which tenders or exchanges may be made pursuant to such tender or exchange offer (the “Expiration Date”), divided by (ii) the number of Preferred Shares then represented by one ADS (in case ADSs are issued), the Exchange Rate shall be increased based on the following formula:

where,

ER_0 = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the 10th Trading Day immediately following, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date;

ER' = the Exchange Rate in effect immediately after the close of business on the 10th Trading Day immediately following, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date;

AC = the aggregate value of all cash and any other consideration (as determined by GLAI’s Board of Directors), translated to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate, paid or payable for Preferred Shares or ADSs, as the case may be, purchased or exchanged in such tender or exchange offer;

OS_0 = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Expiration Date (prior to giving effect to the purchase of all Preferred Shares accepted for purchase or exchange, or represented by all ADSs accepted for purchase or exchange, as the case may be, in such tender or exchange offer);

OS' = the number of Preferred Shares outstanding immediately after the Expiration Date (after giving effect to the purchase of all Preferred Shares accepted for purchase or exchange, or represented by all ADSs accepted for purchase or exchange, as the case may be, in such tender or exchange offer, without duplication); and

SP' = (i) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of the Preferred Shares (translated, if necessary, into in U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate) over the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date, divided by (ii) the number of Preferred Shares then represented by one ADS (in case ADSs are issued).

Any adjustment to the Exchange Rate under this Section 1.01(e) shall be made at the close of business on the 10th Trading Day immediately following, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date, but shall be given effect as of the open of business on the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date. Because the adjustment to the Exchange Rate shall be made at the end of the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date with retroactive effect, the Company shall delay the settlement of any exchange of Notes where the Exchange Date (in the case of Physical Settlement) or the final day of the related Observation Period (in the case of Cash Settlement or Combination Settlement) occurs during the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date. In such event, the Company shall deliver the consideration due upon exchange on the second Business Day immediately following the last Trading Day of the 10 consecutive Trading Day period commencing on, and including, the Trading Day next succeeding the Expiration Date. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment under this Section 1.01(e) shall be made if such adjustment would result in a decrease in the Exchange Rate. In the event that GLAI or one of its Subsidiaries is obligated to purchase Preferred Shares or ADSs, as the case may be, pursuant to any such tender offer or exchange offer, but GLAI or such Subsidiary is permanently prevented by applicable Law from effecting any such purchases, or all or a portion of such purchases are rescinded, then the Exchange Rate shall again be adjusted to be the Exchange Rate that would then be in effect if such tender offer or exchange offer had not been made or had been made only in respect of the purchases that have been effected.

(f) On and after the GLAI Going Private Date, if there shall occur any increase in the amount or value of the Capital Stock of GLAI as a result of a recapitalization, merger, consolidation, reclassification, redesignation or subdivision of any Capital Stock, allotment or issuance of equity securities, rights, or any other increase of the nominal value of the then issued equity securities by way of capitalisation of profits or reserves, including any share premium account or capital redemption reserve, issuance of any options, warrants or any other rights to subscribe for or purchase equity securities or any securities which by their terms of issue carry (directly or indirectly) rights of conversion into, or exchange or subscription for, or the right to otherwise acquire, any equity securities (or the grant of any such rights in respect of existing securities so issued), any cancellation, purchase or redemption of equity securities or any reduction (including, but not limited to, reduction of the nominal value) or repayment of equity securities by the Company (excluding in respect of any deferred shares), the distribution of Distributed Property, tender or exchange offer for the Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs), conversion or reclassification of equity or like event, then the Exchange Rate shall be adjusted as determined by an Independent Financial Advisor; provided, however, that the Company shall only be required to make an adjustment pursuant to this Section 13.03(f) if such adjustment would result in a change of at least 1% of the Exchange Rate. However, the Company shall carry forward any adjustment that the Company would otherwise have to make and take that adjustment into account in any subsequent adjustment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all such carried forward adjustments shall be made with respect to the Notes (i) in connection with any subsequent adjustment to the Exchange Rate of at least 1% of the Exchange Rate (when such carried-forward adjustments are taken into account), (ii) on the Exchange Date for any Notes, (iii) prior to the close of business on the Exchange Date in respect of any exchange following a replacement of Preferred Shares by Reference Property consisting solely of cash and (iv) on the date the Company sends a Notice of Exchange pursuant to Section 13.01(b).

(g) Notwithstanding this Section 13.03 or any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes, if an Exchange Rate adjustment becomes effective on any Ex-Dividend Date, and a Holder that has exchanged its Notes on or after such Ex-Dividend Date and on or prior to the related Record Date would be treated as the record holder of the Preferred Shares as of the related Exchange Date as described under Section 13.02(h) based on an adjusted Exchange Rate for such Ex-Dividend Date, then, notwithstanding the Exchange Rate adjustment provisions in this Section 13.03, the Exchange Rate adjustment relating to such Ex-Dividend Date shall not be made for such exchanging Holder. Instead, such Holder shall be treated as if such Holder were the record owner of the Preferred Shares on an unadjusted basis and participate in the related dividend, distribution or other event giving rise to such adjustment.

(h) Except as stated herein, the Company shall not adjust the Exchange Rate for the issuance of Preferred Shares or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for Preferred Shares or the right to purchase Preferred Shares or such convertible or exchangeable securities.

(i) In addition to those adjustments required by clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and Error! Reference source not found. of this Section 13.03, and to the extent permitted by applicable Law and subject to the applicable rules of any exchange on which any of GLAI's securities are then listed, the Company from time to time may increase the Exchange Rate by any amount for a period of at least 20 Business Days if GLAI's Board of Directors determines that such increase would be in the Company's and/or GLAI's best interest. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and subject to the applicable rules of any exchange on which any of GLAI's securities are then listed, the Company may (but is not required to) increase the Exchange Rate to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of the Preferred Shares or rights to purchase Preferred Shares in connection with a dividend or distribution of Preferred Shares (or rights to acquire Preferred Shares) or similar event. Whenever the Exchange Rate is increased pursuant to either of the preceding two sentences, the Company shall deliver to the Holder of each Note a notice of the increase at least 15 days prior to the date the increased Exchange Rate takes effect, and such notice shall state the increased Exchange Rate and the period during which it will be in effect.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article 13, the Exchange Rate shall not be adjusted:

(1) upon the issuance of any Preferred Shares pursuant to any present or future plan providing for the reinvestment of dividends or interest payable on GLAI's securities and the investment of additional optional amounts in Preferred Shares under any plan;

(2) upon the issuance of any Preferred Shares or options or rights to purchase those Preferred Shares pursuant to any present or future employee, director or consultant benefit plan or program of or assumed by the GLAI Group;

(3) upon the issuance of any Preferred Shares pursuant to any option, warrant, right or exercisable, exchangeable or convertible security not described in clause (2) of this subsection and outstanding as of the date the Notes were first issued;

(4) for repurchases of Preferred Shares (directly or in the form of ADSs) that are not tender or exchange offers referred to in Section 1.01(e) of this Note Purchase Agreement, including structured or derivatives transactions or pursuant to a repurchase program approved by GLAI's Board of Directors;

(5) solely for a change in the par value of the Preferred Shares; or

(6) for accrued and unpaid interest, if any.

(k) All calculations and other determinations under this Article 13 shall be made by the Company and shall be made to the nearest one-ten thousandth (1/10,000th) of a Preferred Share. In no event shall the Exchange Rate be adjusted such that the Exchange Price will be less than the par value per Preferred Share.

(l) Whenever the Exchange Rate is adjusted as herein provided, the Company shall prepare a notice of such adjustment of the Exchange Rate setting forth the adjusted Exchange Rate and the date on which each adjustment becomes effective and shall deliver such notice of such adjustment of the Exchange Rate to each Holder. Failure to deliver such notice shall not affect the legality or validity of any such adjustment.

(m) For purposes of this Section 13.03, the number of Preferred Shares at any time outstanding shall not include Preferred Shares held in the treasury of GLAI (directly or in the form of ADSs) so long as GLAI does not pay any dividend or make any distribution on Preferred Shares held in the treasury of GLAI (directly or in the form of ADSs), but shall include Preferred Shares issuable in respect of scrip certificates issued in lieu of fractions of Preferred Shares.

SECTION 13.04. Effects of Recapitalizations, Reclassifications and Changes of the Preferred Shares

(a) In the case of:

(1) any recapitalization, reclassification or change of the Preferred Shares (other than changes in par value or resulting from a subdivision or combination);

(2) any consolidation, merger (fusão or incorporação), merger of shares (incorporação de ações) or other combination involving GLAI; or

(3) any sale, lease or other transfer or disposition in one transaction or a series of transactions, including any split-off or spin-off (cisão), to any Person of all or substantially all of the consolidated assets of the GLAI Group, taken as a whole,

in each case, as a result of which the Preferred Shares would be converted into, or exchanged for, stock, other securities, other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) (any such event, a “Specified Corporate Event” and any such stock, other securities, other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) into which the Preferred Shares are converted into or exchanged for, “Reference Property”, and the amount of Reference Property that a holder of one Preferred Share immediately prior to such Specified Corporate Event would have been entitled to receive upon the occurrence of such Specified Corporate Event, a “unit of Reference Property”)), then, prior to or at the effective time of such Specified Corporate Event, the Company, GLAI and/or the successor or purchasing corporation, as the case may be, shall execute, without the consent of the Holders, an amendment permitted under Section 10.01(vii) to this Note Purchase Agreement providing that, at and after the effective time of such Specified Corporate Event, the right to exchange each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes for Preferred Shares shall be changed into a right to exchange such principal amount of Notes for the kind and amount of Reference Property that a holder of a number of Preferred Shares equal to the Exchange Rate immediately prior to such Specified Corporate Event would have been entitled to receive upon such Specified Corporate Event. However, at and after the effective time of the

Specified Corporate Event, (A) the Company or the successor or purchasing company, as the case may be, shall continue to have the right to determine the form of consideration to be paid or delivered, as the case may be, upon exchange of Notes in accordance with Section 13.02 and (B) (I) any amount payable in cash upon exchange of the Notes in accordance with Section 13.02 shall continue to be payable in cash, (II) any Preferred Shares that would have been deliverable upon exchange of the Notes in accordance with Section 13.02 shall instead be deliverable in the units of Reference Property that a holder of that number of Preferred Shares would have received in such Specified Corporate Event and (III) the Daily VWAP shall be calculated based on the value of a unit of Reference Property; provided, however, that if the holders of Preferred Shares receive only cash in such Specified Corporate Event, then (i) the consideration due upon exchange of each U.S.$1,000 principal amount of Notes shall be solely cash in an amount equal to the Exchange Rate in effect on the Exchange Date (as may be increased as described under Section 13.03 of this Note Purchase Agreement), multiplied by the price paid per Preferred Share in such Specified Corporate Event; and (ii) settlement of the Exchange Obligation shall occur on the second Business Day immediately following the Exchange Date.

If the Specified Corporate Event causes the Preferred Shares to be converted into, or exchanged for, the right to receive more than a single type of consideration (determined based in part upon any form of holder election), then (i) the Reference Property into which the Notes will be exchangeable shall be deemed to be based on (x) the weighted average of the types and amounts of consideration received by the holders of Preferred Shares that affirmatively make such an election and (y) if no holders of Preferred Shares affirmatively make such an election, the types and amounts of consideration actually received by the holders of the Preferred Shares and (ii) the unit of Reference Property for purposes of the immediately preceding paragraph shall refer to the consideration referred to in clause (1) thereof attributable to one Preferred Share. The Company shall notify the Purchaser, GLAI and the Exchange Agent (if other than GLAI) of such weighted average as soon as practicable after such determination is made.

Such amendment to this Note Purchase Agreement described in the second immediately preceding paragraph shall provide for anti-dilution and other adjustments that shall be as nearly equivalent as is possible to the adjustments provided for in this Article 13, it being understood that no such adjustments shall be required with respect to any portion of the Reference Property that does not consist of equity (however evidenced) or depositary receipts in respect thereof. If, in the case of any Specified Corporate Event, the Reference Property includes shares of stock, other securities or other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) of a Person other than the Company or a Guarantor or the successor or purchasing corporation, as the case may be, in such Specified Corporate Event, then such other Person, if it is party to such Specified Corporate Event, shall also execute such amendment to this Note Purchase Agreement, and such amendment to this Note Purchase Agreement shall contain such additional provisions to protect the interests of the Holders of the Notes as GLAI's Board of Directors shall reasonably consider necessary by reason of the foregoing.

(b) Neither the Company nor any Guarantor shall become a party to any Specified Corporate Event unless its terms are consistent with this Section 1.01(m). None of the foregoing provisions shall affect the right of a Holder of Notes to exchange its Notes for cash, Preferred Shares or a combination of cash and Preferred Shares, as applicable, as set forth in Section 13.01 and Section 13.02 prior to the effective date of such Specified Corporate Event.

(c) If the Notes become exchangeable for Reference Property, the Company shall notify the Purchaser, GLAI and the Exchange Agent (if other than GLAI).

(d) The above provisions of this section shall similarly apply to successive Specified Corporate Events.

SECTION 13.05. Certain Covenants.

(a) The Company and each Guarantor covenants that all Preferred Shares delivered upon exchange of Notes shall be duly authorized, fully paid and non-assessable and free from all preemptive or similar rights and from all taxes, liens and charges with respect to the issue thereof.

(b) GLAI covenants that, if any Preferred Shares to be provided for the purpose of exchange of Notes hereunder require registration with or approval of any Governmental Authority under any federal or state Law before such Preferred Shares may be validly issued upon exchange, GLAI will, to the extent then permitted by applicable Laws and the rules and interpretations of the CVM, secure such registration or approval, as the case may be.

(c) The Company shall transfer to the Preferred Shares Registrar such Preferred Shares required to be issued, if any, upon exchange of the Notes, together with written delivery instructions (if required by the Preferred Shares Registrar for such Preferred Shares) and any other information or documentation required by the Preferred Shares Registrar in connection with each such issuance, transfer and delivery of Preferred Shares. The Company and each Guarantor covenants to take all actions and obtain all approvals and registrations with respect to the exchange of the Notes for Preferred Shares and the issuance of the Preferred Shares.

(d) The Company and each Guarantor covenants to take all actions, obtain all approvals and registrations, and execute all ancillary documents with respect to the exchange of the Notes for Preferred Shares and the issuance of Preferred Shares (including by means of the issuance of rights, options or warrants to the subscription of such Preferred Shares) pursuant to the exchange terms and conditions of the Exchange Obligation provided in this Note Purchase Agreement. The Company and each Guarantor further covenants that any issuance of rights, options or warrants associated to the subscription of Preferred Shares in the context of fulfilment of the Exchange Obligation pursuant this Article 13 shall reflect the exchange terms and conditions provided in this Note Purchase Agreement, as applicable.

SECTION 13.06. Notice to Holders Prior to Certain Actions

In case of:

(a) any action by the Company, GLAI or one of GLAI's Subsidiaries that would require an adjustment in the Exchange Rate pursuant to Section 13.03 or Section 13.08;

(b) any Specified Corporate Event;

(c) any voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Company, GLAI or any of GLAI's Subsidiaries; or

(d) the GLAI Going Private Process,

then, in each case (unless notice of such event is otherwise required pursuant to another provision of this Note Purchase Agreement), the Company shall cause to be delivered to each Holder, as promptly as possible but in any event at least 20 days prior to the applicable date hereinafter specified, a notice stating the date on which a record is to be taken for the purpose of such action by the Company, GLAI or one of GLAI's Subsidiaries or, if a record is not to be taken, the date as of which the holders of Preferred Shares of record are to be determined for the purposes of such action by the Company, GLAI or one of GLAI's Subsidiaries.

SECTION 13.07. Shareholder Rights Plans. If GLAI has a shareholder's rights agreement or a rights plan in effect upon exchange of the Notes, each Preferred Share, if any, delivered upon such exchange shall be entitled to receive the appropriate number of rights, if any, and the certificates representing the Preferred Shares delivered upon such exchange shall bear such legends, if any, in each case as may be provided by the terms of any such shareholder's rights agreement or rights plan, as the same may be amended from time to time.

SECTION 13.08. Adjustments of Prices. Whenever any provision of this Note Purchase Agreement requires the Company to calculate the Last Reported Sale Prices, the Daily VWAPs, the Daily Exchange Values or the Daily Settlement Amounts over a span of multiple days (including, without limitation, an Observation Period), GLAI's Board of Directors shall make appropriate adjustments to each to account for any adjustment to the Exchange Rate that becomes effective, or any event requiring an adjustment to the Exchange Rate where the Ex-Dividend Date or Expiration Date, as the case may be, of the event occurs at any time during the period when the Last Reported Sale Prices, the Daily VWAPs, the Daily Exchange Values or the Daily Settlement Amounts are to be calculated. For the avoidance of doubt, each Last Reported Sale Price of the Preferred Shares used in the calculation of any adjustment to the Exchange Rate will be expressed in U.S. Dollars (translated, if necessary, to U.S. Dollars at the Prevailing Exchange Rate).

ACTIONS BY HOLDERS

SECTION 14.01. Action by Holders. (a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Note Purchase Agreement to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders or by agents duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Company and, where applicable pursuant to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Guarantors or to the Collateral Agent, as applicable. Such instrument or instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the "Act" of the Holders signing such instrument or instruments.

(b) Whenever in this Note Purchase Agreement it is provided that the Holders of a specified percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes may take any action (including the making of any demand or request, the giving of any notice, consent or waiver or the taking of any other action), the fact that at the time of taking any such action, the Holders of such specified percentage have joined therein may be evidenced by any instrument or any number of instruments of similar tenor executed by Holders in person or by agent or proxy appointed in writing.

(c) Whenever the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, the Company may fix, but shall not be required to, in advance of such solicitation, a date as the record date for determining Holders entitled to take such action. The record date if one is selected shall be not more than fifteen days prior to the date of commencement of solicitation of such action.

SECTION 14.02. Proof of Execution by Holders. When the Company solicits the taking of any action by the Holders of the Notes, proof of the execution of any instrument by a Holder, its agent or proxy, or the Purchaser, shall be sufficient if made in accordance with such reasonable rules as may be prescribed by the Company or in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the Company.

SECTION 14.03. Company-Owned Notes Disregarded. In determining whether the Holders of the requisite aggregate principal amount of Notes have concurred in any direction, consent, waiver or other action under this Note Purchase Agreement, Notes that are owned by the Company, by any Subsidiary thereof or by any of their respective Affiliates shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding for the purpose of any such determination.

SECTION 14.04. Revocation of Consents; Future Holders Bound. At any time prior to (but not after) the evidencing to the Company, as provided in Section 14.01, of the taking of any action by the Holders of the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes specified in this Note Purchase Agreement in connection with such action, any Holder of a Note that is shown by the evidence to be included in the Notes the Holders of which have consented to such action may, by filing written notice with the Company at the Company's Office and upon proof of holding as provided in Section 14.02, revoke such action so far as concerns such Note; provided that to the extent that the consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders was required or otherwise obtained, the prior written consent of the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders shall be required to revoke any such consent. Except as provided in the previous sentence, any such action taken by the Holder of any Note shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders and owners of such Note and of any Notes issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof, irrespective of whether any notation in regard thereto is made upon such Note or any Note issued in exchange or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof.

ARTICLE 15 MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 15.01. Provisions of Purchase Agreement and Notes for the Sole Benefit of Parties and Holders of Notes. Nothing in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes, expressed or implied, shall give to any Person other than the parties hereto and their successors hereunder, the Holders of the Notes and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the holders of the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Notes.

Failure to mail a notice or communication to a Holder or any defect in it shall not affect its sufficiency with respect to other Holders. If a notice or communication is mailed and emailed to a Holder in the manner provided above, it is duly given, whether or not the addressee receives it.

SECTION 15.03. Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel as to Conditions Precedent. Upon any request or application by the Company to the Collateral Agent to take or refrain from taking any action under this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents, the Company shall furnish to the Collateral Agent:

(1) an Officer's Certificate (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of the signers, all covenants and conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement and, if the action involves any of the Collateral Documents, the applicable Collateral Documents relating to the proposed action have been complied with; and

(2) an Opinion of Counsel (which shall include the statements set forth in Section 15.04) stating that, in the opinion of such counsel, all such covenants and conditions precedent have been complied with.

SECTION 15.04. Statements Required in Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel. Each certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a covenant or condition provided for in this Note Purchase Agreement or the Collateral Documents shall include:

(1) a statement that each Person making or rendering such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel has read such covenant or condition and the related definitions;

(2) a brief statement as to the nature and scope of the examination or investigation upon which the statements or opinions contained in such Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel are based;

(3) a statement that, in the opinion of each such Person, such Person has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable such Person to express an informed opinion as to whether or not such covenant or condition has been complied with; and

(4) a statement as to whether or not, in the opinion of each such Person, such covenant or condition has been complied with.

SECTION 15.05. Rules by Registrar, Paying Agent, Exchange Agent and Transfer Agents. The Registrar, the Paying Agent, the Exchange Agent and the Transfer Agent may make reasonable rules for their functions.

SECTION 15.06. Currency Indemnity. U.S. Dollars are the sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by the Company or the Guarantors under or in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties, including damages. Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than U.S. Dollars (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the winding-up or dissolution of the Company or otherwise) by any Person in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Company or the Guarantors in connection with this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties will only constitute a discharge to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to the extent of the U.S. Dollar amount which the recipient is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If that U.S. Dollar amount is less than the U.S. Dollar amount expressed to be due to the recipient, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify such recipient against any loss sustained by it as a result, and if the amount of U.S. Dollars so purchased is greater than the sum originally due to such recipient, such recipient will be deemed to have agreed to repay such excess. In any event, the Company and the Guarantors shall indemnify the recipient against the cost of making any such purchase.

For the purposes of this Section 15.06, it shall be sufficient for the recipient to certify in a satisfactory manner (indicating the sources of information used) that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase of U.S. Dollars been made with the amount so received in that other currency on the date of receipt or recovery (or, if a purchase of U.S. Dollars on such date had not been practicable, on the first date on which it would have been practicable, it being required that the need for a change of date be certified in the manner mentioned above). These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Holder of a Note and shall continue in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due under any Note.

SECTION 15.07. No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent, respectively, under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents or the Notes or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder shall waive and release all such liability. The waiver and release shall be part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

SECTION 15.08. Legal Holidays. In any case where any Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall not be a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Note Purchase Agreement or of the Notes) payment of interest or principal need not be made on such date, but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day with the same force and effect as if made on the Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date; provided that no default interest shall accrue for the period from and after such Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date on account of such delay.

SECTION 15.09. Governing Law. THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES AND THE NOTE GUARANTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Articles 470-1 to 470-19 (inclusive) of the Luxembourg Act on commercial companies of August 10, 1915, as amended, shall not apply in respect of the Notes.

For purposes solely of Article 9 of Brazilian Decree Law No. 4,657, of September 4, 1942, the transactions contemplated hereby have been constituted and proposed outside of Brazil.

SECTION 15.10. Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunities; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York with respect to actions brought against it as a defendant in respect of any suit, action or proceeding or arbitral award arising out of or relating to this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby (a “Proceeding”), and irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may do so under applicable Law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such Proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such Proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably appoints Cogency Global, Inc. (the “Company and Guarantors Process Agent”), with an office at 122 East 42nd Street, 18th Floor, New York, NY 10168, as its authorized agent to receive on behalf of it and its property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding. If for any reason such Person shall cease to be such agent for service of process, each of the Company and the Guarantors shall forthwith appoint a new agent of recognized standing for service of process in the State of New York within 30 days.

(b) Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably appoints the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as its agent to receive, on behalf of itself and its property, service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York. Such service shall be made by delivering by hand a copy of such process to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, in care of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent at the address specified above. Each of the Company and the Guarantors hereby irrevocably authorizes and directs the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to accept such service on its behalf. Failure of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to give notice to the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, or failure of the Company or the Guarantors, as the case may be, to receive notice of such service of process shall not affect in any way the validity of such service on the Company and Guarantors Process Agent, the Company or the Guarantors. As an alternative method of service, each of the Company and the Guarantors also irrevocably consents to the service of any and all process in any such Proceeding by the delivery by hand of copies of such process to the Company or Guarantors, as the case may be, at its address specified in Section 15.02 or at any other address previously furnished in writing by the Company or the Guarantors. Each of the Company and the Guarantors covenants and agrees that it shall take any and all reasonable action, including the execution and filing of any and all documents, that may be necessary to continue the designation of the Company and Guarantors Process Agent above in full force and effect during the term of the Notes, and to cause the Company and Guarantors Process Agent to continue to act as such.

(c) [Reserved]

(d) Exclusively for the purposes of Brazilian law, the Guarantors appoint the Company and Guarantors Process Agent as their agent and attorney-in-fact to receive on behalf of them and their property service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any Proceeding pursuant to articles 653 et. seq. of the Brazilian Law No. 10,406, of January 10, 2022.

(e) Nothing herein shall affect the right of any party (including the Collateral Agent, any other Agent or any Holder) to serve process in any other manner permitted by Law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise bring any claim against any other party or its property in any other court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, in any proceedings anywhere (whether for an injunction, specific performance or otherwise), no immunity (to the extent that it may at any time exist, whether on the grounds of sovereignty or otherwise) from such proceedings, from attachment (whether in aid of execution, before judgment or otherwise) of its assets or from execution of judgment shall be claimed by it or on its behalf or with respect to its assets, except to the extent required by applicable Law, any such immunity being irrevocably waived, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. Each of the Company and the Guarantors irrevocably agrees that, where permitted by applicable Law, it and its assets are, and shall be, subject to such proceedings, attachment or execution in respect of its obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes or the Note Guaranties.

(g) ALL PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVE, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THEY MAY DO SO UNDER APPLICABLE LAW, ALL RIGHTS TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THE NOTES, THE NOTE GUARANTIES OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY.

SECTION 15.11. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements of the Company and the Guarantors in this Note Purchase Agreement, the Notes and the Note Guaranties shall bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. The Notes shall not be assigned by the Purchaser unless (i) the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes shall have been indefeasibly paid in full or (ii) as otherwise may be consented to by the Abra Notes Supermajority Holders.

In the event of a transfer, assignment, novation or amendment of the rights and/or the obligations under this Note Purchase Agreement and any other Transaction Documents, all security interests, guarantees and privileges created under or in connection with the Transaction Documents shall automatically and without any formality be preserved for the benefit of the transferee including the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the trustee under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture for the purpose of the provisions of articles 1278 to 1281 of the Luxembourg Civil Code or any other purposes.

SECTION 15.12. Multiple Originals. The parties may sign any number of copies of this Note Purchase Agreement. Each signed copy shall be deemed an original, but all of them together represent the same agreement. One signed copy is enough to prove this Note Purchase Agreement. The words “execution,” “signed,” “signature,” and words of like import in this Note Purchase Agreement or in any other certificate or document related to this Note Purchase Agreement shall include images of executed signatures transmitted by facsimile or other electronic format (including, without limitation, “pdf”, “tif” or “jpg”) and other electronic signatures (including, without limitation, DocuSign and AdobeSign). The use of electronic signatures and electronic records (including, without limitation, any contract or other record created, generated, sent, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means) shall be of the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as an executed signature or use of a paper-based record-keeping system to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act and any other applicable Law, including, without limitation, any state Law based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act or the Uniform Commercial Code.

SECTION 15.13. Severability Clause. In case any provision in this Note Purchase Agreement or in the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, the parties hereby waive any provision of Law which renders any term or provision hereof invalid or unenforceable in any respect.

SECTION 15.14. Force Majeure. In no event shall the Collateral Agent or any other Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder, or under the Collateral Documents arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, governmental actions, pandemics, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Collateral Agent or such other Agent, as applicable shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

SECTION 15.15. Acknowledgement. Each of the Company and the Guarantors acknowledges that, on the date hereof, the Purchaser has pledged, or will pledge, all of its right, title and interest in the Notes, Notes Obligations and all Collateral therefor, in favor of the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Notes Indenture and the collateral agent under the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes Indenture as collateral to secure the Purchaser’s obligations under the Abra Senior Secured Notes and the Abra Senior Secured Exchangeable Notes.

[FORM OF REVERSE SIDE OF NOTE]

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

1. Purchase Agreement.

Each holder of this security, by accepting the same, agrees to and shall be bound by the provisions hereof and of the Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of [•], 2023, by and among the GOL EQUITY FINANCE, a public limited liability company (société anonyme) incorporated in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 17, Boulevard Raiffeisen, L-2411 Luxembourg, registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Companies (R.C.S.Luxembourg) under number B 224920 (the “Company”), GOL LINHAS AÉREAS INTELIGENTES S.A. (“GLAI”), as guarantor, registrar, transfer agent, exchange agent and paying agent, and GOL LINHAS AÉREAS S.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of GLAI (“GLA” and together with GLAI, the “Guarantors”), each, a corporation (sociedade por ações) organized under the Laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, as guarantors, ABRA GLOBAL FINANCE, an exempted company organized under the Laws of the Cayman Islands, with registered office at Willow House, Cricket Square, 4th Floor, Grand Cayman KY1-9010, Caymen Islands, as purchaser (“Abra Global Finance”), ABRA GROUP LIMITED, a private limited company organized under the Laws of England and Wales, with registered office at 1 Ashley Road, 3rd Floor, Altrincham, Cheshire, United Kingdom, as purchaser (“Abra”, each of Abra and Abra Global Finance being collectively and individually a “Purchaser” or “Holder”) and TMF BRASIL ADMINISTRAÇÃO E GESTÃO DE ATIVOS LTDA., as collateral agent (the “Collateral Agent”), as the same shall be amended from time to time (the “Note Purchase Agreement”). The terms of the Notes include those stated in the Note Purchase Agreement. The Holders of the Notes shall be entitled to the benefit of, be bound by and be deemed to have notice of, all provisions of the Note Purchase Agreement.

Reference is hereby made to the Note Purchase Agreement, the Collateral Documents and all amendments and supplements to each of them from time to time (collectively, the “Note Documents”) for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Guarantors, the Collateral Agent, each other Agent and the Purchaser as Holder of the Notes and the terms upon which the Notes, are, and are to be, executed and delivered. The Purchaser waives all notice of the acceptance of the provisions contained herein and in the Note Documents and waives reliance by such Purchaser upon said provisions. All terms used in this Note that are defined in the Note Purchase Agreement shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Note Purchase Agreement.

The Notes are senior obligations of the Company and the Guarantors, secured by a first priority and perfected Lien in the Collateral. The payment obligations of the Company under the Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to the terms of the Note Guaranties.

The Note Documents impose certain limitations on assets, debts, Restricted Payments, the creation of Lien by the Company, and consolidation, merger, Related-Party Transactions, and certain other transactions involving the Company. In addition, the Note Documents require the maintenance of insurance for the Company, the maintenance of the existence of the Company, the payment of certain taxes and claims and reporting requirements applicable to the Company. The Note Documents also contain provisions related to the Collateral as well as certain assurances, restrictions, and use and possession related to the Collateral.

2. Principal.

Unless previously redeemed, exchanged or purchased and cancelled, the Company promises to pay the Holder hereof the total Outstanding principal amount which shall be repaid in cash in a single installment on the Maturity Date, together with all other amounts owed hereunder with respect thereto (including all accrued and unpaid interest that has not yet been added to the total Outstanding principal amount through the Maturity Date).

3. Interest.

The Notes shall bear interest at an interest rate as follows:

(1) 4.50% per year shall be payable entirely in cash semi-annually in arrears on each Interest Payment Date (“Cash Interest”);

(2) 13.5% per year shall be payable in cash or in kind (“PIK Interest”), at the sole election of the Company, as set forth below; and

(3) GLAI, at its option, may elect to pay in cash all or a portion of any accrued but unpaid PIK Interest on the Outstanding principal amount of the Notes (A) semi-annually in arrears, on each applicable Interest Payment Date or (B) on the Maturity Date; provided that, unless GLAI makes such election to make interest payments in cash, any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date shall not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note; provided, further, that any such PIK Interest payment shall be capitalized automatically on such Interest Payment Date and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of this Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon on the aggregate principal amount of the Notes on each applicable Interest Payment Date in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement.

4. Method of Payment.

Any payments of interest or principal in respect of each Note made on an Interest Payment Date or the Maturity Date shall be made by the Company to the Persons shown on the Register at the close of (a) in the case of interest payments, the Regular Record Date or (b) in the case of principal payment, the fifteenth day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, whether or not a Business Day (each, a “Record Date”); provided that any PIK Interest payments due with respect to the Notes prior to the Maturity Date will not be payable in cash but in kind and the amount of any such interest payment shall, on the Interest Payment Date, be capitalized and automatically added to, and be part of, the Outstanding principal amount of such Note (and shall thereafter constitute principal for all purposes of such Note and the Note Purchase Agreement, and shall accrue interest thereon in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement).

Final payments in respect of any Note shall be made subject only to any fiscal or other Laws and regulations applicable thereto, at the specified offices of any other Paying Agent appointed by the Company, if any.

If at any time insufficient funds are received by and available to the Purchaser to pay fully all amounts of principal and interest then due in cash hereunder, such funds shall be applied (i) first, towards payment of interest then due hereunder and (ii) second, towards payment of principal then due hereunder.

Payment in cash of the principal and premium, if any, of any Note on the Maturity Date shall be made upon presentation and surrender thereof, by wire transfer to the Holder’s Designated Bank Account.

If a Holder fails to designate a Designated Bank Account or such account is unable to accept wire transfers, then all cash payments shall instead be made by U.S. Dollar check drawn on a bank in The City of New York and mailed to the Person entitled thereto at its address as it appears on the Register.

Payment of interest on any Interest Payment Date with respect to any Note shall be made to the Person in whose name such Note is registered on the Regular Record Date immediately preceding such Interest Payment Date, and if in cash, by wire transfer to the Holder’s Designated Bank Account. A designation made by a Holder with respect to its Designated Bank Account shall remain in effect with respect to any future cash payments (including payments with respect to interest, principal, premium, if any, and Additional Amounts) with respect to such Note payable to such Holder. The Company shall pay any administrative costs imposed by banks in connection with making payments by wire transfer.

If any Interest Payment Date in respect of any Note is not a Business Day, the Holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day at such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest (other than accrued interest through the date such amount is paid) or other payment in respect of any such delay.

If the amount of principal or interest which is due on the Notes is not paid in full, the Registrar shall annotate the Register with a record of the amount of interest, if any, in fact paid.

All payments on this Note are subject in all cases to any applicable tax or other Laws and regulations, but without prejudice to the provisions of Paragraph Error! Reference source not found. hereof. Except as provided in Section 7.06 of the Note Purchase Agreement, no fees or expenses shall be charged to the Purchaser in respect of such payments.

5. Ranking and Collateral.

The Notes and Note Guaranties are secured by a first priority Lien over the Collateral, subject to the terms and conditions of the Note Purchase Agreement and the Collateral Documents. The payment obligations of the Company under the Note Purchase Agreement and the Notes are guaranteed by the Guarantors pursuant to the terms of the Note Guaranties.

The Lien over the Collateral granted shall terminate in respect of the Notes on the Stated Maturity, unless through passage of time, acceleration or otherwise there exists Notes Obligations due and payable on that date, in which case the Lien over the Collateral shall terminate as set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement.

6. Registrar, Transfer Agent, Exchange Agent and Paying Agent.

GLAI will initially act as the Registrar, Transfer Agent, Exchange Agent and Paying Agent of the Notes. The Company may appoint and change any Registrar, Transfer Agent, Exchange Agent and Paying Agent in accordance with the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement.

7. No Purchase of Notes by the Company or its Affiliates.

The Company or any of its Affiliates (except for the Purchaser) may at any time repurchase Notes in open market purchases or in negotiated transactions at any price. Any Notes so purchased or acquired may not be resold and shall be cancelled.

8. Denominations.

9. Persons Deemed Owners.

The registered Holder of this Note (except as otherwise required by Law and subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant Regular Record Date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date) may be treated as the owner thereof for all purposes.

10. Company's and Holders' Right to Exchange

Subject to the provisions of Article 13 of the Note Purchase Agreement and other provisions of the Note Purchase Agreement, the Company and each Holder shall have the right to exchange such Holder's Notes at the Exchange Rate specified in the Note Purchase Agreement, as adjusted pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement.

11. Unclaimed Money.

Subject to applicable Law, any money and Preferred Shares held by any Paying Agent (other than GLAI), in trust for the payment of principal of, accrued and unpaid interest on or the consideration due upon exchange of any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, interest or consideration due upon exchange has become due and payable shall be paid to GLAI at the written request of GLAI, or (if then held by GLAI) shall be discharged from such trust; and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter, as an unsecured general creditor, look only to GLAI for payment thereof, and all liability of GLAI as trustee thereof, shall thereupon cease.

12. Amendment; Waiver.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains provisions permitting amendments, supplements and waivers to these Notes and to the Note Purchase Agreement. Such amendments, supplements and waivers shall be conclusive and binding upon the holder of this Note and upon all future holders and owners of this Note and of any Notes issued in conversion or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof, irrespective of whether any notation in regard thereto is made upon this Note or any Note issued in conversion or substitution therefor or upon registration of transfer thereof.

13. Defaults and Remedies.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains certain Events of Default with respect to the Notes and specifies certain remedies, and limitations on remedies, applicable to the Notes.

14. Governing Law.

THE NOTE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, THIS NOTE AND THE NOTE GUARANTIES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

Articles 470-1 to 470-19 of the Luxembourg Act on commercial companies of August 10, 1915 (inclusive), as amended, shall not apply in respect of the Notes.

Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York state or U.S. federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York with respect to actions brought against it as a defendant in respect of any Proceeding and irrevocably accepts for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts.

15. No Recourse Against Others.

No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent under the Notes or any obligations of the Company, the Guarantors or the Collateral Agent under the Note Purchase Agreement or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. By accepting a Note, each Holder waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

ARTICLE 6 INSOLVENCY OR LIQUIDATION PROCEEDINGS

Section 6.01 Financing Issues.

(a) Until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, if Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party shall be subject to any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, then each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that (A) subject to Section 6.01(b), if any Senior Priority Representative or any Senior Priority Secured Party shall desire to consent (or not object) to the sale, use or lease of cash or other collateral or to consent (or not object) to Guarantor's, the Issuer's or any other Credit Party's obtaining financing under Section 363 or Section 364 of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law (any such financing, a "DIP Financing"), it will raise no objection to and will not otherwise contest such sale, use or lease of such cash or other collateral or such DIP Financing and, except to the extent permitted by the proviso in clause (ii) of Section 3.01(a) and Section 6.03, will not request adequate protection or any other relief in connection therewith and (y) any "carve-out" for professional and United States Trustee fees agreed to by the Senior Priority Representatives, (B) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest) any motion for relief from the automatic stay or from any injunction against foreclosure or enforcement in respect of Senior Priority Obligations made by any Senior Priority Representative or any other Senior Priority Secured Party, (C) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest) any lawful exercise by any Senior Priority Secured Party of the right to credit bid Senior Priority Obligations at any sale in foreclosure of collateral, (D) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest) any other request for judicial relief made in any court by any Senior Priority Secured Party relating to the lawful enforcement of any Lien on collateral and (E) it will raise no objection to (and will not otherwise contest or oppose and shall be deemed to have consented to) any order relating to a Disposition of assets of any Credit Party for which any Senior Priority Representative has consented. Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that notice received three Business Days prior to the entry of an order approving such usage of cash or other collateral or approving such financing shall be adequate notice.

(b) Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility agrees that it will not provide, or offer to provide, any DIP Financing to the Issuer unless no Senior Priority Secured Party shall have offered to provide a DIP Financing, or agreed to support a DIP Financing provided by another Person, that would satisfy the terms set forth in this Section 6.01 (the "Subordinated DIP Financing Proposal Condition"). If the Subordinated DIP Financing Proposal Condition is satisfied on or prior to the date of the hearing to approve DIP Financing for the Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party for the Subordinated Secured Parties may propose a DIP Financing, which may be secured by Liens equal or senior in priority to or on a pari passu basis with the Liens securing any of the Senior Priority Debt Facilities, so long as such DIP Financing does not compel the Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party to seek confirmation of a specific plan of reorganization and such DIP Financing does not "roll-up" or require the payment of any of the Subordinated Debt Obligations.

Section 6.02 Relief From The Automatic Stay. Until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that none of them shall seek relief from the automatic stay or any other stay in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or take any action in derogation thereof without the prior written consent of the Senior Priority Representative.

Section 6.03 Adequate Protection. Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that none of them shall object, contest or support any other Person objecting to or contesting (a) any request by any Senior Priority Representative or any Senior Parties for adequate protection, (b) any objection by any Senior Priority Representative or any Senior Parties to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on any Senior Priority Representative's or Senior Priority Secured Party's claiming a lack of adequate protection or (c) the payment of interest, fees, expenses or other amounts of any Senior Priority Representative or any other Senior Priority Secured Party under Section 506(b) or 506(c) of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law. N

Section 6.04 Preference Issues. If any Senior Priority Secured Party is required in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to disgorge, turn over or otherwise pay any amount to the estate of Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party (or any trustee, receiver or similar Person therefor), because the payment of such amount was declared to be fraudulent or preferential in any respect or for any other reason (any such amount, a "Recovery"), whether received as proceeds of security, enforcement of any right of setoff or otherwise, then the Senior Priority Obligations shall be reinstated to the extent of such Recovery and deemed to be outstanding as if such payment had not occurred and the Senior Parties shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement until a Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations with respect to all such recovered amounts. If this Agreement shall have been terminated prior to such Recovery, this Agreement shall be reinstated in full force and effect, and such prior termination shall not diminish, release, discharge, impair or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto. Each Subordinated Representative, for itself and on behalf of each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, hereby agrees that none of them shall be entitled to benefit from any avoidance action affecting or otherwise relating to any distribution or allocation made in accordance with this Agreement, whether by preference or otherwise, it being understood and agreed that the benefit of such avoidance action otherwise allocable to them shall instead be allocated and turned over for application in accordance with the priorities set forth in this Agreement.

Section 6.05 [Reserved].

Section 6.06 No Waivers Of Rights Of Senior Parties. Nothing contained herein shall, except as expressly provided herein, prohibit or in any way limit any Senior Priority Representative or any other Senior Priority Secured Party from objecting in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding or otherwise to any action taken by any Subordinated Secured Party, including the seeking by any Subordinated Secured Party of adequate protection or the asserting by any Subordinated Secured Party of any of its rights and remedies under the Subordinated Debt Documents or otherwise.

Section 6.07 Application. This Agreement, which the parties hereto expressly acknowledge is a "subordination agreement" under Section 510(a) of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law, shall be effective before, during and after the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. All references herein to any Credit Party shall include such Credit Party as a debtor-in-possession and any receiver or trustee for such Credit Party.

Section 6.08 Other Matters.

To the extent that any Subordinated Representative or any Subordinated Secured Party has or acquires rights under Section 363 or Section 364 of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law with respect to any of the collateral, such Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees not to assert any such rights without the prior written consent of each Senior Priority Representative, provided that if requested by any Senior Priority Representative, such Subordinated Representative shall timely exercise such rights in the manner requested by the Senior Priority Representatives (acting unanimously), including any rights to payments in respect of such rights.

Section 6.09 506(c) Claims. Until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred, each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, agrees that it will not assert or enforce any claim under Section 506(c) of Title 11 of the United States Code or any similar provision of any other Bankruptcy Law senior to or on a parity with the Liens securing the Senior Priority Obligations for costs or expenses of preserving or disposing of any collateral.

Section 6.10 Reorganization Securities. If, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, debt obligations of the reorganized debtor secured by Liens upon any property of the reorganized debtor are distributed, pursuant to a plan of reorganization or similar dispositive restructuring plan, on account of both the Senior Priority Obligations and the Subordinated Debt Obligations, then, to the extent the debt obligations distributed on account of the Senior Priority Obligations and on account of the Subordinated Debt Obligations are secured by Liens upon the same assets or property, the provisions of this Agreement will survive the distribution of such debt obligations pursuant to such plan and will apply with like effect to the Liens securing such debt obligations.

RELIANCE; ETC

Section 7.01 Reliance. The consent by the Senior Parties to the execution and delivery of the Subordinated Debt Documents to which the Senior Parties have consented and all loans and other extensions of credit made or deemed made on and after the date hereof by the Senior Parties to Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary shall be deemed to have been given and made in reliance upon this Agreement. Each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, acknowledges that it and such Subordinated Secured Parties have, independently and without reliance on any Senior Priority Representative or other Senior Priority Secured Party, and based on documents and information deemed by them appropriate, made their own credit analysis and decision to enter into the Subordinated Debt Documents to which they are party or by which they are bound, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and they will continue to make their own credit decision in taking or not taking any action under the Subordinated Debt Documents or this Agreement.

Section 7.02 No Warranties Or Liability. Each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, acknowledges

and agrees that neither any Senior Priority Representative nor any other Senior Priority Secured Party has made any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the execution, validity, legality, completeness, collectability or enforceability of any of the Senior Priority Debt Documents, the ownership of any collateral or the perfection or priority of any Liens thereon. The Senior Parties will be entitled to manage and supervise their respective loans and extensions of credit under the Senior Priority Debt Documents in accordance with law and as they may otherwise, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, and the Senior Parties may manage their loans and extensions of credit without regard to any rights or interests that the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties have, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. Neither any Senior Priority Representative nor any other Senior Priority Secured Party shall have any duty to any Subordinated Representative or Subordinated Secured Party to act or refrain from acting in a manner that allows, or results in, the occurrence or continuance of an event of default or default under any agreement with Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary (including the Subordinated Debt Documents), regardless of any knowledge thereof that they may have or be charged with. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties have not otherwise made to each other, nor do they hereby make to each other, any warranties, express or implied, nor do they assume any liability to each other with respect to (a) the enforceability, validity, value or collectability of any of the Senior Priority Obligations, the Subordinated Debt Obligations or any guarantee or security which may have been granted to any of them in connection therewith, (b) any Credit Party's title to or right to transfer any of the collateral or (c) any other matter except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

Section 7.03 Obligations Unconditional. All rights, interests, agreements and obligations of the Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties hereunder shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

- (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Senior Priority Debt Document or any Subordinated Debt Document;
- (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other terms of, all or any of the Senior Priority Obligations or Subordinated Debt Obligations, or any amendment or waiver or other modification, including any increase in the amount thereof, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of the terms of the Senior Priority Indenture or any other Senior Priority Debt Document or of the terms of any Subordinated Debt Document;
- (c) any exchange of any security interest in any collateral or any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether in writing or by course of conduct or otherwise, of all or any of the Senior Priority Obligations or Subordinated Debt Obligations or any guarantee thereof;
- (d) the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding in respect of Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party; or
- (e) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, (i) Guarantor, the Issuer or any other Credit Party in respect of the Senior Priority Obligations or (ii) any Subordinated Representative or Subordinated Secured Party in respect of this Agreement.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.01 Conflicts. Subject to Section 8.18, in the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any Senior Priority Debt Document or any Subordinated Debt Document, the provisions of this Agreement shall govern. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the relative rights and obligations of the Senior Priority Representatives and the Senior Parties (as amongst themselves) with respect to any collateral shall be governed by the terms of the Senior Priority Intercreditor Agreement and in the event of any conflict between the Senior Priority Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the provisions of the Senior Priority Intercreditor Agreement shall control.

Section 8.02 Continuing Nature Of This Agreement; Severability. Subject to Section 6.04, this Agreement shall continue to be effective until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations shall have occurred. This is a continuing agreement of subordination, and the Senior Parties may continue, at any time and without notice to the Subordinated Representatives or any Subordinated Secured Party, to extend credit and other financial accommodations and lend monies to or for the benefit of Guarantor, the Issuer or any Subsidiary constituting Senior Priority Obligations in reliance hereon. The terms of this Agreement shall survive and continue in full force and effect in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

If all or any portion of the Senior Priority Obligations are Refinanced (the "Refinancing Indebtedness"): (i) the Refinancing Indebtedness and all other obligations under the loan documents evidencing such Refinancing Indebtedness (the "Refinancing Documents") shall automatically be treated as Senior Priority Obligations for all purposes of this Agreement, (ii) the Refinancing Documents shall automatically be treated as the Senior Priority Indenture and the other Senior Priority Debt Documents for all purposes of this Agreement and (iii) the agent or purchaser under the Refinancing Documents (the "New Agent") shall be deemed to be the Senior Agent for all purposes of this Agreement. The Subordinated Agent and the Subordinated Representative shall promptly enter into such documents and agreements (including amendments or supplements to this Agreement) as the Issuer, the other loan parties or such New Agent may reasonably request in order to provide to the New Agent the rights and powers contemplated hereby, in each case consistent in all material respects with the terms of this Agreement that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any party hereto in any case shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

Section 8.03 Amendments; Waivers.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies

(b) This Agreement may be amended in writing signed by each Representative (in each case, acting in accordance with the documents governing the applicable Debt Facility); provided that any such amendment, supplement or waiver which by the terms of this Agreement requires the Issuer's consent or which increases the obligations or reduces the rights of Guarantor, the Issuer or any Credit Party, shall require the consent of the Issuer. Any such amendment, supplement or waiver shall be in writing and shall be binding upon the Senior Parties and the Subordinated Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the consent of any Secured Party, any Representative may become a party hereto by execution and delivery of a Joinder Agreement in accordance with Section 8.09 of this Agreement and, upon such execution and delivery, such Representative and the Secured Parties and Senior Priority Obligations or Subordinated Debt Obligations of the Debt Facility for which such Representative is acting shall be subject to the terms hereof.

Section 8.04 Information Concerning Financial Condition Of Guarantor, The Issuer And The Subsidiaries. The Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties shall each be responsible for keeping themselves informed of (a) the financial condition of Guarantor, the Issuer and the Subsidiaries and all endorsers or guarantors of the Senior Priority Obligations or the Subordinated Debt Obligations and (b) all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Senior Priority Obligations or the Subordinated Debt Obligations. The Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties shall have no duty to advise any other party hereunder of information known to it or them regarding such condition or any such circumstances or otherwise. In the event that any Senior Priority Representative, any Senior Priority Secured Party, any Subordinated Representative or any Subordinated Secured Party, in its sole discretion, undertakes at any time or from time to time to provide any such information to any other party, it shall be under no obligation to (i) make, and the Senior Priority Representatives, the Senior Parties, the Subordinated Representatives and the Subordinated Secured Parties shall not make or be deemed to have made, any express or implied representation or warranty, including with respect to the accuracy, completeness, truthfulness or validity of any such information so provided, (ii) provide any additional information or to provide any such information on any subsequent occasion, (iii) undertake any investigation or (iv) disclose any information that, pursuant to accepted or reasonable commercial finance practices, such party wishes to maintain confidential or is otherwise required to maintain confidential.

Section 8.05 Subrogation. Each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, hereby waives any rights of subrogation it may acquire as a result of any payment hereunder until the Discharge of Senior Priority Obligations has occurred.

Section 8.06 Application Of Payments. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments received by the Senior Parties may be applied, reversed and reapplied, in whole or in part, to such part of the Senior Priority Obligations as the Senior Parties, in their sole discretion, deem appropriate, consistent with the terms of the Senior Priority Debt Documents. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Subordinated Representative, on behalf of itself and each Subordinated Secured Party under its Subordinated Debt Facility, assents to any such extension or postponement of the time of payment of the Senior Priority Obligations or any part thereof and to any other indulgence with respect thereto, to any substitution, exchange or release of any security that may at any time secure any part of the Senior Priority Obligations and to the addition or release of any other Person primarily or secondarily liable therefor.

Section 8.07 Additional Credit Parties. Guarantor and the Issuer agree that, if any Subsidiary shall become a Credit Party after the date hereof, they will promptly cause such Subsidiary to become party hereto by executing and delivering an instrument in the form of Annex I. Upon such execution and delivery, such Subsidiary will become a Credit Party hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Credit Party herein. The execution and delivery of such instrument shall not require the consent of any other party hereunder, and will be acknowledged by the Subordinated Representative and the Senior Priority Representative. The rights and obligations of each Credit Party hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Credit Party as a party to this Agreement.

Section 8.08 [Reserved].

Section 8.09 Additional Debt Facilities.

(a) To the extent, but only to the extent, permitted by the provisions of the Senior Priority Debt Documents and the Subordinated Debt Documents, the Issuer, Guarantor or any other Credit Party may incur or issue and sell one or more series or classes of Additional Subordinated Debt (the "Subordinated Class Debt"), which shall be unsecured, if and subject to the condition that the Representative of any such Subordinated Class Debt (each, a "Subordinated Class Debt Representative"), acting on behalf of the holders of such Subordinated Class Debt (such Representative and holders in respect of any Subordinated Class Debt being referred to as the "Subordinated Class Debt Parties"), becomes a party to this Agreement by satisfying conditions (i) through (iii), as applicable, of the immediately succeeding paragraph, and Section 8.09(b). In order for a Subordinated Class Debt Representative to become a party to this Agreement:

(i) such Subordinated Class Debt Representative shall have executed and delivered a Joinder Agreement substantially in the form of Annex II (with such changes as may be reasonably approved by the Senior Priority Representative and such Subordinated Class Debt Representative) pursuant to which it becomes a Representative hereunder, and the Subordinated Class Debt in respect of which such Subordinated Class Debt Representative is the Representative and the related Subordinated Class Debt Parties become subject hereto and bound hereby;

(ii) the Issuer shall have delivered to the Senior Priority Representative an Officer's Certificate stating that the conditions set forth in this Section 8.09 are satisfied with respect to such Subordinated Class Debt and, if requested, true and complete copies

of each of the Subordinated Debt Documents relating to such Subordinated Class Debt, certified as being true and correct by an Authorized Officer of the Issuer; and

(iii) the Subordinated Debt Documents relating to such Subordinated Class Debt shall provide, or shall be amended on terms and conditions reasonably approved by the Senior Priority Representative and such Subordinated Class Debt Representative, that each Subordinated Class Debt Party with respect to such Subordinated Class Debt will be subject to and bound by the provisions of this Agreement in its capacity as a holder of such Subordinated Class Debt.

Section 8.10 Consent To Jurisdiction; Waivers. Each Representative, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties of the Debt Facility for which it is acting, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the exclusive general jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York in the County of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York in the County of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(c) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to such Person (or its Representative) at the address referred to in Section 8.11;

(d) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any other party hereto (or any Secured Party) to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law; and

(e) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 8.10 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

[FORM OF] SUPPLEMENT NO. [●] dated as of [●] to the SUBORDINATION AGREEMENT dated as of [●] (the “Subordination Agreement”), among ABRA GROUP LIMITED, incorporated under the laws of England and Wales with registered number 13926427, as guarantor (“Guarantor”), ABRA GLOBAL FINANCE, incorporated as an exempted company under the laws of the Cayman Islands with registered number 395290, as issuer (the “Issuer”), THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON, a New York banking corporation, as trustee under the Senior Priority Indenture, dated [____], 2023 and [____], 2023, respectively, or any successor thereof, as Trustee under the Subordinated Indenture, and the additional Representatives from time to time a party thereto.

A. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Subordination Agreement.

B. The Credit Parties have entered into the Subordination Agreement. Pursuant to the Senior Priority Indenture Agreement, certain Additional Senior Priority Debt Documents and certain Subordinated Debt Documents, certain newly acquired or organized Subsidiaries of the Issuer are required to enter into the Subordination Agreement. Section 8.07 of the Subordination Agreement provides that such Subsidiaries may become party to the Subordination Agreement by execution and delivery of an instrument in the form of this Supplement. The undersigned Subsidiary (the “New Credit Party”) is executing this Supplement in accordance with the requirements of the Senior Priority Indenture, the Subordinated Debt Documents and Additional Senior Priority Debt Documents.

Accordingly, the Senior Priority Representative and the New Subsidiary Credit Party agree as follows:

SECTION 1. In accordance with Section 8.07 of the Subordination Agreement, the New Credit Party by its signature below becomes a Credit Party under the Subordination Agreement with the same force and effect as if originally named therein as a Credit Party, and the New Credit Party hereby agrees to all the terms and provisions of the Subordination Agreement applicable to it as a Credit Party thereunder. Each reference to a “Credit Party” in the Subordination Agreement shall be deemed to include the New Credit Party. The Subordination Agreement is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

SECTION 3. This Supplement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. This Supplement shall become effective when the Senior Priority Representative shall have received a counterpart of this Supplement that bears the signature of the New Credit Party. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Supplement by facsimile transmission or other electronic method shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Supplement.

SECTION 4. Except as expressly supplemented hereby, the Subordination Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 5. THIS SUPPLEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 6. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Supplement should be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, no party hereto shall be required to comply with such provision for so long as such provision is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, but the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein and in the Subordination Agreement shall not in any way be affected or impaired. The parties hereto shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.
